Das Sanorhperte.—The Prines, Decorations, Erc.—In our issue of yesterday afternoon we gave a detailed description of the decorations of the National Guards' Hall, as far as they had been compreted. On visiting the Hall this morning we found that the preparations for the great musical event of next week were still progressing, and that the headquarters had been rendered still more attractive. The railing which has been creded around the body of the hall, for the support of the banners of the different societies, has been concred with shields bearing the names of the musical associations, surrounded by heavy garlands of oak leaves. Long festoons of the same material have also been suspended from the chandellers to the sides of the hall, which has new almost the appearance of a forest scene.

Greiner's Sængerbund Hall, Nos ill and ils Callowhill street, has likewise been tastefully ornamented, within and without. The exterior is covered with festoons of oak and flags, a large transparency of "Die Wasser Rosen" occupying the centre. This hall has recently been extended in the rear by the addition of about one hundred feet, and is now a large and convenient building. The main hall on the second floor is used as a rehearsal-room by the Sængerbund Society. During the continuance of the festival, the Liederkranz Society, of New DAS SANGERFESTS-THE PRINES, DECORAgerbund Society. During the continuance of the festival, the Liederkranz Society, of New York, will occupy the hall, and for their accom-modation large dormitories and dining-rooms have been neatly fitted up. Many other German establishments and private residences in the establishments and private residences in the city have also been appropriately decorated, in honor of the approaching musical tournament. The prizes to be awarded to the successful societies in the contest of Tuesday evening are now in the city. The first prize is a magnificent silken banner, four feet and a half by six feet in dimensions. It is surrounded by a heavy gitt fringe, and from the lower border three large lassels of the same material depend. The staff which supports it is surrounded by a The staff which supports it is surmounted by a large gilded wreath. The ground of one side of the banner is of white silk, on which is embroidered a large figure of Apollo as the God of Music, with the emblematic harp in one hand and a laurel wreath in the other. At his feet re pose two genii, between whom stands a shield surrounded by a wreath of roses, and bearing in German this inscription;—"First Prize of the Tenth General Sougerfest. Philadelphia, 1867." Below is the name of the artiste, Madame Franziska Klein.

The ground-work of the other side is of blue silk, bordered by a wreath of oak twigs, bur-dened with golden acorns. On the stems are inscribed the names of the following great com-inscribed the names of the following great composers:—Mendelssohn, Beethoven, Meyerbeer, Abt, Bach, Schubert, and Hiller. In the centre of the wreath is a large gilt harp.

The second prize is a large silver goblet, which we described yesterday. The third prize is a handsomely embroidered banner sash of white silk, fringed with gold, and containing for an inscription the following words, in German:—"Third Prize of the Tenta General Sængerfest, Philadelphia, 1867." Below this are represented the shields of the United States and Germany, surmounted by a harp, and entwined with a streamer bearing the motto:—"E Pluribus Unum."

METEOROLOGICAL.-We give below a tabular statement of the condition of the atmosphere for the first thirteen days of the month of July for 1866 and 1867:—

A FEMALE PRETENDER .- Fannie Owens, by some means as yet to the public un-known, gained possession of a store book be-longing to a lady redding on Cherry street, near Nineteenth. The store wherein this account Nineteenth. The store wherein this account book was an indispensable article in order to receive goods on credit, was at Ninteenth and Brown streets. Fannie no sooner laid hands upon it than she commenced to draw freely of moneys to the debit of the owner, and replenished her commissary department with things good of all kinds. Yesterday she came is to borrow two dollars, when an officer, who had been on the qui vive, took her into custody. Alderman Hutchinson held her in ball to answer at Court.

MISSTATEMENT .- On Thursday morning last a person by the name of Thomas E. Ballenger was before Recorder Eneu, on the charge of larceny as ballee. At the time the case was reported in the daily papers the name of the accused was erroneously stated to be James E. Ballenger. It is needless to state that the person in question was not Mr. James Ballenger, builder, of No. 1312 S. Fifth street, in this city.

SAILED .- The Philadelphia and Southern Mail Steamship Company's steamer Wyoming Captain J. Teal, sailed at 8 this morning for Sa vanah, with the following passengers:—John Young, John H. Holmes, J. H. Zeilin, Miss Ronaldson, Captain Westcott, U. S. Navy, Mar-tin Clark, Britiget Hoseh, Blohard Bacon, John H. Weeks, Lieutenant Heller, U. S. Army, Thomas O. Bond and wife, and Larkin Hicks.

A BURGLAR CAUGHT .- Freeland H. Moore was arrested at hair-past 9 o'clock last night by Officer Fleming, as one of a party of four individuals who burglariously entered a dwelling on Fitzwater street, near Broad, a few nights since, and stole therefrom money and clothing Moore was identified by the owner as being im plicated in this felonious transaction, and wa held by Alderman Tittermary for a further ARRESTED ON SUSPICION .- Jacob Volmer, aged twenty-three, residing on Stonehouse lane, near second street, was arrested on suspicion of shooting Mr. Rew, an account of which affair was given in The Evening Telegraph yester-day. Alderman Mink committed him for a further hearing. Mr. Rew has greatly im-proved, and is entirely out of danger.

Purlowing .- Mary Collidon, having an innate desire to more comfortably and deceatly clothe herself, and then being overcome by an infatuation to see her figure thus arrayed, stole last night a lot of female wearing appared and one common reflector. Alderman Titter mary committed her for this theft.

Supposed Professionals .- John and Thomas Weaver last night were seen following, in a dogged manner, an old man up Howard street. From their previous demeanor it was thought that they meditated things evil. They were arrested and held in $800 ball by Alderman Heins to keep the peace.

Fon Caps May .- Through in three hours. Gimmencing this (Sa(nruay) atternoon, the West Jersey Railroad Company run the fast Express train to Cape May, leaving Philadel-phia at 4 P. M., running through, only stopping for fuel; it reaches the Island at 7-05 P. M.

New Music.-We have received several pieces of excellent music, printed in beautiful style, for the organ and piano-forte, from the celebrated publishing house and music-depo si ory of Reed Meyer, No. 722 Arch street.

An Assault was committed by one Robert McVeigh, yesterday, at Second and Cadwalader atrests, upon another individual, to his great due mfiture. McVeigh was held by Alder-man Eggleton in $800 bail to answer.

THE PROGRESS OF PARTIAL EXTERMINATION .-During the past week 197 "dorgs" have been captured for want of mazzles; 47 have been redeemed, while the other 150 go to join grim

Cerebus in his lower regions. STOLE A BOAT .- John McCluskey was taken in custody and placed in disagreeable duress for the larceny of a boat last evening from Shippen street wharf. Alderman Tittermary committed SMOHT FIRE .- A slight fire occurred at No. 156 Willow street, at an early hour this morning. A partition in the kitchen caught from the stove pipe. Loss about $100.

LARCENT OF HARNESS .- Patrick O'Neill was yesterday arrested for a larceny of harness while rusticating in New Jarsey. Alderman Beitler held him in $500 ball to answer at Court. THE GOATS.—The goat catchers have succeeded in catching 47 goats, 5 of which have been sold and the balance redpensed.

THE MERNHECHOR HALL, Fourth street, above Vine, is splendidly decorated for the sengerfest. The hall is hung with bunting in Sengerfest. The hall is hung with bunting in national colors, above which evergreens are twined. The coat-of-arms of all the States are hung around the hall, with the badges of the Mennerchor and their guests against the pillars of the room. The German flag is also placed conspicuously, and two really very handsome tropules, representing the arms of the Middle Age-, on the south; side of the hall, directly opposite the entrance. Elegant taste has been displayed by those having the matter in charge. On the outside of the Hall large transparency has been placed, on which are the following words of welcome:—"The Mennerchor's Greting and Welcome to their Guests, the Germania Mennerchor from New York, and the Teutonic Menuerchor from New York, and the Mennerchor from Wilkesbarre, Pa." All the windows of the Hall will be lit up this evening on the arrival of their guests.

STOLE A Dog.-John G. Huger was before STOLE A Dog.—John G. Huger was before Alderman White yesterday, charged with the larceny of a dog belonging to A. A. McKain. A short time since McKain bought the dog of the defendant, paying him $15 for it.

A day or so alterwards the dog disappeared. Huger said he would get the dog if the defendant would give him two dollars. The prosecutor handed over the money, and the dog was returned to its owner. Two days afterwards the dog again disappeared, and the defendant made an offer to get it if he was paid seven dollars and a half. McKain thought it was strange, so he made inquiry, and learned that Jacob C. H. Johnson had seen the dog in Huger's possession the evening previous. He was therefore arrested, and the Alderman committed him in default of $500 ball.

Nor PROFITABLE.-John Given, the young man arrested for collecting money under false representations, to the pecuniary disadvantage of his late employers, had a final hearing last evening before Alderman Tittermary. Four charges were alleged, one each by Messrs. Bullock & Crenshaw and Weightman & Powers, and two additional by other city firms. On each he was held in $500 ball, and committed in default of $3200 by the magistrate to answer

"Among the expositions of the American section which attract the greatest interest, it is necessary to specially mention the collection of weigning instruments exhibited by the house of Fairbanks & Co., of St. Johnsbury, Vt., which has for a long time sustained a great reputation in this branch of manufactures. This collection embraces the most complete assortiment of balances from a single gramme to thirty thousand kilogrammes capacity. The same house manufactures scales capable of weighing five hundred thousand kilogrammes. These weighing instruments, universally used in America, are adapted to all the systems of weights and measures in use in every country. This exposition deserves to be recommended to all our mechanics and farmers, and to everybody interested in perfect weighing instruments."

Joseph Carroll was recalled, and cross-examined by Mr. Pierrepont—The witness knows Messrs. Knapp and Cobell, and sees them in the Court-room now; I saw a man present who was said to be Mr. Roberts; I had a conversation with Mr. Knapp in Elmira before I came here; I do not remember that Roberts was present; I don't remember telling Mr. Knapp that I saw the man supposed to be the prisoner on the the man supposed to be the prisoner on the 13th and 14th of April; I don't remember say-ing it was on the 12th; I don't remember saying to Mr. Knapp that the man was a tallor; I think I told Knapp I saw Surratt at Elmira on the 13th and 14th; I don't think I mentioned April 12 mr. best recollection in that I told on the 13th and 14th; I don't think I mentioned April 12; my best recollection is that I told Knapp I saw Surratt on the 13th and 14th, and think I told Mr. Copeil the same thing, and did not mention the 12th; and I recollect Mr. Copeil mentioned to me that Mr. Knapp said I told him I saw Surratt on the 13th and 13th, and I said I did not recollect fixing those dates, but thought I said the 13th and 14th; I fix the time because Mr. Offut left the store for New York on the 12th, and it was the day after that a man called; I did not tell Knapp and Cobeil that I saw Surratt twice in one day; have talked to Mr. Knapp twice about this. I don't remember ever seeing Roberts with Knapp; I saw a man with Cobell who, I was told, was a detective from Washington; I saw Cobeil at Elmira after my return from Washington the first time; when I came here the first time I went to see the prisoner and I never told Knapp. Covell, or Roberts that I could not identify the prisoner, and never spoke to Roberts on April 14, 1805; I did not go to church on the 14th; I don't remember what time I went to the store; the store was not closed on Good Friday; on the 13th a man I supposed was the prisoner came in, but I could not suit him in the kind of goods he wanted; the man came in again on the 14th, and I told prisoner came in, but I could not suit film in the kind of goods he wanted; the man came in again on the 14th, and I told him the goods might arrive that day; the man came in the forenoon; I don't know if any one else was in the store; I did not see the man after the forenoon of the 14th; I never told any one I could not recognize the man; I never told any one named above that I asked the man who came in if his name was Surratt; there was nothing auspicious in the appearance there was nothing suspicious in the appearance there was nothing suspicious in the appearance of the man; I thought he was a Canadian; I told Mr. Knapp I thought he (Surratt) was a Southerner; I did not ask the man's name.

By Mr. Bradley—When the man came to the store he came from the direction of Water street. The Brainerd House is on Water street.

(Colonel Foster pointed out.)—I have seen that man in the cars, but never conversed with him; yesterday, after Court adjourned, I conversed with Knapp, and he said he understood me to say that the man was a tailor; I have been asked many questions since I have been here; I have understood that Messrs. Knapp and Cobell were hunting up evidence for the pro-By a juror-Mr. Knapp was very anxious to

By a juror—Mr. Khapp was very anxious to come here with me.

The Chair laid before the Senate a communication from the Secretary of the Interior, in resionse to a resolution calling for information, reports, etc. on the nature, origin, and extent of the Indian difficulties which was read and ordered to be printed, with the accompanying documental

House of Representatives.

Mr. Dawes (Mass.) presented the resolutions of the Legislature of Massachusetts relating to the Northern Pacific Raliroad, and concerning Cape Cod Harbor at Provincetown.

Mr. Washburne (Wis.) introduced a bill to extend the provisions of the Homestead bill to any public lands within the limits of any rail-road grant in any State or Territory. Referred to the Committee on Public Lands.

Mr. Donnelly (Minn.) offered a resolution for an additional standing committee of nine mem-hers, to be known as the Committee on Education. Referred to the Committee on Rules.
On motion of Mr. Pile (Mo) the select committee on the treatment of Union prisoners of war was authorized to sit at such places, and to mittee on the treatment of Union prisoners of war was authorized to sit at such places, and to lake testimony by such members of the committee as it may deem proper.

Mr. Morgan (Ohio) moved to suspend the rules to allow him to offer a resolution instructing that select committee to inquire also into the treatment of Rebel prisoners of war confined in the camps and prisons of the United States during the war; also, as to the facts connected with the cartel for the exchange of prisoners, and why such exchange had not been effected.

Mr. Judd (Iil.) asked what isyal man in the North demanded such an investigation? He regarded the proposition as a reflection on the loyal people of the country. The question as to the cartel had been thoroughly investigated by the Committee on the Conduct of the War. He did not want to give the gentleman from Ohio an opportunity to make a hole in anybody's coat, or to get up a controversy as to who was responsible for any delay in the exchange of prisoners. He hoped that the loyal members of the House would not consent to any such investigation.?

Mr. Morg an disclaimed any intention to reflect on the loyal people of the country, and he asked whether if a high officer of the Government had given as reason for the non-exchange of prisoners, that he was not going to exchange of prisoners, that he was not going to exchange of prisoners, that he was not going to exchange ment had given as reason for the non-exchange of prisoners, that he was not going to exchange healthy, well-fed men for skeletons, the fact ought not to be investigated?

FROM WASHINGTON THIS P. M.

[SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO EVENING TELEGRAPH.] WASHINGTON, July 13. Among the executive business sent to the Senate by the President to-day is the Reciprocity treaty with the Sandwich Islands; a compared it treaty negotiated by France, England, and the United States, with Japan, and the and the United States, with Japan, and the combinations of Bancroft to Berlin, of Raymond to Vienna, and of quite a number of internal revenue and postal officers, all of which have been referred to committees.

The House has agreed to the Conference Committee's report on the Supplementary bill by a vote of 110 to 32. It will be promptly passed by the Senate. It is substantially the Senate bill.

Filibustering Proclamation on the Rio Grande. New ORLEANS, July 13.—The following pro-clamation is being circulated on the Rio Grande border:-Americans, shall a civilized people of a great nation stand passive, and by their slience assent to the most berberous act of the nineteenth century—the butchery in cold blood, by a mongrei race of God-forsaken wretches, of the man who, by treachery, became a prisoner of war, for what else was Maximilian but a pri-soner of war? He was certainly not a fillbuster, for he would not consent to become their Em-peror until a large and powerful delegation of the representatives of the Mexican Govern-ment waited on him in Europe, and pressed his acceptance of the Mexican crown, and which he only accepted after much reluc-tance. History teaches that the Mexican people for nearly the last half century have been incapable of seif government, while Max-imilian has shown to the world that he was the best ruler they ever had, and was doing all that a wise man could do to develope the re-sources of that country until betrayed by Judas Iscariot, in whom he had trusted. Maximilian was one of nature's noblemen, because he was was one of nature's noblemen, because he was was one of nature's notionen, because he was an educated Christian gentleman, and all his acts were high-toned and chivairic, and being the brother of an Emperor, he was a brave man, and died as a brave man should die, but his life was the most beautiful pearl sacrificed to beastly swine. The civilized world will honor and revere his memory for his many virtues for ages to come, while it will shrink with horror and detestation from the perpetrators of this most dastardly outrage of modern history. Americans, the bloody bound Escobedo has insolently and defiantly declared to the world that, before closing his military career, he hopes to see the blood of every foreigner spilt that resides in his country. Shall this be so? Out with this foul blot that stains the American continent! Let us meet in our strength, that we may give public expression to our indignation, and let it fall on those who, in the eyes of the Christian world, are morally responsible for the death of Maximilian. Yes, even though it fall upon a Secretary of State whose little bell, alas! did not tinkle to save the life of one of the best men that ever existed. Honor to whom honor is due, but let justice be done though the Heavens fall.
