AMUSEMENTS.

"THE BLACK CROOR" will be played every evering this week at the Academy of Music. Mad lies Pepils, Betty Rigal, and "Oceana" will appear, with the grans ballet of one hundred artistes. The spectacle is having considerable success since it has been running smoothly.

"CASTE," at the Chesnut, continues popular. It is very well played and is exceedingly interesting. The acting of Mr. and Mrs. Florence, Miss Josic Orton, Mr. Jennings, and Mr. Lennox is excellent. Mr. Ben. E. Woolf has enlarged and improved the orchestra, and the music is now as good as can be desired. No one should fall to see Mr. Robertson's new success, the comedy of Chale. the comedy of Caste.

AT THE ARCH Miss Julia Dean begins her second week. She appears in the Woman in White, supported by Mr. Frank Lawlor, Mr. Walcot, Mr. Everly, Mr. Craig, Miss Lizzle Price, and others. Next Friday, for her benefit, Miss Julia Dean appears in Jon. The new London success called Innisfallen is in rehearsal at the Arch.

AT THE WALNUT, the fairy spectacle of A Midsummer Night's Dream continues in the full tide of success. It is as popular as ever. The spectacle will be presented every night this week and on Saturday afternoon.

THE AMERICAN THEATRE opened on Saturday evening to an immense audience. The performance passed off satisfactorily. John Mulligan, Mad'lles Laurent, La Rosa, Alice Seidler, and Susie Summerfield appear every night. Two beautiful ballets and a comic pantomime are to be presented this evening.

CARNCROSS & DIXEY, at the Eleventh Street Opera House, announce this week a new era in minstrelsy. They present a sensational panorama of A Trip Around the World, prepared at a cost of $3000, and also other attractions. This is something novel for the "Burnt Cork Pro-fessors of Music."

THIS IS THE LAST WEEK of Alf. Burnett, the wonderful mimic and elocutionist, who, during sn evening, moves his audience from tears to laughter almost instantaneously. Alf. is a genins of varied talents, and his portraitures are so laughable and real that he astonishes all. His programme is changed this week entirely, excepting his "Woman's Rights" lecture, which he reproduces, and retaining "Nasby." His performance commences at 8 o'clock. On Wednesday a matinee at 3,
