The ballee services will also be continued to-mor-row in St. Mark's Church, on Spring Garden street, -The celebration of the Seventh Jubilee

The PRESERVATION OF THE PUBLIC RECORDS.— Some time since, Mesors, Samuel C. Perkins, David W. Sellers, and Charice H. T. Collis were appointed a C. mmision to inquire futo the present mode of tra-sortion of the class of the Count of Common Pesso of the clip and county. This mo ning the Comminal is and resented their report, which the crowded state of on columns prevous in from publishing in full. The Commission say that there is truth in the alle-set to that the old records of the Court, which have been placed in the collars, beneath the Prothomotary's office, because of the limited space alloted to them in the Court fusiof, are liable to be totally destroyed by remaining there. The Commission further and papers as their confused, crowded, and dustr con-clicion vould permits and found them to consist chiefly of insolvent bonds as far back as 1766, and constituely in the abilitions of the county of models to the provide the abilitions of the court, and cover intested without fraud, of election returns from the va-rent the abilitions of the county of mandry original make and there were also some original deeds among the documents. The profession frees. The commission further state that they have ascer-tained that the fourth story of the Philadelphia Bank building, which is entirely firsproof, can be secured on a lease of live or ten years at a annual rental of $80, while proper shelving can be placed in this 'com for the accommodation of all of the papers referred to, and of such others as can be removed from the Profilomotary's office without injury to current busi-ness, for a sum not exceeding $200. Accompanying the report of the Commission is the draft of an ordinance to be submitted to Councils, providing for the proper preservation of the records referred to above. The ordinance provides for the lease of the fourth story of the Philadelphia Baok huidhor, for five years from the 1st of January next, and theories the court to appoint a competent per-son to arrange and label these records, and to prepare an index-book thereof, to be kept in the Profilomotary, are also authorized to fit up the room in an appropri-tie and convenient manner. It is to be housed that the suggestions made by the Commission will be speedily carried out by Councils.

IN AD OF THE FREEDMEN .- On Tuesday evening, November 5, at half-past 7 o'clock, there will be held in the Friends' Meeting-house, on Arch street, an adjourned session of "The Friends' Association of Philade phia and its Vicinity for the Relief of Cotored Freedmea." The objects of this meeting are stated to be as follows:-

Freedmen." The objects of this meeting are stated to be as follows:-To inform Friends more fully of the present condi-tion and needs of the Freedmen, and of the labor for here is deviation-contemplated and in progress-by the Executive Board of this Association: and to deter-mine whether this labor of love has still that herd on the minds and heavts of Friends that is essential to the apport of the Board in its plans. Twenty three schoels have been organized; forty-five teachers have been appointed; at least three thousand freedmen are likely to partake directly of their instruction. About twenty-five thousand doi-lars will be required to continue these schools until the unal time of summer vacation, but none of this is now in the treasary of the Association. If the As-sociation now withdraws from this good work, the present school year to these thousand the Boble, will or along time, many perhase forever, fail of their propose. Tens of thousands of copies of the Holy scriptures can be indictously distributed throughout the South by the correspondents of the Association, appeals for them are being continually received. We sincerely hope that the appeal of the Associa-tion for support will receive a prompt and hearty re-sponse on the part of the general public.

How It HAPPENED.—On Monday last, John Kerney, who keeps a liquor saloon at the corner of Filzwater street and Gaffney's avenue, was held by Aldermay Tittermary to answer the double charge of science of the saloon at the corner of the customers. In the reports of the hearing which were published in the daily papers, injustice was done Mr. Kerney by not stating all the facts in the case. The affair happened in this way:— On Sunday morning, about 6 o'clock, two men en-ered the saloon, and one of them called for drinks, which were accordingly furvished. The man who ordered the drinks, and who is said to be rather a troublesome customer, was about lewing the place, when Mr. Kerney called his attention to the fact that he had not settled his account. He refused todo so, when Mr. Kerney told him he could go and that he hums if "would tand the drinks." The companion of the obstreperous Individual thereupon said that the drinks should be paid for. In return for this sugges-tion he was thrown to the floor by the unruly custo-mer, and bitten on the hand and throat. Mr. Kerney came to his assistance, in answer to a call for help, and fuding it imposable to ould the of the inding it in the drinks is head by the unruly custo-tion he was thrown to the floor by the unruly custo-tion he was thrown to the floor by the unruly custo-mer, and bitten on the hand and throat. Mr. Kerney came to his assistance, in answer to a call for help, mer, and bitten on the hand and throat. Alt, Kerney came to his assistance, in answer to a call for help, and finding it impossible to pull the biter off his vic-tim, gave him a light blow on the back with a small cane; whereupon the man left the saloon, vowing vengeance, and made complaint before Alderman Tittermary, with the result stated above.

THE TEACHERS' INSTITUTE of this city is now fairly under way, and the instructors in our public schools are to be sincerely congratulated on this fact, Schools are to be shoched by congratulated on this futures, for the institution promises to be of great usefulness, but only to its members, but to the public at large. William Parsons, Earl of Rosse,

William Parsons, Earl of Rosse, By a cable despatch, dated at London yester-day, we are informed of the death of this distin-sulshed British astronomer. He was born in York on the 17th of June, 1800, was educated at Magdalen College, Oxford, and graduated in 1822. Under the title of Lord Oxmantown, he represented the county of Kings, in Ireland, from 1821 to 1834. In 1841, by the death of his father, he became third Earl of Rosse, and four years afterwards was elected one of the representative peers of Ireland. In politics he was a Liberal. As a member of the House of Parilament, however, he never distinguished bimsell, all of his repu-tation being attained by his great knowledge of astronomy. In 1826 be caused to be erected upon the grounds of his residence, Birr Casile, an observatory for which instruments were made under his personal supervision. Among these was the now celebrated telescope, which required several years to erect, but which was these was the new celebrated telescope, which required several years to erect, but which was finally completed at a cost of over $60,000. This instrument weighs over these tools, has an aperture of six feet, and a focus of fifty-three, and is the most powerful reflector in the world. By means of this great instrument the Earl was enabled to question many solentific theories heretofore entertained. Herschell's theory of condensation and Laplace's theory of cosmegony being among them. In 1843 Lord Rosse was appointed President of the Briliak Association, and presided over the Royal So-ciety from 1849 to 1855.

The deceased astronomer was Earl of Rosse The deceased astronomer was Earl of Rosse and Baron Oxmantown, in the peerage of Ire-land, and a baronet in the same part of the United Kingdom. His family, however, was of English origin, and removed to the Emeraid Isle during the reign of Queen Elizabeth, hold-ing high office under the Crown, and being ele-vated to the peerage in 1630, Lord Rosse mar-ried Mary, elder daughter of John Wildmer Field, of Heaton Hall, county Cork, in 1838, and had several chlidren. MR. EWING ON RECONSTRUCTION .- The Hon. Thomas Ewing, of Ohio, has published a letter on the political situation. He construes the recent political reaction, as developed in the October elections, as a demand on Congress to recede from its reconstruction policy, and to abandon the plan of enfranchising the late slaves.

oteon a Railroad Subscription-Woman Suffrage-General Grant Becoming a Popular Presidential Candidate Among the Radicals-Purchase of a Ratiroad-Pursuit of a Murderer.

Sr. LOUIS, Nov. 1 .- The Charlton County Court has ordered a vote to be taken in that county on a railroad subscription by voters irrespective of race, color, or sex. The Woman Suffrage Committee of St. Louis propose sending a committee to the county to persuade female voters to cast their ballots.

Prominent radicals are gradually coming over to the support of Grant for President, Several Congressmen, and Senator Henderson among the number, of the Missouri radical delegation, cast their entire vote in the Baltimore Convention for Grant against Lincoln, and though a feeling of opposition to Grant was en-gendered some time ago by Stanton's friends, Grant is now the favorite of the radicals. It is regarded as certain that he will he the candidate, and many radical politicians, anxious to be on the winning side, are supporting him. St. Louis capitalists are negotiating for the Atchison and Fort Kearney Railroad, which taps the Omaha Pacific Railroad so far west as to threaten a diversion of traffic to St. Louis. The murderer of General Bailey, of Red River fame, was recently overtaken in the Southwest and exchanged shots with his pursuers, but eventually escaped.

LOUISIANA.

The Removal of General Hayes, the Sheriff of the Orleans Parish-Appoint-ment of Cuthbert Bullitt to the Post-

NEW OBLEANS, Nov. 1.-The removal of the ex-Rebel General Haves, this afternoon, and the appointment of ex-Marshal Cuthbert Bullitt, a personal friend of Mr. Lincoln, as aberiff, has created intense excitement here. While Gene-ral Mower esteems Hayes socially, he felt that this removal was necessary to the peace and security of the community. You will remember that Hayes' Brigade figured conspicuously in the July riots. My infor-mation satisfies me that General Mower in making this change was solely influenced by the public weal, and that be felt it necessary to have a man as Sheriff who could be depended upon in the event of another riot being attempted when the Convention meets on the 23d inst. Bullitt will give satistaction to moderate men of all parties, and his appointment will be ap-proved at Washington, where he is known as one of the fearless Unionists who fought treason here from the beginning.
