OUR NOMINATIONS.

THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTIONS IN SES-SION THIS MORNING.

Nominations for Associate Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, Sheriff, City Treasurer, City Commissioner, Register of Wills, Clerk of the Orphans' Court, and State Legislature.

Pursuant to the regular programme, the dele-gate elections of the Republican party were held jast evening, and this morning the successful candidates for these positions met in Convention in twenty-one different places. The results of these Conventions are given below:-

The City Convention.

At the opening of the doors of the Horticul-tural Hall this morning at the hour announced, the delegates of the Republican party to the City Convention, and their numerous friends, City Convention, and their numerous friends, made their way into that place, and through the shower of tickets which is usually met with at such political gatherings, gained the in-terior. The numbers congregating at the City Convention were many, and the body of the hall was pretty well filled: the gathering, how-ever, decreased when the temporary president required the withdrawal of all persons who were not delegates.

were not delegates. At a quarter past ten o'clock the delegates were called to order by William R. Leeds, Esq., Chairman of the Republican Executive Committee. Order being restored, the Chairman appointed as temporary Secretaries John L. Hill and Jo-seph S. Allen, and as temporary Doorkeepers, Captain John McCullough, Richard Butler, Albert C. Roberts, and Daniel H. Lutz. The business then in order was the reception of the credentials of the delegates of the diffe-rent precincts in the various wards. The mem-bers of the Convention, no doubt considering

bers of the Convention, no doubt, considering bers of the Convention, no doubt, considering this part of the proceedings as of no particular import, kept up a running fire of individual nominations, and the usual amount of loud talk, amid which the chairman's voice could barely be distinguished. There was a number of contested-seat cases.

There was a number of contested-seat cases. In calling over the list of the various precincts, the following were found to be thus in question: Second Ward—Second Precinct. Fourth Ward—First and Second Precincts, Eleventh Ward—Sixth Precinct. Fourteenth Ward—Second Precinct. Sixteenth Ward—Second Precinct. Sixteenth Ward—Fourth Precinct. Nineteenth Ward—Fourth Precinct. Nineteenth Ward—Fourth, Fifth, and Tenth Precincts.

Precincts. Twentleth Ward-First, Seventh, and Tenth

Precincts. Twenty-third Ward-Eighth Precinct. Twenty-fifth Ward-Third Precinct. Twenty-sixth Ward-Third and Tenth Precincts. In all eighteen.

The next business in order was the appointment of a Committee on Credentials, consisting of one member from each ward, the following being appointed:-

of the Republican party of the city of Philadelphia, assembled in Judicial Convention to make a judicial nomination. I have no reason to believe that there is any gentle-man in this Convention who intends to propose the name of another to be voted for, than that of a repre-sentative of this body. (A planse.) Did I think so, I might deem it my duty to caution you, at this time above all others, of the great danger that encom-passes the integrity of the great Republican organi-zation throughout the Union. No new sell-winker of his constry, no since veloyal man in this Union, but could have shed tears toks moving while reading the news from Weshington. Gentlemen, we have been betrayed. The great perty which has sustained it-elf through the most caucelees and injuitous rebellion that ever disgraded to earth or shock high heaven, has been betrayed by him in whom they reposed the highest confidence. Let us not then, in this connection, do injustice to those who sent us here by nominating any man of doubling position through the late war or at the pre-sent day. We can and will elect our candidate, let him be who he may. The Republican party of the city of Philadelphia are in the majority a few thousand, and they are not gwing to yield upon the pretense that no man can be found in their organization in to fill the possition of Associate Judge of the Court of Common Pleas. It is an insult to the Republican members of the Bar and to the con-stituency of the delegates present to say that there is but one man (and that we must go into another party to the delegates present to say that there is but one man (and that we must go into another party to fill to fill that office. ENTICING MARRIED MEN .- Mary Myers, EXTICING MARRIED MEN.—Mary Myers, a woman of about forty years, and quite prepos-sessing in her appearance, was arrested yoster-day afternoon in Franklin Square, on the charge of enticing married men to her house in Du-ponceau street, above Locust. The accused won the attention of a married man yesterday, and the vigilant eye of the officer knowing the gentleman had no right to have his affections drawn from his better half followed the parties in question to the residence of Miss Myers. A fter in question to the residence of Miss Myers. After remaining there for about an hour, the woman came out, when she was arrested and taken before Alderman Hurley, who held her to an-ever a court swer at court.

WHITE MAN BEATEN .- A white man who was passing along the neighborhood of Seventh and Mary streets last evening, was attacked and brutally beaten by two colored men. The disturbance drew together a crowd of men, boys, ragged-clad women and children, and the boys, hagged-chad women and children, and the scene soon became very exciting. An officer hearing of the affair hastened to the spot, and took the assailants in charge. They had a hearing before Alderman Swift, and gave the names of Robert Gilleard and Shadrick Davis. The accused were both committed to answer for the offense.

AN ABORTIVE PRIZE-FIGHT transpired this morning at the Rope Ferry, "down in the Neck." The affair was a fizzle throughout, al-Neck." The analy was a hazle throughout, al-though such a result was not owing to the visi-lance of the police. It is expected that a strong force of these vigilant functionaries will arrive on the ground this affernoon to arrest the prin-cipals in this affair, and their seconds. The fight was an old-fashioned rough-and-tumble excangement and lasted only fifteen minutes. arrangement, and laste only fifteen m to the intense disgust of the fancy gentlemen who had roused themselves long before day-break to be on the ground in season.

net matters there is a calm to day, and matters are dull. Only a few visitors are at the White House, and among them none of distinction.

The Cabinet Troubles.

The National Intelligencer to-day says: "We have high authority for saying' that the loose and sensational rumors which were circulated and which were reflected in some degree in the papers of last evening, about troubles in the Cahinet yesterday, are unfounded. The fact of one member of the Cabinet retiring before the other member of the Cabinet retiring before the other, must naturally be of frequent occurrence. That General Grant came out of the White House some time before the other gentlemen yesterday, was to be ascribed to his business habits, rather than to any far-fetched and imaginary cause, when the session was protracted till towards the close of the business hours of the day."

From Boston. Boston, August 25.—In the United States Cir-cuit Court yesterday there was a lengthy argu-ment on the motion of the counsel of Julius F. Hartwell, late Teller in the United States Treasurer's office, who is charged with embez-zling public moneys by loaning them to the State street firm of Meller, Ward & Co. The principal ground taken by the counsel for the defense was that Hartwell was not, in the meaning of the law, an officer charged with the keeping and disbursement of public moneys. The Court overruled the motion, and Hartwell was arraigned, and pleaded not guilty. Chief Justice Chase was present during a portion of the hearing.

UNITED STATES TAXES ON PASTEBOARD, --We have been favored by William E, Elliott, Esq., Assessor of the Third District, Pennaylvania, with the following decision of the internal Revenue Department in reference to "Paste-board, or Card board." The act of June 30, 1864, imposed on paper of all descriptions, including pasteboard, binders' board, and tarred paper for roofing and other purposes, a tax of three per cent. The act of July 13, 1866, exempted tarred paper for roofing purposes, and printing paper of all descriptions. The same act imposed on paper not otherwise herein provided for a tax of three per cent., making no mention of paste-board, or binders' board. The act of March 2, 1867, extended the exempt-tion, and included binders' board, but neither provides for taxing them. The taxable, and if not specially provided for it inst be taxable, and if not specially provided for it that pasteboard, or cardboard, boing neither pecially provided for nor exempt, is lifabia, under the general provision of the ninety-fourth section, to a tax of five per centum. ad valorem.

DISTURBANCE ON CHESNUT STREET .--- Two men of distinction were arrested last evening at Ninth and Chesnut streets, on the charge of having committed an assault and battery on a Cuban gentleman. The affair being among gentlemen who have been respected caused much stir, and their arrest created no little talk among persons feeling an interest in them. The offending parties were taken to the Central Station, where they were locked up for a hear-ing, which took place this morning before Alderman Beitler, when the accused were held for a further hearing.

ATTACK WITH BRICKS .- Michael Cooley and Peter Mooney were before Alderman Swift this morning, on the charge of committing an assault and battery on a gentleman, at Eleventh and Sansom streets, last evening. It is alleged that the defendants threw bricks at the injured man, striking him in the back and other parts man, striking him in the back and other parts of the body, and thus unfitting him to attend properly to his duties. Cooley was committed in default of ball to answer at court, and Mooney obtained ball and was permitted to depart.

Foundling .- Last night about 8 o'clock, as the officer was patrolling his beat at Twenty-fourth and Hamilton streets, his attraction was drawn towards a neighboring door-step, by the cries of a child. On proceeding to the spot, he discovered that a white infant, dressed in a cleanly manner, had been left there by its unnatural parent. A crowd soon gathered around, and finally the little stranger was taken in charge by Mr. Jackson, who resides in the im-mediate locality, and provided for.

ROBBING PRACE CARS .--- For some time past complaints have been made by peach traders of the depredations committed on the peach cars as they arrived at Gray's Ferry bridge. So erious has this evil become, that a por policemen were yesterday ordered to the spot to arrest persons who were found engaging in to arrest percentations. On reaching the place in question they succeeded in arresting John Warren and John Curtain, who were taken before Alderman Mauil and committed in default of ball to answer at Court.
