Advancing Civilization.

Frequent reference to the amount of our national debt has accustomed the public mind to such extraordinary arrays of figures, that the wonderfully rapid growth of other interests. which bid fair to assume an equal financial importance, has not been realized. So numerous are the grand departments of civilization with which we have to do, that it is difficult for our intelligence to keep pace with the progress of all, so as to comprehend their relation to us.

The system of life insurance, a republican idea of mutual protection, making easy and attractive a social duty not recognized ten years ago, has acquired an importance to society and commerce rapidly approaching that of the responsibility of the national debt. By it special provision has already been made for the support and happiness of two millions persons of the best American society, in form of policies covering nine hundred millions dollars. Though yet in its infancy, it now distributes six millions dollars annually for the relief of impaired estates and bereaved families among us, accomplishing an inestimable good, in thus guarding dependent ones with the fruit of departed fathers' productive years.

Thanks to the diligent and earnest men devoted to this cause, many good institutions o' this kind now possess the confidence and liberal patronage of the people they serve. Among those embraced in the last report of the New York Insurance Department, we notice, with both wonder and gratification, the strength of position already attained by the North America Life Insurance Company of New York, now less than five years old. It received an average premium on all its policies, during the year 1866, of two hundred and two dollars, larger, by nearly fifty per cent., than has ever been received by any other company in America. We have also learned that this Company has, among its policy holders, two hundred of the most prominent merchants, manufacturers, and bankers of New York city (the home of the Company), whose annual premiums average more than one thousand dollars each. About two thousand new policies have been issued through Nelson F. Evans, Esq., at the Philadelphia Branch, during the past three years.

To gain in so short a time the public confidence these facts indicate, is a marvellous achievement, possible only with men of great skill and large experience, guided by sound and wise principles. Such men compose the administration of the North America Life Insurance Company of New York.

IMPORTANT FROM MEXICO.

Another Revolution.

From the New Orleans Picayune, We have before us La Concordia of 9th August ultimo, in which we find a decree of Benito Juarez, claiming to be constitutional President of the Mexican United States, whereby he proof the Mexican United States, whereby he proceeds to "organize" the Supreme Court. He of course deposes thereby all those members of it elected by the people and Congress, including Jesus Gonzales Ortegs, Chief Justice, and now ex-officio the constitutional President; but as Justice had already usurped the office, this is hardly a new thing. The only wonder is that he had not named himself for the Presidency of the Supreme Court, instead of Sebastian Lerdo de Tejada.

Tyler's claims under her mother's will, came on for review before the General Term of the Supreme Court, at Newburg, on Wednesday,
J. dge Pierrepont and Mr. Evarts, as counsel for Mrs. Tyler, moved to set aside the verdict as contrary to the law and evidence. In behalf of Mr. Gardiner an effort was made to put off the cause, on the ground of a quarrel between him and Mr. Watson, his counsel, who claimed $12,000 fees before he would transfer the litigation to new counsel. The Court refused to put off the argument, but allowed till October 1 for
Mr. Gardiner to put in a printed argument. Mr. Gardiner to put in a printed argument.

Trotting at the Vermont State Fair, Brattleboro, Sept. 13.—The last day of the Vermont State Fair was not as successful as anticipated, there not being over fifteen hundred people present, notwithstanding the exceedingly fine weather. This was probably owing to the scant attractions. The principal things on the programme were the two trots advertised to corps off for the premiums of $200 and tised to come off for the premiums of $200 and $100. For the first race there were three entries, as follows:—O. T. Ruggles' bay gelding, Captain Lawrence; A. B. Mellendi's brown stallion, Dandy Jack; and G. C. Hall's brown mare, Lady Grant. Mr. Ruggles' horse, Captain Lawrence, won the race in three straight heats, in fine style, in 2 50, 244, and 2 48.

For the second race the following entries were made:—H. G. Root's white mare Fanny; E. S. Stowell's bay gelding Jackson; E. C. Miller's brown mare Belle; and H. Tyman's black stallion Jim Lyman. Fanny won the race in two tised to come off for the premiums of $200

New York and Boston thieves and pick-pockets still linger here, and, to judge by the losses, they have been doing a thriving business. Several arrests have been made, and the ness. Several arrests have been made, and the gentry finding this place too hot for them, are trying to get away.

Sketch of Blind Tom. Thomas Green, or Bethune, as he is called, was born in Muscogee county. Georgia, near Columbus, on the 25th of May, 1849. His parents were slaves, belonging to General Bethune, from whom he derives his name. Tom was the fourteenth of ninsteen children, was blind and almost half-witted from his infancy displayed a wonderful power of imitating every sound be heard, no matter what kind, and in fact, proved himself entirely governed by sound. He displayed a perfect adoration for music, and on a plane being brought into the house as a present for his master's daughter, he appeared immensely delighted at its sound, and being allowed at length to touch the keys, to the astonishment of all present he played over a piece which his young mistress had just before performed. He was at this time four years old! General Bethune took him to Columbus, where he exhibited his marvellous gift before a professor of music. Since then he may been playing every piece he heard, and at the age of seventeen is a perfect marvel. He plays two separate will repreduce exactly a piece of music which he has never before heard, after beauling it played over once; recites, imitates, and reproduces the sound of every kind of instanment on the plane. He is a prodigrunequalled.

ONE OF THE INCURABLES .- Upon most men punishment has the effect of deterring them, if not from the commission of crime altogether, at least so far as the particular crime for which they were punished. But Peter Boen does not allow the law to terrify him. Peter, it is alleged, is not a very pugnacious man among men, but he is terribly so when his wife is concerned. Many a timel and off, has Peter had cerned. Many a time and oft has Peter had unpleasant interviews with the Alderman of his Ward, After the occurrence of some more his Ward, After the occurrence of some more than usually aggravating assault upon the wife of his bosom; and still the unrepentant Peter went on in his domestic warfare. To-day he had the sixty-fifth hearing upon that charge. It appears that he had been sent below upon the same charge, but had been discharged because his wife did not appear against him day before yesterday. He went to his house, and, as he said, his wife would not admit him. He went to Alderman Heins for a warrant for her, but not getting any he went back to his house, and made an attack upon it and his wife. He was arrested whilst engaged in this noisy occupation, and taken before Alderman Heins, who, after a hearing, committed him in default of bail to answer. default of ball to answer.

STRALING BRICKS .- A native of the Emerald Isle, rejoicing in the name of Paddy Campbell and residing in the Fifteenth Ward, was arand residing in the Fifteenth Ward, was arrested upon a charge of larceny, at an early hour this morning. Paddy has two very small mansions built of brick which are considerably out of repair. Bricks being remarkably high, and his finances at a low ebb, Paddy cast covetous eyes at a pile of bricks standing in Iront of a building in progress of erection at Nineteenth and Hamilton streets, and concluded to transfer a portion of them to his own premises. He commenced operations, but had hardly got under way before he was taken into custody, and escorted to Alderman Pancoast's office. He had a hearing, and was held in $600 ball to answer.

POCKET-BOOK STOLEN .- Mr. Taylor went into POCKET-BOOK STOLEN.—Mr. Taylor went into the saloon of Mr. Taylor, at Eleventh and Oxford streets, yesterday afternoon, and left his pocket-book in a box in the saloon, and, forgeting it, turned away from it. Having occasion to pay some money, he turned back to where he recollected to have put it, but the riches had taken to themselves wings and he did not see it or them. He then accused Richard Lane, who had been by when he last saw his pocket-book, of been by when he last saw his pocket-book, of having stolen it, and had him arrested. Lane had a hearing before Alderman Kemble, who held him, for a further investigation of the case, in the sum of $500 bail.

A Ban Hix.—A man by the name of James Boyd, keeping a store in the lower part of the city, has been annoyed for some time past by a party of boys, who congregate around the front of his premises. Yesterday afternoon, after experiencing considerable annoyance from them, he ordered them away, and they not going, he got infuriated at them, and picking up a stick of wood that was lying at hand, struck one of them on the head with it. knockstruck one of them on the head with it, knocking him down. He was arrested soon afterwards, and after a hearing before Alderman Mink, was committed in default of $500 ball to answer the charge of assault and battery, with SUSPECTED OF LARCENY .- Officer Cribb, of the Seventh District, stopped a wagon at Third and Green streets at midnight last night, as, from its movements, suspecting something wrong, he made an inspection of its contents. wrong, he made an inspection of its contents. The wagon was in charge of Patrick Tigh, Daniel Brannon, and Peter Dougherty, and contained a mash-tub, still, worm, and pump. Not being able to give a good account of how they came into their possession, the three were taken into custody. They had a hearing before Alderman Toland, upon a charge of suspicion of larceny, and were held in $600 bail to answer.

This is an entirely new heater. It is so constructed as to at once commend itself to general favor, being a combination of wrought and cast iron. It is very simple in its construction, and is perfectly airtight; self-cleaning, having no pipes or drums to be taken out and cleaned. It is so arranged with upright flues as to produce a larger amount of heat from the same weight of coal than any furnace now in use. The hysrometric condition of the air as preduced by my new arrangement of evaporation will at once demonstrate that it is the only flot Air Farnace that will produce a perfectly bealthy atmosphere.

FROM WASHINGTON THIS P. M.

Position of the President-The Enfranchisement of Rebels. [SPECIAL DESPATCH TO EVENING TELEGRAPH.] WASHINGTON, Sept. 14 - Attorney-General Stanbery is writing an opinion relative to the exact nearing of the late Amnesty Proclamarion. The Attorney-General magnians that all persons ampestied by the proclamation of the 7th instant will be entitled to register and to yote in the South. The President and Mr. Stanbery do not deny that this is in conflict with the spirit and letter of the Beconstruction acts. but argue that the power delegated to the Executive in the finatter of pardons is anterior and superior to any special act of Congress.

Upon this point Judge Black and Mr. Seward both differ with Mr. Stancery, and the Democrats here seem to side with Judge Black. The latter believes that any lawfmade by Congress which does not conflict with the Constitution, or is authorized by it, either in letter or spirit, must be the law of the land. He thinks there can be no such thing as special illegitimate legis-lation upon the subject of reconstruction, and it it takes place, must make Congress revolutionary in character.

I have it from good authority that the reports to the effect that the President intends to dis-perse Congress in case of an attempt to impeach him are entirely without foundation. Mr. Johnson believes that Congress has evaded and broken the Constitutional law of the land-that radicalism has been too rampant in that body but he is too great a stickler for the Constitu tion to seize any improper or unconstitutional power to override Congress.

He says his acts will be in the future similar to those in the past. He will take no step that will oppose the Constitution or laws properly enacted under it by the representatives of the The President expects to be impeached, but

EDGAR RIVERLINGENCE,

SUPREME COURT IN EQUITY-Judge Read .for an injunction to restrain the city authorities from for an injunction to restrain the city authorities from proceeding further in the tearing up of the present payement of Broad atreet, and the laying of the Nicholson payement, arguedos/ore this Court a week or so ago, and then fully reported, a decision was gived this morning. The Judge passed a high and lengthy encomium upon the superiority of the Nicholson payement over all others, and expressed himself satisfied that its being laid in Broad street would not only be a great advantage to the city, but would be undoubtedly to the interest of the owners of property on the said street.

On the question of law presented in the argument, the Judge said that public highways were the property of the State, and therefore under the control of the Legislature. The Legislature had vested our City Councils with the power of laying, taking up, and relaying payements along the highways of the city, and had left with them the option of the style of payement to be laid. The "cobble-stone" objection—that is, the complaint that the city was taking up cobble-stones laid at the expense of plaintiffs, without giving them compensation—the Judge looked upon as nothing.

As to the objection that Councils had not required giving them compensation—the Judge looked upon as nothing.

As to the objection that Councils had not required security from the contractors, to insure the city from loss in case of a failure of the pavement, the judge said that agreement had obliged the contractors to raise the costs of laving the pavement from the owners of property abutting on Broad street, being clearly the right of Councils to do so, and also had bound them to keep the pavement in good condition for three years after its completion; and surely this was as much security as the city could desire. Upon the whole, seeing that this pavement would, in all probability, be a good to the city at large, and to the plaintiffs themselves, instead of a hurt to any one, and there being no legal reason why such an injunction as was prayed for should be granted, the judge refused the prayer of the plaintiffs.

The boy had been placed by his mother in the Heuse of Refuge, and this writ was sued out at the instance of his uncle, who said the boy was not malicious and incorrigible, and that he would be willing to take the boy and Tear him up properly. Evidence was taken which proved that the boy was not a proper subject for the custody of the Managers of the House of Refuge, and therefore the Judge discharged him.

BEAD WHO SAYS SO.

Hon. George W. Woodward, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, writes;— Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, writes;—
PHILADELPHIA, March 18, 1897.
I find "Hoofland's German Bitters" is not an intoxicating beverage, but is a good Tonic, useful in discusses of debrity and want of nervous action in the Principal Office, 631 Arch Street, Philadelphia.

[From the Rev. E. D. Fendell, Assistant Rottor Christian Chronicie, Philadelphia.] I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hoosland's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic to all who are suffering from general debility, or from diseases arising from derangement of the liver.

Yours truly,

E. D. FENDALL.

[From Rev. D. Merrige, Pastor of the Passyunk Baptist Church, Philadelphis.]

From Rev. D. Merrice, Passor of the Passyunk Baptist Church, Philadelphia.]

From the many respectable recommendations given to Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I was induced to give them a trial. After using several bottles I found them to be a good lemedy for debility, and a most excellent tonic for the atomach. D. MERRIGE.

[From Rev. William Smith, formerly Paster of the Vincentown and Milville (N. J.) Baptist Churches, J. Havirg used in my family a number of hottles of your Hoofland's German Bitters, I have to say that I regard them as an excellent medicine, especially adapted to remove the diseases they are recommended for. They strengthen and invigorate the system when debilitated, and are nueful in disorders of the liver, loss of appetite, etc. I have also recommended them to several of my frieads, who have tried them and found them greatly beneficial in the restoration of health. Yours truly, WILLIAM SMITH,

[From A. M. Spangler, Editor of he Culturist, No:2 North Sixth Street.]

PHILADELPHIA, July 15, 1885, from dyspecsia. I was not only unable to take plain food without suffering great distress, but had become so debilitated as to be almost unfitted for active business of any kind. ness of any kind.

After trying a variety of so-called remedies, all of which proved worthless, I was induced, at the suggestion of a medical friend, to give Hoofland's German Bitters a frial. I accordingly purchased six bottles, which were taken in accordance with your bottles, which were taken in accordance with your directions.

The result was a complete removal of all distresstog symptoms after eating or drinking, and a full restoration of strength, so that I now eat all ordinary kinds of food with impunity, and am able to attend to all the active duties of a large and ardious business as well as at any period of my life: the good effects of the Bitters were manifested before I had taken the first bottle.

I have also used it in my family with the happies results, and take great pleasure in adding my test, mony to that of the many pthers who have been benefited by it. I find great benefit from the use of a bottle in the spring and fail. They not only create a vigorous appetite, but give a healthy tone to the stomach by strengthening its directive powers.

If the above testimony will be the means of inducing any who suffer from Dyspepsia to give your Bitters a trial (when it. I feel confident, will give them relief) it is at your service.

A. M. SPANGLER,

Rev. J. S. Herman, of the German Reformed Church Kutztown, Berks county, Pa., was cured of Dyspepsia of twenty years' standing.

Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclo-predia of Religious Knowledge and Christian Chroni-cle, Philadelphia; Rev. Thomas Winter, D. D., Pastor of Roxborough Baptist Church;

Rev. Levi G. Beck, Pastor of the Baptist Church Pemberton, N. J., formerly of the North Baptist Church, Philadelphia, at present Pastor of the Bap-tist Church, Chester, Pa.; These gentlemen express, in the strongest terms heir favorable opinion of this Bitters.
