CITY INTELLIGENCE

[ FOR ADDITIONAL LOCAL STREES SEE INSIDE PAGES.]

Ban Bers .- Around the corner of a little BAD Beys.—Around the corner of a little street that enters Seventh street below Chesnut, a number of boys congregate daily. An old woman named Margaret McMaily sells cakes, candles, etc., to them. Sometimes the boys plague her, and offentimes puriola articles from her basket. This morning a number of them got around her, and commenced their usual pranks. The old woman made a slap at John Gwin, aged twelve, who became incensed, went across the street, picked up a block of wood, and threw it at her, striking her between the eyes and splitting her nose, making the blood fly in all directions. Reserve Officer Benkert arrested the lad and took him before Alderman Beitler, who held him in $400 bail to answer.

Alderman Beilder, who held all and answer.

Edward Shepley, aged fifteen, was sent to the House of Refuge this morning. On Saturday last a colored woman gave in his charge some goods to be carried to Vine street wharf. Instead of doing so, he ran off with and pawhed them. They were recovered at pawn shops on South and Shippen streets.

SUMMER TRAVEL .- The scenery of the Lehigh, Matanov, and Woming valleys is exceedingly attractive, and those who delight to dwell upon attractive, and those who delight to dwell upon the beautiful in nature can find nothing more in the eastern section of the United States. In addition, a number of charming mountain towns are scattered through this section, among them being Wilkesbarre, Mauch Chunk, Easton, and Bethlehem, to all of which ready access is obtained by the North Pennsylvania Railroad. For the benefit of those who desire to take a pleasure trip through this region, excursion tickets are sold at reduced rates.

THE SUMMER HEAT has at times been almost unendurable. When the thermometer attains such high altitudes, all who are able to do so leave the city and take up their abode by the seaside. Those intending to make their escape to Atlantic City will find the Surf House at that favorite resort fairly under way for the season, and even more attractive than last year, by reason of a thorough renovation and repaint lies. Not the least important of the improvements is a long line of new bath-houses upon the beach, 160 in number, placed high and dry above the sand and in close proximity to the ocean.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY AND ASSAULT .- Rober' Jones, aged twenty-three, last evening stepped up to a young lady, at Fourth and Callowhill, snatched her purse, and taking hold of her arm, said she must go with him. She fied, and he followed her, until he ran into the clutches of a policeman, who arrested him. When searched, the purse was found upon him. Alderman Toland committed him in default of $600 bail.

Some Thousle.—Lazarus Jacobs, Reuben Cohen, Reuben Jacobs, and Nathan Myers got into a street brawl last evening at Second and South. The cause of the disturbance was the superior inducements offered by one of them, which induced a purchaser to enter his store. Being arrested, each charged the others with committing a grievous assault upon his person, Alderman Tittermary committed them to STRALING & Cow .- Henry Billbow, a young man, drove from a pasture, early yesterday morning, a cow belonging to William Jones, He desired to sell the animal for $25, when a man stepping up, said something was wrong, since he had sold that cow but a few days previous. Henry ran into a hose-house, and tried to secrete himself, but was exhumed, and held by Alderman Allen in default of ball to answer.

Congress Hall, Cape Island, enjoys a splendid reputation for its excellent management last year, but promises to be still more popular the coming season, because of the efforts of Mr. Cake, its proprietor, and the admirable corps of assistants to help to run the house. The rooms are in good order, and this year the table is superior to any of previous years. We commend Congress Hall.

A Robbert or $85 .- Last evening a ruralite A ROBBERT OF $55.—Last evening a furaltee from the vicinity of Harrisburg entered the house of Jennie French, a black woman, at Seventh and St. Mary's streets, who entertained for the evening two others, Elizabeth Dickson and Hester Haines. During his stay he missed $65, which, of course, the "young ladies" appropriated. Alderman Morrow held each in $800 bail to answer at Court.

ing, and it is supposed he fell overboard and drifted under a large boat lying at the wharf. The Coroner held an inquest.

VIOLATING THE SCNDAY LAW was the crime for which Henry Muller was brought up before Police Magistrate Shoemaker. Muller keeps a lager beer salton at No. 135 Girard avenue, and dealt forth the "beers" and "toddies" all day Bunday. He was held in $500 ball to answer at

A TATTERED DISTRICT UNKEMPT BRING WAS taken in custody yesterday afternoon, by one of the officers of the Fifth. He gave his name as Patrick Smith, and had swallowed half of two vials of laudanum, that he had purchased with the intent of ending his existence. He was sent to the Almshouse.

ADMITTED.—This morning, on motion of the Hon. Charles Gilpin, United States District At-torney, William Knight Shryock, Esq., was ad-mitted to practice in the United States Courts of this District.

CONGRESSMAN SCHENCE, of Ohlo, introduced a resolution into Congress to bestow a vote of thanks on Petroleum V. Nasby for the good he has done the country in general, and, we suppose, Mr. Schenck, in particular. We hope Congress, when it passes that vote, will also pass one of thanks to Charles Stokes & Co., the eminent Clothiers under the Continental, on account of the number of good habits it has spread through the country. spread through the country.

MRS. HENRY WOOD'S NEW BOOK.—T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia, have just published a 'new book, by Mrs. Henry Wood, printed from the author's manuscript and advanced proof sheets, purchased by them from the author. It is entitled "Orvilie College," and will no doubt command a very large sale, as it is said to be fully equal to her "East Lynne," and the interest in "Orville College" never flags for a moment. It is but justice to say that, in this respect, which is the secret of Mrs. Wood's great popularity as a novelist, this her latest work, is her best. This volume will add greatly to her high reputation, and will be perused with eagerness by the whole reading public. It is remarkably well printed, in large type, and on fine paper. Price fifty cents a copy.

CHICKERING PIANOS AT THE PARIS EXPOSI-TION .- A cable telegram announces that the First Premium Grand Gold Medal has been awarded to Chickering & Sons, for the best Planos; and, also, that The Grand Decoration and Medal of the Legion of Honor has been conferred upon Mr. Chickering by the hands of the Emperor of France, for entire superiority in Plano-fortes over all others exhibited at the W. Holloway's Pills and Ointhent.—Palpliation of the heart is frequently caused by indigestion or relaxed state of the nervous system. A course of a few weeks of these invaluable medicines will diminish the irregular throbbing, and by removing the source, restore its natural pulsation. To assist the functions, not to force them, is the true secret of success. Holloway's medicines and treatment are based on the simple laws of nature—by annihilating the cause the effect disappears. Sold by all Druggists.

[SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO EVENING TELEGRAPH.] WASHINGTON, July9 .

The Situation in the House. The hour fixed for closing the debate in the House on the Stevens' Reconstruction bills is half-past I P. M., but the vote will probably not be taken until late in the afternoon. It will pass the House very much in the shape reported by the committee.

A Conference Committee Expected. It is believed that the bills passed respec-tively by the two Houses will reach a Confer-ence Committee about Thursday, and that a measure will be agreed upon and passed this

The Senate will not take action upon the Reconstruction bill before them until the House bill is received. The President Will Deal Promptly with the Measure.

The President has announced his purpose to deal promptly, by veto or otherwise, with the bill, to enable Congress to get away speedily. Mr. Sumper's Wishes Frustrated. Mr. Sumner received the cold shoulder to-day in another attempt to induce the Senate to re-scind the resolution cutting off general legisla-tion this session.

Effects of Gossip. The gossip in the New York Herald, purporting to give the opinions of Mr. Stevens upon the leading politicians of the day, creates quite a hubbub about the Capitol to-day.

From Tahiti.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 8.—Tahiti dates of June I have been received. There were in port the following vessels:—Her British Majesty's ships Clio and Falcon, the latter just from Sydney; the French frigate Nereld and transport Dora. The United States ship Tuscarora, in leaving port on May 14, struck the reef, but, by throwing overboard a quantity of coal, succeeded in getting off with slight damage, losing only about thirty feet of her false keel.

She recoaled and sailed for the Fejee Islands the same day. The ship Webster from New York, and Gallant, from Rio, with the cargo of the North American, condemned at Rio, arrived yesterday.

Prize Fight. CLEVELAND, July 9.—Fogarty and Seward fought at Black river this morning. The former won on the eleventh round, by a foul. Time 35 minutes. He was badly punished. A fight was arranged for the same time with ElHott and Gallagher, a fight which failed to come off.

Fire in Chicago. Chicago, July 9.—P. H. Bowen & Co.'s planing mill, at the corner of Franklin and Van Buren, was burned last night. The loss is $15,000 to $20,000, which is covered by insurance.

Maximilian, Miramon, and Mejia.

Their Execution Confirmed.

Maximilian's Dying Statement.

He Gives the Sergeant of the Guard a Handful of Gold to Aim at His Heart.

Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc.,

New Onleans, July 9 .- The Times has a special despatch from Houston, Texas, giving a detailed account of the execution of Maximilian, Miramon, and Mejla. Neither of them were bound or blindfolded, nor were any indignitles offered them, as reported. Maximilian, before being shot, recapitulated the causes which had prought him to Mexico, denied the authority of the Court which sentenced him, and hoped his death would stop the effusion of blood in Mexico. Miramon read from a paper, expressing that the only regret he felt in fdying was, that should the Liberals remain in power. his children would be pointed out as the children of a traitor.

Mejia made no address. Maximillian called the Sergeant of the Guard, and gave him a handful of gold, requesting as a favor that they should aim at his heart. Five balls entered his heart, but not being quite dead, two soldiers were called out, and shot him in the side. The spectators manifested much grief and dissatisfaction. The sword of Maximilian was presented to Juarez by Escobedo, in the Government Palace.

EXTRA SESSION OF CONGRESS. Senate.

Washington, July 2.—Immediately after the reading of the journal, the Senate took up the Reconstruction bill reported by Mr. Trumbuil resterday.

Mr. Trumbuil took the floor and addressed the House of Representatives.

The reading of the Journal baying been dispensed with, the Speaker presented copies of the laws of idabo and of the journal of the Legislature of Anzona. Referred to the Committee ou Territories.

The House then renewed the consideration of the Reconstruction bill, which was pending at the adjournment varieties. The House then renewed the consideration of the Reconstruction bill, which was pending at the adjournment yesterday.

Ar. Brooks (N. Y.), as the lower of the Compite tee which reconstruction of the Large of the Large of the Compite tee which reconstruction of the Large of the House that twenty-live years ago a man who was now feed by the British arastocracy had, in Fancial Hall, in Boston, proclaimed the Coostitution of the United States to be a league with death and a covenant with hell. After the Rebellion to which that doctrine led, William Lloyd Garrison had sense enough to withdraw himself from the country, leaving to the party which he had founded a policy that sought now, after emancipating and enfranchising four millions of blacks, to disfranchise and put fetters on eight millions of whites. The first section of the bill declared voki the g-vernments of four of the eriginal thirteen States of the Union, and six of the later States. It not only declared these governments illegal, but void. He had been on the plains of Marathon and atthe Pass of Thermopyine, but never was he filled with enthusiasm as at the tomb of Washington, the Home at monticello, and other places of historic interest in Virginia, and yet this State, with a record thus bright in history, is to be struck out of the Union. A lost Pickad and South Carolina, the land of Pinckney, of Sumter, and of Marion, and Georgia, which gave to the Union the States of Alabama and Mississippi, were also to be struck out of the Union as to Arkanass and Louisiana, part of the Louisiana purchase, the faith of the treaty of purchase was violated by this bill, and be believed that France had the legal authority to claim that the rights of the Popple of these States, guaranteed the Usion. As to Arkanass and Louisiana, part of the Louisiana purchase, the faith of the treaty of purchase was violated by this bill, and be believed that France had the legal authority to claim that the rights of the people of these States, guaranteed by the treaty, should be recognized and assured. If human ganius had been taxed for a mode to oppress and trample upon the people of the Southern States, it could not have devised anything more fit for the purpose than the extraordinary edicts of five military officers, no matter how differing in principle, which were by the second section of this bill declared legal and valid. The third section authorized the Boards of Registers, composed of white, black, blue, and yellow to divegrard the caths of voters, and to refuse them registration, without any subjection on the part of these Boards to Federal officers or any other authority. The fourth section struck at the very government of the State, in depriving of all jurisdiction against District Commanders, or officers adding under their authority, not only courts of the State, but courts of the United States. He knew not what the President of the United States would do, but he knew what he himself would do before sending this bill back to Congress. He would sond Sheridan to Massachusetts and Maine, and Sickles to Walrussia to teach the Esquimanx. But they threatened to impeach the President of the Senate, Let them do it. If he were President Johnson, he would never let Congress enforce upon him a law entirely subversive of the Constitution of the United States.

would never let Congress enforce upon him a law entirely subversive of the Constitution of the United States.

Mr. Garfield sought to interrupt Mr. Brooks with a question, but the Speaker stated that the gentleman from New York had in the outset of his remarks intensed his desire not to be interrupted.

Mr. Brooks continued his argument against the bill. If there was one thing that grieved him more than anything else in these late times, it was the assent of lawyers on the other side to have the Bill of Rights and the Magna Charta overthrown. The semi-barbarous Barons who wrested the Magna Charta from King John had stipulated in 1215 that no freeman should be deprived of life, liberty, or property without due form of law; but here, in 1837, twelve millions of people were deprived of all right of trial by their peers, and were subject to the mere will and caprice of five military despots.

He quoted from the declaration of rights of Massachusetts. Vermont, and other States to show that the people of the North were once assalous of their rights and liberties. The gentleman from Pennsylvania (Mr. Stevens) had at first proposed confiscation in the South, but this bill placed not only the property, but the lives and liberties and personal rights of twelve millions of people in the power of military officers.

The bill was in the face and eyes of all written history, and in utter violation of every natural and national law, and its supporters would live, many of them, to deplore that they have given it assection or support. Even the Tarkars, when they conquered China did not destroy the institutions of Caina, but assimilated them to their own. There was no parallel in history for this act, except in the lumman conduct of the Duke of Alva. This law was not as respectable as the mis of the Caar or the Emperor of Austria, for when the Hungarians were subjugated their civil rights were respected.

The least intelligent of all the races on this Continent had been selected to go into partnership with the white race in the Trial of John H. Surratt.

Washington, July 2.—The trial of John H. Surrait was resumed to-day in the Criminal Court, Judge Fisher presiding, and the examination of witnesses for the defense was continued.

J. R. Eastman sworn, and examined by Mr. Bradley—I am Professor at the National Observatory; on the night of April 18, 1856, was engaged in making observations; the moon rese that night at two minutes past 18; at 11 the moon was about fifteen degrees up, and was less than half way between the zenith and the horizon; at 7:30 that evening the sky was hazy, and at 9 o'clock it was cloudy; I observed that particularly, on account of the observations of a planet I was observing; at 11 o'clock it was so cloudy that I could not see the stars of the third magnitude; at 11 o'clock no stars except those of the first magnitude; at 11 o'clock no stars except those of the first magnitude; at 11 o'clock no stars except those of the first magnitude could be seen even with a giass; the moon would not have filmminated the north side of any building that night; If a home stood west of a corner, and faced north, it would be entirely in shadow.

Trons-examined by Mr. Pierrepont—On this night, at 10:30, I went out, and could just see the form of the moon I was not sware that Easter has retreene to the condition of the moon at the full; the moon was full at 4 o'clock on the morning of April 1 (Tribuna Almanae exhibited); the almanae says that the moon was full at the moon rose atloss on April 14th.

James R. Ford sworn, and examined by Mr. Bradley—I reside in Estimore, and was connected with Ford's Theatre in 1835; in April, 1855. I was Brainess Manager; on April 14th morning of the Theatre; I knew John W. Booth: had known him ten years; on the morning of April 14th was at the theatre office from 10 o'clock until 11:30; the President's method senger came and asked for a box; at 11 o'clock the Indies of the Surratt family; I nover saw the prisoner at the bar.

Cross-examined by Mr. Pierrepont—I did not know the Misses Hale personally, but know them to see them; one was a futle tailer and larger than the other; both had dark hair; I never particularly observed their eyes.

By Mr. Carrington—I never remember seeing Booth occupy this box more than twice with ladies; I don't known who the ladies were on the other occasion.

I don't known who the ladles were on the other obsion.

By Mr. Flerrepont—During the Rebellion what side did you take?

Mr. Bradley objected.

Mr. Pierrepont said they had a right to ask the question to find out the adimus of the witness, and to show what side he took, whether for the nation or against it.

Judge Fisher asked if it was to ask the witness as to his political opinions, or as to which side he took during the war?

Mr. Flerrepont said it was the latter.

Judge Fisher asked the question could be asked, but the witness was at liberty to answer or not, as he pleased.

Judge Fisher said the question could be asked, but the witness was at liberty to answer or not, as he pleased.

The witness declined to answer the question. The witness shen left the stand, and was called to Mr. Merrick's seat, and after consultation, Mr. Merrick and the witness would answer the question.

Mr. Pierrepont declined to have the witness answer.

Mr. Marrick said the defense would then ask him.

Mr. Pierrepont said he could not be recalled after being instructed how to answer.

Judge Fisher said the witness should have been asked the question when on the stand. He has been dismissed, and cannot be called back.

W. L. Dixon aworn, and examined by Mr. Merrick—I am Chief Engineer of the Government Fire Department here, and was so in 1865; on the night of April 1, at 9 o'clock, after an alarm of fire was struck, I rode out H street, and finding it was a bonfire I roturned also by H street, and it was then very dack; at 11 o'clock I received orders to keep the engines ready, as it was feared aron would be perpetrated; the messenger who gave me that order informed me of the assassination; I went to the War Department, and it was then very dark, and it was so dark that the engine came near running into a wagon.

By Mr. Pierrepont—There was no moon up when I went to the first the sky was cloudy.

Mr. Kriesecker sworn, and examined by Mr. Merrick—In 1865 I resided at the corner of Sixth and H streets, and readed there yet; my house is next to No. 541 A firset; in 1865 mp house fronted on Sixth and H streets, and readed there yet; my house is next to No. 541 A firset; in 1865 mp house fronted on Sixth and H streets, and readed there yet; my house is next to No. 541 A firset; in 1865 mp house fronted on Sixth and H streets, and readed there yet; my house is next to No. 541 A firset; in 1865 mp house fronted on Sixth and H streets, and readed there been a conversation would have the night of the season attention that night proceeding from No. 541; had there been a conversation would have heard it; on that side
