THE CAMPAIGN OF 1868-MEETINGS IN THE VARIOUS WARDS. - An adjourned meeting of the Grant Club of the Twelith Ward was held at the Mechanics' Hall, for the purpose of electing permanent officers, when the following gentle-rermanent oncers, when the following gentle-nen were elected:-President, William B. Maun; Vice-Presidents, Charles M. Wagner and T. K. Finlatter; Socre-taries, W. B. Connell and T. A. Grace; Trea-surer, W. E. Lyttleton.

Mr. Finiciter addressed the meeting, saying he had been convinced since he addressed the citizens of the ward on a prior occasion that General Grant was as radical in his views as any Republican need desire.

Mr. Charles N. Maun delivered a stirring address, urging organization complete, effectual, and active, as the best means of rallying the forces of the party and perching victory on their banners.

MEETING IN THE THIRD WARD.

A meeting of the Republicans of the Third Ward was held at No. 710 Catharine street, Major J. T. Pratt was selected as President, and said that the meeting had been called for the purpose of effecting a complete and tho-rough organization of the Republicans of the Third Ward, in order that the campaign of 1868 might be properly managed, as our success de-pends upon this. Let us be united, and we will victorious.

Amos S. Redstreake was chosen secretary. It was resolved that this meeting now orga-nize as the Union Republican Campaign Club of the Third Ward.

A committee on permanent organization was appointed as follows:-Chairman, P. P. Arm-strong; W. Baur, W. W. Pidgeon, A. S. Red-streake, Captain R. Thomas, Benjamin L. Berry, John One, Lower Scill, John Orr, James Smith.

Mr. Benjamiu L. Berry made some stirring remarks on the importance of the coming cam-paign, after which the meeting adjourned.

MEETING IN THE TWENTY-FOURTH WARD. A large and enthusiastic meeting was held at National Hall, Fortieth street and Lancaster avenue, Twenty fourth Word, for the purpose of organizing a Grant Club. Professor Rhoades was appointed Chairman, and F. A. Milliman was not yet ascertained, though a great many witnesses had been examined by the Committee of the Board. The architect and contractor denied having anything to do with it.

In the absence of several witnesses and the original specifications and contracts, the further nvestigation was postponed. The Committee also considered the ordinance referred to them by Councils, providing for the consolidating of the Departments of City Pro-perty and Wharves and Landings. After coniderable discussion, the whole subject was referred to a sub committee.

CORONER'S INVESTIGATION IN CAMDEN .- The Coroner's jury in the case of the late James Hall, who died suddenly at a house in Kaighnsville, N. J., last week, assembled again yester-day morning, at the Camden Court House. After remaining together for some time, during which the facts pertaining to the case were freely discussed, the hearing of further evidence in the case was again postponed, to give time to test the contents of the stomach of the deceased. At the post-mortem examination it was discovered that there was considerable effusion of blood on the brain, but the heart was found to be in a healthy condition. It was also found to be in a was a slight ossification of the vessels leading to the brain. The funeral of the deceased will take place this afternoon.

AMUSEMENTS.

RISTORI played Elizabeth last night with exquisite power and grace, before a very large and fashionable "full-dress" andience. Signor Hozzo acquitted himself in grand style as "Lord Essex." This evening Ristori appears in Maria Stuarda. Every seat in the Academy of Music has been sold for Ristori's initial performance of Marie Antoinette to-morrow evening.

AT THE CHESNUE, Mrs. D. P. Bowers appeared last evening in Mary Suart, to a very full house. The artiste looked pretty and played her difficult role admirably. The new play is destined to have a great run.

AT THE ARCH, Nobody's Daughter proved very attractive and pleasant. The house was crowded, and the new drama passed off smoothly, and everybody seemed pleased and interested. Kate Reignolds has an arduous triple part to perform, and does it in a manner that it would be difficult to excel.

-Advantages are claimed for a new explosive material called haloxylin, on the ground that "it neither ignites by percussion nor friction." How is the explosion obtained ?

-Four hundred bushels of potatoes to the acre are said to be an average crop this season in Oxford county, Maine. A starch mill in Andover has ground twenty-five thousand bushels of them into starch already this year.

THE COMMITTEE ON LAW OF COUNCILS held a forcing yesterday atternoon, for the purpose of avestigating the charge "that the specifica-tons for building the school-house at Sixth and bastes streets, in the Thirteenth Section, had en altered."

Mr. Green, a member of the School Board of Thirteenth Section, stated that in answer to advertisements for proposals to build the ise, but one bid was received, and that was the sum of $52,375; but the contractor agreed build it for $44,375, if allowed to construct a walls similar to the Lincoln School House, Twendeth and Coates streets, no other altera-m to be made in the specification except a ange in the plan of the roof, which was not to ntail any additional expense. The sub-Committee of Schools having the matin charge agreed to the proposal of the conactor, and the work was commenced. About x months after the work had commenced naw pecifications were printed and given to the outractor. The old specification provided for eventy-four inside Venetian shutters and cer-tin kinds of sinks, but the new specification id been altered so as to not require this work, ough the contract called for the shutters when ginally granted. Mr. Green could not had altered the specifications. No altera

ho had altered the specifications. No average one except the stone-work and roof were sthorized by any one having authority. Mr. Shippen, President of the Board of School ontrollers, stated that there was no doubt the ecifications had been altered, but by whom
