The Revenue Law and Distilled Spirits. It is conceded on all hands that distilled spirits should be largely taxed by the General Government.

Second. Assistant Assessors to visit distilleries daily, and report to the Assessors the number of gallons of beer in the vats respectively.

Third. Beer to be run off every third day, except in case of breakdown in machinery, which must be reported in writing to the Assessor, together with the condition of the vats at the time of stoppage, and to make written application for resumption of operations.

Fourth. A fixed percentage of the beer to be determined by the Government as its standard of taxation, that is, so many gallons of spirits to so many gallons of beer, and the amount to be returned by the Assessor for collection every ten days.

Fifth. Distillers to give bonds sufficient to cover the capacity of their vats for the manufacture of thirty days.

Sixth. Revenue Inspectors to make examination of Assistant Assessors' reports, and of distilleries, to see that proper returns are made.

Seventh. Any collusion of a Government officer with frauds upon the revenue to be punished by fine and imprisonment.

Eighth. All restrictions as to meters, cellars-room, general inspection, etc., to be abolished, and distillers allowed to run their business according to their own convenience.

Ignored! On Monday afternoon last, August 5, Michael McAnany, a paper stainer, residing at No. 731 South Seventh street, went before Alderman Beitler at the Central Station, and testified as follows:—

THE PAPAL SUCCESSION.—The Courier des Etats Unis finds the recent cable despatch which names Monsiegnor Dupanloup as the most probable successor of Pius IX "cases incomprehensible."

SEABIDE GAYETTES.—Some of the New England watering places are very lively this summer. The Boston Post says:—"Nabath is gay this season. There has been one negro minstrel concert, and a visit from an organ-grinder."

TEMPERANCE.—The temperance revival is rapidly extending into the Southern States, and large and numerous meetings are being held at various points.

RELIGIOUS NOTICES. TABERNACLE BAPTIST CHURCH, CHESNUT STREET, WEST OF EIGHTEENTH.

CRETE.—The fact that the heroic Cretans have sent off another ship-load of women, children, and old men does not seem to indicate that they have abandoned the struggle as hopeless.

DEATH OF AN IRISH FRENCHMAN.—Mr. MacSheehy, proprietor of the Union, of Paris, died in that city on the 25th of last month, at the age of eighty-four years.

SANTA ANNA.—The address that Santa Anna was to issue at Vera Cruz is published. He says his "mission is one of entire peace, as pacificator in a distracted family, whose members are destroying each other, and will not become reconciled."

THE LONGING OF A TRAVELLER.—Mr. Hurlburt seems to have derived a realizing sense of the inferiority of his countrymen to the inhabitants of the Continent during his present tour in France.

A LIFE INSURANCE CASE.—The Washington Star says:—"Some years ago a man living in Wheeling, Virginia, and named Joseph Leppens, got his life insured, as was said, for the benefit of his wife, Josephine Leppens.

TENNESSEE EDUCATION.—A number of gentlemen in East Tennessee have undertaken to establish an institution to afford a free normal education to the sons of all Tennesseans who perished in the Union cause.

THE INCREASE OF INSANITY.—Our high pressure civilization has its disadvantages and dangers, which it is well not to forget.

Now, one simple principle should lie at the bottom of the Revenue law in regard to the distillation of spirits; and that is, to determine the amount of spirits manufactured by the amount of material used.

SALE OF AUTOGRAPHS IN LONDON.—Thirty unpublished letters of John Wesley were recently sold in London at an auction of manuscripts and rare books.

BOGUS.—A correspondent of the Springfield Republican exposes the fallacy of the item getting the rounds of the press, in which it is asserted that the time of day can be told by the action of the pulse on a coin suspended from a string.

TAXATION OF NATIONAL BANK SHARES.—The Supreme Court of Iowa has given its opinion on the question of taxing national bank shares.

COMPROMISE.—The Boston Post is inclined to take a cheerful view of things. It says:—"The 'social evil' is thought to be on the increase in Boston. So, too, is social good.

THE SOCIAL EVIL.—The last Legislature of Ohio passed a bill, authorizing Boards of Health in the large cities to enumerate and record the female inmates of disreputable houses, and to remove and protect those under eighteen years of age.

DESTROYING THE OLD LANDMARKS.—A French paper announces that the Prussian police have searched the publishing houses of Hanover for maps in which that country figures as a kingdom, and have destroyed all the copper plates of this class except a few which have been forwarded to Berlin.

CHUCKLE TO ANIMALS.—The London Beehive calls Walt Whitman "a kind of leopards' pig." This the World thinks is unduly severe on the porker.

COLOMBUS FUNDS.—The total income of Columbia College is $126,000; but that of Cambridge, England, is $133,000, equivalent to $660,000 in gold, of which $40,000 is received from tuition fees, and $620,000 comes from benefactors.

THE QUEEN'S BOOK.—The London Star thus speaks of the "Early Life of Prince Albert":—"To England the book has an interest other than historical, and far deeper. It is the story of a love, a union, and a sorrow such as the chronicles of Courts can hardly parallel, and which cannot fail to awaken a thrilling emotion and sympathy in every English heart."
