(stabilahment, No. 23 S. Beventa stress. HALL & Co.'s GREAT DRY GOODS EMFORTOM.—The stiention of our readers is called to the extensive dry goods establishment of Edwin Hall & Co., No. 23 South Second street. Bargains are offered—bar-gains in dress goods of all kinds and fabrics of every variety. The fall and winter season is upon us; the yearheat of summer are cast off, and in their place we must have something warmer and more substan-tial. Hall & Co.'s great fall and winter stock of goods is being received, and to make room for them the entire contents of the large establishment are being sold out at unheard-of rates. This dry goods emporium is one of the fluest in our Quaker City, and bushness transactions with it always result satisfac-torly. corily.

As BEGARDS the impeachment of the President, there seems to be a difference of opinion among all parties; but we have yet to see any difference of opinion, among the well informed on the subject, as to the beauty and cheapness of the first-class Readymade Clothing sold at Charles Stokes & Co.'s Cloth ing House, under the Continental. All Suits brought before this court terminate satisfactorily.

Doings of the Retrenchment Committee. Visitors at the White House. Ets., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Mite. [SPECIAL DESPATCH TO THE EVENING TELEGRAPH.] WASHINGTON, Oct. 26. The Retrenchment Committee, in session at the Treasury Department, this morning had S. M. Clark, Superintendent of the Printing Bureau, before them for nearly two hours this of his Bureau. It is due to Mr. Clark to state that he voluntarily offered to give up his position while the investigation was pending, but as this was not considered necessary, his offer was not acted upon.

It has transpired that Charles W. Carrigan is an aspirant for John Miller's position as Revenue agent at Philadelphia. Carrigan is here, and new combinations will undoubtedly be formed to accomplish Miller's removal, as the whisky interest is desperately opposed to him on account of his earnest efforts to break up illicit distilling. Congressman Glossbrenner, of Pennsylvania, was one of the visitors at the White House this morning, and had an interview with the President. There were very few visitors at the Exe. sutive Mansion.

John W. Stokes, facting Commissioner of Agriculture, has been suffering from sore throat for several days, which has prevented him from attending to the duties of his office. He is improving, and will be on duty next week.

The Russian Minister, Baron Stouckl, called this morning at the War Department to see General Grant, but the latter being absent, the Baron did not succeed in gaining an interview. Senator Cameron left to-day for Harrisburg, accompanied by Senator Chandler. Cameron will return next week.

The Treasury Department.
