ANNIVERSARY OF "THE BECK SCHOOL"-ANNIVERSARY OF "THE BECK SCHOOL"— SKETCH OF THE FIRST FREE SCHOOL IN PHILADELPHIA.—The Subiversary exercises of
"The Beck School" took place yesterday, at the school-house, on Catharine street, above Sixth, in the presence of a large and interested audience. The programme embraced a choice variety, and was carried through with great credit to the scholars and their instructors.
The following portions of the exercises were particularly noticeable, from the efficient manner in which the participants acquitted themselves:—

Readings from Shakespears, by Masters Oscar West, Albert Stephenson, H. Richards, A. Cox. and Andrew and Willam Hamilton, of the Grammar

A Dialogue, by Masters Aaron Shuster and Louis Weilby, of the Secondary School. A Duct, sung by Misses Corinna West and Etta Hall. A Dialogue, by Masters Frank Richards and Harry Douty, of the Secondary School. The song of "The Flower Girl," sung by Miss Min-

The song of "The Flower Girl," sung by Miss Minnia Gill.

The laughable colloquy of "Mrs. Partington's Tea-Party," by Misses May P. Stevenson, Martin Selby, Emily Walters, and Mary Marsden.

Near the close of the exercises, addresses were delivered by Joseph C. Turnpenny, Charles Eilis, and Richard K. Beits, members of the Board of Massessrs, and on the whole, everything passed off in the Marting Sammer.

The Board of Massessrs, and on the whole, everything passed off in the Marting Sammer.

The Board of Massessrs, and on the Walter Sammar schools of the city, and its pupils, by a special act of the Legislature, as cettified and the exclusive control of its own Board of Managers, it originated as early as the year 1795, when a night school was established by the "Philadelphia Society for the Free Instruction of Indigent Boys." The first location of the school is not now known, but in 1801 it was removed to a room in the rear of the Second Precbyterian Church, at the corner of Third and Arch streets, from which it was, in 1801 it was removed to the school-house built by the Society on Walnut streets, above Sixth, sow known as the Lind-gibbour of the school-house built by the Society was removed to the school-house built by the Society was removed the institution has prirom that time to the present the institution has prirom that time to the present the institution has prirom that time to the present the institution of the kind chartered by the Legislature under the corporate title of "The Philadelphia Society for the Establishment and Support of Charity Schools." —Lieutenant Edgar, of the Delaware Harbor Police, in making his midnight trip along the river front discovered, moored closely, and under the protecting station of the Callowhill street wharf, a skiff, loaded with new and old ropes, chains, various iron articles, and twine.
The skiff is painted white, and has a greencolored gunnel. Believing that something was somewhere wrong, he kept close watch, and somewhere wrong, he kept close watch, and finally caught two young men who were loitering around that place, named William Wright and James Gathers. When questioned they equivocated, and refused in the first place to give their right names. One wore an old prison shirt. Alderman Toland held them for a further hearing in default of $600 ball.

GRAND CRLEBRATION ON THE COMING "FOURTH." -Extensive preparations are being made for a grand public demonstration on the "Fourth" at Independence Square. The citizens of Phila-delphia, of all sects and parties, who are inimi-cal to the so-called Sunday rights of the liquor sellers, and are favorable to the preservation of peace and quiet, of temperance and order, and who are determined to uphold and enforce the who are determined to applied and enforce the late legislative enactment, are invited to convene within the "old" square on Thursday morning, at 10 o'clock. The Declaration of Independence will be read, addresses will be delivered by distinguished speakers, and music will enliven and vary the proceedings.

AN ALLEGED LARGENY OF $80 .- Francis Brink has for some time past been in the employ of a grocer established at Fifth and South streets. In summing up his accounts, and comparing them with prior sales and business transac-tions, he was led to believe that some person h ad drawn from his cash drawer small amounts at divers times. Investigating this mysterious procreding, the fact was plain to him that his clerk, Brink, was the individual, and kad taken in all about eighty dollars. He caused his arrest yesterday, and Alderman Hurley held him in $500 bail to answer.

CHANGE OF NAME CONFIRMED .- At the meeting of the Corn Exchange this morning—now Commercial Exchange—the legal change of the name of the institution was announced by the name of the institution was announced by the President, Howard Hinchman, whose proclamation to that effect will be found in another column. Mr. Hinchman also stated that the unavoidable difficulty that has heretofore caused the delay in the erection of the "Chamber of Commerce" is now removed, and that the erection of that splendid edifice will be at once proceeded with.

ANOTHER PHASE OF THE LAW .- Edwin Mc-Bride, the proprietor of a whisky shop at the corner of Cumberland and Cedar streets, was taken in custody by Lieutenant Murray, of the Eighteenth District, for a misdemeanor. A man named Peterman visited his place so frequently, and took so much of the ardent, that it had almost 'destroyed the peace of his little home. His wife requested the saloon-keeper to sell him no more, but this not being comolied with, he was arrested, Alderman Senit held him $600 ball to answer.

SIGN OF PROSPERITY .- The members of the Third Reformed Church, located at Tenth and Filbert streets, resolved that their pastor's salary, after July 1, shall be $3600 per annum-an increase of $800.

an increase of $800.

This church is prospering in things temporal, while it constantly witnesses manifestations of Divine wisdom and goodness. This is evinced by the above commendable action—a result of increasing prosperity and good influence. Many others might do likewise.

ACCIDENT .- This morning several boys were Accident.—This morning several boys were engaged in collecting paper under the hatchway of Messrs, Parham & Work's boot and shoe store, No. 51 N. Third street. Among them was a colored lad, aged about fourteen. He shoved the others to one side, and got directly under the hatchway. Almost immediately after a box containing boots fell from the fourth story, striking the little fellow on the back and knocking him senseless. He came to in a short while, and was takeh home by his father.

INAUGURAL MRETING .- To-morrow afternoon INAUGURAL MIRETING.—To-morrow afternoon the Bethune Hall, corner of Twelfth street and Montgomery avenue, will be thrown open for special services. Addresses will be delivered by Rev. T. De Witt Talmage, Rev. J. H. Suydam, and Rev. Dr. Schenck.

A fine choir, under the direction of Colonel I.W. C. Moore, will perform on this occasion. The new enterprise is under the care of Rev. P. A. Talmage, of the Reformed Dutch Church.

As Accessony .- It will be remembered that An Accessor.—It will be remembered that George Halfman was arrested on Thursday for stealing a horse and wagon. Last evening Edwin Hale was taken in custody at Thirteenth and Spring Garden streets, on the charge of being accessory to that felonious operation. Officer Samuel Cox took him in charge, and Alderman Jones held him, in default of $600 ball, to answer at a further hearing.

Su DAY SCHOOL OF THE FOURTH BAPTIST CHU'LH.—The sunsiversary of the Sunday Seboa and Young People's Association connected with the Fourth Babtist Church was held of Wednesday evening in the church, at the corner of Fitth and Buttonwood streets, the chorus, "Gloria in Excelsis," from Mozart's Twelfth Mass. After prayer by Rev. D. S. Acer, of Rondorough, the opening address ward of the church. Rev. Mr. Spencer followed a pleasing and instructive address to the put in relation to their Sunday School duties. He Kendall Brooks, D. In response to the present tation, the pastor spoke feelingly of the friendly and affectionate relations that had subsisted between Father Beagle and himself during the entire ten years of his pastorate. A large number of other presents were also made to the pastor by the different classes in the school, tendered in a manner that gave full assurance that he should always hold a warm place in that he should always hold a warm better the affectionate remembrances of the people whom he had so long and faithfully served, and from whom he was about to be separted. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, a large and delighted and ce was gathered to witness the exercises. hich were continued until a late hour.

THE BURTON HOMICIDE CORONER'S INVESTI-GATION.—The Corone—sumed the investiga-tion this mornin in the case of Edward & Burton, who was yound badly beaten a Burton, who was found badly beaten a finsensible of fitten, in the cooper sa insensible of 509 Penn street, on the 18 June injuries the same evening.

John Borton sworn—I am the brother of the deceased; I live at No. 630 Brooks street; I identified the body as that of my brother at the Pennsylvania Hospital; was there when he died.

Policeman Samuel Yorder, sworn—Arrested the defendant; he said he hadn't harmed any one or had any spite against any one. I told him so one said he had; he kept saying he hadn't harmed any one, and appeared as if he didn't want to go along; I asked him if he had been down town that day; he said yes; I asked him what time he had got home, and he gave me no definite answer; I then saked a lady labout it, and she said it was 3 o'clock; or after; the lady further said that he must have been drunk, as he came home so; he didn't appear to be diunk, as he came home so: he didn't appear to be excited; examined his clothing at the Station House the next morning; I was not present at the examination.

The jury then rendered their verdict, that the deceased came to his death from blows in-flieted by parties unknown. Patrick Quinn, who had been arrested upon suspicion, was discharged.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY -Last night, between Highway Robbery—Last night, between the hours of 9 and 10 o'clock, Mr. Harmer was passing along Fifth street, near Reed, where there is a large open lot. This is a lonely, dark, out-of-the-way place, just the neighborhood that highway robbers and thieves would infest, and watch for their victims. Mr. Harmer was about to round the corner of those streets, when he heard a rushing behind him, and, turning around faced aix ruffings who streets, when he heard a rushing behind him, and, turning around, faced six ruffians, who caught him, and white some were engaging him in front, a backhanded blow upon the head knocked him down senseless. They proceeded to rifle his pockets of all their valuable contents, appropriating a large wallet well filled and a large silver hunting case watch, and then made off. Mr. Harmer lay upon the sidewalk until early this morning, when he recovered sufficiently to make his way to the covered sufficiently to make his way to the Station House and tell his story. He could identify five forms, but the blackness of the night and the suddenness of the onslaught prevented his seeing their faces.

THE PROGRESS OF THE DOG WAR, -Of late the prosecutors of this enlivening and exhibitating exercise seem to have lost that energy and warlike activity which characterized the commencement of the dog war. We have to record this week the lassooing of but 96; of which number 12 were fortunate—they were poodles—in being redeemed, while 84 underwent all the province which agreedly executation and slow being redeemed, while of anderwent all the horrors which a gradual excoriation and slow boiling could produce. Since but one thousand dollars are appropriated for this work, and fifty cents per head is the reward for each "dorg" that undergoes the latter process, two thousand must be slaughtered before this canine war shall cease. In "Gotham" one thousand three hundred and ninety-six dogs were drowned last STOLE A PUBH-CART .- An old man, named William Johnson, having reached the age of three-score and twelve years, last evening stole a push-cart from Belcher's paper-box manufactory, No. 529 Carpenter street, and wheeled it up to Green street wharf, where he offered it for sale at $10. Officer Hart coming along in the "nick of time," took both auctioneer and cart into custody; Alderman Toland held Johnson in $800 bail to answer at Court.

BURGLARS OPERATING .- Last night burglars gained an entrance to Babbington's tavern, at Fourth and Washington streets, by drilling through the back door and forcing the lock, The inmates, numindful of the burglarious operations going on in their very midst, siept on, while the wide-awake parties appropriated two coats, fifteen silver spoons marked "J. S. M. B.," and a Panama hat.

ROBBERY OF $175,-Early this morning, Mr. John Hildebrandt stepped out of his store, No. 349 North Fifth street, leaving it without any occupant. Some person or persons unknown, who no doubt had been watching for the opportunity, darted in and wrenched the drawer open, appropriating its contents, to the amount of $175.

Handsome Donations were yesterday received by Chief Engineer Lyle; $100 from Messra. Clarke & Booth, per Thomas J. Hemphill, Esq., business manager of the "Wainut" and $100 from Mr. Joseph Jefferson, who closes his very successful engagement at that theatre to night. The use of the "Walnut" was also tendered for a benefit at any time.

House Robbery,—Burglars entered the dwelling of Mr. Exa Bowen, at No. 132 South Eighteenth street, last night, and in the absence of the family, had full away of the premises, ransacking all the rooms, and taking many Washington, June 29.—The trial of John H. Surratt continues to attract immense crowds to the Criminal Court-room, and the marshel and palliffs are horribly bored with applications from persons of both sexes for seats within the bar. The space outside of the berrailing is always uncomfortably crowded, and it is accordingly ignored until it becomes manifest that there are no more vacant places within the bar. Ladies congregate about the doors an hour, and sometimes an hour and a half before the time for the opening of the Court, and many of them endure the close, oppressive air of the Court-room all day long. Members of Congress arriving in the city seem to make the Court-room the first point of interest to visit.

Lewis J. Welchman was recalled, and Mr. Bradley continued the cross-examination.

RAILROAD INES.

Mr. Carrington was about to argue the question, when Mr. Bradley said he would waive the point for the present.

The witness resumed—I met Atzerott in the latter part of January, 1865; about three or four weeks after the first introduction to Booth, and a week after Surratt's return from Port Tobacco; saw Atzerott at Mrs. Surratt's return from Port Tobacco; saw Atzerott at Mrs. Surratt's nearly steen lity; saw him last at Mrs. Surratt's on April 2; have seen Atzerott at the house frequently; never saw him there when Booth was there; Booth was there nearly every day when in the city, and Atzerott together; I saw Mrs. Slater at Mrs. Surratt's in the latter part of March; I saw her there March 25, when she was in a buggy with John Surratt and his mother; at the time I first saw her I don't know what dress she had on, but she wore a veil that came down to her chin; at the Commission I used the word "weak," but I did not say Mrs. Slater was wicked.

Mr. Bradley read from the witness' testimony at the conspiracy trial, where he said Mrs. Slater was at the house in February, and asked if that was correct.

Witness did not remember so testifying.

At this point Judge Fisher was obliged to leave the court room, and upon his return Mr. Carrington said he observed he (Judge Fisher) seemed very sick, and if in order he would suggest an adjournment.

Judge Fisher said he had observed that when he came into Court this morning, and he then told his Honer that he would not press a sitting after 12 o'clock. He was willing the Court should now adjourn however.

The Court then, at 11'30, adjourned until Monday WEST JERSEY RAILROAD (INES FROM Commencing W. MDNESDAY JUFFERY).
