INVISIBLE PORONS.-The Medicis and the Borglas fortified their systems with powerful antidotes against the subtle poisons with which they used to destrey their enemies, and which they feared might one day be employed against themselves. There are invisible poisons almost as deadly, against which few of us think of taking any precautions. These banes are in the air. When the atmosphere is surcharged with them, as it semetimes is at this season, epidemic fevers ensue. The summer which has just closed has been a most remarkable one. The amount of rain that has fallen has been enormous, and the exhalations from the soll have been, and are, dense and copious almost beyond example. These exhalations exercise a pernicious influence on the vital powers, and predispose the system to disease. Everywhere people are complaining of unusual debility, lassitude and depression. These symptoms are generally forerunners of an epidemic. Combat them early-before they lapse into something worse, with HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, the most effective antidote to malaria that the vegetable kingdom has ever yielded. Its operation is threefold, invigorating, depurative and anti-billous. Free from any ingredient that is in the slightest degree deleterious to nealth, and containing the juices and extracts of the rarest medicinal herbs. It is immeasurably superior, as a defensive preparation, to any other tonic, herbal or mineral, at present used in medical practice. A course of HOS-TETTER'S BITTERS is, bumasly speaking, a perfect safeguard against intermittent and remittent

A SERIOUS DISTURBANCE .- Some difficulty

A Serious Disturbance.—Some difficulty—
a difference of opinion in regard to the holding of the stake-money in a prize-fight—had caused an enmity of feeling between the principals thereof, Daniel Dillon and Barney Mullen, and their various adherents. The "honorable fray" was to have taken place on the 27th of last September, in the vicinity of Washington, D. C., when Mullen was awarded the stakes by the non-appearance of Dillon, who had gone off on a false scent.

An exhibition was given at the American Mechanics Hall, Fourth and George streets, for the benefit of Dillon. Shortly after the time fixed for commencing the entertainment, Arthur Mullen, who has frequently engaged in acts of outlawry in the Seventeenth Ward, entered the hall with the usual crowd of rowdles that accompany him on such occasions, and a disturbance soon took place. Constable Carveile became mixed in the meles, and was attacked by the Mullen crowd. It is said, and beaten in a cruel manner. He succeeded in drawing a revolver and firing one shot, which took effect beneath the ear of Arthur Mullen, without doing him serious injury. He was, however, taken to his residence, and medicai aid sent for.

The horse was found next morning grazing in an open lot near Girard College. The carriage has not been Stepping back, he put his foot through the window with a crash, which roused the whole house, and it was with trepidation that he got off with his booty, by getting out of the window he had entered and slipping down the waterconductor.

An Election Inspector in Trouble.—It is alleged that frauds were perpetrated in the Elighth Precinct of the Twenty-third Ward, by one of the Inspectors, Samuel D. Knorr. He received the votes as they were passed through the window and deposited them in a box, and it is said, while fulfilling his duties in this direction, managed to stuff in many illegal votes. He was discovered by a voter and the officer in attendance at the poil. The voter, as alleged, saw his ticket, instead of being placed in the box, conveyed to the left hand of the Election Inspector, whose right was feeling about a side-pocket stuffed with Democratic hallots, of which he had one then in his hand. He was caught in the act of changing the voters' licket for a Democratic ene, brought from this side pocket every time, and then placing the latter in the ballot-box. He was arrested, and Alderman Holme held him in $1000 bail to answer at Court. AN ELECTION INSPECTOR IN TROUBLE .- It is swerat Court.

COURT OF QUARTER SES-IONS—Judge Petroe.

This morning, in the sid court room, before Judge Petroe. a proceeding of some interest was had. It will be remembered that Captain A. M. Brown, of the United States Army, was some weeks ago committed to prison for contempt of court in making an apparently false return to a writ of habeas corpus commanding him to produce the body of William Lew's Hamilton, and in refusing to obey the order of the writ: that he was taken to New York by writ of habeas corpus ad testificandum, to give evidence before a court martial, then tying Hamilton upon a charge of desertion; that he was afterwards passed into the custody o' the State Courts of New York, and by them discharged. But aiterwards Judge Blatchford, of the United States District Court, for the Southern District of New York, when the matter was brought before him orticially, remanded him back to the State Courts of Pennsylvania, and on last Monday Captain Brown was returned to Moyamensing, where he was still to remain so long as be continued in contempt of Court.

To-day the matter was before the Court, Captain Brown appearing to purge himself of the contempt by producing the boy. Upon the application of United States District Attorney Gilipin, who, with Mr. Valentine, acted on behalf of Captain Brown, he was sworn and allowed to make a statement, which was, in effect, that when he made return to the writ of habeas corpus that Hamilton was not in his custody or courtor, be was truly unaware that the boy was in the (Pry. he meant no disobedience to the writ of disrespect to the Court, and he very much regressed having one on placed in his unpleasant position by a wast of knowledge of the whereabouts of Hamilton.

The Elections. " and Cabinet Changes,

The Elections.

The election returns from Pennsylvania and Onio are not so rose-colored as they first appeared to the delighted visions of the Domocrats, who claimed both States by majorities ranging from five to fifteen thousand. The result is that the President will be cautious in making any new move particularly as Longress. making any new move, particularly as Congress will meet now in a few weeks. He is reported to bave given the cold shounder to some promi-nent Democrats who have been urging him to make Cabinet changes, by telling them they have not done as well as he expected they would in the late elections, and is not willing to accede to all the demands of men who are powerless to help him in the contest with Congress.

Parade of the Maryland Militia. The grand parade of the Maryland milities of the city of Baltimore will take piace on the 15th instant, and this will probably explain the recent transfer of a battery of light artiflery from this city to Fort McHenry, and some other precautionary measures which have been quietly taken by the General-in-hhief, who is fully alive to the signs of the times.

General Sherman. General Sherman dld not leave to-day, as it was reported he would nor is it known when he will leave. The President has some motive for keeping him here, which will be developed in a few days.

WASHINGTON GOSSIP.

More Rumors of Changes in the Cabinet -Conspiracy of the Democratsto Secure the President's Recognition of Them. Washington, Oct. 10.—The serenade designed for to-night has been postponed. It is said that the leading Democrata refused to have anything to do with it. In consequence of the presence of Montgomery Blair, Beverdy Johnson, Jesse D. Bright, and others in the city to-day, rumors were flying about of an intended change in the

There is the best authority for saying that if any of these sensational reports reach New York they may be set down as premature. It has come to light through letters from prominent New York Democrats, that the Democratic party has entered upon a policy designed to drive President Johnson to recognizing them as a party and reforming his Cabinet solely out of their representative men.
Their plan is to hold aloof from him alto-ge her and leave him without a party, in the expectation that he will in that event call in Seymour, Vallandighau, Wood, Voorhees, and others to form a Cabinet for him out of their own ranks. The President has no idea of suffering the old Democratic leaders to use him in any such manner. That he will at his own time make a sweeping change in the Cabinet is cer-tain; but when he does, the old Democracy will derive as little satisfaction from it as the radi-cals. This may be relied on as authoritative. The Radicals Dubious About a Candidate for the Presidency. Judging from the opinions of recognized leaders of the radical party, openly expressed since the late elections, the question as to who will be their candidate for the Presidency who will be their candidate for the Presidency has been effectually set at rest by the present conservative revival. Hitherto there has been little doubt entertained that Chief Justice Chase would be the radical caudidate for President; but within the past day or two he seems to have lost ground amazenely, especially among the leading politicians of his own State. Quite a number of prominent and influential radicals are now here, and they almost unanimously agree that General Graut is the only man the party should nominate for is the only man the party should nominate for the Presidency next fall, and several Republican members of Congress who are now in the city have expressed their agreement in this opi-Applications of Rebels for Pardon. The application for pardon of James A. Seddon, formerly Secretary of War of the Rebai Confederacy, was under consideration at the meeting of the Cabinet on Taesday last. Mr. Seddon's petition is well supported by influential endorsements, but, by the advice of the members of the Cabinet, the President has decided to postpone action in the case for the present. An application for pardon from ex-Commedore Barron, of the Rebel navy, is now in the hands of the President, awaiting his con-sideration, and it is thought the application of Barron, as well as that of Alexander H. Stephens, will be granted in a few days.

The Rise of an Anti-Convention Party in Richmond.

I learn from Richmond, Va., to-night, that the white people in that city are jubilant over the result of the elections in Pennsylvania and Ohio. There has always been a strong party in the State opposed to calling a Convention, and the general impression is that the result of these elections will so strengthen this party as to

An officer of the Freedmen's Bureau, who has recently visited every portion of the State on an inspecting tour, was of the opinion a week ago that the anti-convention party was almost strong enough to vote it down then. The radi-cals are looking blue. It is stated that many negroes are deserting them because the party has refused to give their race sufficient guaran-tees in the Northern States. They begin to see that their loud professions of friendship amount to nothing, and are made for the sole purpose of getting their votes .- N. Y. Herald. The Latest Returns -- The Negro Suffrage Amendment in Iowa Probably Defeated

-The Impending Cabinet Changes. Washington, Oct. 10.—Washington continues absorbed in election returns, though some attention is paid in political circles to the anticipated course of the President in changing his Cabinet. With regard to the former, volu-minous despatches to night from the West indicate the defeat of the negro suffrage amendment in Iowa as well as Ohio, the election of a Democratic Legislature in Ohio, and the triumph of Judge Sharswood in Penbsylvania.

The contest is very close in Ohio over the Governor, and both parties claim it by a small majority, but the most reliable returns indicate that General Hayes has barely squeezed in With regard to the Cabinet changes, I have but to more strongly reiterate my despatch of last night that some are impending, though they n sy not take place for several days. A new Secretary of War is the most likely to be appointed at an early day, even before the close of the week. General Frank Blair, of Missouri, and General

McClernand, of Illinois, are named; but it is not improbable that the former will be selected. The President has been in conference to-day with eminent friends of the Administration, and there can be no doubt that they urged a new and vigorous policy .- N. Y. World,

The difference in the Hawadan revenue created by the treats will be about $100,000. The Parliament has passed a bill providing for the deficiency by increasing three-fold the tax on real and personal property, and the special duties on optum and tobacco. The revenue changes go into effect with the treaty.

The United States steamer Tuscarora arrived at Honolulu September 6, from Tabiti. She has been on a cruise to the Ceria and Fejee groups to investigate the troubles between the natives and the American residents. The mission is said to have been successful.

It is understood that the King of the Fejeo Islands has ceded to the United States three small islands in a group, one of which possesses a fine harbor capable of being made a naval station. The protectorate of the Fejees was offered to the United States, but Captain Stanley declined accepting it, not having sufficient authority. The Tuscarora expected to leave Honolulu October I, for San Francisco. It is reported that General McCook is the bearer of the ratified re-ciprocity treaty for Washington.

The Lackawanns had not returned from Midecrook Island. The sugar estate of the late R. Coyle, located tear Ropolulu, was sold at auction for $1000. t cost $200,000. The sugar crop of 1868 is estimated at 28,000 .-

Mrs. Eliza A. Worth, wife of the American Consul at Hilo, died September 12. She was a native of New Bedford. The ship Caylon, from Boston, secured a full argo of oil, and would sail for New Bedford November 1. The arrival of the first United States mail steamer at Honolulu was made the occasion of much good feeling. The Idaho took possession of the wharf built for the China line, and was visited by thousands of citizens. The Advertiser recommends that the Government add $25,000 to the Company's subsidy.

The Navy Department.

The Navy Department.

The Navy Department has received despatches from Admiral Fairagut, as follows:—

United States Flagship Franklin, off Thames River, Sept. 26, 1887.—Sir:—In my despatch No. 25, I had the honor of reporting my arrival off Copenhagen, Denmark. On the morning of the 13th, the wind was fresh, and fearing that I might not be able to accomplish the trip around to Copenhagen by night without putting on full steam, I ordered all the furnaces lighted, being at the same time desirous to try the full speed of all the vessels.

This I did to my full satisfaction, the ships steaming eight miles per hour against almost a gale, and proving that the Franklin, against a fresh breeze and moderate sea, was more than fresh breeze and moderate sea, was more than a match for either of the other vessels. Her performance gave general satisfaction, and I can with confidence say she steams better under full power than any frigate better under full power than any frigate in our service. On anchoring off Copenbagen we exchanged salutes with the authorities, and soon after I called upon our United States Minister, Mr. Yeaman, and with him called upon Mr. Ransloff, Minister of War, and Admiral Docknor, Minister of Marine, the only two Ministers then in Copenhagen. These gentlemen returned my call, and tendered to me all the civilities in their power, and an alddecamp was directed to show me all the places of public interest in Copenhagen, including the armories and forts, The armories were particularly worthy of a visit.

Reported Over-Issue of Seven-Thirties. New York, Oct. 11 .- Some more small lots of counterfeit Treasury notes came to light to-day. The Treasury detectives are still at wors. The Express says there is a growing better that there is an over-asue of Seven-thirties, and dealers refuse to purchase the notes.
