And all points in the

that the people must be very good or the jai very bad.

-Mary Brown, who claimed $40,000, has recovered $2500 from a Dr. Winston, in Nash ville, for killing her husband by an overdose of morphine.

-A colored man in Illinois has obtained divorce from his wife on the ground of crue treatment. Dinah thought she had "rights" as well as Sambo.

-It was proposed to put General Grant' picture on the new lifteen-cent currency, bu there is a law against honoring anybody i that way hereafter.

-The State Fair held recently in New Or leans, notwithetanding the poverty of the South, was larger and better attended than or any previous year.

-The President does not know what styl of watch-guard to send the Tycoon with hi present of a chronometer. A guard of hono would be very appropriate.

-Queen Victoria gave the Duchess of St Albans, for her wedding gift, a gold chain an two shawls. Her husband's gift was a dia ond tiara and his love. Ah!

-The Connecticut Legislature, if we may leve the report as published in a New Have per, lately resolved "to pay $85 for a dead rse." That animal probably had Morgue-an lood.

-According to statistics Turkey, in 1865, had 15,600 schools, attended by 600,000 boys and girls, out of 25,000,000. In Russia there are 20,000 schools, and 900,000 boys and girls attending them."

-A sharp talking lady was reproved by her husband, who requested her to keep her tongue in her mouth. "My dear," responded the wife, "it is against the law to carry concealed weapons."

-Chicago diptheria is an old disease with a new name. It is considered as affecting a person when the truth settles down in him so low that none can be got out. The catnip doctors call it lying.

-Mr. Albert Pike, a native of Newburyport Mass., and editor of the Memphis Appeal, is an "unconverted Rebel;" some of his Massachusetts fellow-eitizens thinks he should experience military discipline.

-A new factory in Lebanon, N. H., has been purchased by the American Patent Sponge Company for $18,000. The Company reduces sponges to pulp to be used instead of hair mattresses and general upholstery.

-In Troy, N. Y., a servant girl, who was carrying an infant in her arms in the street, fell, the child's nose striking on an iron hoop, by which a horrid wound was inflicted on its nose, that organ being completely divided.

-William Lloyd Garrison was welcomed by the people of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, England, on the 9th instant, as enthusiastically as he he had been in London and Manchester. He was entertained at a banquet, and attended a public meeting which was afterwards held.

-A Milwankee meat thief knocked in the head a five months old imported blooded bullcalf, belonging to William P. Lynde, and valued at $300, out off the hind quarters with an axe, without skinning or otherwise dressing it, and was arrested by the police, when some distance away, with his booty.
