almost come, and the time for their selection is the present. We would refer our readers to the great is ducements offered by that well-known fi m, established at the northeast corner of Ninth and Chesnut streets, which firm has come into such good repute from the unsur passed stock of silver-plated ware which they have always on hand. The great demand, by reason of the holiday season, has led them to so increase their excellent stock, embracing every imaginable variety of silver-plated ware, from the smallest mustard spoon to the most elabo. rately wrought teaset, as to make it without an equal in the country. Its assortment of holiday presents is targe and beautiful, embracing all the latest styles, and representing the full catalogue of elegant designs.

The articles are of the finest white metal that can be manufactured, and the heavy plating upon them is vold of that tarnish which other ware is liable to. Thus, at a very moderate rate, buyers can fully satisfy themselves with plated ware as beautiful, and more durable, than the solid silver, Mesurs. Mead & Co. have, for many years, made this business a strict specialty with them, and therefore can produce a finer article, at a lesser rate, than can other manufacturers and dealers. The Winter Holdays.—Nothing is more apparent now than the constant preparation for the holidays. Purchasers are on the qui vive to buy at a bargain, while dealers are no less active to sell at an advantage all their Christmas stores. Every window front on our main thoroughfares beams with a new face, backed up, as it is, with its new goods, which look, truthfully, as if they were only manufactured for Christmasuse. Bry good stores were never so full of calicees and silks and satins; jewelry stores never sparkled with such a holiday brilliancy as they do now; book stores were never so crammed and choked with every imaginable kind of literature; variety stores have almost outdone themselves in getting together such a variegated stock; anction stores are in full blast, and their auctioneers swell up almost to bursting with crying their chesp Christmas goods; confectioners are themselves astonished to find such an amount of dainty sweets within their establishments, while the very apple-woman round the corner and the little old man on the pavement, with their hard cakes, dusty candy, and knotty apples, smile cheerfully at the thought of the increased business which the holidays will biting. And all the merchants—from the millionaire who almost disclaims any sale that is THE WINTER HOLIDAYS .- Nothing is more bring. And all the merchants—from the mil-lionaire who almost distains any sale that is not in itself a small fortune, to the poorest and most illy clad candy vender—all are in hopeful expectation of a profitable holiday business,

A CONFLICT OF AUTHORITY-A LIVELY TIME .-On Monday last John H. Alexander Cummings, Collector of that District, learning of this, took two watchmen up there, placed them in possession, arrested Diehl's watchman, took him to an Alderman's office, and had him bound over. Deputy Collector Kneass, of the Second District, subsequently proceeded to the place in question, and considerable skirmishing took place, which resulted in Deputy Marshal Sharkey being sent for. He, accompanied by several other deputies, visited the distillery and ejected Cummings' watchmen st armis. Blows were struck, and some received slight injuries from coming in contact with the flats of their opponents. The two men were arrested, taken to the Marshal's office, then before Commissioner Phillips, and by him bound over for a hearing to-day, but it was continued until Thursday next.

VIOLATING THE MARKET ORDINANCE .- The huckstering public, in part, cannot be brought to see the right and wisdom of the market ordi-nance which prevents them from selling on the street, only through an arrest, commitment, or penalty of a fine, which leaves them almost of the same opinion as before, according to the maxim, "A man convinced against his will," etc. A number of persons have been taken in custody of late, the last one being Bridget custody of late, the last one being Bridget Conns, who was fined by Alderman ; oland.

HAVANA CIGAR CIRCULAR.

We have neither abandoned the CIGAR IMPORT-ING BUSINESS nor commenced manufacturing what are usually called 'Domestic Cigars,' We continue to import Havana Cigars, as we have done for forty years.

Their high cost, however, has determined us to introduce a bona fide substitute that can BE RETAILED AT MODERATE PRICE, and to this end we are manufactur ng Fine Standard Cigars, including grades made entirely of Vuelta Abajo leaf, such as is used only in leading Havana factories. This we are pare and work ON THEIR SYSTEM, guided by long practical experience in this manufacture at Havana,

Havana,
Our new enterprise is, therefore, in its leading objects, a mere transfer of a first-class factory from Havans to Philadelphia, and our manufacture will be, in greater part, strictly Fine Havana Cigars, equal to any imported, yet much cheaper, and by no means to be confounded with even the best customary grades of Domestic Cigars. to be confounded with even the confounded with even the second of Domestic Cigars.

The smoking public may soon jrdge of the truth of our assertions, as our Cigars will shortly be offered to them through the principal city desiers.

Proposed Monument to Martyrs to Mexican Liberty.

Large Purchase of Arms from the United States Government.

mte., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc.,

By the Cuba Cable. HAVANA, Dec. 6 .- Mexican dates to the 27th ult. have been received. Peonage has been abolished. A steam marble factory has been opened in Mexico. Juarez was present and made a patriotic speech, and suggested that the first piece of marble cut be used in the monument to be erected to the memory of the Mexicans who fell martyrs to liberty.

The condition of the Mexican Treasury is improving. Statements are published in the newspapers by contract.

A contract has been made between Minister Romero and the United States Government for $3,000,000 worth of warlike implements, two millions of which were to be taken in rifles and muskets and smaller arms, and the remaining million in cannon.

Corlis, banker of the Mexican Government in the United States, is stated to be at present in the City of Mexico.

Mexican journals have published letters of General Grant, Senor Romero, Secretary Seward, and Madame Juarez, in regard to Mexican affairs.

The kidnapping of wealthy persons continues to be carried on pretty extensively by numerous bands of bandits, that go prowling around in various parts of Mexico, and they were making their victims pay heavy ransoms before restoring them to liberty.

Merchants' Union Express Company Robbed-The Thief Caught and Con-

Pinkerton's National Police Agency has just succeeded in arresting a robber of the Merchants' Union Express Company, recovering the amount stolen, $6170, and securing the conviction and punishment of the perpetrator. The facts in the case are as follows:—On the 27th of September last, the National Bank of 27th of September last, the National Bank of Commerce of this city shipped a package, consisting of $5 and $10 bills amounting to $6170, by the Merchants' Union Express Company, to the National Bank of Missouri, St. Louis.

On that day a bag was made up by the Express Company for St. Louis, supposed to have contained, among other packages, the one alluded to. This bag passed through the hands of seven or eight messengers, and on the route laid over at Indianapoles on Sunday, the 29th of Sec. at Indianapoles on Sunday, the 29th of September. Inside of the bag was a way-bill for each package, descriptive of the contents. On the arrival of the bag at St. Louis it was discovered to contain one package more than the way-bills called for, a circumstance which sometimes does occur in the course of the Express business, but is always easily accounted for by the advices of the consignees. In due course, the letter from the National Bank of course, the letter from the National Bank of Commerce here, advising the National Bank of Missourl, was received by the latter, setting forth that a package containing 36170 had been shipped on the 27th of September. The bank at St. Louis soon apprized the bank here that no such package had arrived.

It was at this point that the Merchants' Union Express Company discovered that the package supposed to have been shipped was lost. It had gone through the hands of seven or eight different messengers, any one of whom lost. It had gone through the hands of soven or eight different messengers, any one of whom might have taken it. Here the investigation by the detectives was ordered to begin. The clerks in the office of the Express Company in this city were examined, then each of the messengers, all giving straightforward and business-like statements but one, Henry H. Warriner, the messenger between Indianapolis and St. Louis. His memory appeared altogether too sente relative to the particular bag which contained the package which was lost, although hundreds of bags had passed through his hands during the interval between September 28 and the time of the investigation.

Suspicion ultimately fell on Warriner, and his operations were watched with great care. At length, on the 1st inst., he was arrested and locked up at Indianapolis, He immediately confessed the robbery, and told the detectives that he had the money buried hear his residence, a place named Shoais, Indiana. His dence, a place named Shoals, Indiana. His story proved to be true, and the money was found there. Last Thursday Warriner was found there. Last Thursday Warriner was brought up for trial in Indianapolis, convicted, and sentenced to the Penitentiary for five years. The course of justice following closely upon a rest in this case shows commendable promptness on the part of the Indianapolis Court. The Merchants' Union Express Company-has been in operation for about a year, and this is the first robbery of any consequence which has been perpetrated upon them, and it is their determination to follow up all such cases with immediate and thorough investigation, and, if possible, to bring offenders to justice,—N. [SPECIAL DESPATCH TO EVENING TELEGRAPH.] WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.

Impeachment has just received its quietus by the refusal of the House to adopt the majority report of the Committee. The vote stood uffy even in favor of the report to one hundred and eight against it.
Mr. Washburne and the Grant Republicans

Mr. Washburne and the Grant Republicans generally voted against the report, as they consider the impeachment proposition unfavorable to Grant's prospects. A majority of the Republican members voting were in favor of impeachment, but the Republicans opposed to it, when united with the Democrats, gave the opposition a large majority.

A neglected cough often ends in consumption. A slight linfammation of the linings of the wind tubes, the usual symptoms of which are a sore throat and a pain in the breass, will soon lend, through want of attention, to broachitis. A day's delay may entail months of suffering. Let the efflicted try at once Jayne's Expectorant. It is a standard remedy, and its curative properties have been tested by thousands of persons who have recovered their health by its use, Soid by all Druggists.
