

DRAMATIC FEUILLETON.

THE GREEN-ROOM AND ITS PEOPLE.

BY OLIVE LOGAN DE LISLE.

"You are fresh from Iden," said Sir Charles... The green-room, my dear madam, is the bower where fairies put off their wings, and goddesses become dowdy...

the mimic world can deeply feel. Like injustice in all its forms, this privilege is very incidental... In France, where actresses receive much censure, and deserve it, a distinction is still made in favor of the good.

BOODIE'S AND CROCKFORD'S CLUBS.

Boodie's is chiefly frequented by country gentlemen, whose status has been thus satirically insinuated by a contemporary... Crockford's Club, also noted for its devotion to play, was instituted in 1827, in the house No. 20, on the west side of St. James street.

News of Authors and Forthcoming Books.

Longfellow is spending the summer at his Nahant cottage. Mrs. St. we have already sent to the printer large lists of his new work, which is to be a sort of chronicle of old-time folks in a New England village, fifty or sixty years ago.
