"Ay," answered the hostler, "but the landlord is a Yankee too." This was very sharp, but all clever people ought to know that W. W. Alter sells superior coal, of all kinds, at his extensive yards, Ninth street, below Girard avenue, and the branch office, Sixth and Spring Garden streets.

I FROOTING STARS.-Meteoric showers are promised us in profusion by the astronomers this winter, but people don't have the same confidence in astrono mers' promises as in other people's, and it will be some time before they catch us a-napping again, or rather disturbing our naps to look out for stars to fall. The promise that everybody shall be pleased who buy their clothing at Charles Stokes & Co.'s, First-class Clothiers, under the Continental, is much easier be-

"IN THE HOURS OF OUR HAPPINESS and prosperity, let us remember the unfortunate and disabled soldiers who saved us a country and nationallty."-LINCOLN.

GRAND POPULAR MOVEMENT TO ERECT THE GETTYSBURG ASYLUM

INVALID SOLDIERS, UNDER A SPECIAL Charter from the State of Pennsylvania,

PASSED MARCH 6, 1867.

AN APPEAL TO THE AMERICAN PE PLE. The object of this Association is to provide, by public exertion, a National Home for our disabled solicia, to erect an asylum for those who, in their patriotion, have served their count y at the expense of their feath and happiness; who in the battle for the nation's life were maimed, and are now incapable of working for their own minitenance. France has her Hotel des Invelices where rest the ashes of the great Napoleon; Ergiand, her Greenwich and Chelses Hospitals, the former being one of the finest architectural structures ever devoted to charily Russia, Prussia, and in fact nearly all European countries have magnificent retreats for the unfortunate scidiers. Monarchies provide for the alleviation of the suffering caused by war, but free, prosperous Republican America has no place for her crippled and sick soiders but the country poor-house or the sidewalks of her crowded cities. These noble patriots left happy homes to save our common connitry in the bour of her deep distress. We pledged to them our farting grathude, and now those who are dependent look to us in their atter used to redeem those piedges. They have performed their part. We enjoy the result of their sacrifices. We must not be recreant to our obligations. Let us each devote but a single deliar to this purpose, and the Gettysourg Asylum will afford the solidiers a home, and our country will be bonered by the noble institution.
