AMUSEMENTS.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—This establishment was crowded last evening, for the first time this season, to see the Black Crook, which is giving universal satisfaction now. The danscuses premieres, M'lles Betty and Emily Rigal, Pepita, Frank, Antoneno, and Albertini, are artists of the greatest excellence. The "Mermaid Dance" by the Paristenne ballet is one of the neatest and pretilest things ever seen here, and last night received a deserved encore. The "Incantation Scene," the "Golden Realms of Stalacta," and the "Ball-room Scene," are the finest of the play, and are really beautiful. The characters in the drama are performed by "Oceana," Miss Katie Palmer, Mrs. F. Mordaunt, Mr. Alexander Fisher, Mr. Ryner, Mr. Ben. Young, and others. The ballet is very large, numbering seventy-five young ladies, and the dresses unusually brilliant.

WALNUT STREET THEATRE,-The popularity of the Shakesperian spectacle, A Mussammer Night's Dream, is yet unabated. The gorgeous scenery by Telbin forms a study rarely enjoyed in any land, and never before in this country. It should be remembered that this most successful spectacle will be presented for the cessful spectacle will be presented for the thirty-fifth time to-night, and that it can only keep the stage at the Walnut for a few nights longer. Over sixty thousand persons have the nessed the play since the lith of August are glad to observe the Wolfer of the world by the fight with feature and subject to the lith of August are glad to observe the Wolfer of the world by the fight with feature and subject to the world by the feature of the world by the world by the world by the feature of the world by the world

ARCH STREET THEATRE.—Miss Julia Dean offers a great bill to night. She will assume the title role in Lucretia Borgia, and play the dashing "Constance" in the delightful comedy of The Love Chase. Mr. Frank Lawlor supports Miss Dean in both pieces. On Friday night, for her benefit, Miss Julia Dean in Ion, in which Miss Jean Hosmer made a hit here last season. On Monday evening, Mr. E. Eddy appears, supported by Miss Henrietta Irving.

CHESNUT STREET THEATRE.-This is the last week of Caste. Those who have not seen the delightful new comedy should avail themselves of the opportunity now offered at once. The play is admirably acted by Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Florence, Miss Josie Orton, Mr. Jennings, Mr. Lennox, Mr. Leake, and Mrs. Eberle, On Saturday afternoon the second matinee of the season will occur. will occur.

species of stage performance—songs, ballets, farees, negro minstrelsy, and pantomime.

The New Opera House. — Messrs. L. V. Tunison and Henry Parsons have finished their new Opera House, in Seventh street, below Arch. It is a neat little theatre, and is the best arranged place of amusement in the city. Last evening a dress rehearsal was given, to which the gentlemen of the press and a number of friends of the managers were invited. A delightful programme of song and fun was discussed, after which the new hail was inspected and admired by ail present. The new establishment was dedicated to music and mirth at once, and the blessing of Dame Fortune was invoked upon it. The enterprise will assuredly prove a complete success, and Philadelphia will secure another place of innocent amusement of which she will have cause to be proud. In the troupe of minstrels we observed the oily, mirth-provoking Eph Horn, the comically-loquacions Frank Moran, and the old favorite, Sam Sanford. These "stars" will be surrounded by satellites—forty in number—of fair brilliancy. The opening performance at the new Seventh Street Opera House occurs to-night, when we expect to see the place crowded. Messrs. Tunison and Parsons will have especial accommodations for ladies and children, and polite ushers to wait upon them.

CARNCROSS & DIXEY are having a great success with new panorams of A Trip Around the World, which is interlarded with comic and sentimental songs. "The Family Resort" is in Eleventh street, above Chesnut.

ALF. BURNETT could make money here all the sesson round, but has to inform his many Philadelphia friends that previous engagements will prevent him from making faces after the present week. Saturday afternoon and evening will be his farewell performances in this city. He holds his seances every evening at Assembly Bulldings.

BLIND TOM concludes his season at Concort Hall this week. The Hall is filled every night with wondering and admiring ladies and gentlemen. Everybody should see "Blind Tom, the Musical Prodigy."

More Removais.

[SPECIAL DESPATCH TO EVENING TELEGRAPH.] Washington, Sept. 18 .- I am informed that the President has decided not to make any further removals of Cabinet officers. He has stated as much in his Cabinet to-day. He maintains that his time is now growing very short, and Congress will oppose any appointment he may make, and either keep objectionable persons or keep his friends out.

The President has also declared his belief that he cannot further interfere in the matter of Southern Reconstruction. This chagrins the Democrats, who had hoped that they could force the President to further and more desperate steps than those he has taken.

Naval Intelligence.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18 .- Despatches have been received at the Navy Department from Lieutenant Commander L. D. Beardslee, commanding United States steamer Aroostook, announcing the arrival of that vessel at Point de Galle, Island of Ceylon, on the first of August, and that she would sail the next day en route for Hong Kong.

Also, from Commander R. L. Law, announcing the arrival of the steamer Tacony at Portsmouth, N. H., on the 15th inst., nine days from Pensacols. The vessel was ordered north by the Department on account of the yellow fever breaking out on board. The following of her officers died of yellow fever at sea:—Mid-shipman Robert U.
