CITY INTELLIGENCE

[POR ADDITIONAL LOCAL ITEMS SEE INSIDE PAGES,] BROOKLYS VETERANS ON THEIR WAY TO PRILLADELPHIA.—At 12 o'clock to-day a portion of the Fourteenth Regiment of the New York State National Guard, of Brooklyn, was to start on a journey to Gettysburg, where it is their intention to celebrate, on the coming "Fourth," the joint anniversary of the national independence and the battle of Gettysburg. They will arrive in West Philadelphia at haif-past 3 o'clock, and will then be tendered a fitting reception by the National Guard, of this city, under the command of General Peter Lyle. After the friendly courtesless of the occasion are gone through with, the "Fourteenth" will be escorted to their quarters at the La Pierre House, the procession marching over the following route:—Over the Schuylkill by the new Girard Avenue Bridge, thence through the Park to Green street, along Green to Twelfth, down Twelfth to Che nut, down Chesnut to Fourth, along Fourth to Walnut, out Walnut to Broad, and up Broad to the La Pierre House.

As the members of the "Fourteenth" are to remain in this city until Wednesday morning, they will, during the short period of their stay, be the recipients of many marked at entions. This evening they will attend the Arch Street Theatre by special invitation of Mrs. Drew, by whom the entire parquet has been set apart for their accommodation.

To-morrow morning they will be reviewed at Independence Hall by his Honor Mayor McMichael, after which they will visit the Union League House, the Guards' Armory, and various other public buildings and institutions. On Wednesday morning, as aiready stated, they will proceed on their journey to the battle-field of Gettysburg.

The "Fourteenth" will be accompanied by the band which was with them during the war, and also by a number of Generals, Colonels, and other officers who rose from their ranks, together with the Mayor of the city of Brooklyn, several members of the City Councils, and a number of prominent gentlemen who are proud to be regarded as their friends. They will likewise bear with them the tattered batt BROOKLYN VETERANS ON THEIR WAY TO PHI-which they carried during the war, and a similar feature will mark the display made by the National Guards of this city, while acting as their escort. There is great propriety in their becoming the guests of the Guards during their sojourn in Philadelphia, as the two regiments sojourn in Philadelphia, as the two regiments fought side by side in the same division, in the following remarkable battles:—Cedar Monntain, Rappahaunock Station, Sulphur Springs, Thoroughfare Gap, Buil Run, Chantilly, South Mountain, Antietam, Fredericksburg, Fitzhugh Lee House, Chancellorsville, Gettysburg, Mine Run, Wilderness, Laurel Hill, Spottsylvania, Guinea Station, Tolapotama, North Anna, Bethesda Church, Cold Harbor, White Oak Swamp, Petersburg, Jerusalem, Plank Road, Weldon Railroad, Poplar Springs, Reams' Station, Hatcher's Run.

The "Fourteenth" was among the first to respond to President Lincoln's call for three months' volunteera; and, on the expiration of their first term, the regiment continued in the service for a further term of three years, acquir-service for a further term of three years, acquiring a splendid reputation for galantry, discipline, and morals. When at last they returned to their homes, aboutsixty of the original members only were left in the ranks to answer the roll-call, the remainder having either been promoted to official positions in other regiments, or laid in their last resting place. Let Philadelphians honor in a becoming manner the remnant of this noble band. ervice for a further term of three years, acquir

As Unprovoked Assault upon Citizens.—
"breegentlemen, well-known citizens, at a late bur on Saturday night were proceeding quietly bug Ninth, near Hace street, and when about pass the corner they were suddenly connied by three individuals, who offensively ignied their progress along the public highly. Attempting to pass on they were startled a shrill whistle, which soon brought from the low salcons and night haunts around about dozen of as ruffianly-appearing and discretiy-acting persons as could be found in the most infected districts of this community. Two I the gentlemen managed to escape, but the hird was belabored with fists, knocked down by a blow from a black-jack, and kicked in the rost brutal manner. Stealing the hat and cane I the wounded man lying upon the sidewalk feeding profusely, the cowardly wretches fied, saring the arrival of the police, who, however, were completely non est. aring the arrival of the police, who, however, were completely non est.

The unfortunate gentleman was finally removed to his residence, and Dr. Levis was summoned to attend him. A surgical examination being made, it was ascertained that the wounds which had been inflicted were very serious, and one, if not two, dangerous. The frontal bone seemed to have been indented by a heavy blow from a black-jack; the parietal bone, it was thought, was fractured; the temple was cut; both cheeks shockingly disfigured and lacerated, and both eyes were injured, one of them very seriously. The neighborhood where this outrage was committed is dangerous for travelling, particularly at late hours of the night. The injured man, last evening, was suffering great agony from his injuries.

No NAME.-Many, many people suffer from they know not what. They are not sick-they are not well. There is no name for it. It is simply weakness-a breaking down of the vital forces. Whatever its causes (and they are innumerable), its symptoms are in the main the same. Among the most prominent are extreme lassitude, loss of appetite, loss of flesh, and great mental depression. Indigestion and a Stomach Cough are also frequent concomitants of this distressing state of body and of mind. The common remark in relation to persons in such a condition is, that they are consumptive. Now, what these unfortunates really want is vigor, vital strength; and, as certainly as dawn succeeds darkness, they can recuperate their systems and regain perfect health by resorting to Hos-TETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS. It is as clear that a life-reviving tonic is required in such cases, as that the dying flame of an empty lamp requires to be revived with a newsupply of oil, Perfectly pure and innocuous, containing nothing but the most genial vegetable extracts, and combining the three grand elements of a stomachic, an alterative, and a genial invigorant. HOSTETTER'S BITTERS are suitable to all constitutions, and are as applicable to the diseases and disabilities of the feebler sex as to those of men.

THE ONE DOLLAR ENGRAVINGS given to those who purchase a single share of stock in aid of the Riverside Institute, are selling at $1.50 at many stores in this city. SCROFULA IS THE PROTRUS OF DISEASES.— Now it develops itself in the flesh, now on the skin, sometimes in the glands, sometimes in the muscles. Its locale in one instance is the throat, in another the eyes, in the third the throat, in another the eyes, in the third the scalp; in fact, there is no portion of the body which may not be the seat of this awful malady. But it can be dislodged from each and all. How? inquires some agonized victim. We answer by the persevering use of Jayne's Alterative. If this is doubted, let the skeptic read the testimonials of those who have been restored to health by its use, and which may be found at length in our Almanac. Prepared only by Dr. D. Continued from Third Edition.

Q. Have you not read it within the last tw. days?
A. Yes, sir, I read it yesterday, but I cannot state what succession I gave the circumstances, became I did not pay special attention to this particular point. In testifying to the Commission relative to Mrs. Surrative conversation with Mr. theyd, or the way to the country. I said Mrs. Surrati leaued forward and whispered in Lloyd's ear; I said on this triat that I could hear the tone of the voice but could no, hear the words, but I think the statement is the same; I did not surrender myssel to the Government when Mr. Stanton said they would have to put me in Carroll Prile to I said I was at the disposal of the Governmen, and they count do with the statement is the country of the Governmen, and they count ow with the disposal of the Governmen, and they count do with the disposal of the Governmen, and they count ow with the disposal of the Governmen, and they count of the with the same; I do not consider myssel in castody when I gave myssel up until I went to Canada, I was always with an officer on the sine; from the time I gave myssel up until I went to the country. Mrs. Souratt brought down an article wrapped up, and I fixed it in the burger. In 1865 I testified that the package felt like swo or three saucers. On Friday I drove up and down the road at Surrattaville saveral times, but I got out of the burger and with the secretary of the same the conspiracy trial Mrs. Lloyd capte of I about the lime after writing the letter for Mrs. Surratt; I do not recollect that I was with Mrs. Surratt; I do not recollect that my burger spring was broken; at the conspiracy trial Mrs. Lloyd and he called attention to the fact that my burger spring was broken; at the conspiracy trial Mrs. Lloyd corne in a burger, but I do know I saw Mr, Lloyd, and he called attention to the fact that my burger spring was broken; at the conspiracy trial Mrs. Lloyd corner what answer; I did not tell Mono's tremember to have conversed with John T. Ford shout Burger; WASHINGTON, July 1.

Judge Fisner said it looked too much like bringing politics into a jury trial, and he would sustain the objection.

The witness was here interrogated as to the remarks made by Mrs. Surratt and Miss Annie Surratt on the night of the assassination, as testified to the other day, and he acknowledged that he did not testify to those facts before the Military Commission: I have since recollected these facts more ctearly, and have written them down in my statement: I did not say that Mrs. Surratt asked me to pray for her intentions; after the detectives had gone she asked me to do so; before the assassination, I noticed airs. Surratt was nervous, and she asked me about the torchlight procession and then seked me to pray for her intentions: the words were uttered in a tone loud enough for all in parior to hear them; I was at supper when I heard the lootsteps on the steps as I have described them when I went up stairs: I found Mrs. Surratt in the parior and I don't remember whether she left the room or not; I went to bed a few minutes before ten that night; Mrs. Surratt did not go down stairs that I remember: I did not see her leave the room on that night; no one that I know of went in the basement door; I don't remember if Mrs. Surratt was absent on April at I saw John H. Surratt in the evening of April 3 with John H. Surratt; Surratt was in the parior; I don't remember whether Surratt was absent on April at I saw John H. Q. Why did you tell it now, then? A. Because you drew it out of me, and because I have been hunted down and persecuted for the last two years on account of these people.

Mr. Bradley-I did not ask anything to induce you to make a volunteer statement.

The witness resumed, and, in answer to a question, said he had a slight acquaintance with Mr. Carlin, and saw Mr. Carlin and Mr. Brophy together, I don't remember telling Brophy that I would never have testified if Captain Gleason had not betrayed me; I con't remember telling Brophy that I would not have done so if the detective had not compelled me; that is simply an absurdity, and you will be satisfied that it is before you are done with this trial.

Mr. Bradley-Well, suppose you let the counsel attend to that, and give the facts.

The witness resumed-I did not tell Mr. Brophy that Mrs. Surratt had said that she was going to find out what Booth and the other men were doing there, and she took John in the parlor, and when I asked Mrs. Surratt afterwards she said John was engaged in a cotton speculation; I did not tell Howell, the blockade-runner, that I might have told Howell that my sympathies were with the South, because I often talked secesh with such fellows for buncome; before the war any one would have been pleased to associate with Mr. Hollahan was released before I was.

At 12 o'clock the Court took a recess for half an hour.
