HARD UP POB NEWS .- The New York Sunday

HARD UP FOR NEWS.—The New York Sunday Mercury feels keenly the dearth of exciting and interesting news in these "doll, piping times of peace." In this dilemma it has resorted to an ingenious device for filling up the blanks in its columns, beirg nothing more nor less than the publication of a batch of hachelors once a week. All the nooks and corners of this Western Hemi-sphere are ransacked in this landable effort to entertain, if not instruct its readers and in the entertain, if not instruct its readers, and in the issue of the current week we find a lengthy in-sument of such Philadelphians as have not come to grief at the hymoneal altar. Bache-lorhood, according to the Mercury, agrees with mankind, although it must be acknowledged that it is rather unfair to the fair tex. The first of our fellow-townsmen who have not yet "gone and went and done it," embraces several curlous specimens of human-ity. Thus one is described as being "a nobby young man; very gay; has plenty of pastime, which he spends in playing bass-bail, and firt-ing with the ladles; is death on lager beer." For the sake of the temperance cause we hope he may soon be married. Another victim of single blessedness is said to entertain, if not instruct its readers, and in the may soon be married. Another victim of single blessedness is said to be "another gay buck, who dresses well; favor-lie with everybody; a strong Demograt, and a great admirer of the ladies; takes his beer oc-casionally, and has no objections to anything stronger."

BITODIGET Another, who has the strength of "a modern Arother, who has the strength of "a modern Hercules, is a turner by trade; aiways invent-ing some new machinery, which never works to suit him; is a splendid dancer; attends to all of Buzzard's parties; active member of the Moss Rose Library; sings the Rover's Grave sweather" sweely." Bill another is, unfortunately, "rather con-osited; thinks he is a spiendid singer, in which he is mistaken. is very fond of the ladies; but, not being successful on the east side of the Schuylkill, has concluded to cross over."

Another "loves his lager, and can tell the dif-ference between good and bad whisky." Happy man man! At the end of the list we find one of journal-istic tendencies, who is "rather prepossessing in appearance, thoroughly devoted to music, and is an A 1 ear-performer on the plano; pretty hard to beat in the ball-room; open for an en-gagement; is very at entive and polite to the index; prospects flatigraps; a capital fellow " gagement; is very at entive and points to the ladies; prospects flattering; a capital fellow." When the Mercury gets at the end of its list of bachelors we shall expect to see in its columns an enumeration of the precise number of wrink ies in the face of every old maid in Christendom, but we beg of it to omit Philadel-phia from the catalogue. We are afflicted with local write local pride.

RECEPTION OF COLONEL BARTON H. JENKS AT BRIDESDURG.-On Monday evening last the Sabbath School teachers of the Bridesburg Saboain School leachers of the Bridesburg Presbyterian Church, consisting of about fifty ladies and gentlemen, gave a public reception to their Superintendent, Colonel Barton H. Jenks, who has just returned with his family from a tour in Europe. At So'clock the Board of Teachers were con-vened in the leature room of the cherch and use vened in the lecture room of the church, and as Colonel Jenka and his family entered the association rose and sang in a beau iful man-ner.—"Home again, home again, from a foreign

The Rev. J. B. Davis, the pastor of the church. The Rev. J. B. Davis, the pastor of the church, then delivered a most appropriate and touching address, bidding Colonel Jenks and his family "Welcome home" to the community, the Sab-bath School, and the Church. The Colonel replied in a very tender and happy manner; and after a brief prayer, in which thanksgiving was rendered to God for His great goodness in preserving the life and health of the Superin-tendent and his family, and in returning them in safety and love to their Sabbath School and beautiful home, then followed a general shaking of bands, and one of the happiest "Re-micros" we have ever submessed unions" we have ever witnessed.

unic os" we have ever witnessed. The whole company then repaired to another apar ment, where a most bounteous collation had been prepared by the ladies. After all had been most sumptuously served, enthusiastic addresses were delivered by the Rev. William Jenks, of Titusville, N. J.; the Rev. A. M. Jelly, of the Port Elchmond Presbyterian Church; Peter Gould, IssaeCfiandler, John Smith, Henry Schnacker, and others. Sogreat was the interest Schraeder, and others. Sogreat was the interest and joy of the occusion, that the whole party remained at the church until the "wee sma" hours. Colonel Jenks has taken a most lively and liberal interest in this church and the general well being of the community. A new, commo-dious, and magnificent brown-stone church is almost completed, very largely by the Colonel's Itherality

SUPPOSED HOMICIDE.-This morning, at an early hour, as a policeman of the Second Dis-trict was walking his beat, he discovered the trict was waiking his beat, he discovered the body of a woman lying on the walk at Seventh and Bedford streets. Aid was summoned, and the body was carried to the Station House, where it was identified as that of Margaret Ward, or "Wilmington Mag," since she was known as a notorious bad character, who hovered to and fro from this city to Wilming-ton. It was wident by the marks moon the ton. It was evident, by the marks upon the body, that she came to a violent death, and suspicions were aroused of foul work. A man by the name of James Campbell was arrested. charged by a witness with having kicked her He was committed, bail being refused.

A SALM OF RARE AND CUBIOUS BOOKS began this morning at the book trade sale rooms of Mesars. Thomas & Son. The American Schooner "Lucy"-She is Attacked by Pirates-Bravery of Cap. tain Copp-His Crew Fire-The Pirates Escape.

Escape. KINGSTON, Oct. 29.—By the arrival of the American schooner Lucy in twenty-two days from New York, we learn that when becained about twenty-five miles off Cape Delmarle, on the eastern point of Hayti, a suspicious-looking craft was observed at some distance, with an awning over her stern, and the men lying upon their cars. Captain Copp thinking it desirable to keep a sharp look-out upon this boat, pro-ceeded nimself to the mast head of the Lucy, in order that he might have a good view of her. At one time he saw five men in the boat; at another time he saw five men in her. But he had reason to believe there were many more lying in the bottom. He kept a vigliant looklying in the bottom. He kept a vigilant look-ont. At night he observed from the masthead a light in the same direction in which he had previously seen this boal. He accordingly mustered his men, armed them as a precaution sgainst any emergency or surprise, and directed that a strict "lookout" should be kept through-out the night. At about 11 o'clock in the same evening there was an alarm given that an armed boat was below the bow of the Lucy. an armed boat was below the bow of the Lucy. The boat was challenged, but no reply was given. THE WRECK OF THE "NEW IRONSIDES" is being raised from the bed of the Delaware by a personal enterprise, and not by the Govern-ment, as at first reported. Colonel Norton, of New York, and David Boyd, Jr., of this city, purchased the hull and machinery of the vessel for the sum of $50,000, and it was their expedi-tion that left the city on Saturday for the confor the sum of $50,000, and it was their expedi-tion that left the city on Saturday for the scene of the wreck. At the bow of the vessel there is only 4½ feet of water, but there is 20 feet at the stern. The divers have discovered that there is but little mud in the hull, and the machinery and boliers are believed to be in good condition. If practicable, the vessel will be repaired and rebuilt in this city.

SAD AND FATAL CATASTROPHE .- A sad and SAD AND FATAL CATASTROPHE.—A sad and fatal accident occurred about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, by which a little bound girl, aged about ten years, residing with Mrs. Ward, No. 120 N. Nineteenth street, lost her life. It appears she was standing near the range in the kitchen, and her clothes took fire. She ran into the yard then through the alley, opened the gata, and out into the street, with her clothes all in a blaze, screaming for assistance; but before any one could subdue the flames she was hor-ribly burned. Everything possible was done to alleviate her sufferings. After lingering in in-tense sgony, she expired at 6 o'clock this tense agony, she expired at 6 o'clock this morning.

LARCENY OF CLOTH .-- Isaac Davis and John Franklin stole a quantity of geods from a store on Poplar street, above Fourth, yesterday after-noon. They ran out and into another store, and tied up the goods. While there a pollea-man entered, and one boy running out, was fol-lowed by the pollceman, who, seeing that the fugitive would get away, came back in time to nab Franklin, who was aneaking out. Alder-man Kimball held him in $500 ball to answer.

Between 10 and 11 o'clock they left the saloon in which they spent the evening, and pro-ceeded up the hill, stopping near the scene of the murder, and while standing there Tormey came along and Farley told him to get out of the way. Tormey passed on a short distance, then turned back, and applying an epithet to Farley, struck him. He then asked Weich if he had anything to say, at the same time knocking him down. A fight then ensued, and Weich was thrown under, when he asked to be let up; Tormey refused; he draw his knife and struck Tormey, intending to cut his leg. After getting on his feet, Tormey said he was cut, and Farley replied that it served him right, and, after kicking him, ran away, fol-lowed by Weich. They went to bed, and the next morning Weich's sister told him that there was a man lying dead in Warren street. He then remembered the quarrel of the night be-fore, but hardly thought it could be the man with whom they had the difficulty. He gave his knife to his sister, and told her to put in the bureau, but she threw it into an out house. He then went with Farley to Jersey City to pur-chase a horse, and returning in the afternoon.

Col. Moseby at the New York Gold Room EXCITEMENT AMONG THE MEMBERS.

[Special to THE EVENING TELEGRAPH by Hasson's Independent News Agency.] NEW YORE, Nov. 19 .- Great excitement was created in the vicinity of Broad and Wall streets, at noon to-day, by the rumor that Colonel Moseby, late of the Confederate army, had made his appearance at the Gold Room, and was about to be received by the Board.

The rumor proved to be correct, the Colonal having been invited by the Vice-President. A number of members protested against his being introduced to the body, when, on motion, the Board held a meeting, and, by an almost unanimous vote, decided to sustain the action of the Vice-President.

Colonel Moseby was then introduced to those of the members who desired to form his personal acquaintance.
