THE DAILY EVENING TELEGRAPH-PHILADELPHIA, MONDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1867.

INCONTROVERTIBLE FACTS VETAUR MERE ASSERTIONS.

From the N. Y. Evening Express.

Much interest has been evinced by thinking and intelligent people in this country regarding the results of the awards at the Paris Exposition. Especially has the musical portion of the public been agitated about the decisions in Class 10-planos and musical instruments in general-because competition was extremely close and exciting, from the fact that more than 400 planos of the world's most celebrated makers had been entered for the contest. It was, therefore, highly gratifying for us to know that America has been so signally triumphant in this branch of fine arts.

It will be remembered that for weeks after the appouncement of the awards to the successful exhibitors, a fierce newspaper war raged between Messre, Steinway and Chickering, and their respective agents, all over the country, Mesars, Steinway proving by the official certificate of the President and members of the Intermational Jury on musical instruments, that THEY had been unanimously awarded the FIRST of the Grand Gold Medals, distinctly classified first and over all competitors; while Messrs. Chickering, on their part, persistently advertised that the decoration of the Legion of Honor (which their representative in Paris only obtained upon written application for the same from the French Government) was the highest prize at the Exposition, even going so far as to claim that the said decoration had been recommended by the Jury and delivered to Mr. Chickering by the Emperor Napoleon in person. assertions which turned out to be utterly erro-Deous.

The following official letter from Mr. Fetis, Director of the Royal Conservatoire at Brussels, Member and Official Reporter of the Jury on Musical Instruments (Class 10), at the Paris Exposition, again and finally establishes the fact that the highest prize for Pianos-"the First Grand Gold Medal"-has been unanimously awarded to Messrs. Steinway & Sons by all the Juries, and that the decoration secured by Mr. Chickering is a personal matter, outside of, and without the slightest connection with, the official awards at the Exposition.

Messrs. Steinway & Sons:-

In answer to your letter of the 15th instant, I have to declare that my position does not permit me to let you know the contents of my report before its official publication, but I cannot refuse to join my declaration to the one of my honorable colleagues of the Jury of Class 10 of the Universal Exposition in Paris, dated July 20, that the First Gold Medal for the American pianos has been given to you by the unanimous vote of this Jory, confirmed by the Second Group Jury, as well as by the Superior Council of the Presidents (Imperial Commission).

I declare, furthermore, that neither the Jury of Class 10, nor the SECOND GROUP JURY, nor the Superior Council of Presidents, have asked the Decoration of the Legion of Honor for Mr. Chickering, as such demand was not within their province.

Accept, geutlemen, my high regards, The reporter of Class 10.

How SUNDAY IS OBSERVED—THE CHIVALRY OF MODERN TIMES—THE UNWASHED ARE RAM-FANT DN THE NORTHERN PART OF THE CITY.—Our city is eploying, at this time, a relapse into its former state of demoralization. Laws enacted for its moral as well as its temporal prosperity are now contemp-tuously disregarded. The restraint which but iately was put on is shaken off, and open defiance to all that is orderly and for the public good is shown. Side doors are no longer the ways of ingress and egress to barrooms, but front doors; pocket-platols are no longer loaded on Saturday night, and bear kegs are no ingre conveyed to private parlors; old hannis are resumed, and Sinday revery nas returned to its primitive posi-tion and importance. The stations have again their old customary occupants; shaky, semi-unconscious in-HOW SUNDAY IS OBSERVED-THE CHIVALRY dividuals pass along our streets, brawls are resumed, and, in fact, some portions of our city exhibit a lower phase of morality on Sunday night than on any one of the other siz. Dusk is the signal for the return of foraging parties for beer on the outskirts of the city. and evening is made uproations with their song. And more than this, the days of chivalry have re-turned, varying somewhat, however, from the valor and courage of the Middle Ages. The tilting of innees, crossing of swords, and clashing of battle axes, where life was at stake, are now succeeded by punching heads, closing eyes, banging noses, and slashing sgene-rally pleasant fun, where a person has his appear-apped demolished for $25. Souday morning is the time if warship Exed, and the arena some out-of-the-way place, where with a select few of the ulfwashed and unterrified alike, to see fair play, the contest is waged. After a lull of some weeks, and when all good cli-tans were thinking that a millennium in the prize-fighting career of our city had come, we are startled by a number of encounters, enacted yesterday morn-ing, but a short distance from Nicetown lane. Mill No, has enacted on Sith street, near the two-mile bridge, above the basin. The principals were Theo-dore Butcher and William Wordy: the stakes $30 a side. After this light had progressed some time, the police, under Lieutenant Murray, of the Eighteenth, and Witcraft of the Eleventh District, whita a force of men, surrounded the chivalric heroes, and just as Wordy was planting a stunner on Butcher's chest, and was being keeled over by a return ablow with the force of a catapulta, they burst upon the crowd of about three hundred, and made the following ar-rests:- Theodore Butcher, the valorous knight, Thomas Calvary, John Myers, Pat Casalin, John Sweeter, and Samuel Wagner. Wordy, the other principal, made his escape. The three pairs of the sheakers of the law and dis-tributers of the peace, they ran across mill No. 2, another pairy engaged in the same handable enter-prise at Fowder Mill lane, where Robert Canalagham was contesting physical strengts with John Barger, the latter weil known to our police authorities. The and evening is made uproarlous with their songs And more than this, the days of chivalry have re prise at Powder Mill land, where Robert Cunningham was contesting physical strength with John Barger, the latter well known to our police authorities. The officera dashed into the crowd and came off victorious, with boin principals and the following witnesses:-James Bradley, Richard Cully, Daniel Richardson, John Fismings, John Duffy, John McAnnay, said to be one of the sconds; Pat Noien George Hottom. Frank McBride, William Fistcher, Prank Brady, and Monigomery Warren. Barger, however, escaped. He was placed in a wagon, the owner of which was so highly e swated that he tumbled out: the officers atepped out to assist him, whon Barger scharge the reins, lashed the horses until they went eff at their highest speed. The officers were hampered with pri-soners and could not pursue. The arrested were brought before Alderman Heins, and held to answer. BIBLE CLASSES FOR ADULTS .- The operations BIBLE CLASSES FOR ADULTS.—The operations of the Pennsylvania State Sabbath School Association are being feil for great good in many of the churches in this city. This is sepecially so in the West Aren Street Fresbyterian Church, where Governor Poliock has an adult Bible Class, which meets at a quarter past 3 o'clock every Sabbath morning. This class held its fourth meeting yesterday morning, and we moticed an attendance of upwards of one hundred ladies and genitemen. The exercises were of a deeply increasing character, and the teaching just what is so badly needed in our churches. It is a pleasing such to see so many persons convened speciality to is so badly needed in our courches. It is a pleasing shift to see so many persons convened specially to attend are certain to be profited. Falls, N. Y.

Falls, N. Y. Falls, N. Y. TROY, Oct. 20,—intelligence reached me last night that the inquest held by Coroner Bren-nan, of this city, upon the body of the man killed on the Troy and Boston Railroad, near Valley Falls, on Friday night, had proved it to be the remains of a somewhat distinguished Domocratic politician in this section of the Sate, Colonel Justin H. Aiken, of Alken's Junc-tion. Colonel Aiken, when first discovered by the engineer of the train, was either in a stooping or sitting posture on the road bed, between the rails. There was an instant appli-cation of the brakes, but too late, and the wheels of the engine passed directly across the abdomen of the unfortunate man, mutilating the frame in a shocking manner. There have been intimations made in and about the scene of the terrible occurrence that Colonel Aiken was murdered, and afterwards thus placed upon the track. It is known that the deceased had inst turnad onta borse and thus placed upon the track. It is known that the deceased had just turned out a horse, and was returning to his home when he was killed. The engineer believes that he observed, at a point some feet from where the body was struck, at a point some feet from where the body was struck, a pool of blood, looking as though it had dripped from the remains. There is great feeling in the vicinity of the affair, and I learn that a tho-rough investigation is to be had at once.

HORRIBLE TRAGEDY IN NEW YORK.

[SPRCIAL DESPATCH TO EVENING TEL. SOBAPH.] NEW YORK, Oct. 21 .- A man, named Thomas Mullone, who has been a terror to his rea ghbors for the past six or eight years, terminated a twodays' quarrel with his wife at 8 o'clock this morning by cutting her throat from car fo ear with a razor, and then drawing the same were ton across his own throat twice.

The murderer was a convict, having been an "It to the penitentiary on the 15th of June; for " attempting to take the life of another man, whom he injured severely.

It is said it is not the first man whose life her attempted. The murderer was a laboring man ... of intemperate habits, of vicient temper, and when under the influence of liquor was one of the most dangerous characters in the city.

Officer Lee, while patrolling his beat, happened to pass down Eighth street, and when almost opposite Mullone's house heard a scream, and the next moment a woman, with a horrible gash across her throat, from which a torrent of blood was flowing, came tottering out of the door and fell on the sidewalk, where, after a few gasps, her life became extinct.

Immediately her husband came out of the: door with the razor in his hand dripping with his wife's blood. Officer Lee started to arrest him, but before he could secure him the murderer started down the street as swiftly as possible. The officer drew his club, and after a block had been passed, the murderer as quick as a flash drew the razor across his own throat. Mullone died in about half an hour after he reached the Station House.

SYSTEMS RUN DOWN .- Person often allow their systems to "run down," or rather run them down by overwork, accompanied by a neglect of the proper means of invigoration. The result is what is called "GENERAL DEBILITY;" In other words, a failure and partial collapse of the physical forces, accompanied, usually, by great depression of spirits.

The best remedy in such cases is HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. Whether the state of exhaustion has been brought on by excessive physical labor, dissipation, anxiety of mind, exposure, or any other cause, the remedial effect of this great stomachic will be found equally prompt and certain. As a restorative, after severe sickness has prostrated the bodily and mental energies, it is pronounced, by competent medical authority, "THE BEST TONIC IN USE." If men were not foolishly careless about their health, and over-confident in themselves, they would always, when engaged in any work that required great exertion, use corresponding means of sustaining their strength. For this purpose HOSTETTER'S BITTERS are invaluable. All toilers should use them as an invigorant.

For those constantly employed in in-door occupa tions, especially in crowded workshops, they may be reckoned as the very best safeguard of health. Where there is a predisposition to constipation, or a tendency to billousness, they may be truly said to be a specific for which there is no substitute.
