Associate Judge C. C. P.—At a meeting of the members of the Philadelphia bar, irrespec-tive of party, held in the Supreme Court-room on the 2d of July, 1867, Ell K. Price, Esq., was called to the chair, and James E. Gowen was appointed Secretary. On motion of Horatio Hubbell, Esq., seconded by Samuel C. Perkins, Esq., and after remarks by Horatio Hubbell, Samuel C. Perkins, John S. Collohan, Samuel G. Thompson, Henry C. Townsend, and Samuel H. Perkins, Esq., the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted — Resolved. That in the ensuing election for an Associate Judge of the Court of Common Pieas, this meeting, composed of members of the bar, without distinction of party, being well satisfied of the integrity, impartiality, learning, industry, and uprightness of the Honorable James R. Ludlow, the present incumbent, do hereby formally nominate and most earnestly recom-mend him as the citizens' candidate for re-elec-mend him as the citizens' candidate for re-elec-tion, irrespective of party. Resolved, That this meeting is of the sincere opinion that it would be detrimental to the in-terests of this great city to displace Judge Ludlow, a man of long and tried experience, and substitute another in his place who would have to learn what the other has acquired

Resolved, That in his unblemished character,

KEVSTONE PUBLIC SCHOOL HOUSE .- Yesterday itemoon, at five o'clock, the ceremonies con nected with the laying of the cornersione of this new school house took place at Nineteenth and Barker streets. Yesterday we gave the dimensions and general construction of the building, which will be of brewnstone. The occasion yesterday was one of a great deal of interest, quite a number assembling to witness the proceedings, among whom were the School Board of the Ninth Section, members of the Board of Control, members of Councils, and many other eminent citizens of our city, with a great crowd of spectators. A commodious stand was erected in the rear of the northeast corner for the accommodation of the speakers and Directors, and at the hour appointed John Fareira, Esq., President of the Board of Direc-ters of the Ninth Section, placed the stone in manifestion. position.

Eloquent addresses were made by the Hon. Morton McMichael, Edward Shippen, Esq., Judge William L. Peirce, and Richard Ludlow, Esq., alter which the invited guests partook of a collation in a building adjacent to the grounds. The leaden box deposited in the corner-stone

A copy of each of the daily city papers issued vesterday; a copy of the last annual report of the School Board; a list containing the names of the officers and teachers in the Ninth Section; a year book of facts of Zane Street Grammar School for 1861 and 1862, and a silver medal having inscribed upon it the names of the offi ers of the Ninth Section.

POLICE APPAIRS .- Last evening Dr. Paul M. brennan and two other men, named Francis and Owens, were before Alderman Beitler, arged with fighting in a bar-room in the pears that Francis and Owens met Dr. Brenand at the Continental Hotel, and after some and Chesnut streets to take a drink. While in the bar room a difficulty occurred between Brennan and Francis, and both parties were pretty well distigured about the face, the Doc-tor's cane taking a conspicuous part in the melee. Francis, it is alleged, interfered in the afair and came in for his share of punishment. The police made their appearance when the ight was at its beight, and the entire party were conveyed to the Central Station, where, after a hearing, Francis and Owens were in $1000 bail to answer, and Brennan was held in $500 bail to keep the peace. Each of the contestants showed marks of rough usage, Bren-nan being severely cut in the forehead.

POLICEMAN C. MATTHEWS, of the Eighth Dis-Polickian C. MATTHEWS, of the Eighth Dis-trict, arrested, yesterday niternoon, one Patrick Furis, and while taking him to the Police Sta-ton, was stabbed in the right arm-pit by Farris, with a pocket knife, and severely, but it is thought not dangerously, wounded. The prisoner would have escaped had it not been Graw ortizens who seized him and aided in sing him to the lock-up. He will have a hear-Betto-day. Pt to-day.
