FIFTH STREET MARKET, LATE EASTERN MARKET.—This splendid Market House, after going through many changes of proprietorship, has at last fallen into the right hands. The butchers and dealers, who have been occupants during the various changes for the last seven years having nor. for the last seven years, having purchased it from Mr. John Rice, and established a company under a charter from the Legislature, called the Fifth Street Market Company, and under the management of their worthy President, Mr. G. Schledt, bids fair to become a permanent institution and one of the fluest a permanent institution, and one of the finest markets in our city or country. It is in one general aspect different from all other markets, in that it is an every day market, instead of having it but two days in the week.

The Company are effecting important changes and improvements in and around the building. and improvements in and around the building, both for comfort, convenience, and use. The unsightly gallery inside, which has obstructed the light from the southern sky, is removed to give increased light and air to the occupants. Ranstead place is to be opened into Fifth street, and the fish market there located is removed to within the building in the eastern end of the market-house, where the fittings up of magnicent marble-top stalls, and other appendages agreeing therewith, make it handsome in appearance and convenient in its arrangements.

agreeing therewith, make it handsome in appearance and convenient in its arrangements for fish purposes, besides being supplied with a sufficiency of water—making it one of the best arranged fish markets in our country.

The opening of Runstead Place as a street will be of very great convenience to the business portion of our city in that quarter, as well as to the farmers attending the market. The dangerous platform or footway on Merchant street is being rapidly filled up, and in a short time some nine or ten feet of it will be added to widen the street, so that persons in wagons or vehicles of any description may enter and retire without inconvenience, as their wishes or business necessities may require. There will be a corrugated iron covering over the sidewalk in front of Fifth street, and will be continued along the whole length of the building on Merchant street.

It is the design of the Company to open the whole market for business purposes on Monday next, July 1, a portion having been separated, or cut off, for the last two years and a half. Per-sons desirous of renting stalls have an opportunity now of selecting a good location. Farmers will find the Fifth Street Market a place of ready sale for the rich products of their farms, and they are cordially invited to participate in

The officers of the Fifth Street Market Company are:—G. Schiedt, President; L. Shuster Boraef, Treasurer; J. M. Robbins, Secretary; Directors—Charles D. Partridge. James L. Brown, Samuel Greer, and George M. Roth, Jr.; Superintendent, N. P. Buckley.

A Burglar.—Sidney Kelley, at a late hour last night, committed burglary by robbing the dwelling of Mr. McKenna, No. 625 Shippen street, of a large amount of wearing apparel. He gained access to the building by a manouvre He gained access to the billing by a mandatyre common to burglars of the second class, in forcing off the heavy shutters from a rear window. This morning he was trying to dispose of his ill-gotten gains at the various shops of "Shylock" individuals on South street, when he was taken in custody by an efficer of the Third District. Alderman Morrow committed him to

THE STOCKTON FAIR, STEAWBERRY FESTIVAL,
AND CONCERTS.—This Fair will close on Saturday night, when all articles remaining unsold will be disposed of at a very low figure.
The stray of useful and fancy articles is very fine, and the strawberries and cream of the best. Each afternoon and evening a favorite Glee Club of Philadelphia will enliven the Fair with a fine selection of popular music. The Kalghn's Point Ferry boat will convey persons to within a few squares of the Stockton P. E. to within a few squares of the Stockton P. E. Chapel. We would advise all who are fond of strawberries and cream to visit this festival.

A NEW FAST FREIGHT LINE,-The North A NEW FAST FREIGHT LINE.—The North Pennsylvania Railroad have just perfected arrangements to forward freight, delivered at their depot, S. E. corner of Front and Noble streets, before 5 P. M., to Wilkesbarre, Mt. Carmel, Mahanoy City, and other stations in Mahanoy and Wyoming Valley, before 11 o'clock A. M. the succeeding day. Mr. Ellis Clark, agent, will give all the desired information.

DAMAGE BY THE STORM .- The bridge over the South river, near Amboy, New Jersey, was washed a way by the storm last night, and the Southern and Western malls are detained at South Amboy. These will be shipped to New York and sent over by the through line to Washington, arriving here this afternoon.

GREAT TEMPERANCE MEETING, at the Sailors' Home, No. 422 South Front street, this evening.
Good speakers and good music. Rev. Phineas Stowe, of Boston, will be there, and other champions of the cause. We advise all temperance men and women to be present.

FOR THE SANSON STREET SUFFERERS.—Thomas T. Mason, Treasurer of the Home Missionary Society, acknowledges the receipt of $5 from Mrs. M. A. G., and $50 from Ebenezer M. E.

Notice to the Public .- We would call especial attention to the card of the Merchants' Union Express Company in another column. The Philadelphia public will see in it something to their advantage.

A tract of two acres Ridge road, below Montgomery avenue, running through to Twenty-sixth street, crossing Twenty-fifth st. and Colombia avenue, $9000.

ROBBERY OF $150 .- The workingmen in the Kensington Puddling and Casting Shops had, by contributions among themselves, succeeded in raising the above amount for the purpose of purchasing ice during the hot summer season.

It was given into their employer's care, who placed it in a box in a small office. Going in one day to pay a bill, a slip of the tongue disclosed to a boy then present where the money was kept. The night following the office was broken into the box moses and all the money. broken into, the box upset, and all the money appropriated. Lately the boy was arrested as accessory to the theft, but no complicity in it being proven upon him be was discharged, and the case is still hid in mystery.

Too WILLING TO AID THE SUPPRERES .- Mr. Thomas Davis was this morning heard before Committing Mogistrate Beitler, on an alleged charge of collecting moneys en false pretenses. It is said that he, with others, made the tour of many of the brokers and banking establishments, stating, with great plausibility, that they were authorized by the Franklin Engine Company to collect moneys in aid of the suffering families of those killed at the late conflagration. This scheme was soon exploded by an officer, who arrested Davis. Alderman Beitler held him in default of $1000 ball, to appear at a hearing to-morrow afternoon. hearing to-morrow afternoon.

A Would-be Horse Thier.—George Halfman was arrested at Ninth and Chesnut streets for very reckless driving, the vehicle he was mana-ging and fast-stepping nag before it coming along at a dashing rate down Ninth street. Officer Jones, after the arrest, ascertained that the horse and wagon had been stolen from the corner of Ninth and Race streets, where their owner had left them while taking a smile. Halfman was held in $1200 ball to answer at Court for his evil intentions.

NOT COMMENDABLE PASTIME. - A large crowd of idlers, young and old, yesterday congregated at the corner of Twenty-third and Wainut streets. The cause thereof was an exciting game of pitching pennies, wherein James Coogan and Barney McGarvey were the chief contestants. This species of gambling, it is well known, is rigidly prohibited in this community. These men were arrested and placed under $400 ball each to appear at court.

AGAIN IN DURESS .- It is asserted that Mary Miller, an old woman, has been up for illegal transactions and petty thefts more than fourscore times. Having no home she has become a common vagrant, living upon what she could steal. She was taken in custody yesterday, in the Twenty-fourth Ward, for the larceny of shoes, stockings, etc. Alderman Maule mitted her to prison.

AN UNBROTHERLY ACT .- It is alleged that Patrick Macnamara stole $20 from his brother yesterday. He broke open the latter's trunk, and confiscated its contents. Upon this allegation Pat was arrested in the Twenty-seventh Ward, and held for a further hearing by Alderman LARCENY. - Frank Hesser was taken custody this morning for being a market thief. It is alleged that he stole a barrel of peas from the Dock street market this morning, deliberately rolled the barrel on his cart, and coolly drove away. Alderman Morrow held him in $500 bail to answer.

WAREROOMS NO. 1103 CHESNUT STREET,

AN OLD FRIEND.-For many years the Press of the country has chronicled the beneficial effects of Hosterten's Stomach Bitters. Editors, authors, physicians, merchants, officers of the army and navy, chemists, counsellors, ministers of the gospel-in short, a great cloud of witnesses of every profession, trade, and calling, have testified to its efficacy as a tonic and regulating medicine. The names and statem. onts of these witnesses have been published in the public prints. Many of them are well known to the whole public. Their testimony has never been challenged or impugued. This has been tried, and pronounced, on the authority of those whose lives and health it has preserved, a pure, harmless, and eminently salutary preparation. Attentpts have been made to rival it. They have failed. There is nothing equal to the enjoyment experienced by the afflicted when using this valuable specific. Its mild tone, its sure and vigorous action upon a disordered stomach, and the cleansing of the entire human body, recommend it to the whole community as a RELIABLE PRIEND.

"WITH FOUR METALLIC QUALIFICATIONS a man may be pretty sure of earthly success. These are gold in his pocket, silver in his tongue, brass in his face, and iron in his heart."

But for a tonic appetizer, and as a gentle stimulant, there is reliable virtue in PLANTATION BITTERS. No article has ever been so popular or done half so much good. Let all who have not already tried this great stomachic, at once test its quality. We understand that the druggists and grocers of this section are selling vast quantities, and that scarcely a family is without it.

MAGNOLIA WATER,-A delightful tellet article, superior to Cologne, and at half the price.

THE BEAUTIFUL ENGRAVINGS presented to those who purchase shares in the Washington Library Company, are now on exhibition at the office of the Company, No. 1225 Chesnut street. Besides receiving an engraving worth fifty per cent. more, at retail, than the money paid, every stockholder participates in the grand distribution of presents, and will certainly receive something, there being no blanks.

LYONS' MAGNETIC INSECT POWDER, for kill ing Fleas, Moths, Roaches, and Bugs. The original and only sure article. Sold by all respectable dealers.

THE GREAT PLAGUE OF HUMANITY Is Scrofula which in all its multiplied forms, whether in that of King's Evil, Enlargement of the Glands or Bones, Goitre, White Swellings, Chronic Rheuor Bones, Goirre, white Sweitings, Chronic Edu-matism, Cancer, Diseases of the Skin or Spine, or of Pulmonary Consumption, emanates from one and the same source, which is a poisonous principle in the human system. Overcome this inherent depravity of the system, and a complete restoration to sound health is pos-sible; for if the cause upon which the disease depends is removed, a cure must of necessity follow, no matter under what form the disease manifests itself. It is because JAYNE'S ALTERATIVE is possessed of this peculiar efficacy, that it is so generally successful in removing so many malignant diseases; it destroys the virus or principle from which they originate, by entering into the circulation and being carried with the blood to the minutest fibres, driving every particle of disease from the system. The best evidence of this may be found in the testimony of those who have tried it, and whose certificates are given at length in Jayne's Medical Almanac, to be had gratis of all agents. Prepared only at No. 242 Chesnut street.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT OF BUCHU.-It is with more than usual earnestness that we call the attention of our many readers and friends to the advertisement in another column of this popular remedy. Earnest are we in so mentioning it, as the concurrent testimony of our scientific physicians, both of Allopathic and Homeopathic practice, and of our able and ex-cellent Druggists, that, as a curative agent for diseases of the kidneys and urinating organs there is nothing to equal it.

It is known to all who have made medicine a study, that Buchu, in some form, has for ages een used as a remedy for the above-men tioned diseases.

SHELLS OF OCEAN .- We would advise our readers to attend the sale of shells—Japanese and Chinese goods—now on exhibition at Scott's Art Gallery, No. 1620 Chesnut street, where they may have an opportunity of obtaining goods at their own prices. The sale will be continued this evening at 734 and to-morrow at 10 o'clock A. M. and 734 P. M. Sale positively without reserve.

SALE OF BOOTS AND SHORS.-The special attention of the trade is called to the large sale of Boots, Shoes, Brogans, Balmorals, etc., to be sold, by catalogue, for cash, to-morrow (Thursday) morning, June 27, commencing at 10 o'clock, by McClelland & Co., successors to Philip Ford & Co., Auctioneers, No. 506 Market

THE TRIAL OF JOHN H. SURRATT.

Proceedings To-day.

Washington, June 2s.—The trial of John H. Surratt was resumed in the Criminal Court this morning. Judge Fisher presiding.

The Court was opened at 10 o'clock. Mr. Carring ion said that before calling up the witnesses he desired to call the attention of the Court to a certain remark that had been made yesterday by the counsel, as reported in the morning papers. The remark referred to was as follows.—"The Court saked if the prosecution had any more witnesses ready."

Mr. Bradley (pointing to the witness-room)—There are half-a dozen witnesses out there in the pentientiary, and have been there all the morning.

Mr. Merrick.—Oh not not in the pentientiary yet, but they will be.

Mr. Carrington said he had heard the remark of Mr. Bradley, but did not deem if necessary to call attention to it at the time, as he supposed it was made in a spirit of humor. He had not heard the remark of Mr. Merrick, but he thought the remarks were insuling to the winnesses, and improper, and be felt it to be his duty to call the attention of the Court to the remarks. When the time comes for arguing the remarks. When the three comes for arguing the remarks when the time comes for arguing the remarks when the three comes for arguing the remark when the time comes for arguing the remarks when the three seems will of course be allowed to the counsel but during the examination of witnesses such remarks are not proper; they reflect upon the character of the witnesses, and should not be tolerated, and he hoped the Court would not allow any such remarks in the future.

Mr. Bradley acknowledged that he made the remark of Mr. Bradley, and supposed it was made in a spirit of pleasantry, but the did not hear the remark of Mr. Merrick said he had made the remark attributed to him a spirit of pleasantry, but mark attributed to him, and said he did it in a spirit of humor.

Mr. Merrick said he had made the remark attributed to him is the same spirit of pleasantry, but since the remark had assumed so serious an aspect he would add that before the trial was over he hoped to make his remark good.

Mr. Carrington—It is not proper thus to reflect upon the character of witnesses.

Judge Etsher said it was not proper to thus reflect upon witnesses by remark.

Mr. Bradley said there were no witnesses in Court at the time.

at the time.

Mr. Merrick said if the counsel chose to consider the remark a serious one, he was willing that it should be taken in a serious aspect.

The subject was then dropped, and James L. Gifford, who was in 1855 the stage carpenter at Ford:s Theatre, was sworn, and examined by Mr. Wilson. The wilness testified to the position of the box occupied by the President on the night of the assassination, its arrangement, the hole made in the wall, etc., and a wooden bar having been exhibited, the wilness recognized it as the bar placed to secure the door of the box.

In answer to a overston by Mr. Bradley, the wilness.

In answer to a question by Mr. Bradley, the witness said he knew Edward Spangler, and saw him on the stage the night of the assassination; does not think he left the stage that night; he was scene-shifter, and had he left, bis absence would have been noticed.

This witness was summoned for the delense as soon as he left the stage that night; left the stage that night; he was scene-shifter, and had he left, his absence would have been noticed.

This witness was summoned for the delense as soon as he left the stand to-day.

George W. Banker was aworn, and examined by Mr. Pierrepont—In 1865 witness was room clerk at the National Hotel. (Book exhibited.) Witness recognized it as the Register of the National Hotel: as well as the National Hotel as well as the National Hotel as well as the Register of the Register in almost every instance, for the purpose of securing his autograph: witness here examined the Register and gave the recorded time of Booth's arrive a and departures, as follows:—Arrived 2th November 18, departed November 18; arrived November 18, departed November 16; arrived December 12 departed 18th; returned December 22d, left again 28th; returned 18th, left again 58th; returned February 22d, and at this time occupied room No. 28 with John H. P. Wentworth and John McCullough; left again February 28th, and returned March 1st; there is no record when he departed after this arrival, but he is recorded as having returned again on March 25th; left April 18t, and returned April 8th, 1855, and occupied room No. 228, and was not again sosent from the house until the assussination. No cross-examination.

The business of the Court was here again retarded for fifteen minutes on account of the witnesses for the prosecution.

The business of the Court was here again retarded for fifteen minutes on account of the witnesses for the prosecution.

Colonel Henry W. Smith was sworn, and examined by Mr. Pierrepoot—Am an officer of the United States Army, and stationed at Vicksburg on duty with the Freedmen's Bureau was in Washington at the time of the assassination, and remained here eighteen months afterwards: I commanded the party that arrested Mrs. Surfatt: I arrested her on Monday, April 17, and arrested Payne at the same time; I was ordered by General Augus to arrest Mrs. Surfatt, and all I found in the house; I proceeded with three men to No. 341 H street, and posted the men about to prevent escane: I went to the house, and after going up the steps I looked in the window, and saw four women sitting together, appärently in close conversation; and I then rang the bell, and some one came to the window and whispered out, "Is that you Kirby?" I replied, "No. It is not Kirby, but it is all right: let me in;" I then went in, and asked the lady who opened the door if she was Mrs. Surfatt, and she repfled she was I then to dher I was ordered to arrest her and all in the house, and I asked her who the ladies were in the parior, and she mentioned the names of Miss Annie Surfatt. Miss Jenkins, and Miss Houora Fitzpatrick; I told the ladies they would have to go with me, and Miss Surfatt then said something about being arrested for such a crime; Mrs. Surfatt put her arms about her daughter's seek and whispered something to her, when Miss Surfatt became quiet; I then told the ladies to get their wrapor fifteen minutes on account of the and whispered something to her, when Miss Surratt became quiet; I then told the ladies to get their wrap-pings, and after this was done. Mrs. Surratt asked permission to say her prayers, as, she said, 'she asked God's blessing on all she did." I told her there was God's blessing on all she did." I told her there was no objection to that: In the meautime I heard some one come in, and I supposed I was going to get Kirby, but when the man came in I found it was Payne: he came in and had a pick upon the shoulder; he first hesitated, and I cocked my pistol and ordered him to come in: I then questioned Payne, and he said he was a laboring man, and had been working about at different places: I asked what brought him there at that hour of the night, and he said he came there to get instructions about digging a drain which Mrs. Surratt had employed him to do that morning; I called Mrs. Surratt, and she denied all know odge of the man, and said she had not employed him.

I saw a colored woman in the house named Susan Ann Jackson.

Ann Jackson.

Question—Did you say anything to her about John Question—Did you say anything to her about John Surratt?

Objected to and the objection sustained Question—Did you question her? Answer—I questioned all I found in the house.
Question—Did you make a written report of the interview?

Objected to and the objection sustained. The witness' recollection was clear and his memory was distinct upon all parts of the interview.

Cross-examined by Mr. Bradley—The witness testified to substant ally the same facts at the trial of the complicators. Did not then testify to what I have stated about Annie Surratt, nor about Mrs. Surratt's asking permission to say her prayers; Payne had on a grey coat and vest, black pants, and an old knit sleeve on his head; do not recollect that Payne made any reply when Mrs. Surratt said she did not know him; Payne was in a chair under the gas fixtures, and Mrs. Surratt stepped cut of the parlor door when I called her, and when I asked her if she recognized him; the gas light was at the time thrown upon Payne's face; he was standing nearly opposite the parlor door.

By Mr. Merrick—The ladies I have named above were in the parlor when I entered. Miss Surratt was on the sofa, Miss Jenkins on a chair, and Miss Fitzpatrick was near the sofa; Miss Surrat and I went in the parlor together after she opened the door; when I told them I came to arrest them Miss Surratt began to cry, and Mrs. Surratt advanced and embraced her; I did not testify to that fact before the Military Commission: I was asked at the Military Commission to state all I remembered.

Question by Mr. Pierrepant—Why did you not state all then? A. Because I was embarrassed, and it escaped my memory.

General U.S. Graut was sworn, and examined by all then? A. Because I was embarrassed, and it escaped my memory.

General U.S. Graut was sworn, and examined by Mr. Pierrepont—I was in command at Vicksburg in the first part of 1863, and during that year.

Question. State when you first saw Jacob Thompson, and under what circumstances?

Mr. Bradtey no ed an exception.

The witness was allowed to proceed, and testified that while he was at Millicen's Bend, in the early part of 1863, one of our pickets brought in a salisout, which was found coming up the river about opposite to where Admiral Porter's flag-ship was lying; witness sent to have the boat brought in, and the boat had a white flag flying, and when the boat was brought in Jacob Thompson was brought upon the flag ship.

had a white fing flying, and when the boat was brought in Jacob Thompson was brought upon the fing-ship.

Q. What did Thompson say?

Mr. Bradley objected, as Thompson was not mentioned on the indicament.

Mr. Pierrepont said they proposed to show Thompson's relations to the enemy. Evidence had been adduced to show Thompson's presence in Canada with money, and they proposed to show that that money was used in this conspiracy. The Coart must suppose that we intend to prove certain facts, and, in offering circumstantial evidence, it cannot all be done at once. Judge Fisher asked if Thompson was indicted as one of the conspirators?

Mr. Pierrepont said he was not by name; but it was stated that other persons unknown were engaged in the conspiracy. The prosecution want to show who Thompson was, and what relation he bore to the Confederacy, and they then expect to show the connection he had with Surratt.

Mr. Merrick asked if the gentleman proposed to prove that Thompson was in the conspiracy to kill the President?

Mr. Pierrepont said he proposed to show now who Jake Thompson was.

Mr. Merrick and he would ask again if it was pro-

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

The Meeting This Morning.

Speech of Hon. F. Jordan. Hon. John Scott, of Huntingdon, Permanent Chairman.

Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc.,

SPECIAL DESPATCH TO EVENING TELEGRAPH.] Williamsport, Pa., June 26.—Until midnight last evening the corridors of the Herdic House were filled to overflowing with delegates, eagerly discussing the approaching Convention. The chances of the different candidates were canvassed, and it was found that Hon. M. R.

canvassed, and it was found that Hon. M. R. Thayer's adherents were more numerous than was supposed at first, so that his friends were quite confident of success.

The principles of the platform were discussed, showing a considerable variance in opinions. One faction were in favor of endorsing Grant as the Republican candidate for the next President, while another were strongly opposed to this, and favored only the endorsement of the coffree of Grant and Sheridan on the Reconstruction problem.

this, and fevored only the endorsement of the course of Grant and Sheridan on the Reconstruction problem.

This morning, unfortunately, a drizzling rain prevailed, but notwithstending this the Court House was completely filled with spectators when the Convention assembled at 10 o'clock.

Hon. Frank Jordan, Secretary of the Commonwealth and Chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, in calling the Convention to order, after the roll of delegates had been called, spoke as follows.—

Beliew-citizens and Gentlemen of the Convention—The time has arrived for the performance of my last official act as Chairman of the State Central Committee. The results of our last campaign were, in the main, satisfactory, and if not so to our advers gives were at least obligatory and conclusive. We elected our gallant standard-bearer Governor of this Commonwealth, sent a delegation to the intional Congress more unanimous for right than any of its predecessors and put a most effectual extinguisher upon a certain recreant Enlied States Senator. The ballot-box deciared unmistackably the continued unwillingness of our people to trust the Rebel sympathizers with the reins of government. Other loyal States united with us in this grand declaration, and the insane and wicked policy of Audrew Johnson and his new allies was overwhelmed by the unprecedented majority of four hundred thousand votes. This was the solemn decision of the sovereign people rendered upon the merits, and from it there can be no appeal save to those who made it, and we unto him that would be dictator or tyrant, and his advisers, who, in their impetent wrath, would endeavor to explain or set aside such a verdict.

"Ewe call upon our representatives to do their duty."

potent wrath, would endeavor to explain or set aside such a verdict.

"We call upon our representatives to do their duty, and execute the popular will as constitutionally declared. (Cheers.) It behooves us to clear all obstructions from the pathway of duty, and to accelerate the grand march of civil liberty. As one of the sovereign people I insist that both our platform and our candidate shall be worthy of our past conflicts and triumphs, and that we take no step backwards. (Applicance.)

This nation has made up its mind that the republic shall be reunited on a platform of Liberty and Justice, To ensure success, Pennsylvania is expected to de her full duly, and in the strength of these principles, convictions, and responsibilities let us fearlessly press onward, confident that there can be no such word as all. General James L. Selfridge, of Northampton, was elected temporary Chairman. On taking the chair, he said it was a compliment to the soldiers of the State to call him to the chair. He referred to that noble soldier, Phil. Sheri-dan, when the Convention rose to its feet and gave three tremendous cheers.

Messrs. McPherson, of Adams, Hitchcock, of Luzerne, and Newlin, of Philadelphia, were ap-

Luzerne, and Newlin, of Philadelphia, were appointed temporary Secretaries.

William B. Mann strongly urged the selection by the Convention itself of a permanent chairman, instead of by a committee, suggesting that John Scott, of Huntingdon, would be the almost unanimous choice. This view was opposed by Mr. Kirkpatrick, of Allegheny, and by Mr. Kunkel, of Harrisburg.

Mr. Mann responded, saying that if we wished to carry the election we must begin right, by submitting to the expressed will of the people.

Hon. John Cessna, of Bedford, supported Mr. Mann's view, earnestly opposing the appointment of a committee, and declaring it time that the precedent of cliques be abolished.

After a long and rambling discussion, the motion to elect a permanent Chairman was lost by a tre vote.

by a tie vote.
Different delegations then proceeded to nomiorganization and resolutions, to consist of one fr. m each Senatorial District.

The members of the Committee on Permanent Organization from the four Philadelphia districts, were Messrs. Nichols, Wetherill, Mann, and Connor; on the Committee on Resolutions, Messrs. Ruddiman, Bolt, Zane, and Jones.
The rules of the House of Representatives of the United States were adopted for the government of the Convention; after which the Convention took a short recess to permit the delibe of the Committees.

On reassembling, while awaiting the reports of the Committees, Thomas M. Marshall, of Alleghany, was called upon for a speech. He urged upon the Convention harmony and unity, and that the candidate should give his outpitors on all subjects affecting the rights of unity, and that the candidate should give his opinions on all subjects affecting the rights of the people and the perpetuity of the Union so clearly that there could be no mistake.

The Committee on Permanent Organization, through John H. Walker, of Erie, Chairman, then reported Hon. John Scott, of Huntingdon, as permanent Chairman, with a Vice-President from each Senatorial District; also a number of secretaries, including those temporarily acting.

Mr. Scott, on taking the chair, neatly expressed his thanks for the unanticipated honor conferred upon him. He thought that in all elections for years to come the position occupied by the candidates during the late Rebellion must be considered. We cannot and ought not to look with indifference upon the views held by judicial officers upon the structure of our Government.

views held by Judicial officers upon the structure of our Government.

The man piaced-in nomination to-day must acknowledge that events have given the answer to many irgal questions. The question will come up to every man's mind, Is it safer to trust the destiny of the Government to the men who saved it, than to turn it over to those who endeavored to destroy it or sympathized with such attempt? Judge Sharswood must carry the burden of Jeremiah Black's opinion as Attorney-General that the Government had not the power to save itself. This opinion has been buried, and now the opinion of another Attorney-General has just been of another Attorney-General has just been buried by Sickles and Sheridan. (Great ap-plause.) Our candidate must be one who accepts the logic of events, and believes that crime is not absolved from its effects by its magnitude or respectability.

The names of fourteen gentlemen were then placed in nomination. Among them were then placed in nomination. Among them were Hou. M. Russell Thayer, nominated by Stacey Brown, of Bucks county, and Judges Allison and Pierce, both of which were afterwards withdrawn.
