NUMBER CXXVII.

A DIST FOR MENTAL DYSPEPTICS, AND A CURE FOR HY-POCHONDBIA, HY-POCRISY, OR ANY COMPLAINT OF A HY ORDER.

BY OUR SERIES EDITOR. ALMANAC AND DIARY.

SHORT METER-ILLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS FOR THE WEAK.

July. Monday, 1.—Tammany Society of New York invite President Johnson to come and lay their corner-stone. The President, in laying so many corner-stones, has got his hand in, and for mortar always furnishes his own slack

Tuesday, 3.—National Guard of Philadelphia give a banquet to the Brooklyn Guards. Colonel Peter Lyle, in making a speech, lost the thread of his discourse. The loss lost the thread of his discourse. The los was not great, as it was only Lyle thread. Wednesday, 3.—A patriot dies in California and leaves $20,000, the interest of which he appropriates by will towards paying the National Debt. Having paid, himself, the debt of nature, he makes a vigorous attempt at paying other debts,

Thursday, 4.—The glorious "Fourth of July" observed throughout the United States, and all works a opped in the city, except the Water-works in the day and Fireworks in the evening.

Friday, 5.—The Ram "Dunderberg" sails for France, Louis Napoleon, when he sees this ram, over which he has made such a great cry, will realize but little wool from it. Saturday, 6.—Series Column Day. This being Independence Day with the Editor, he celebrates it by firing off his week's calary at his boarding-house keeper.

THE "FOURTH" THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY. DESPATCHES FROM OUR PRIENDS.

"Squam Point, N. J .- The thermometer is 126 degrees in the sun. We do not know what it would be in the shade. We have none here; our town is new. The inhabitants are all out looking at a game of base ball by the young men."

"Sprigginges Landing, Del.—The owner of the town at this place spent the day a-fishing without accident of any sort, either to himself or the fish. The sun shone with his usual splendor on the wharf and river. No deaths from sunstroke to report."

"Long-A-Coming, N. J .- The county militia paraded to-day, but on account of the extreme heat they disbanded at 2 o'clock P. M. They had been marching around since  $7\frac{1}{2}$  o'clock A. M. The trees being all scrub pines, and giving no shade, the troops felt the effects of the sun very much. They marched in good order, wore their new dark blue cloth uniform, and perspired quite freely."

"FALLS OF SCHUYLKILL,-"The Mother Cary's Chickens Barge Club' spent most of the day on the beautiful Schuylkill, practising with their new barge. Late in the afternoon their boat was towed ashore by some gentlemen who were out a-fishing, the crew having been completely exhausted, and not able to pull another stroke, on account of the number they had received from the sun."

"Briston, Pa .- The citizens here in the morning walked down to the canal to look at the number of coal boats laid up, many wondering whether coal will ever again be meeded."

"Smith's Island, Pa. and N. J .- Most of the inhabitants had turned out of doors to celebrate the 'Fourth.' The Island, on account of its isolated position, is not much visited by strangers!"

"CHESNUT STREET BRIDGE. - The thermometer got quite high here towards the middle of the day, and, as there were no policemen about, it had it all its own way."

"OFFICE OF THE SERIES EDITOR. - The "Fourth' at our sanctum was ushered in, and we might add, ushered out, with the same good feeling."

THE ACADEMY OF FINE ARTS RE-VISITED.

Our artists having gone out of town, and left their pictures behind to be sold to pay the expenses of their owners while seeking to cultivate Art and artful objects in the mountains or by the sea shore, we have taken it upon ourselves, as patrons of art, to give their productions a first-class puff during their absence. In doing so we must say that our criticisms are wholly unbiassed, and based mainly upon the merits of their work. We have had engraved, latan enormous expense (considering the state of the weather), many of the most striking and meritorious subjects. Without these illustrations, of course, our readers would have a very imperfect idea of them.

BO. 149-CALIFORNIA SCENERY (SUNSET). This view was taken in the summer of 1850, in the beautiful valley of the Sacramento. Persons who have been there say it is true to Hife, as long as life lasts in that locality, which, at the time this sketch was made, was not wery long.

BO. 155-STUDY PROM THE ANTIQUE. Longfellow sings of the "Old Liell in the Tower," but the old bell-rown in the loft is graught with many pleas anter Psemories. The artist, in choosing this subject, has struck upon one that has always been upheld by the heads of the people.

NO. 170-MISTY MORNING ON THE MEDITERRANEAN. Many mirages might move moodily here, mantling mazes mock the magic moon, but more mournful moods mar memories called up by scenes like these. It is well done.

The principal figure in this little sketch is well painted and true to nature. We think the water a little too cool, yet there is great

NO. 191-THE VILLAGE SMITHY. The felloes that gather around places of this kind in country towns are seen in the foreground. Though they stay there day in and day out, they are never tired.

This view was taken in Maine. The town is situated on the Penobscot, and the still-ness of the scene is proverbial. The artist was there himself, and told us he had often lain there, and drank in the spirit of the scene. He has certainly rendered it with great taste.

as a fit companion-piece to Mr. Peabody's miniature of Queen Victoria. We learn it was the artist's intention to furnish a copy of this picture to that gentleman, but he was deterred by his friends, who told him that probably one "elephant" of that character was about all the millionaire would care about. The handling of the children is very

NO. 290.—MOSES BREAKING THE TABLES. scene.

NO. 359.—THE HAPPY FA MILY (APTER RAPHAEL). This subject, after the old master, is very creditable to Rachael, for we think there is no artist of tale at but what would do as Raph has done in this picture. The artist used to regwd this as his masterpiece, although he ca m near not being the master.

Bince the close of 1806 much enterprise has been displayed at this celebrated Seashore renors. New and imagnificent cottaxes have been erected; the Hotela have been remodelited; a fine park, with a well made one nile drive, has been insugarated; and in all the esacutials of a popular summer resort, a spirit of improvements largely a satisfact.

The geographical position of Cape Island is in fiself a popular feature, when properly understood. Situated at the extreme southern portion of the state, and occupying a neck of land at the confinence of the Delaware Bay with the Atlantic Gosan, it becomes entirely surrounded by sait water, hence favored by continual breview from the sea.

Added to these attractions is the fact that the effect of the Gulfstream upon this point renders the water comparatively warm—a point het to be overlooked by persons seek ing health from ocean bathing.

The distance from Philadelphus to Cape Island is 31 miles by rail, and about the same distance by steamer down the Bay, and by either route the facilities for invel promise to be of the most satisfactory character. The Island has Hotel and Boarding-house accommodations for about ten thomand persons. The leading Hotels are the Columbia House, with George J. Bolton as proprietors, all under the management of gentlemen whe have well-established reputations as hotel men.
