This just though severe punishment inflicted upon her "weaker" half, it seems did not deter Catharine from opening her house to the soum Catharine from opening her house to the soum of society, and allowing the followers of Bacchus to assume supreme control of the place, even to a greater extent than when her husband had charge. Hon. George W. Woodward, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, writes;— I find "Hoofand's German Hitters" is not up to too oeaes of the digestive organs, and of great benefit is coses of debility and want of nervous action in the system. Yours truly, Principal Office, 631 Arch Street, Philadelphia,

[From the Rev. E. D. Fendell, Assistant Editor Christian Chronicle, Philadelphia.] I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hootland's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic to all who are suffering from general debility, or from diseases arising from derangement of the liver.

Yours truly,

E. D. FENDALL.

Tours truly,

E. D. FENDALL.

[From Rev. D. Merrige, Pastor of the Passyunk Baptist Church, Philadelphia.]

From the many respectable recommendations gives to Dr. Hooffand's German Bitters, I was induced to give them atrial. After using several bottles I found them to be a good semedy for debility, and a most excellent tonic for the stomach.

D. MERRIGE.

[From Rev. William Smith, formerly Paster of the Vincentown and Mi.lville (N. J.) Baptist Churches.]

Havirg used in my family a number of sottles of your Hooffand's German Bitters, I have to say that I regard them as an excellent medicine, especially adapted to remove the diseases they are recommended for. They strengthen and invigorate the system when debilitated, and are uneful in disorders of the liver, loss of appetite, etc. I have also recommended them to several of my friends, who have tried them and found them greatly beneficial in the restoration of health.

Yours truly.

WILLIAM SMITH.

[From A. M. Spangler, Editor of he Culturist, No:3 North Sixth Street,]

PHILADELPHIA, July 15, 1865,
Some eighteen months since, I was a severe sufferer from dyspepsia. I was not only unable to take plain food without suffering great distress, but had become so debilitated as to be almost unfitted for active bust ness of any kind.

After trying a variety of so-called remedies, all of which proved worthless, I was induced, at the suggestion of a medical friend, to give Hoofland's German Bitters a trial. I accordingly purchased six bottless, which were taken in accordance with your directions.

bottles, which were taken in accordance with your directions.

The result was a complete removal of all distressing symptoms after eating or drinking, and a full restoration of strength, so that I now set all ordinary kinds of food with impunity, and am able to attend to all the active duties of a large and ardinous business as well as at any period of my life the good effects of the Bitters were manifested before I had taken the first bottle.

I have also used it in my family with the happles results, and take great pieasure in adding my tests mony to that of the many others who have been benefited by it. I find great benefit from the use of a vigorous appetite, but give a healthy tone to the stomach by strengthening its digestive powers.

If the above testimony will be the means of inducing any who suffer from Dyspepsia to give your Bittern a trial (when it. I feel confident, will give them relief) it is at your service.

Yours truly.

COURT OF QUARTERS ESSIONS — Judge Ludiow.
—J. Alexander Simpson Prostoning Attorney.—The business of the court seems to be failing off rapidly, for only three unlacky wights graced the prison for only three unlucky wights graced the prinos dock.

Archibald McConnel was charged with assault and battery upon Michael Tunifn. The Commonwealth sileged that Timilh was paying the flute at his door, and the defendant said he p ayed like a "learn't pig," This aggravated Timilh to such a decree that he gave the defendant a rap over the head with his flute. The defendant then struck Timin on the brad with a store. The defense was in t Timila and his brother were beating the defendant, when the latter's sister ran out and cried "Murder." The two Timilias then turned on the woman and beat her, and then the defendant threw the stone. Verdict, not suffey.

John Rice (colored) was charged with the larcony of flacuel valued at $24. Two little boys tentified that they saw the defendant open a box at the Sostom Steamship Company's wharf, at Pine street, and take goods from it. He ran down the wharf to Lombard street, and gave the boys money not to inform on lim. There were these concerned in the there, the others being in prison, but not yet having been tried. Verdict, guilty.

Margaret McGivney was charged with assault and others being in prison, but not yet having been tried. Verdiot, guilty.

Marraret McGivney was charged with assault and battery upon Marraret McKinsly. There was not a word of evidence to support the charge. Verdiot, not guilty and the prosecutor to pay the casts.

Frederick W. Ramm and William Kennedy were charged with assault and battery upon Charles R. Munday. Munday testified that on the night of August 12 he went into the defendant's saloon, in company with a colored man. When he entered the place the two defendants and three other men were there. He went to the counter to drink a glass of beer, and while he was so engaged the detendant Ramm roughly put the colored man out into the street. beer, and while he was so engaged the derendant Ramm roughly put the colored man out into the street.

He told them not to use violent means to get the coloved man to leave the place, because if they would civilly ask him to go out he would do so. But at talk time a large New candisnd dog entered the room, and kamm and Kennedy hissed him. He (Manday) retreated towards the door, and was tripped down by some one of the party, and immediately the dog select his leg and made a number of severe wounds with his teeth.

The colored man testified that he was violently thrown into the street, and while he was lying on the pavement he heard the hisses inside, and the scriffla between Munday and the dog; and when Munday came out he saw his pants had been torn by the dog.

Charles B. Munday was also charged with assault and battery upon Frederick W. Ramm. These were cross bills, and were tried together. Ramm testified that Mun'ay was quarreleome, and wanted to fight some one; and becoming excited, he pulled off his coat and attacked him (Ramm); the dog entered the room without being called, and seeing Munday fighting his master, he, like a good dog, flew at him.
