The Invasion of the Papal Verritory Continued, and the Situation Serious -The Town of Orte Captured by the Revolutionists-Railroad Communication Between Rome and Florence Severed-The Peorle Clamor for Rome-

An Iron-Clad Squadron for the Roman

FLORENCE, Oct. 18-Night, The latest despatches received in this city from the Roman territory describe the situation as more serious. Garibaldian volunteer invaders are daily cross-ing the frontier line and marching to points of insurgent rendezvous, and a great many of the insurgent rendezvous, and a great many of the inhabitants, subjects of the Pope, and others temporarily resident in the States of the Church, are joining the revolutionary ranks.

The insurgent troops have also had successes in the field. They have captured the town of Orte, situated fitteen miles east of Viterbo, on the right bank of the Tiber, and hold possession of it. Although Orte is merely a decayed township of the Papal States, having less than three thousand inhabitants, its occupation by the Garibaidians just now is a matter of much consequence, as it gives them possession of the railroad at that place, and enables them to sever the communication between Rome and Florence, which they have done.

sever the communication between Rome and Florence, which they have done.

The reports from the city of Rome, from Papal sources, give accounts of defeats of the insurgents by the Pope's trrops in the field.

The Italian press and people clamor, with almost one voice, for the occupation of Rome by the Government. The Italian Cabinet is thus placed in a critical dilemma between the necessity of observing the September Convention and at the same time paying respect to the popular will.

popular will.

The King's officers continue to arrest Garibaldians and Garibaldian subjects as they attempt to cross the frontier towards Rome, Admiral Robolti, of the Italian navy, has mustered a royal squadron consisting of eight iron-clad war vessels, which he will take to the Roman waters by order of the King.

Napoleon Offended with the Action of the Italian Cabinet-The Pope to be Defended-Naval and Military Musters at Toulon.

PARIS, Oct. 18-Night. — Napoleon and his ministers complain that the efforts made by King Victor Emanuel and his Cabinet for the execution of the terms of the September Convention of the terms of the September Convention with respect to the inviolability of the Papal territory from revolutionary invasion are not vigorous, and consequently not effective.

Napoleon has decided to defend the Pope with the power of France, and the army and navy of the empire are prepared for action in this direction if required.

The Meditarranean squadron has already

The Mediterranean squadron has already arrived at Toulon to await orders, and the whole fleet is now ready to sail.

Fears are entertained that a collision may take place between the French and Italian forces which are being dispatched Romeward, as Paris remains excited and the Italian troops are ready to advance at any moment into the Papal territory or the Eternal City itself. SPAIN.

The Abyssinian Expedition.

A telegram from Alexandria says: — "The transports, with the Abyssinian pioneer expedition, have left Aden for Massowah. There is no later news from the captives."

The Army and Navy Gazette says:—"We hear the Viceroy of Egypt has ordered a corps of 10,000 men to proceed to the frontiers of Abyssinia. The authorities at Cairo fancy our expedition is not half large enough, and say we should send at least 40,000, if we want to produce a real impression. They also deprecate our pura real impression. They also deprecate our pur-chases of Spanish mules, and laugh at us for chases of Spanish mules, and laugh at us for buying them, when we could get thousands of terress in Abysainia which would stand the clinate, at #15 each. There is talk of the French becoming lessess of the railroad, in which case England will become tenants, by courtesy of the right of way."

Visit of Admiral Paragraphs

Visit of Admiral Parragut,

The Times says:—"No pains have been spared by the Board of Admiralty to mark the high sense entertained in England of the soility and heroism displayed by our gallant guest, during the late war in America, or to give educt to the reception of the distinguished officer who has been raised to the summit of the naval prohas been raised to the summer of the havai pro-fession in America. As the greatest compli-ment they could pay to Admiral Farragut, their lordships last week invited him to join them in their official visit to the eastern dockyards, and secordingly, after a banquet at the official resi-dence of Sir Sidney Dacros, the Board and their Flests started for Chatham. After the inspecguests started for Chatham. After the inspec-

Narrow Escape of the Empress of the French and the Prince Imperial.

French and the Prince Imperial.

The Empress and the Prince Imperial, accompanied by M. Lavalette, were cruising about the coast of Biarritz in a steam gunboot, and at nightfall they got off into a ship's boat in order to land at St. Jean de Luv, but the pilot missed the entrance of the harbor, and ran the boat ashore. The Empress, the Prince, and M. Lavalette were fortunately maded in safety, but the pilot was drowned.

Strengthening the Strasburg Fortifica-

A Strasburg correspondent to the Times says:—

"The measures which are being taken for putting Strasburg in a complete state of defense are viewed with great satisfaction by the inhabitants. Very little building in solid masonry is going on at Strasburg, but the old earthworks are being strengthened, and, what is more significant, new earthworks are being thrown up far in advance of the exterior line of fortifications. The distribution of Chassepots is going on rapidly among the soldiers of the garrison, and the companies of eithe have all been armed with them. At Mutzig, and at the military establishment of Framont, the hands are working night and day. 700 rifies a week are turned out at present. Before long 1400 will be issued per week. In addition to the ordinary workmen, a number of soldiers are employed. The workshops are officially closed to strangers, and sentines placed at the doors to keep out the aurions." strangers, and sentinels placed at the doors to keep out the curious."

M. Rouher has left Biarritz.

M. Fould, member of the Privy Council, and formerly Minister of Finance, died suddenly near Tarbes on Oct. 5.

The Etendard, referring to the news published in Florence announcing victories of the insurgent bands, says:—"Our own information is entirely opposed to this news. According to private trustworthy despatches, the state of the Roman provinces was most reassuring, and no apprehensions were entertained in Rome as 40 the safety of the Holy See."

The last returns of the Bank of France show that the metallic reserve, contrary to what has been seen for so long a time of late, has diminished twenty-five and a half millions.

The "Times" on the Roman Situation. The "Times" on the Roman Situation.

The Times, in a leader on Garibaldi, says:—
"Garibaldi is endowed with many natural advantages; among others, apparently with the gift of prophecy. He told his countrymen that the first cool days in autumn would bring them to Rome. The very earliest in the vintage month have brought his Redshirts within sight of St. Peter's Dome.

"The insurrection seems now to be breaking in on all sides. Up to the very latest news, fresh bodies of Italian regular troops were being sent forward towards the Roman frontier. A force of more than 60,000 men was assembled there awaiting marching orders, and, if we may believe a telegram, the command has now been entrusted to the redoubted hands of Cialdini."

The Invasion of the Papal States. FLERENCE, Oct. 4.—Advices received here from the Roman frontier announce that the insurrectionary movement still continues; and that new bands of insurgents were assembling at different points.

Florence Oct. 5 —Intelligence from Viterbo

rs. or the publishes letters from Bagnorea stating that in the engagement between the Papai troops and the insurgents the former lost twenty-one prisoners, while the insurgents had three killed and two wounded. The same paper says that a strong band of insurgents nad collected together in the territory of Frosinone, and after having beaten a column of Papal troops sent against them, they; were victoriously advancing to join the insurgents in the province of Viteroo. The Riforma and the Italia announce that the insurrection has broken out near the confines of the Abruzzi, and that an encounter favorable to the insurgents has taken place. A detach-ment of the Papal troops has joined the insurgents.

The Italian Government has ordered an inquiry into the delivery of some Roman refugees into the hands of the Papai police by Italian authorities. Troops continue to be sent forward towards the Roman frontier. The last sitting of the Statistical Congress was held to-day.

Rome, Oct. 5.—A column of the Papal troops has been beaten by the insurgents at Bagnorea, and has fallen back on Monteflascone. Two encounters have taken place near Sabina and Valentano, resulting in favor of the insurgents.

The band, however, which had penetrated to Sabina has been dispersed.

GERMANY.

The King of Prussia.

HOHENZOLLERN, Oct. 5,—The King and Queen of Prussia arrived here yesterday. His Majesty and the Crown Prince were greeted by Dr. Simson, the President of the North German Parlia-ment, to whose address the King returned a gracious reply. Dr. Simson was present at the inauguration of the Castle Chapel, and had the honor of being invited to the royal table. Their Majesties left for Sigmaringen this afternoon.

Hamburg.

The committee of the Assembly of Burghers for amending the constitution of the free town of Hamburg has proposed that the civic guard of the town shall be maintained.

North Germany. Berlin, Oct. 6.—The Prussian Government will lay before the North German Parliament a bill demanding the grant of an extraordinary supply of ten million thalers for two years, for the purpose of increasing the German fleet.

It is understood that the King has declined the offer of taking up his residence at the Royal Castle during the stay of their Prussian Majesties at Nuremburg.

The King of Bavaria will meet King William on Sanday at Augsburg, where their Majesties will dine together.

The Baden Chambers. CARLSRUHE, Oct. 5.—A bill, effecting certain changes in parts of the Constitution, has been unanimously passed by the Chamber of Deputies. The qualification for election is abolished, The bill also provides that members shall not be made responsible for their speeches or votes at the Diet, save in certain cases stated.

The Wurtemburg Chambers. STUTTGARD, Oct. 5 .- The draft of the Military Service Bill has been referred to a Committee of the Chamber of Deputies. The bill renders military service compulsory upon all classes withoutsubstitutes, and fixes the period alto-gether at twelve years, three being passed in the regular army, four in the reserve, and five in the landwehr. The Chambers will settle the numbers of the regular force.

AUSTRIA.

VIENNA, Oct. 6 .- The New Free Press of to-Vienna, Oct. 6.—The New Free Press of today asserts that an understanding exists between the Emperor Napoleon and King Victor
Emanuel whoreby the Italian Government would have the right to occupy militarily all the Pope's territory, with the exception of Rome, this limitation only to remain in force during the lifetime of the present Pope.
At the death of Pope Pius IX the seat of the Italian Government would be definitively removed to Rome, which would be proclaimed the capital of Italy.

The same journal says that Baron Hubner returns to Rome with the text of a bill, approved by the Austrian Ministry, for the settlement of the relative positions of the various sects in Austria, with instructions to obtain the Pope's assent to such modifications of the Concor lat as are required by the provisions of the bill.

The Presse of to-day asserts that Prussia supports Italy's efforts to obtain an alteration of the September Convention.

Vienna, Oct. 5.—In to-day's sitting (Lower House) of the Reichsrath, the proposition of the committee appointed to inquire into the Constitution was adopted. This proposition was not to draw up any new Constitution, but to supply the deficiencies of the Constitution of February by various new laws referring to fundamental rights, the administration of justice, the respective powers of the Government, and the judicial tribunals.

Vienna, Oct. 6.—The Lower House of the Reichsrath voted yesterday the new fundamental law in reference to the jurisdiction of the judges. This law empowers civil tribunals to try military persons. It, moreover, recognizes the independence and irremovability of the judges, and establishes a supreme court of appeal for the Cis-Leithan provinces, as well as trial by jury. It further enacts that all judicial proceedings shall be emancipated from administrative control.

The Fastest Time on Record.

The Louisville Journal, of the 16th, gives an account of the regatta held there, in which the Susie Summerfield made the fastest time recorded in the annals of boat racing in America. The whole interest of the regatts the recorded in the annals of boat racing in America. The whole interest of the regatts the recorded in the race between the Susie Summerfield and the Undine, both of which are fast boats, and manned by able crews. The Susie summerfield is a pleasure boat with six oars, weighs 500 pounds, is 36 feet long and 3½ in width; she is clinker built, without outrigging, and was built by Samuel Watson, at the Howard Shipyard, Jeffersonville. Her colors are blue. She is commanded by Captain W. D. Sheraton. The weight of her crew was 1057 pounds—making a total weight of 1557 pounds. She belongs to the Louisville Barge Club, No. 1.

The Undine floated red and white colors. Her weight is two hundred and eighty pounds, two hundred and twenty less than the Susie. Her crew is exceeded by that of the Susie three hundred and fifty-seven pounds. These differences, it is claimed, fully made up for the extra force at the oars of the Susie, so that the boats were regarded as pretty equally matched. The Undine won the inside track.

The pull was a lively and stubborn one on both sides for a half mile, when the crew of the

The pull was a lively and stubborn one on both sides for a half mile, when the crew of the Susie plied their cars well together, and left the indine in her wake. In rounding the stake boat the Susie held the lead by several lengths. On the homeward stretch the gap was gradually widened until the Undine was left more than a hundred yards in the rear. The Susie crossed the starting line in twelve minutes and fifty-four seconds, the fastest time ever made, win-ning the race, which entitled her to the prize flag, and the special premium of a fine silk hat, offered by Prather & Smith for the fastest time. The Undine made the run in thirteen minutes and twenty-seven seconds.

The oars of Susie Summerfield were made by Luffberry, of this city, and those of the Undine by Roberts, of New York. The Undine was formerly champion of Pittsburg.

CIVIL RIGHTS IN KENTUCKY.

First Sentence Under the Civil Rights Bill. From the Louisville Democrat, Cet. 12.

About fifteen months ago, John Rhodes, John Stuart, and Thomas Vickers, alias "Texas," were arrested in Nelson county, Kentucky, and brought to this city, charged with burglariously and reioniously entering the dwelling-houses of Nancy Tolbott, David Beeler, and Thomas Scott (people of color), robbing them of their goods and chattels, and assaulting them in the most brutal manner. They were found guilty before the United States Circuit Court, in the October Jerm 1888 Their counsel General W. T. Went term, 1886. Their counsel, General W. T. Ward, ther upon moved the Court to arrest the judgment in the case. They were remanded to prison, where they were confined, awaiting the decision of Associate Justice Swayne, which was delivered before the United States Cirwas delivered before the United States Cir-cuit Court on Thursday morning, and in which he sustained the constitutionality of the Civil Rights bill, and overrailed the motion above re-Rights bill, and overruled the motion above re-ferred to in arrest of judgment. Yesterday Judge Bland Ballard passed sentence on the prisoners above named, and upon asking them if they had anything to say why sentence should not be passed upon them, they replied, "No." The Judge made a few remarks, in which he said he would see that justice was meted out to the "poor oppressed," against the depredations of burgiars, etc., so long as he sat upon the bench and he could find juries in the county, who would find all such men guilty of such bold and he could find juries in the county; who would find all such men guilty of such bold acts of inhumanity, etc. There were three indictments against each of the prisoners—rape, robbery, and burglary. The Judge sentenced each of the prisoners to be confined in the Frankfort penitentiary, at hard labor, for the term of ten years. The counsel, General W. T. Ward, has moved for an appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States. United States Marshal Meriwether will kave the honor of escorting to the penitentiary the first white men who ing to the penitentiary the first white men who have ever been convicted of a criminal offense by a court in this State under the Civil Rights bill.

A SKILFUL ROBBERY. Twenty Thousand Dollars' Worth of

Watches and Diamonds Stolen. Chief of Police Long, of Allegheny, received information this morning of a most skilful and extensive robbery, which is supposed to have been committed on a train on the Pennsylvania Railroad, on Saturday last, between Pittsburg and Altoona. The information was given in a letter to Chief Long, from Messrs. Smith, Pierson, and West, detectives of Baltimore, and from the letter we obtain the following particulars:—On Monday last a man, representand from the letter we obtain the following particulars:—On Monday last a man, representing himself as from the Southwest, called at the office of the detectives, and stated that he had been robbed of $20,000 worth of diamonds and watches. He stated that he reached Pittsburg from Cincinnati by the P. C. and C. route, and immediately took the train for Baltimore. He had his valuables in a travelling-bag, which he took into the car with him, and placed it under his seat.

net took into the car with him, and placed it under his seat.

Some time after the train started he fell asleep, and continued to sleep and doze until he reached Altoona. When he arrived there he had occasion to open his travelling-bag, which he found apparently in the same position in which he had left it. He was surprised to find, however, that, instead of the valuables which he had been guarding so carefully, the bag contained only packages of rice and sugar. His carpet sack had been exchanged for one almost exactly similar, and it was also evident that the thief had prepared it for the purpose. The victim, whose name is not yet given, is of the opinion that he was followed from Cincinnati or St. Louis; but is at a loss to know how the thief or thieves obtained a knowledge of the contents of his travelling satchel.—Pittsbury Chronicle.

The King's Troops on the Frontier Reinforced-National Excitement at the Threat of French Intervention in Rome -- Roman Reports of a Fierce Battle and Defeat of the Garibaldians.

FLORENCE, Oct. 19-P. M .- The situation of Italy towards Rome is still embarrassing and critical. The Italian troops on duty on the frontler line, under the terms of the September Convention, have been reinforced, and the officers acting under the King are making increased efforts for the satisfactory discharge of their instructions.

All Italy remains excited in a remarkable manner at the threat of French intervention, as reported from Paris, and the actual war preparations which are being carried on at Toulon by order of Napoleon.

Reports have been received in this city from Rome, dated yesterday (Friday) evening, which state that a fierce battle took place between the revolutionary invaders and the Papal troops the previous afternoon, in which the soldiers of the Pope retook the town of Veroli-the Garibaldian force sustaining a heavy loss.

A Micawber. Ex-Collector Albert Barnes Sloanaker is here floating around like a Micawber, " waiting for something to turn up." He was one of the many individuals who sent complimentary despatches to the President about the result of the late election in Pennsylvania. It is said his despatch was very nauseating in its character, and caused considerable amusement at the White House, as its object was well known.

He has been endeavoring to hoodwink the newspaper correspondents here to give him compilmentary notices about the settlement of his accounts, and the extreme honesty of his administration during the few months he was Collector of Internal Revenue of your first district His accounts are adopted. trict. His accounts are no doubt correct, but there have been hundreds of other collectors who have been in public office since the Internal Revenue law went into effect, who have been rendering accounts for years with satisfaction to the Treasury Department. These officials do not ask the newspapers to give them puffs.

FROM BALTIMORE TO-DAY.

The Eliermeyer Funeral Riot-Sam Coll-yer-Republican Mass Meeting, Etc. [SPECIAL DESPATCH TO EVENING TELEGRAPH.]

BALTIMORE, Oct. 21 .- The assault upon several companies of the Maryland militia, as they were returning from Ellermeyer's funeral last evening seems still a mystery, and is now alleged to have been made by some white rowdies, who, not liking their Rebel imitation uniforms, threw bricks at them, when a pistol was fired from the broken ranks. The two negroes arrested charged with the offens pears, were only accidentally in the vicinity, and wholly innocent. They were severely handled by an excited populace.

Sam Collyer, who fights Bill Kelly, is now here, and went into training to-day at Chesnut Grove, six miles from Baltimore, for the fight which comes off in November.

The Republicans have a grand mass meeting to-night, when it is feared some assaults may be made upon them, causing trouble.

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE.

COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS—Judge Ludlow.—T. B. Dwight, Assistant District Attorney.—
Considerable time was taken up this morning in ealing over the panel of jurors summoned to serve during the remainder of the term.

Thomas Trusty, colored, plead guilty to a charge of the larceny of $183 from the United Sisters of America.
When he was arrested, he confessed that he, one day, entered the residence of the Treasurer of the abovementioned colored Society and stole the money. Upon his person $182 were found, and under the flour of the room where he lived was found an earthen pot, containing upwards of $60 in coin. There were stolen altogether $33.72.

Charles Mag was charged with assault and battery upon Policeman Leslie. The officer testified that on the evening of the 9th September, when he went to his home, he found the defendant there drunk; he acked him to leave, and he refused to do so; he then attempted to put him out, and was beater tadiy by him.

The officer was also charged with assault and battery upon Charles Mag. It was alleged to at when the evenes of the panel to he mended the strengt the house he immediately at

The officer was also charged with assault and battery upon Charles Mag. It was alleged toat when the officer entered the house he immediately attacked him with his billy, put the nippers on him and dragged him to the Station House, beating him most crucity in the meantime.

Mr. Schofield testified that he saw Mag at the Station House and knew he was in a fearful condition, Mr. Vanhook testified that he saw the officer taking Mag to the Station House, dragging him along by a rope, and all the while using the most profuse and barbarous language. Mag was bruised and covered with blood. He (Mr. Vanhook) asked an officer at the Station House if Mag's wounds could not be dressed, and the officer gave no answer, but immediately thrust Mag into a cell and locked the door. On trial. DISTRICT COURT—Judge Sharswood.—Homer vs. Jones. An action on a promissory note. The defense alleged usury on the part of plaintiff. On trial. Pile for plaintiff: Burton for detendant.

DISTRICT COURT—Judge Hare—Geo. F. Brown vs. Frederick E. Swope. An action to recover the value of certain shares of oil stock for which plaintiff paid his money but which he never received. No delense. Verdict for plaintiff $2505.50.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS—Judge Peirce.—Trindall vs. Prowattain. An action on assumpsit of promises to recover arrears of ground-rest. On trial. UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT—Judge Cadwaiader.—The United States vs. 25 barrels of whisky, etc., Christian Freisendantz claimant. Before reported. Verdict for the United States. Property appraised at $2500.
