CAMDEN AFFAIRS.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY .- On Saturday last a number of colored people were engaged in picking potatoes in a field near the Market Street Bridge. Their employer came along, and threw a basket of cucumbers at one of the party, named Mrs. Jordan. A man named Manparty, named Mrs. Jordan. A man named Man-ning commenced picking them up for his own use. Mrs. Jordan hit him on the head. He became incensed, and bit her lightly with the back of his hand. When they arrived at their home in South Camden, Mr. Jordan, who had been informed of the transaction in the field, was found ready to assault Manning for stik-ing his wife. When he approached Jordan knocked him down, and commenced butting him. A lively time was had for a short period, but the affair culminated in the arrest of both parties, who were escorted before the Mayor. Manning entered complaint against the other for assault and battery, and Jordan was bound over to answer at Court. The latter had a war-mant issued for Manning, and he was immedi-ately arrested, Jordan alleging that he threw a ately arrested, Jordan alleging that he threw a bottle at him. Manning will have a hearing to-day.

A FEMALE THIEF .- On Saturday morning,

A FENALE THIEF.—On Saturday morning, between 10 and 11 o'clock, Mrs. Wendell entered her residence at the N. W corner of Eleventu and Lombard streets, and met in the entry a little, old German woman, who had just come down from the upper rooms, and was making her way towards the street. To avert suspi-cion this little antiquated piece of humanity inquired in a squeaky voice, "Vedder some body livshs in de house" that she wanted to find, and to this obscure interogation received a negative. She left the house, and the lady going up-stairs, soon discovered that her gold watch and three fine rings had been purioinet. By the time word had been given to the police

By the time word had been given to the police of the occurrence, the Teutonic feminine had cleared the vicinity of her presence.

To the Editor of The Eventsg Telegraph.-The Sunday Dispatch of yesterday contained an article in which my name appears as indicating the representation of the Fourteenth District. I think it proper to notice the communication simply for the purpose of saying that the author is mistaken in such use of my name. Major Washing-ton M. Worrall is the genuleman who represents the Fourteenth District: I live in the Fifth District, and am not a member of the Legislature or a candidate for that position.

could take them, when they ran foul of a man in about the same condition, named Millegan, when they, with lightning despatch, somewhat inconsistent with their previous demeanor, knocked him down. While one lay across the prostrate man's feet, the second held his head and arms, and the third abstracted from his pecket money to the extent of $1.50. They were all arrested. Milligan was held as a witness, and the robbers to answer the charge.

OBSTINACY .- The treasurer of the Roxbo-rough Fire Company, named William Record, has for some time past dogmatically refused with aggravating obstinacy to pay over to his successor the dues, moneys, and other "stamps" which have accumulated during his term, so alleged, and seems to hold that by right of pos-session they are his own. RowDYISM .- Sunday rowdyism is still prevalent in South Camden. Yesterday three ladies and three gentlemen, with several little children, were passing up Kaighn'sPoint avenue, A party of five young men were passing the same way. One of them said something in-suiting to one of the gentlemen, and he pushed him away from him. A large growd soon col-lected, and the ladies and gentlemen were obliged to seek shelter in a church. Officers Campbell and Mertland arrested two of the alleged participants, named Thomas and Frank Spencer. They will have a hearing before Spencer. They will have a hearing before Mayor Cox to-day. Swift and condign pun-ishment should be meted out to these young men if proven guilty. An example should be made which would effectually stop this rowdy-ism, which is a disgrace to our city.

SELLING LIQUOR ON SUNDAY .- A large number of arrests of persons charged with setting liquo on Sunday have been made. Some have been arrested as many as six times. For each offense they were held in $500 bail to answer at court The following are the names and number o times arrested:-Nathan Brosslus, 6; John A Linder, 6; Frank Fath, 4; Eaton Wills, 1; Wil Linder, 6; Frank Fath, 4; Eaton Wills, 1; Wil-liam Dill, 1; Mrs. Hardgraves, 2; John Quicksall. 2; Thomas Sweeney, 1; Joseph Melihone, 1. All the parties reside between Pine Grove and Gloucester, Constable Hawkins arrested all of them, and is entitled to credit for his efforts to bring offenders to justice.

IN TROUBLE .- Notwithstanding the juveniles of Camden have been cautioned again and again that it is contrary to law to swim in the again that it is contrary to law to swim in the Delaware, within circumscribed hours, there are those who will indulge in a bath. Yesterday Officer Owens arrested William Officer, Edward Dodd, Charles Ellis, and Charles Jones, for vio-lating the law in this respect. They were per-mitted to sleep on the soft side of a plank all night in the Station House, and this morning, after being cautioned about what the result would be if caught again, were released. would be if caught again, were released.

DRUNK AND DISORDHRLY .- Henry Franks was arrested on Saturday by Officer Mason for being drunk and disorderly. He had imbibed too much of the ardent, and finding it somewhat difficult to maintain an equilibrium, he en-tered a stable at Front and Plum streets, and went to sleep on a stall. He was awakened by the proprietor and requested to leave, but would not do so. An officer was called in, and he was marched off on a double-quick to the Station House. After sleeping off the effects of the liquor he was fined and released.

ROBBERT .- The grocery store of John Saw yer, situated at the corner of Second and Pine streets, was entered on last Friday evening by prying the lock off the cellar door. An easy entrance to the story above was made through an open door. The money-drawer, with its con-tents, was carried off. The former was found on an empty lot about two squares from the store the next morning. No arrests were made.

A CONTEMPTIBLE ACTION .- A colored man named Benjamin Vandyke was arrested on Saturday for burying a horse alongside of Mr. Butler's drinking well, rendering the water unfit to drink. Benjamin was held to ball to appear at court by Justice Cassidy.

THROWING STONES .- A boy named John Etrus was arrested on Friday last for throwing atones at the cars, while passing Kaighn's Point avenue and the railroad. He was bound over to appear at Court by Justice Cassidy,

THE DAILY EVENING TELEGRAPH-PHILADELPHIA, MONDAY, JULY 22, 1867.

A HBROIC YOUTH SHOOTS HIS RIVAL THROUGH THE TRICK OF HIS LKG.—The grees eyed men-sier had been creating dire thoughts in the mind of Nicholzs Nelson. It is alleged that he had seen another person whom he considered a rival on terms of friendship with a young lady who was to his belief in fee-simple his own. Last night he stationed himself at the corner of a gicomy alley, on Main street, below Cedar, in Germantown with a weapon of offense in the shape of a horse-pistol, wherewith to do much serious damage. He could Obristian Frame coming up the street in company with a young lady, and, not looking or caring who she was, but include to heroically take revenge, he fired, the ball passing throigh the thick of the un-fortunate gentleman's leg, who fell to the ground. An officer near by at once took the offending and dangerous Nelson in custody, and Alderman Ramsdell held him in $1000 ball to answer at Court. THE TRICK OF HIS LEG .- The green eyed montreatment, a mere faintness, with slight mus-cular twitchings, occurring at long intervals, in time becomes violent convulsions of great incouncy, and the patient gradually sinks into imbecility. If relief is obtainable at all after the disease is thus firmly seated, it must be from some treatment which is permanent in its effects, and which not only has a tendency to suppress the attacks, but which will remove suppress the attacks, but which will remove the morbid tendency to relapse. Dr. Jayne's Atterative has happily been found to answer this purpose admirably. It gradually changes the morbid condition of the system, removes the cause of the disease, and when its use is continued for a sufficient length of time, pro-duces a permanent cure. Let the afflicted try it. Prepared only at No. 242 Chesnut street. A DECIDEDLY UNWELCOME MANNER OF PROCE-

We believe there are millions of living witagreed to give them a dram if they would leave. Taking numbrage at the very idea of departing in peace, they proceeded to the chamber of a crippled old man, ousted him from his couch, and stole a gold ring from his finger. Then, with some additional flourishes, by way of rightly terminating their night's work, they upset things in general, knocked over chairs, keeping up at the same time hilarious intona-tions of voice. Williams was arrested, and heid by Alderman Good in $1000 heil to answer at nesses to this fact. Dyspepsia is a horrid discase, but Plantation Bitters will cure it. It is a most invigorating tonic for weakness and mental despondency. Those who are "out of sorts" should try Plantation Bitters.

NEW ORLEANS, July 22.-By way of Galveston we have one week's later dates from Mexico. The Brownsville Ranchero doubts the report of an army of observation under Cortinas, and publishes an extract from a letter said to have been written by Escobedo to Gomez, directing him, by every means in his power, to make the country Mexican, and as all property in the hands of foreigners were acquired by Mexican misfortunes, he should take it, and have power to hunt them from the country. He says:-"My motio is, Death to all strangers; and there will be danger of the Yangees interfering as long as the Southern States are kept out of the Union; besides, the black men would side with us, and may at any time pronounce against us, Before we get through with the foreigners the Yankees will think we are in earnest, and the time will come when their notables will be begging their own heads instead of those of the Austrians,"

Up to the 15th Marquez and O'Harau had not been found. Some of their adherents supposed them to be secreted in the house of the British Minister. Diaz has ordered the capture of the foreign representatives who do not recognize the Liberal Government. Seven hundred Anstrian prisoners have been sent to Puebla. Twelve more Generals have been shot at Queretaro, among them Otero and Castillo, and five Colonels. Juarez has issued an order for the convocation of a Congress to elect a President. fited in many respects by the acquisition. The olive branches which the Secretary of State has lately been offering to the riotous South American republics could be imported directly from the new territory at a very small expense, and as Jerusalem would of course become the very centre of the old clothes business, our foreign ministers and consuls would find it a cheap and convenient place for supplying themselves with diolomatic uniforms, such as Congress will probably prescribe for them. The President might assume the ancient title of 'King of Cyprus and Jerusalem,' which was, until lately, enjoyed by the King of Sardinia, and the hymn, 'Jerusalem, my happy home,' would be added to our list of national melodics. The par-ticulars of the afray are as follows:-Blundin, his son, and a friend, returning from a visit to, Smith's Island, stopped to refresh them-selves at this tavern. They had no sconer en-tered the bar-room when they were imme-diately accosted by one James Trainor, alias "Sugar Jim," who desired them to drink at his expense. All accepted this friendly invitation, and immediately thereafter the inviter thereof exhibited signs of maxiliances to foot the bill and immediately thereafter the inviter thereof exhibited signs of unwilligness to foot the bill that he had in such a genial manner contracted. Blundin said he would do it, and after a small war of words, Trainor, it is reported, struck Blundin in the face, and for it, immediately assumed the horizontal on the floor.

Blundin in the face, and for it, immediately assumed the horizontal on the floor. A general squabble ensued, during which it is alleged that Morton, a short, thick-set man, came up behind Blundin and inflicted two quite severe wounds in the left side with a pocket-knife. With a cry that he was stabbed, Blundin staggered to a chair, and the blood sommenced to flow out from beneath his vest. During the confusion that ensued, the assail-ants made their way out of the door in time to be saized by Reserve Officer Jones, who took them in custody. An examination of the wounds of Blundin proved them not of a seri-ous nature, although the knife had severed a small artery. He was removed to his home. Both of the assaulting parties were held for a hearing, when the real facts will be elicited.

VERDICT OF THE FACULT Y-STIMULANTS IN-DISPENSABLE AS MEDICINES .- The most distinguished physicians in the United States have recently been placed on the witness stand, and have, with one voice, declared that pure stimulants are valuable medicinal agents. This decision of the faculty refers especially to medicated stimulants, of which the purest and the best at present known is HOSTETTER'S STO-MACH BITTERS. Its basis is the alcoholic principle of the finest rye grown in the United States, and its herbal ingredients comprise the extracts of a large number of plants, barks, and roots produced in various parts of the world, and all noted, in the countries to which they are indigenous, for their powerful sanative properties. As an invigorant and tonic, the value of the Bitters can scarcely be overrated. Hence its extraordinary effect in fever and ague, and intermittents and remittents of every type. Its antibilious properties are marvellous. Persons of billious habit, by taking a small quantity once or twice a day, may completely change their constitutional tendency to liver disease, and escape all the unpleasant consequences which arise either from the undue sensitiveness or the unnatural torpidity of the biliary organ. Chronic constipation is eradicated thoroughly, and in a very short space of time, by small doses of this wholesome regulator, taken night and morning; and for all the disorders which are superinduced by exhalations from decomposing vegetable and animal matter in the streets of cities, or the miasma of swampy districts; it is, when taken as a protective and preventive medicine, the most reliable of all safeguards.

OBITUARY.

Sir William Lawrence, Bart., F. R. S. The London Telegraph announces the death of this distinguished medical gentleman, at his residence, Whitehall place, on the 5th instant. The deceased was born at Circacester, on the 16th of July, 1783, and had therefore attained the great age of eighty-four years at the time of his death. He received a preliminary education at a classical school near Gioucester, and was afterwards apprenticed to the celebrated Abernethy, of London. Before three years of his apprenticeship had expired he was appointed Demonstrator of Anatomy at St. Bartholomew's Hospital, so decided was his zeal in anatomical parsuits. He finished his professional education, and became a member of the Boyal College of Surgeons on the 6th of September, 1805, was appointed assistant surgeon to St. Bartholomew's Hospital in March. 1813, and succeeded to one of the principal surgeoncies in May, 1824. He had previously been chosen one of the Professors of Anatomy and Surgery to the College of Sur-geons, and delivered the lectures there for four years. For several years Mr. Lawrence lec-tured on Surgery at different medical schools, his celebrated lectures on the Physiology, Zoology, and Natural History of Man giving rise to the charge of materialism, as well as being the subject of severe criticism. The Governors of the Royal Hospitals of Bethlehem and Bridewell requested the author either to resign his appointment as Surgeon of those institutions or to retract his convictions. In compliance with this demand he wrote a long etter, expressing regret at having given utterance to the permicious doctrines contained in the lectures, the published copies of which he afterwards sold to a London publisher for exportation to this country. In 1826 the deceased made himself conspicuous in his opposition to the Council of the Royal College of Surthe became a member of the same Council, he became a member of the same Council, having been elected to fill a vacancy occasioned by the death of Sir P. McGregor, and in 1840 was promoted to a seat in the Court of Examiners. Sir William Lawrence, who was a mem-ber of many learned and scientific societies both at home and abroad, had obtained the highest honors which can tall to the lot of a surgeon. In addition to those already mentioned, he had been twice elected a President of the Roya College of Surgeons, viz., in 1846 and again in On the passing of the Medical act and the 1855. institution of a Conneil of Medical Education and Registration, Sir William was nominated by the Crown a member of that body. He was the senior sergeant-surgeon of the Queen, and only a few months since was created a baronet. his decease there is a vacancy in the Council o the College of Surgeons. The deceased Baronet the College of Surgeons. The deceased Baroner, leaves a son, who is a member of the College of surgeons and medical officer in the Queen's In-dian army, as well as two daughters. Judge J. S. Yerger. The Memphis papers announce the death of this gentieman, from congestion of the brain, on the lifth instant, at Vicksburg, Mississippi, at which city be was attending the holding of his court. The deceased was, we believe, a native of Tennessee, but had been a citizen of Mississispipi for many years. He was one of the ablest lawyers in the State, and as a judge was very popular.
