DUNION DEFENDERS

LIBERTY AND THE CONSTITUTION!

All who fought for the Union; all who love their country; all who revere her Freq Institutions; all who inflexibly insist that Rebels and their traitorous allies shall not mount to power by the treachery of Andrew Johnson, and dominate over the Loyal, the Patriotic, and the Brave, are invited to gatherin

MASS MEETING

ON SATURDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 5,

AT & O'CLOCK,

IN FRONT OF THE

UNION LEAGUE HOUSE.

To hear the following gallant Soldiers and eminent Statesmen on the duties of the hour:

HON HENRY WILSON, of Mass., HON. H. BUCHER SWOPE. HON, JOHN M. BROOMALL. HON. JAMES G. BLAINE, of Maine HON. A. G. CURTIN, HON, JAMES H. CAMPBELL, GEN, J. R. HAWLEY, of Connecticut, HON. JAMES POLLOCK,

HON. HANNIBAL HAMLIN, of Maine, HON. ROSCOE CONKLING, of New York. COL. H. C. DEMING, of Connecticut. HON. HENRY D. MOORE, AND OTHERS.

Soldiers and Patriots! Citizens-native born and naturalized-in THIS CRISIS be true to yourselves be true to the BRAVE HEROES whose bones ile mingled with the soil of the South, from the Rio Grande to the Susquehanna. Be true to your glorious leaders, to your country-our priceless heritage, be queathed by Revolutionary sires-defended to rough . four years of terrible civil war. This glorious birthright, "The Government of the people, by the people, and for the people," which the great and good Abraham Lincoln sublimely said "should not perish from he earth," is IMPERILLED! The usurpations of that

BOLD, BAD MAN, ANDREW JOHNSON,

Must be arrested. His iniquitous schemes must be crushed; they are the more dangerous because but half revealed, and for the reason that there are credulous men in our midst, (who can only be aroused, when too late, by signal overt acts of crime)-men who, though personally pure, able and influential, are active among his apologists and supporters. Citizens, be not deluded by this. Be vigilant! TRUST NO MAN, however eminent, however pure, however able, with power or office who approves of the acts of

VOTE FOR NO MAN

For any office who approved or extenuated the pernicious doctrines taught by the Buchanaus, the Blacks, the Reeds, the Woodwards, the Clymers, the Seymours, the Woods the Vallandighams, and other faithless men of the North, to wit:-

That the secesssion of a State is a constitutional right; that Federal resistance to rebellion was an outrage; that the war for the Union was a fallure; that Government notes were not legal tenders. VOTE FOR NO MAN who gave his support or his sympa thy to these MONSTROUS HERESIES, the prolific cause of all our woes. The Republican party, formed of the best men of all parties; the party which saved the life of the nation; the party proven to be

LIBERTY AND UNION !

Proven to be true to the CONSTITUTION; the party devoted to all the RIGHTS OF LABOR and all the RIGHTS OF MAN, ask you to forbear from casting a single vote for any man, for any office whatever who is not the outspoken and determined opponent of the

GUILTY PRESIDENT.

This great party warns you. citizens, that any such vote is aid and comfort to that willy enemy of UNION and PEACE. The Republican party precents to you its selected candidates, and asks your suffrages for each and all of them. Defeat at the polls in our city or our State on Tuesday next would be fatal to the peace of the country.

IN THIS CRISIS!

Citizens, our duty is plain. It is to stand by our party by our Congress, by our Generals, by our leaders, and by our caudidates. If we would have a restored Union, continuous peace, concord, and prosperity throughout the entire land-if we would se ure the payment of the national debt, principal and interestand thereby maintain American honor inviolate-it we would save our country from the horrors of civil war, anarchy, and possibly from despotism itself, we must act in concert, and defeat at the polls every candidate for office who may, in the remotest degree act or sympathize with Andrew Johnson and his allies. Remember, that all history shows that the days next succeeding civil wars have been the days of greatest danger to the victors.

CRAFT AND TREACHERY

Have deluded and defrauded many a people of the fruits of their beroism, their sacrifices, and their hardwon victories. Remember, 100, the warning words of the immortal JEFFERSON:-
