by specie, as the oil banks did in the case of he handred and fifty millions referred to; they only gave back to the Government its own notes. The process was only a sort of presignatory J. Todd, who briefly addressed the and ience. by spece, as the off banks and in the case of the handred and lifty millions referred to; they only gave back to the Government its own notes. The process was only a sort of prestigiatory manipulation of Government bonds and notesa mere change of the bonds and currency from one hand to the other, the Government furnishing all the capital, and the banks and other agents reaping the profits. No; it was not the banks that aided the Government in the war, but the lovernment that sided and enriched the banks by means of those active presses in the Printing Bureau. That is where the capital came from, and not from accumulated hoards of national bankers, who, in fact, had nothing but what the Government put in their hands. As to any sor-Government put in their hands. As to any sor-vices in future, to carry on a great war, which, it is to be hoped, will never be needed, these banks would not be required; the Treasury could get along as well or better without them. In a great and wealthy country like this there is always a sufficiency of accumulated indi-vidual capital which the Government can get, if properly sought and negotiated, without the agency of sizteen or seventeen hundred banks scattered all over the Republic.

From the Boston Advertiser, 24th-Republican.

Mr. Jay Cooke has published a long letter in explanation and support of the national banking system, called out catensibly by inquiries from some bankers in Sandusky, Ohio. Mr. Cooke's statements and arguments cover ground which is already tolerably familiar, and thereore add but little to the existing store of financial knowledge. We believe, however, that they are for the most part more sound than those contained in his once famous publication in support of the doctrine that 'a national debt is a national blessing."

TWENTIETH WARD GRANT CLUB .- An adjourned meeting of the Grant Club of the Twen-tieth Ward was held on Thursday evening, at the Hall, No. 1009 Girard avenue. The Committee on Permanent Organization reported the following officers:-President, James Lawrie; Vice-Presidents, James E. Dingee, Calvin H. Test, George W. Hill; James Palmer; Secreta-ries, John B. Wallace, Captain J. C. Forring; Treasurer, James J. Allison. Ex-Governor Pollock was present, and addressed the club on the object of their organiza-tion. The speaker said:-The hour of excitement is not yet here, but this is the hour of preparation. We should gather instruction from late disaster; make our organization perfect. and resolve that defeat should never occur again. The country, in looking about for a leader, has fixed her mind on one who holds in his hands the elements of power to bring order out of chaos.

The American heart has turned instinctively to General Grant, and desires him for a leader. The world knows his position, notwithstanding his silence. He does not need to swing around the circle, "Hike his superior officer, Andrew Johnson, and announce that "first I was an alderman, then a mayor, etc."

His actions speak with eloquence for him. With Grant, Congress will be sustained. The following resolutions were offered by S. N. Rich, Esq., and adopted unanimously:-

N. Firch, ESG., and adopted unanimously:- Resolved, That we, the Union Republican citizens of the Tweniteth Ward, now renew our organization for the Presidential campaign of 1868. Evolved, That responding to the sentiments ex-pressed by our party in different parts of the country, we do earnestly recommend the nomination of Gene-ral U.S. Grant as the Union Republican candidate for Presiden of the United States, Resolved, That in the larguage of General Grant, "this is a republican government, in which the will of

GRANT MEETING IN THE SEVENTH WARD .-An adjourned meeting of the Republicans of the Seventh Ward, favorable to the nomination for the Presidency of General Ulysses S. Grant, was held last evening, at O'Neill's Hall, corner of Broad and Lombard streets, William P. Hacker, Esq., in the chair. L. L. James, Esq., from the Committee on

Resolutions, appointed at the last meeting, reported the following :--

Necreos. As it is proper that freemen should exer-che diligence in every thing pertaining to the mainte-nance and perpetuity of their political rights and pri-vileges; and telecross, it is desirable that they should meet together and express their ophilons as to the situation of public affairs, and the measures necessary for the right government of the country and as to the persons proper to be intrusted with political power; therefore, be it Resolved. First, That the present the term

Second. That the Republican party, by its conduct and successful completion of the war for the over-throw of the Rebellion, has shown itself able to cope with the greatest danger, that can beset the resublic, and has finalliested a policy eminently adapted to the exigencies of the return of peace. Third, We consider a soldier who supported his government, and carried out its policy with signal ability on the battle-field, especially fitted to guide the nation in the times of peace and believe that Uprases 8, Grant, by his milliary prescience, and pattent and untring perseverance, has proved himself to be the man on whom the people can rely to be their next President, and we piedge ourselves to use all honor-able means to accomplish his nomination and elec-tion to the Presidency. able means to accompli-tion to the Fresidency.

The resolutions were adopted by acclamation and amidst great applause, and the following permanent officers of the Grant Club of the Seventh Ward were chosen:-President, Benja-min Bullock; Vice-President, William P. Hacker; Secretaries, Lewis Blanchard and William Greer Treasurer, Frank P. Milne.

Eloquent addresses were subsequently de-livered by District Attorney William B. Mann, T. Bradford Dwight, Esq., Lewis Ashmead, Esq., and William P. Hacker, Esq.

The meeting was one of the largest and most enthusiastic that has assembled in the Seventh Ward for several years, and the constitution of the Grant Club was signed during the evening by many leading citizens. Our space does not permit us to publish any of the addresses delivered.

Y. M. C. A. ANNIVERSARY .- The ninth anniversary of the Young Men's Christian Associa-tion of the Fifth Street Methodist Episcopal Church was held last night, at the church, Fifth street, below Green.

The exercises opened with a hymn by the conpregation and prayer by the pastor. The audience was then addressed by the paster, who explained the object of the meeting to be not only to celebrate the ninth anniversary of the association, but also the second anniver-sary of the Home Mission, and to endeavor to establish a night school. He gave a short his-tory of the association from the date of its inauguration in 1858 to the present time.

The reports of the Association and the Home Mission were then read, which showed them to be in a flourishing condition. Rev. J. A. Cleveland being introduced, said:

Rev. J. A. Cleveland being introduced, said: -Complex and strange as are the times we live in, they are nevertheless the most important that the world has ever seen. The drift is on-ward. We live in fast times. Mencross valleys, mountains, occans; converse from places widely separated by lightning; travel by express. All are rushing forward, and, if one fails behind, he is trodden under foot and forgotten. Tarones and empires spring up in a night and Torones and empires spring up in a night and fall in a day. Crisis crowds upon crisis. There is a manifest consistency in them; they are de-termining the power of the law. The grand idea that every human being washed by the blood of Emmanuel is a child of GoJ, no matter what may be his color, is taking possession of the public mind.

These are blessed times: the feet of God are pron the waters, and His voice is heard above the storm, caring tor His children; aye, even the least of them. But blessed as they are, they are but the dim dawn of a glory that has never yet been seen; they are but the passing away of the midnight darkness and gloom before the morn of day whose meridian is drawing near.
