CITY POLITICS .- There is dissension in the Cirr Politics.—There is dissension in the camp of the Democracy in the Third Representative District. Last year Samuel Josephs carried the district, which consists of the Tenth and Eleventh Divisions of the Second Ward; the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, and Eighth Divisions of the Third Ward; the whole of the Fourth Ward; and the First and Third Divisions of the Fifth Ward, by the clever majority of 2578. Such a surplus of strength is, of course, a great promoter of dissension; but "the notorious Cattle bill," as the Unterrified style it, is the direct source of the present difficulty. Of this obnoxious measure the Hon. Samuel Josephs, who is a candidate for re-election, is accused of having been a supporter, and it is even instinuated that its authorship can be traced to his fertile brain. Therefore, a portion traced to his fertile brain. Therefore, a portion of the Democracy are after the Hon, Samuel with the sharpest kind of a stick, and they propose to give him an opportunity to remain at home for the benefit of his private affairs, In furtherance of this landable design, the Democratic citizens of the district are invited Democratic citizens of the district are invited to assemble at 8 o'clock this evening, at "Literary Hall," on Fifth street, above South, where they will enjoy a rare and rich opportunity of abusing the Hon. Samuel, as he so meritoriously deserves. We hope there will be a large turnout, and that the sharp stick will effectually put the Hon. Samuel hors de combat. Mr. A. M. Walkinshaw, the Republican candidate, is abundantly qualified to attend to the interests of the Third District in the next Legislature.

This evening there will be a meeting of the Republican voters of the Seventh Division of the Ninth Ward, at the house of Michael John-ston, No. 1911 Market street, when business of importance will be brought up for their con-sideration. Addresses will be delivered by the Charles O'Neill and other eminent speakers.

A meeting of the Republican voters of the Fourteenth Ward will also be held at 8 o'clock this evening, and addresses will be delivered by the Hon. Henry. D Moore, Major E. D. Buckman, Capiain W. J. Mackay, and others, Let there be a large and enthusiastic turnout on this occasion.

The trouble among the Republicans of the

The trouble among the Republicans of the Twenty-sixth Ward appears to have been adjusted to the satisfaction of all concerned, at last. It will be remembered by our readers that two separate conventions were held in this ward, and two tickets placed in the field. The ticket headed by Mr. Robert Armstrong for Select Council subsequently received the endorsement of the Ward Executive Committee; but its opponents broadly insinuated that this endorsement was secured only by its description. endorsement was secured only by vi et armis, and other unwarrantable proceedings. On Saturday evening, however, another meeting of the Executive Committee was held, at which the following resolution unanimously pre

"Resolved, That the members of this Committee, desiring harmony and unity in the party, now earnestly endorse, and will use all honorable means in our power to elect, the following ticket:—
"For Select Council—Robert Armstrong.
"For Common Council—George A. Shisaler, James S. Stewart, for unexpired term.
"School Directors—David Baker, Francis Gwynn, John Kessler, George Austin."
We know not as yet, whather this resolution

We know not, as yet, whether this resolution is to stand, without another charge of fraud on the part of Mr. Armstrong's opponents. We hope that such is the case, and shall regard the action of the Committee as the final settlement of the difficulty, unless the other side is heard from without delay. There is no time to spare for petty bickerings and disputes, nor can we afford to lose the united strength of the Twenty-Sixth Ward.

It should not be forgotten that the Republican Naturalization Committee is in daily session at No. 416 Library street, from 10 to 2 o'clock. The unnaturalized foreigners resident in the city should remember that the approaching contest in this State is but a part of the great battle for equality and instee which is now progressing. equality and justice which is now progressing so gallantly all over the world, in their own native land as well as in the country of their adoption. Let them be true to their own interests, and prepare to do their duty on the 8th of October.

RELIGIOUS MATTERS .- At 3 o'clock to-morrow afternoon, the lecture-room of the Mount Carmel Methodist Episcopal Church, on the Germantown road, above Broad street, will be dedicated with appropriate exercises. The sermon will be preached by the Rev. B. H. Nadal, D. D., pastor of Trinity M. E. Church, and the ceremonial conducted by the Rev. J. Mason, Presiding Elder of the District. The Rev. T. W. Maclary is the pastor of; the new church, which is in a very flourishing condition.

At 3 o'clock to-morrow afternoon, the cornerstone of the new Tabernacle Methodist Episco-pal Church, in Camden, N. J., will be laid, the Rev. J. Lewis, Presiding Elder of the district, Rev. J. Lewis, Presiding Elder of the district, officiating. Addresses appropriate to the occasion, will be delivered by the Revs. Alfred Cookman and Thomas A. Fernley, of this city, and by the Rev. C. H. Whitecar, of the New Jersey Conference. Some months ago, the congregation of this Church disposed of their edifice in the extreme northern part of the city, and since then have conducted their services in a temporary board building near the site of their projected new edifice. The services tomorrow afternoon will be held in the frame church. The Rev. J. W. Hickman is the present postor of the church.

A grove meeting is now in progress in Meloney's Woods, Kingsessing, Twenty-seventh Ward, under the charge of the Rev. J. R. S. Gray, pastor of the Paschaiville Methodist Episcopal Church. It will be continued throughout the present week, and during Sunday next, Sept. 22, services being held every day at 10:30 A. M., and at 3 and 7:30 P. M. A CONTEMPTIBLE SWINDLER .- A few days age a swindle was perpetrated in the lower part of a swindle was perpetrated in the lower part of the city which, for contemptible meanness, excels anything that has been brought to our attention of late. Two industrious young girls, each of whom was the owner of a sewing machine, found themselves in the unfortunate predicament of being without work. While sorrowfully wondering where their daily bread was to come from, they were made an offer which they readily accepted. A polite and genteel-looking individual walted upon them, alleging that he was in want of the services of girls with sewing-machines of their own. He gave them a card, on which was his name and gave them a card, on which was his name and gave them a card, on which was his name and place of business, in the centre of the city, stating that their work would be ready for them on the following morning. During the afternoon he promised to send a man for their machines, so that no time should be lost on the morrow. Accordingly a man with a wagon called, and the two sewing machines were consigned to his care. On the following morning the two girls repaired to the scene of their new labors, but their genteel employer was unknown in that section of the city, and thus far no tidings of him or of their machines have been received. There is a moral connected been received. There is a moral connected with this story which young ladies who are the owners of sewing machines will do well to study

House Robbery.-Yesterday morning, be-HOUSE KOBBERY.—Yesterday morning, be-tween 8 and 9 o'clock, persons living opposite observed some persons opening the shutters of the house at the southwest corner of Twenty-first and Green streets. Knowing that the family occupying the house were absent, they suspected that something was wrong; and shortly afterwards, seeing the shutters closed, they immediately gave an alarm. Several po-licemen soon made their appearance, and on entering the house they found the thieves had flown. The whole house was found to have flown. The whole house was found to have been ransacked from the cellar to the garret, and everything of value—jewelry, silver plate, clothing, etc. ctc.—had been stolen that could be carried away. The extent of the loss is at present unknown, but must be very considerable.

The occupant of the house, Mr. S. G. Fry, returned during the day, and the following, with other articles, were missing, vlz.—One lady's black slik cloak; two black cloth overcoats; one velvet collar; a purse, with five one dollar gold pieces; a new pearl-handled four-bladed penknite; a portmonnale, with a small amount of currency.

The thieves had obtained entrance through the back cellar-door, and forced their way up through the house.

A SAVAGE FELLOW .- Last Saturday night Michael; Mulligan was acting in a very disorderly manner on Green street, in the Twentyfifth Ward. Officer Lerman attempted to quiet him; but Mike would not be quelled, and threatened to kill the officer if he did not leave As the latter did not show any inclination to do so, Mike picked up a brick and heaved it at him. He dodged it, and then went for Mike, who was arrested and taken before Alderman Senix, and, after a hearing, was committed to answer the charge of assault and battery, with

A SUNDAY SHOOTING APPAIR-THE VIOTIM, A BOY

A SUNDAY SHOOTING APPAIR—THEVIOTIM, A BOY OF FOURTEEN, NOT EXPECTED TO SURVIVE—Boating is a very entertaining pastime, and, generally speaking, quite as harmless as it is pleasant. But when young men and boys set at defiance the moral sense of the community, and engage in such pastimes on the Sabbata, it not unfrequently happens that disaster is the result. Such was, unfortunately, the case yesterday afternoon; and a murder trial will, in all probability, grow out of it.

According to the testimony given by Cornelius Canin, a brother of the sufferer, at the hearing which was held this morning by Alderman Sinex, the circumstances attending the sad affair was as follows:—Two young men, Charles Fisher and Jacob Jacobs by name, were engaged, about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, in rowing down Gunner's run, a small stream in the northern section of the city. Fisher at one time left the boat, and shortly returned with a leaded shot sun. Entering the boat the two the borner section of the city. Fisher at one time left the boat, and shortly returned with a londed shot gun. Entering the boat, the two proceeded down the stream until they came near the bridge which crosses in at Cumberland street, and then Charles Fisher deliberately fired into a crowd of boys who were standing on the bridge, bitting and seriously wounding a lad by the name of Charles Canin, who was but fourteen years of age. The contents of the gun lodged years of age. The contents of the gun lodged in his heart, neck, and left ear. The unfortunate lad was removed to his residence, No. 1017 Sommerset street, where two physicians have since been in attendance upon him. This morning he was in a very critical condition, and is not expected to recover. After the firing of the shot, the party in the boat was followed by the crowd of boys on the shore, the latter throwing stones at the former, to prevent their escape. They were both subsequently arrested, and this morning Aldorman sinex gave them a hearing, when the above facts were elicited; but there was no testimony as to the elicited; but there was no testimony as to the origin of the affair. Jacob Jacobs was held in $1500 ball to appear at Court; but Charles Fisher, who fired the shot, was committed to await the results of Canin's injuries. Fisher is but nineteen years of age, and resides at No. 1031 Cumberland street. Jacobs is twenty-three years old, and lives at No. 2314 Coral

According to another version of the affair' Charles Fisher, in company with John Jacobs and Charles Leopold, were rowing up Gunner's Run, in the neighborhood of Sommerset street. On arriving at this point Fisher left the boat in charge of Leopold, and proceeded to the residence of John Jacobs. On returning shortly he found Leopold standing on the shore and the boat in the middle of the stream, it having been taken possession of by the lad Charles Canin and other boys who were in his company. Fisher demanded that they should return to the shore with the boat, which request they refused to comply with. He then hurried off to his house and returned with the loaded gun, again demanding that the boat should be brought to the shore. This time his request was compiled with. Fisher then entered the boat, in company with Jacob Jacobs, a brother of John Jacobs, and rowed out into the stream. Before they had gone far, Canin and his company was recovered. According to another version of the affair' the stream. Before they had gone far, Canin and his companions commenced to throw stones at them, which so exasperated Fisher that he deliberately fired the contents of the gun at young Canin, with the result as given above.

The affair has created considerable excitement in the neighborhood of its occurrence, and, according to both accounts, the course pursued by Fisher was entirely without any justification.

FIREMEN'S VISIT TO INDEPENDENCE HALL. This morning the Committee of Arrangements escorted the Eagle Fire Company, of Buffalo, to Independence Hall. They were accompanied, also, by a fine brass band, and the members both of the visiting Company and the Committee, being in citizen's dress, made a very line appearance. At a quarter to 10 o'clock mittee, being in citizen's dress, made a very fine sprearance. At a quarter to 10 o'clock, preceded by the band, they filed into independence Hall. Colonel Peter Fritz, in behalf of the Mayor, made the speech of welcome, and assured them of the kindly feelings that the citizens and firemen of this city bore towards the visitors present, and to their native city. He also made aliusion to the time-honored relies that now adorn the Hall.

Hon, A. M. Klapp, Mayor of Buffalo, spoke in response to Colonel Fritz, and alluded to the kind reception of the Eagle Hose Company, which he had the honor of representing.

After the speaking had been concluded the band played the "Star Spangled Banner," "Yankee Doodle," etc., and the members of the visiting Company made an inspection of the relies. They then paid a visit to Masonic Hall, and from thence to the Union League House, and other places of interest. and other places of interest.

A Sharp Operation in Beep.—Mr. Patrick

A SHARP OPERATION IN BREF .- Mr. Patrick Duffee bought fourteen cows a few days ago, at the drove yard in the Twenty-fourth Ward, Soon afterwards, he sold six of them, and gave soon alterwards, he sold six of them, and gave the eight remaining into the charge of a man named Michael Donnelly, to drive into a field close by. Donnelly, instead of doing as he was directed, drove them away and sold them and pocketed the money. He then went away, but on Saturday afternoon he returned to the vicinity of the drove yard in West Philadelphia, and Mr. Duffee had him arrested. He had a hearing before Alderman Allen, and was held in $1000 ball to answer.

Passing Bad Currency .- In the classic region of Sixth and Cresson streets there is an institution conducted by a Mrs. White. John Harvey and John O'Brien, who were in pursuit of pleasure upon Saturday night, could not pass by the inviting portals of that abode, and when they went inside they found that in return for the hospitalities of the place they could not pass a counterfeit greenback. Neither could they pass a policeman, who politely accompanied them to the office of Alderman Beitler. After a preliminary investigation into the charge of attempting to pass counterfeit currency, Alderman Beltler held all three for a further hearing.

STEALING WHISKY .- Owen McCarty and Pete Burns, it is alleged, went to the store of Frank Cuyle, at Barnwell and South streets, and conceiving a great admiration for his whisky, rolled a barrel of it into a wagon and whisky, rolled a barrel of it into a wagon and made off with it. On losing his spirits in this way, Coyle got the blues to go after the two ardent thieves. One of them was arrested close by the store, and the other was arrested by Licutenant Connelly at Fifteenth and Spruce streets. Owen McCarty had a preliminary examination before Alderman Swift, who committed him for a further hearing. mitted him for a further hearing.

ANOTHER "MANLY ART" EXHIBITION. couple of roughs in this city, known by the chases of "Shorty" and "Reddy" had a dispute as to which was the "best man," and to settle it resolved to have a regular prize-fight. The result was that "Shorty's" second threw up result was that "Shorty's" second threw up ponge, when they returned to the city un-

ROBBERY IN A BRER SALOON .- Last Saturday ROBBERY IN A BERR BALOON.—Last Saturday night a boatman went into a place at No. 450 North Front street, kept by Catharine Moore, and whilst there was robbed of his pocket-book, containing $24. As soon as he discovered his loss he had the proprietress, a man named Peter Brobender, and several others, arrested on the charge of committing the robbery. They had a hearing before Alderman Toland, who held them to answer the charge of larceny.

ARE YOU BILIOUS? -- Multitudes of both sexes will answer to this question in the affirmative; for, next to diserders of the stomach, liver complaints are perhaps the most prevalent of all internal diseases. Its usual symptoms are a yellowish tinge in the whites of the eyes, especially near the inner corners, an uneasy or slightly painful sensation in the right side, pain between the shoulder-blades, sick headache, lassitude, mental dullness, lack of appetite, and irregularity of the bowels. Whoever recognizes this diagnosis as applying to his own condition, may be quite certain that more bile exists in his blood and less passes through his bowels than is expedient for his health, and that his liver requires toning and regulating. One of the special uses of

> Letter from Chief Justice Chase. Johnson's friends say he has a letter from Chief Justice Chase, indorsing the removal o General Sickles, as a vindication of the authority of the Supreme Court, and its publication is looked for, though it is alleged to have been confidential. Mr. Greeley's Letter About Steedman, The publication of Horace Greeley's letter to Johnson, recommending General Steedman for Secretary of War, in January, 1866, excites much comment to-day. It evidently came direct from Johnson himself, for no one supposes Greeley was silly enough to entrust a confidential letter to a person to deliver who would take a copy of it. It proves that Johnson will violate all confidence to serve his own ends. Just now he is very desirous for Steedman to have the place, but Steedman don't want it, as he fears he cannot be confirmed. The publi-cation of this letter is part of the plan to operate on Steedman and aid in advancing his confirmation, should be consent to be made Secretary of War. THE BOSTON CATHEDRAL.

Ceremony of Laying the Corner-Stone of the Cathedral of the Holy Cross at Boston-Several Thousand Spectators in Attendance-Sermon by Archbishop McCloskey-Dimensions and Cost of the Boston, Sept. 15 .- The corner-stone of the new Cathedral of the Holy Cross, destined to be the second largest Roman Catholic cathedral in America, was laid with appropriate and imposing ceremonies this afternoon, in the presence of a conceurse of sixty or seventy thousand people. The great situature is being erected on the corner of Washington and Maiden streets, and for several hours before and during the progress of the exercises all the available thoroughfares and housetops in the vicinity were a solid mass of humanity, and nearly ail remained until the three hours' ceremony was concluded.

Some two hundred priests were present, many of them coming from distant Southern and Western States. There were also present Bishops McCoskey, of New York: McFarland, of Hartford: Laughlin, of Brocklyb; Bacon of Portland; and Conroy, of Albany; and Governor Builock, of Massachusetts; Msyor Norcross, the Judges of the Supreme Court, and many other preminent citizens and officials.

and many other prominent citizens and officials.

The ceremonies of laying the stone, conforming strictly to the evermonies of the Church of Rome, ware grand and imposing in the extreme. Bishop Williams, of the Boston ducese, acted as celebrant, and was ass sted by the bishops and clergy abovenamed. The exercises took place in a large tent, which had been erected over the space which the edifice is to cover, and were commenced by Bishop Williams blessing the place upon which the grand altar of the Cathedral is to stand. He then proceeded to the blessing of the corner-stone, after which the form of depositing it in its place was carried out in a most imposing manner. The corner-stone having seen thus laid, the Bishop, preceded by the clergy in procession, made the entire circuit of the walls, sprinkling the foundations with holy water and reciting appropriate paalms. citing appropriate psaims.

The Bishop and the several priests having returned to the corner-ztone, the "Vent Creator" was sung in a beautful manner by a choir composed of upwards of three bundred of the best singers in and around Ecsto the corner-stone, the "Veni Creator" was sung in a beautiful manner by a choir composed of upwards of three bundred of the best singers in and around Boston, with an orchestral accompaniment of forty pieces. In order that He might sanctify their singular that the prayers having been concluded, Archolishop McCloskey, of New York, delivered the seruon. He did not take any text, but discoursed in general terms and in a very eloquent and forcible manner upon the great work which they had begun, testlying, as it did in a most summistakable manner, to the spread and growth of the Catholic religion. He also exhorted the propile to contribute in proportion to their means, the importance and necessity of the work, and the zeal which they have for the honor and glory of God.

The response upon the part of the great crowd was most libral. Between three and four thousand dollars more.

The collections having been taken up, and the sermon concluded, the Te Deim was sung by the choir, and probably some twenty thousand of the spectators united their volces, the whole forming a scene highly grand and impressive. The ceremonies were then concluded by the Blahop giving the solemn pontifical bependition to all present.

Colonel Ernest de Fleury.

Colonel Ernest de Fleury, known in France as the Baron de Lisle, died at the St. Julian Hotel on Saturday morning. He was born in Lyons—of a family of renown throughout France—and was educated in Paris. Being very wealthy, he travelled extensively, and more than twenty years ago he came to this country. He visited California in 1848, and was subsequently instrumental in locating the Nicaragna route. He travelled in Central and South America also, and about nine years ago fixed his residence in the City of Mexico. Earnestly espousing the cause of Maximilian, he joined the Imperial army, and was awarded a Capitain's commission. Just before the final triumph of the Liberals he was promoted to the was made a prisoner of war at the surrender of Maximilian, tried by a court martial, and sentenced to he shot. Two days before the time set for his execution, Colonel de Fleury bribed the guard and escaped, going to Vera Cruz in disguise, and thence salling to Havana and New York. He arrived here about ten days ago, and intended to sail for France in Saturday's steamer. He was attended in his last moments oy the Rey. Father Preston of St. Ann's (Catholic) Church. The body was taken in charge by the French Consul, whe had it removed to his residence. The funeral took place yesterday, with imposing ceremonies, and the remains were temporarily placed in the receiving vanit of Caivery Cemetery. The Baron de Lisle was sixty-nine years of age.—N. F. COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS—Judge Peirce.—
T. B. Dwight, Esq., Assistant District Attorney, after a summer sojoura in the East, has returned to the onerous duties of his office, which he has discharged with uniform fidelity, and to the satisfaction of the public in general. He received a most cordial welcome from the bench and bar, and conducted the business of the day.

The panel of jurers for the remaining weeks of this term was returned to court this navning, and considerable time was taken up in calling the roll and hearing applicatio—a for excuse from service.

James Glimore and Charles Daninghauer, two boys, were charged with the larceny of suspenders belonging to Boop & Kibby, of Bank afret. The defeadants, with a third boy, were noticed skulking about the prosecutors' place of ousiness, and about the same time a box of suspenders was missed. Persons about the store suspenders was missed. Persons about the store suspenders was missed as an evidence of his participation in the larceny.

Shortly afterwards an officer saw Gilmore going cown Ninth street with a box under his arm, and gave him chase. The boy ran round a corner, and hence the officer for an instant lost sight of him, but he was shortly afterwards overtaken and arrested. The box, however, was not found, upon him. Soon after the arrest a cit; zen gave a box of suspenders to the officer, which he said he had found in the yard of the college, in Ninth street, below Locaus. They were identified by the private mark upon them as the property of Roop & Kibby, and, moreover, Glimore acknowledged that he had stolen them.

It was argued by the defense that there was no evidence against Daninghauer, that the box found by the citizen was not identified as the same that was seen in Glimore's possession, and that the alleged confession of the latter to the officer should be very narrowly scrutinized, and with reluctance believed. Verdict, not guity.

A Case in Admiratory.—This morning the crew of the ship Autocrat, late from San Francisco, California, had a suit before United States Commissioner Hibler. It appears that by the articles of shipment they were to receive three months' advance pay in currency, before leaving San Francisco. They had three months' advance paid in gold, and it is claimed that the difference in premium between gold and currency should be deducted from their subsequent pay. The sailors contented that the gold was given absolutely as the three months' advance. The Commissioner decided in favor of the crew, but the case will be taken to Court. but the case will be taken to Court.
