THE GRAND SECART.—The grand secret in medica tion is to help Nature. SUSTAIN and REGULATEthese are the Alpha and Omega of the only theory of cure that has common sense for its basis. If the nervous system is sha tered, the muscles weak, and the mind, like the body, in a state of partial collapsewhat is it best to do? Reason teaches us the answer: BUILD UP YOUR MAN. Brace him as you would brace a tottering edifice. The pabulum he needs is a Tonic Alterative. Bring him up out of the depths of Debility and Despondency with HOSTETTER'S BITTEES. They cannot injure. A child may take them, in doses suited to its years, without the possibility of harm. The enfeebled vital powers are as sure to respond energetically to their action as the wilted grass is to erect his blades under the vivilying and refreshing rain. In all cases of debility the BITTERS are absolutely required. There are no substitute or succedaneum that will fill their place Resort to the most wonderful of modern tonics, and ALL WILL BE WELL, Bear in mind that in Dyspepsia, Intermittent Fevers, Billions Disorders, and Affections of the Nerves, no other medicine will produce one tithe of the good effect that invariably follows the use of this excellent INVIGORANT AND CORRECTIVE.

AT A MEETING of the Trustees of the Riverside Institute, held in Philadelphia. December 7, A. D 1867, a statement was made by the Chairman of the Building Committee, after which the following resolution was unanimously adopted by the Board of

Resolved, That our efforts to establish the Riverside Institute have been responded to by a generous public in such a manner as to satisfy us that the success of the Institution is placed beyond peradventure, and we earnestly invite the public at large to give liberal encouragement and prompt assistance to establish this Institute upon a safe and permanent basis, to the end that it may become a credit and an ornament to the country, and a help to the Government in its great national duty of educating the sens of l'a soldlers for the duties and responsibilities of citizenship-

WE HAVE examined the monument just erected at the marble yard of Henry S. Tarr & Son, No. 710 Green street, for the late General David B. Birneyand would express our perfect satisfaction with it in every respect, and are desirous that the public should examine it previous to its erection in the cemetery. (Signed) GEORGE BULLOCK.

HEBecretary of the Treasury's Report reveals a very satisfactory state of the national finances, and, says the Secretary, "This is now a fitting opportunity to further provide for its improvement." Speaking of "fitting opportunities," they are as abundant as atting customers at this season of the year, at the large Ready-Made Clothing House of Charles Stokes & Co., under the Continental.

Mr. Diehl is represented to have been "the lion of the occasion, for obvious reacons and Mr. Diehl was happy, for obvious reacons and Mr. Diehl was happy for obvious reacons and sons, and Mr. Diehl was happy, for obvious reasons." We have ascertained that the entertainment was nothing more than a "raille for a horse," and Mr. Diehl was not present on the occasion, and knew nothing of the affair until he saw it published in the papers.

Mindemeanor. — A small speculation just brought to light has resulted badly for the parties concerned in it. William Armstrong and Michael, his brother, taking advantage of the nightly rush of amusement seekers at the "Walnut," determined to reap a little of the golden harvest which was there being realized. On Saturday night they purchased about two dozen tickets, at the rate of twenty-five cents each, and squeezing themselves out of the crowd they sold these same tickets to those who had the most meagre anticipation of ever getting into the theatre that night, for the som of thirty cents, thus realizing a glorlous bonus of five ong practical experience in this manufacture at Havana.

Our new enterprise is, therefore, in its leading objects, a mere transfer of a first-class factory from Havana to Philadelphia, and our manufacture will be, in greater part, atrictly Fine Havana Cigars, equal to any imported, yet much cheaper, and by no means to be confounded with even the best customary grades of Domestic Cigars.

The amoking public may soon judge of the truth of our assertions, as our Cigars will shortly be offered to them through the principal city dealers.

We have neither abandoned the CIGAR IMPORT-ING BUSINESS nor commenced manufacturing what are usually called 'Domestic Cigara."

We continue to import Havana Cigars, as we have done for forty yests.

Their high cost, however, has determined us to introduce a bona fide substitute that can BE RE-TAILED AT MODERATE PRICE, and to this end we are manufacturing Fine Standard Cigars, including grades made entirely of Vuelta Abajo leaf, such as is used only in leading Havana factories. This we prepare and work ON THEIR SYSTEM, guided by long practical experience in this manufacture at Havana. SAFE DEPOSIT COMPANY. Grand Wedding in Richmond. A social event which attracted more attention in the State of Virginia than anything of the kind that has occurred there for many yearsthe marriage of young General Lee to Miss Bolling—occurred on Thursday last, in Rich-mond. General Robert E. Lee was present, of course, and so were his sons. Jefferson Davis, General Mahone, and other distinguished Southerners were among the guests, as were also some well-known citizens of Washington. On the whole, it was the grandest and most aristocratic. social event that has been celebrated in Rich-mond since the breaking out of the war.

The New York Times, in its announcement of the engagement and wedding, gave these particulars of the parties:—"General W. H. F. particulars of the parties:—"General W. H. F. Lee, formerly called Hooney, will lead to the hymeneal altar in Petersburg, Miss Tabby Bolling, the betle of the city. Her father, Hou George Bolling, is the wealthiest man in the city, and, together with his brother, own nearly the entire city. He is a distinguish-lawyer, and is actually one of the F. F. V's."

ANGREICA KAUFFMANN .- No better theme a homily on the vanity of fame could we' found than the life of Angelica Kauffur In the latter half of the last century her was familiar to the whole of the fashiworld; her sayings were quoted, her dry as was copied, her pictures were admired, as id, still better, bought for large sums, and her and beauty were extelled to the skies. talenta and beauty were extolled to the skies. In the present day what ideas do the name of Angelica Kauffmann convey? It is dimly connected in the minds of a few with a large, faded, dismal allegorical picture in a oor ner of the the National Gallery, while to others it is a blank. Yet the painter of that picture was the idol of the fashionable world, the friend of Sir Joshua Reynolds—the then Provident In the the idel of the fashionate the described of the Royal Academy—and hersel the first lady painter dignified with the rank of Royal
