THE DEMOCRACY. Their Naminating Conventions-The Candidates for City Commissioner, City Trensurer, Clerk of Orphans' Court, Register of Wills, and Sheriff.

THE CITY CONVENTION of the unterrified Democracy brought its arducus labors to a close yesterday afternoon, its last hours being like unto its first, and exceed-ingly entertaining to an outsider. Before all the committees on contested seats had made their reports, somebody made a peremptory motion that the Convention at once go into a nomination of candidates for City Commis-sioner and City Treasurer. The President in-formed the Convention that such a motion was out of order, and then he announced that the main as not in our the period that the business next in order was this very nomi-nating process. The persons whose names are given below in the ballots were then placed in nomination, and the Convention proceeded to select from among the number its standard-

INTERNAL DISSENSIONS. - The Democratic Senstorial Convention, it will be remembered, was held at Ladner's Military Hall yester-day. Of the peace within the bounds of the Convention we speak not, but the scenes with-out merita notice. Large crowds, constituents and dogmatic adherents to certain candidates, enthered in the hereness upon the states. and dogmatic adherents to certain candidates, gathered in the bar-room--upon the stairs, until they groaned beneath the Democratic weight--and in the streets. Now, the de-meanor of such a concourse, where virulent opinions, obstinacy even to physical demon-stration, and drink were commingled, can bet-ter be imagined than described. Nevertheless, it should be recorded that the concourse was rampast. No sconer did an enthusiastic con-stituent elevate himself, and expatiate fully upon the merits of his particular favorite, than stituent elevate himself, and expatiate fully upon the merits of his particular favorite, than he was brought low, or had to seek shelter from the attacks of an antagonist. Quarrelling, shouting, punching raged outside, while within the barroom the turmoil was indescribable. The panels of the heavy door leading into the Convention were smashed through by vehe-ment kloks, and spirited individuals attempted to get within ear-shot, if not within the hali itself. Excitement increased, wrath predomi-nated, and trouble generally ensued, when the nated, and trouble generally ensued, when the proprietor of the hall sent word to the Seventh Police Station for officers to protect his property, which was nearing speedy demolition. Sergeant Murray, with a corps of officers, after much resistance, quelled, to some extant, the disturbance, and arrested twelve evil-dis-posed persons, who were held to keep the peace.

STABBING AFFRAY IN CAMDEN .- Last evening STABBING APPEAY IN CAMDEN.—Last evening two men indulged in a quarrel at Fourth street and Bridge avenue. Their names are Bijion Mitchell and James Durkin. They are bro-thers-in-law. What originated the meles can-not be definitely ascertained. It is supposed to have been a family affair. Durkin was sitting on a step; Mitchell came up and said something to him in regard to fighting. A souffle ensued, during the course of which the agressor was seen to drop a knife. It was picked up by a bystander; and at the urgent request of the owner it was handed to him. Shortly after be made another attack on Durkin, and when separated by the policemen it was discovered that Durkin had received a stab in the left side, directly in the region of the heart. The wound directly in the region of the heart. The wound was inflicted with the large blade of an ordi-nary pocket-knife, and is not very dangerous, although causing considerable pain. Fortu-nately the knife took an oblique direction, and did not penetrate more than half an inch; had did not penetrate more than half an inch; had it gone straight, there is no doubt but that Durkin would have been a corpse this morn-ing. Policeman Owens arrested Mitchell, and a hearing took place before Mayor Cox, which resulted in the binding over of the defendant to answer at Court.

A SHOOTING AFFAIR IN THE NORTHERN PART of the Cirty.—The political excitement and antagonism were not confined to the imme-diate precincts of the various Johnsonian Con-ventions yesterday, but the discontented dele-gates—no doubt irritated beyond forbearance gates—ho doubt irritated beyond forbearance with failure, resulting from their too enthusi-satic efforts—carried their wrath embosomed until at some favorable opportunify they could vent it unsparingly upon their more success ul brethren. Thus it happened that at American street and Columbia avenue two men met, who, far from being prudent or cool-headed. Were street and Columbia avenue two men met, wno, far from being prudent or cool-headed, were soon involved in the intricacies and troubles of a partisan discussion. It is said that about 6 o'clock last evening they again met, and still disagreeing, one of them, Hugh Boyle, aged thirty-eight, drew a revolver, and fired it twice at his opposing friend, Thomas Clary. One of the shots passed through Clary's coat-sleeve, while the other entered his left forearm, frac-turing the bone. The wonnded man was taken turing the bone. The wounded man was taken to St. Mary's Hospital, at Frankford road and Palmer street. Boyle was arrested by Officer Pollock, and taken before Alderman Heins, and was committed for a further hearing.

BREVITIES .- A dense fog covered the river curred; instead of warblings of beautifully plumed songsters, we now have the discordant buzzing of innumerable locusts in our parks. -Men walk into eternity quickly when the step off from the wharves into the river. - A attempts for the restoration of order in the DemocraticCity and County Conventions yester-day proved abortive. Harmony did not perch itself within the Johnsonian precincts of either Washington or the National Guards' Hall.— The guilibility of man is amazing—witness the daily swindles.—All the educational institu-tions of this dity are now in full operation. The tions of this city are now in full operation. The disparaging comments on the multiplicity of studies enforced on the students in some of our higher schools are many.—Great preparations are being made to receive Bishop Wood on his return.—The weather was pleasant this morning, notwithstanding the shadowy clouds and lack of sunshine.—The main culvert at Thirty-third and Market streets caved in yesterday, making a deep and dangerous pitfall.

Albautr of the High Shas.—Richard Boy-lan, as suman on the barque "Amy," of which William Barley was mate, made complaint that the latter had committed an upprovoked and grievous assault upon him. The barque "Amy" was salling on the high seas on the eleventh day of August last, when the mate called upon Boylan to help tack the ship, and before the latter could comply he was struck twice, knocked down, and then he alleges was brutally kicked, his teeth virtually being sent crashing down his throat by a blow. The case came up for investigation before Commissioner Hibler. But by the curious law of Congress, which holds that an assault on the high scass is not an assault, unless a dangerous weapon is used, thereby allowing a sailor to be mauled unceasingly with a clenched fist, the defendant was discharged, and left rejoicing. ABBAULT OF THE HIGH SEAS .- Richard Boy-

A MAN BRUTALLY BRATEN.-Last evening A MAN BRUTALLY BRATEN.—Last evening Charles Blanls was in the bar-room of his father's tavern, at the corner of Wood and Levering streets. While there three Germans entered, bearing the one surname of Schmidt, and, wrangling about their drinks, commenced an assault on Blants. He was knocked down, and while in a prostrate position he was fright-fully beaten by the three men with heavy beer mugs. His head presented a fearful appear-ance, being covered with outs and abrasions, and he was discovered, long after the assailants had made their escape, in a very dangerous con-dition. Serious results are apprehended.

RUN OVER.—Last evening Edward Carney, residing at Thirty-second street and Darby road, was run over by a street car west of the Market street bridge and killed. He leaves a wife and five children. His body was fright-cult mutilated fully mutilated.

CUT HER THROAT .- Mrs. Genter, residing at Ashmead and Clinton streets, cut her throat this morning at 655 o'clock. She lies in a very precarious condition.

GROWING REPUTATION,-If the entire correspondence from South America, Central America, and the West Indies, received by Messrs. Hostetter & Smith during the last twelve months, were published at length, it would probably be considered one of the most extraordinary collections of approbatory testimony on record. The letters, written in every variety of style, and emanating from individuals of almost every class, are, nevertheless, all of the same tenor. Physicians, priests, merchants, planters, military officers, artisans, lawyers, etc., tell one story, admitting, without reserve or qualification, that the tonics heretofore in use in those regions have been generally and justly superseded by HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.

The confidence manifested by the people of these countries might be fairly called enthusiastic. Yet these are not the only tokens of the growing popularity of

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

The foreign orders for the article from Europe, Australia, New Zealand, China, Japan, East Indies, Cape of Good Hope, Sandwich Islands, etc., have been heavier than at any former period.

general invigorant, they all testify to its re-with them a new lease of life. The old are made young again, the middle-aged rejoice, and the young become doubly brilliant by using this splendid Tonic. Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Liver Complaint, Headache, Pains in the Side, "Crick in the Back," and all symptoms of Stomachic Derangement yield at once to the health-giving influence of Plantation Bitters. They add strength to the system and buoyancy to the mind.

By a perusal of one of the pamphlets of the Washington Library Company, organized in ald of the Riversido Institute, we see that among the presents to be distributed among those who purchase stock in aid of this deserving charity there are nearly four hundred valued at from $50 upwards, the highest being worth the snug fortune of $40,000. The stock, it will be remembered, is sold at $1 per share, the purchaser taking his choice from a collection of eight steel-plate engravings, all of which are of the finest finish and workmanship. On the twenty-fifth of this month, when the distribution of $300,000 worth of presents takes place, each share of stock will guarantee one present; or, in other words, for every dollar invested an engraving and a present are promised. The plan is a most liberal one, and as the proceeds are for a most deserving object, none can do better than aid in helping to crown the affair with more than success.

A FEW WORDS ABOUT HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU.-It is not often that we feel ourselves called upon to give ectat to a "patent medicine," but the fact that "Helmbold's Extract Buchu" stares us in the face from the columns of nearly every leading journal throughout the country entitles it to a hearing. We believe, upon the whole, that a more health-promoting and universally desirable medicine has never been given to the public than Helmbold's Extract Buchu, and if, by the strong terms of commen-dation here bestowed upon it was shell here Buchu, and if, by the strong terms of commen-dation here bestowed upon it, we shall have promoted its more general adoption as the fore-most family medicine of the age, it will be a real service to the community.
