The ordinance making an appropriation to the Department of Water for a new engine at the Twenty-fourth Ward Works, was passed. The Chair named Mr. Creeley on the Commit-

MURDEROUR ASSAULT .-- On election afternoon Richard Taylor, aged 38 years, residing at No. 53d Wiley street, between Reed and Dickerson, was way laid and badly beaten at Fifth and Reed was way laid and badly beaten at Fith and Heed streets. His assallants were composed of ten or a dozen men, who were armed with clubs, knives, and other weapons. Mr Taylor was knocked down, and so scriously injured that during yesterday his physicians considered his recovery doubtful. He stated iast evening that the man who inflicted most of the blows had what sppeared to be a tube inserted in the ade of his press. Mr Taylor is a man of famile and of his nose. Mr. Taylor is a man of family, and is represented to be a quiet and industrious citizen.

AMUSEMEN'TS.

Now THAT the election is over and people are nore calm, public attention will be occupied generally with the various entertainments designed for popular recreation and amusement. At present we have an unusual array of attractive shows, including every species of mental entertainment. We would especially call atten-tion to the following brief notices of the principal and most deserving places of resort in our

WALNUT STREET THRATRE.-Miss Charlotte WALNUT STREET THEATRE. Allos Charlotte Thompson is doing an excellent business. She bakes her first benefit to-night, and will appear in a favorite role, supported by the entry strength of the new company. Next week, in answer to a general request from her lady friends, Miss Charlotte Thompson will appear in Laft e Barriot-a may in which the her as in Latte Borctoot-a play in which she has no equal on the stage. Miss Thompson's engage-ment is limited to twelve nights, and those who desire to witness her fine acting should avail themselves of the present opportunity.

ARCH STREET THEATRE. -- Mr. Edmund Falconer takes his first benefit to night. His new play of Innisfatien, which has been quite suc-cessful here, will be presented. It is one of the most elegant and attractive Irish dramas on the stage. Miss Kate Reignolds is soperb in "Katy Magaire," Let Mr. Falcomer have a good house, and remember that we seldom have an "author's night" in this country. Mrs. John Drew an-nounces that she has Olive Logan's pleasaut dramatic sketch of Surf in rehearsal

CHESNUT STREET THEATRE .- Mr. James E. Murdoch continues his successful engagement, and for his benefit to-night will appear in the Stranger. Kotzebue's masterwork will be precented in an excellent manner. The cast is unisually good.

AMERICAN TUFATRE. - The Valiety Troupe sppess in an excellent bill to-night. The grand prismatic fountain will be exhibited as usual. The American is now called the "Alhambra Palace" of America. Matinec to-morrow afternoon as usual.

THE Black Crook continues attractive at the Academy of Music. A matinee will be given to-morrow (Saturday) alternoon. Next week will be the last of the Black Crook and the Parisienne ballet.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC .- Madame Adelaide Ris tori will appear in her great role of "Elizabeth," on Monday evening, October 21, on Tuesday evening in Mary Stuart, and on Wednesday in her new play of Marie Antoinette,

CONCERT HALL.-Next Tuesday evening, Oc-tober 15, an admirable panorania and series of large paintings will be exhibited, representing the Apocalypse, or Revelation of St. John. These paintings are all from the easel of Hamnese paintings are all from the easel of Ham-matt Billings, Esq., and are painted from origi-nal designs of that great genus of modern art— Gustave Dore. Such of these pictures as we have seen we unhesitatingly pronounce wonder-ful works of att, and the only striking impres-sions of imagination or the ideality of prophetic visions we have ever seen visions we have ever seen.

THE GERMANIA .- The following is the pro-The GERMANNA, - The 'bolowing is the pro-gramme for the concert to-morrow afternoon; --1. concert Ove thre (first time)-J. J. H. Verhults, 2. Song, "O du mein Mond," (first time) Cornet solo Setterft, Performed by 9. Dunn.

WANTS, BOOK AGENTS IN LUCK AT LAST

The origin is passed. The hour has come to life the chi of secresy which has hitherto enveloped the inner istory of the great civil war, and this is done by offer-og to the public General L. C. Baker's

"HISTORY OF THE SECRET SERVICE." For thrilling interest this book transcends all the romances of a thousandy sears, and conclusively preves that "truth is stranger than fiction." Agents are clearing from $200 to $200 per month, which we can prove to any doubling applicant. A few more can obtain agencies in territory yet unocon-pied. Address P. GABBETT & CO.
