

THE COMING ELECTION.

The Rival Candidates.

A GLANCE AT THE FIGURES OF LAST YEAR.

At the rival candidates for the different local offices in which vacancies occur at the close of this year are nearly all in the field, it may not be unprofitable to marshal them side by side, and glance at the figures of last year, by way of divining the result of the campaign which is to terminate on the 8th of October next.

The Judicial Candidates.

The vacancy on the bench of the Court of Common Pleas appears to be the most important of all. A number of "influential citizens, without regard to party lines"—so their proclamations and decrees run—have placed Judge Ludlow in nomination, and on Tuesday afternoon the Democratic Convention, with singular and refreshing unanimity, endorsed the action of the "influential," etc. In opposition to this double-headed nomination, the Republican party has presented to the citizens of Philadelphia the name of the Hon. M. Russell Thayer, the late member of Congress for the Fifth District, and a man who is in every respect the equal of the present incumbent, while his record in the hour of the country's peril is without spot or blemish.

At the election held last October three vacancies on the bench of the Court of Common Pleas were filled, the votes cast for the opposing candidates being as follows:—

Table with 2 columns: Candidate Name and Votes. Includes names like Allison, Pierce, Brewer, and Otterson.

The City and County Offices.

The votes cast for the candidates for the other offices were as follows:—

Table with 2 columns: Office Name and Votes. Includes positions like Mayor, Recorder, and various ward representatives.

The Third Senatorial District.

The only vacancy in the State Senate is the seat for the Third District, which comprises the following wards:—The Fifth, Sixth, Eleventh, Twelfth, Sixteenth, and Seventeenth, and all the divisions of the Eighteenth Ward, except the Eleventh and Twelfth Divisions. The vote in this district last October, for members of the Legislature, was as follows:—

Table with 2 columns: Candidate Name and Votes. Includes names like Bonham, Nagle, and Donovan.

The Representative Districts.

The votes polled in the several Representative Districts last October were as follows:—

Large table with 3 columns: District Name, Candidate Name, and Votes. Lists all 18 districts and their respective candidates and vote counts.

THE ANTIETAM CEMETERY.

The Dedication to take place on the 17th instant—The Arrangements. We learn from Dr. J. E. Burdette, Commissioner for New York, and Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements for the dedication of Antietam National Cemetery, which is to take place on the 17th instant, that the programme is nearly perfected, and that the responses from invited guests warrant the expectation that there will be a large attendance, in addition to the President of the United States and several members of his Cabinet, including Mr. Seward, Chief Justice Chase, and other distinguished gentlemen.

Executive Mansion, Washington, Aug. 25, 1867. Gentlemen:—I have received your invitation to attend the ceremonies of the dedication of the Antietam National Cemetery, and I am glad to hear that the recollections which cluster around the place and day constrain me to accept the invitation, and, if it shall please him, to be present with you on that day. With great respect, very truly yours, ANDREW JOHNSON, U. S. Senator, Thomas A. Bennett, G. L. Cramer, Committee.

Notwithstanding the doubts expressed by some of the newspapers that the invitation to the poets to compete for the distinction of reading an original poem at the Antietam National Cemetery, dedicated on the 17th instant, without pay, would all of a creditable response, Dr. Snodgrass, the Chairman of the Committee, having the matter in hand, reports a large number of poems, several of which, of rare merit, are already in hand, in advance of the time appointed for the decision, which will be made in two or three days.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE ARCH STREET THEATRE.—This favorite establishment will be opened for the season next Saturday evening. The play selected for the occasion is Sheridan's popular comedy of the School for Scandal, in which Mr. John Rowley, "Lady Teazle," Mr. F. F. Mackay as "Sir Peter," and Mr. C. Walcott, Jr., as "Charles Surface." The cast will also embrace Mrs. Thayer, Mrs. Walcott, Miss Lizzie Price, Mr. Kemple, Mr. Craig, Mr. Everly, and others. The performance concludes with the capital comedietta of The Dumb Belle, in which Mr. and Mrs. Walcott, Mrs. Thayer, Mr. Kemple, Miss Price, Mr. Craig, and others will sustain favorite roles.

On Monday evening, after ten years' absence, Mrs. Julia Dean (Hayne) will make her appearance.

THE ITALIAN OPERA.—Mr. Maretzek's troupe are booked for the Academy of Music in December. The following is an official roster of the new company:—

- Prime Donno Soprano—Madame Parepa-Ross, Signora Angela Ferrati, Miss A. M. Hancock, Mrs. A. Roucou, Miss McCulloch, and Madame Louisa Kapp Young. Prime Donno Contralto—Madame Natal-Testa and Mrs. Jennie Kempton. Tenor—Emilio Pancani, R. Baragli, E. Testa, and S. Ananias. Primo Baritone—Signor Giuseppe Bonconi. Primo Baritone—Signors E. Bellini and C. Orlandini. Bass—Signors G. Antonucci and Paolo Medini. Conductors—Maretzek, Bergmann, and Torriani. Stage Manager, signor Debreuil.

Most of these names are pleasantly familiar, and who many will regret the loss of Miss Kellogg and Signor Mazzolini, it is hoped that their places will be acceptably filled. Notable among the new engagements are Madame Kapp Young, a dramatic actress of whom much is expected, but little known here; Mrs. Jennie Kempton, who graduated with honor from the Conservatory of Music, and has been studying opera in Italy; Signor Anastasi, a tenor already somewhat known to our public; Signor Pancani, a "robust" tenor of European reputation; and Signor Medini, a young Italian basso of great reputation.
