House of Representatives. More than the name human and excitement attend-ing the opening day of a session marked the reassem-biling of the House after three months' recess. The members for an hour before noon were sathered in the Hall in pleasant, noisy, and demonstrative kiendly recordition of each other. As the heur of noon approached, and the Hall be-came filed with members, they indulged in jokes about the more than usual large attendance of mem-hers, and the disappointment of such as expected there would be no quorum. The galleries were not more than one-half filled, probably owing to the ex-terme heat, the thermometer indicating at degrees, b-Ar precisely noon the Speaker called the House to rise House of Representatives now resumed its ses-term.

slon. He then directed the Clerk to read the concurrent resolution of the 20th of March last for a recess. Mr. McPherson read the resolution. The Speaker then directed the Clerk to call the roll of members, to ascertain whether a quorum was in attendance. While it was being called a message from the Senate stated that a quorum of that body was in attendance. was in attendance.

The Speaker then stated that 120 members were in attendance, and directed the Clerk to notify the Senate that a quorum was present. The proceedings were opened with prayer by the Rev. Mr. Boynton, the Chaplain. The first thing in order being the swearing in of new members, the members from Kentucky presented themselves.

themselves. Mr. Schenck (Ohlo), rising to a question of privilege, objected to the oath being administered to J. D. Young, and presented a protest from Samuel McKee, formerly a member of the House, taking the ground generally of the disloyalty of Young: and also a protest from citizens of the Fourth Congressional District to the same effect. He maked that the papers be read and referred, and that J. D. Young be not now sworn as a member.

member. Mr. Logan offered an amendment providing for the reference of all the credentials of the Kentucky mem-bers to the Committee on Elections for inquiry as to their loyalty, and that none of the members be allowed to take the oath of office pending the inquiry. Here a message was received from the Senate an-mouncing the appointment of a joint committee to wait on the President. Bouse.

THE TRIAL OF JOHN H. SURRATT.

WASHINGTON, July 3.—The trial of John H. Surratt was resumed this morning in the Criminal Contt-Judge Fisher presiding. The attendance on the part of speciators was again very large, and included, among others, several members of Congress, many of the latter seeming to take great interest in the matter.

FEARFUL LIGHTNING STROKE.

Fall of a Thunderbolt in the Midst of a Crowd of People-Nearly One Hun-dred Persons Prostrated-Three Not Expected to Survive-A Span of Horses Killed Outright, Etc.

Last Thursday afternoon, about 5 o'clock, a large crowd had assembled in the Fair Grounds of the Springville Union Agricultural Association, when a charp thunderstorm suddenly came up. The rain began to fall, and the crows ught refuge from its effects in the exhibition sheds. A flash of lightning took place, accom-panied by a loud peal of thunder, and instantly an awful spectacle was presented,

The lightning struck one of the sheds which contained men, women, and horses. About a hundred persons were paralyzed in an justant falling on their fac s, and as many as fifty were rendered insensible for five or ten minutes, while about a dozen were quite seriously burned. Two horses were killed on the spot. An old gentleman named John Gordenier, and two or three others, are not expected to recover. One woman was prostrated and deprived of her senses, but not of her power of locomotion; she instinctively gathered herself up and ran to the omnibus, and was conveyed to Holmes' Hotel, and declares she had no knowledge of what took place after the flash until she found her-ualt in a room at the house. self in a room at the house.

The lighting struck a post in the centre of the shed, against which Henry Tillou, the land-lord of the West Fails Hotel, was leaning, and to which a horse was attached by a chain halter. The horse was killed instantiy, while Mr. Tillou escaped by being dazed and knocked down. A singular fact mentioned in connection with the strange freak of the electric fluid is that all the persons rendered insensible fell upon their

A young lady named Miss Nellie Cassey, who wore a white and black checked dress, was quite seriously injured, and her dress was fairly scorehed, but did not take fire. Another woman was struck on the shoulder, the flaid passing down her side, raising a perfect blister in its course. A man from Otto was hit on the right side of the head, and on his recovery the mark was found to commence at the right eye, which was swelled like a puff ball, and could be plainly traced down the neck, across the chest, and oil the left arm.

The most fearful consternation existed among the people until it was discovered how light the injuries were that had been inflicted, and the excitement was most intense. A great many attributed the stroke to the attraction of a moving machine which stood near the shed. but two boys who were sitting on it at the time escaped uninjured, nor was the machine at all

Dwight, Assistant District Attorney.-Michael Whalen was charged with assault and battery with intent to kill officer Camae. The officer testified that about 1 o'clock on the moraling of June 25 he saw the prisoner in the act of lowering himself from the hird-story whidow of a house in Front streat, below Wal-nut, by means of bed-sheets tied togetner. Thinking that some foul act had been, or was about to be done, he (the officer) obtained a induce and climbed up to the second story: thence he proceeded to the third story, and breaking open the door of the room the prisoner was in, arrested him. While going down statis the prisoner drew a kanife and made three cuts at the officer, one of them inflicting a reartin wound. The defense offered no evidence, but made the tol-lowit g statements-The prisoner has been a peddler for some time past; he has been followed by men who, he was led to believe, were seeking his life! They had requently come upon him while be was sleeping, and had forced him to many daring deeds in order to have himself. On the night in question these men were in the base, and had been e endeavorting to get but of the whow to escape them. Messrs. Schenck and Logan entered their pro-tests against swearing in Messrs. Young and Trimble, of Kentucky, charging them with dis-loyally during the war. Specifications to this effect having been read, their cases will be sent to the Committee on Elections. Mouse Committees will probably not be ap-pointed this session, which all desire to be brief, and speedily adjourn to October. A Joint Committee have gone in from Congress to the President, announcing that Congress is ready to receive any message. A Union caucus will be held to-night in the House. The Senate has rofused to reter bills and petitions relating to Federal business. This indicates a strong dis-position to stick to reconstruction.

The Double Murder at West Auburn, Maine-A Confession of the Negro Harris.

From the Hartford Times, July 1.

Our readers will scarcely have forgotten the terrible murder of Mrs. Kinsley and her female companion, in West Auburn, Maine, last winter, companion, in West Auburn, Maine, 1985 winter. These poor elderly women lived alone in a sparsely settled neighborhood, and were mur-dered during a terrible snow storm one cold night in January last. The negro Harris, now on trial with the white man Verrill, has made a contession. He says he and Verrill got into the house to rob it, but could obtain no money. The outrage on Mrs. Kinsley, he says, was perpe-trated by Verrill, who afterwards killed her with a hatchet. He (Harris) killed Polly, her companion, with a chair.
