THE GRAND SECRET.-The grand secret in medical tion is to help Nature. SUSTAIN and REGULATEthese are the Alpha and Omega of the only theory of cure that has common sense for its basis. If the neryous system is shaltered, the muscles weak, and the mind, like the body, in a state of partial collapsewhat is it best to do? Reason teaches us the answer: BUILD UP YOUR MAN. Brace him as you would brace a tottering edifice. The pabulum he needs is a Tonic Alterative. Bring him up out of the depths of Debility and Despondency with HOSFETTER'S BITTERS. They cannot injure. A child may take shem, in doses suited to its years, without the possibillty of harm. The enfeebled vital powers are as sure to respond energetically to their action as the wilted grass is to erect its blades under the vivitying and refreshing rain. In all cases of debility the BITTERS are absolutely required. There are no subillute or succedaneum that will fill their place Resort to the most wonderful of modern tonics, and ALL WILL BE WELL, Bear in mind that in Dyspepsia, Intermittent Fevers, Bilious Disorders, and Affections of the Nerves, no other medicine will produce one tithe of the good effect that invariably ollows the use of this excellent INVIGORANT AND CORRECTIVE.

This is a commendation worth more to the reputation of the Sewing Machine than any "Fair" gold medal premium, because it is the opinion of a man of genius and extensive observation. GENERAL BUTLER says if a man's house is worth $10,000 to-day, with the national debt at $2,500,000,000, when the debt is reduced one-half then your house is worth $20,600; and ergo, if the debt is reduced to nothing, then your house is worth $2.500,000,000. These are big figures, because we are dealing with big things (the national debt and General Butler); but to come to small figures, we would say that a small sum will buy a winter suit of Clothes at Charles Stokes & Co,'s first-class Clothing House, under the Continental. One visit will convince.

Chronic Catarrh.—A clergymen in a neighboring village had suffered for many years from an obstinate catarrh, which had resisted all attempts for a cure. The obstruction and discharge from the nose was constant, destroying both taste and smell; and at times even interfering, from the change of voice, with his public ministrations. Almost in despair, he commenced the use of Humphress Catarrh Specific No. 18, and after the use of only a few pills—one every night—found himself improved; and ere he had used an entire box, could consider himself entirely well.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

FOR ADDITIONAL LOCAL ITEMS SEE INSIDE PAGES.

THE STORM has had its usual effect in stopping railroad trains and passenger cars. We learn that the Chesnut Hill Railroad is embargoed, and this morning, for about four hours, the majority of our city railroads were in the same unpleasant condition. Corps of men were sent out with their apparatus, and for a while there was a lively time among the shovels and brushes. Our citizens are turning out in force to clear off the walks, and the usual amount of sweeping is being gone through with. For the first time the sleighs are out, and their bells jingle and ring out right merrily as they dash along. Last night was a terribly cold one; the bleak, sharp wind whistled along the streets, driving the hall with stinging effect into the faces of all without, while those within shuddered dered even as they hugged the fire to keep warm. The night must have caused intense suffering among the poor, when its bitterness was even felt by the rich and those in comfortable circumstances. By the statement given below, it will be seen that the weather has been colder during the period of this year given than of any of the previous years mentioned:—

FIRE IN THE EIGHTH WARD-LOSS, $2500 .-About half-past 12 o'clock this afternoon, the roof of the building No. 1838 Chesnut street took fire, from some cause unknown at this writing. The flames soon communicated to the roof of the adjoining building, No. 1440. About one-half of each was burned off.

The garret in which the flames originated was occupied by P. F. Cooper, photographer, and used for storing furniture and photographic utensils. Hiss loss will probably amount to $500 by fire and an equal amount by water. Directly under him, in the third story, is a small room occupied by Henry Longstrath as a small room occupied by Henry Longstreth as a school-book depository.

A large number of books were ruined by being soaked with water. The building is occupied by several other parties, but they sustained no loss beyond a few dollars. Several sections of hose burst in the building, and the paper on the walls was ruined. No. 1340 was occupied on the first floor by Joseph Kelly, tailor. His damage is not very material.

The second and third stories and garret were occupied by Miss M. Mora, dealer in Paris millinery. Her loss will be considerable, principally by water. The total loss will reach at least $2500, if not more. Mr. Cooper was in-

WE OBSERVE that Colonel Fitzgerald's new play, Light at Last, is underlined on the bills of the Arch, and we are glad to hear that it will be produced in superior style, with every attention to detail. The piece is said to contain three or four fine effects, and those who know say it will have a long run. The case will include Mrs. Drew's entire company. Mrs. Drew will personate "Catharine Fairlawn," the heroine; and the next parts of importance, "Mr. and Mrs. Millstone," will begiven to Mr. and Mrs. Millstone," will begiven to Mr. and Mrs. Walcot. For "Millstone," first-class comedy ability will be required; but Mr. Walcot possesses all those Champagny qualities—high spirits, a contagious laugh, graceful action—which will carry the house by storm. Craig, one of our best comedians, also has a superior part. So have Miss Price and Mrs. Thayer. The third act is said to contain a thrilling duelatrois of words between "Mrs. Fairlawn," "Miss Fairlawn," and "Robert King." The fourth act contains a superior mechanical effect. The Death in the Moonlight, which ends the second act, is also said to be very exciting. We are glad to welcome a Philadelphia play, and trust it may be a brilliant success. WE OBSERVE that Colonel Fitzgerald's new be a brilliant success.

MATHEM AND OTHER CRIMES,-Moses Clementson was yesterday drunk and uproarious at the corner of Cotton and Main streets, Manaat the corner of Cotton and Main streets, Manayunk. Officer Shaw attempted to arrest him, when he turned and assaulted the officer, who, after having his under lip partially bitten off, and his face well battered, finally marched his prisoner to the Station. Clementson was locked up in a cell, being committed there in default of $1200 bail. Some time afterwards the turn-key entered the cell, and found that the bird had flown, by tearing up a plank out of the ficor, and slipping through into the cellar of the Station, and then going out of the window. Officers were immediately sent out in search, and be was soon after brought in. $500 more was added to his ball, and he was placed in a stronger cell, having an additional charge to answer.

Almost a Serious Accident .- About 9 o'clock this morning, a sleigh belonging to Mr. Clarence H. Clark, and containing a little son of his and H. Clark, and containing a little son of his and a driver, was being driven down Chesnut street, between Thirtleth and Thirty-first. In turning out of the track at that place, to allow a car to pass by, the sleigh was upset, and its occupants were thrown out right before the wheels of the car, which, not being stopped, shoved them ahead as they lay across the track. The only injury they received, in their perilous position, was a few slight cuts and scratches.

WHOLESALE STRALING .- William Smith, a Wholesale Straing.—William Smith, a colored man, lived with a Mr. Mack, at Easton, Pa. About three days ago he took a double-barrelled gun, shot-pouch, powder-flask, silver lever watch, and seven dollars—all belonging to Mr. Mack—and ran away. He went to Bethlehem, and from there he came to Philadelphia, and was nabbed at the depot of the North Pennsylvania Railroad by Officer Maybin, of the Eleventh District. He was sent back to Easton. back to Easton.

ABUSING HIS WIFE .- Edward Davies is ABUSING HIS WIPE.—Edward Davies is charged with abusing and deserting his wife and child. Yesterday his wife went to his working place, No. 1209 Wood street, and entreated him to give her something to support berself and child during these cold days. It is alleged that he rewarded her with kicks and cuffs. He was arrested, and held by Recorder Eppen in $800 hail. Eneu in $800 bail.

STRALIFG A HORSE .- James McLaughlin, aged sixteen years, was arrested by Sergeant Beine for stealing a horse from a farmer living on the outskirts of Jenkintown. He was taken to Norristown, and was committed by Alderman Hunsicker.

SELLING LIQUOR ON SUNDAY was the charge npon which Hugh James, keeping a saloon at Huntington and Salmon streets, was arrested. Alderman Senix held him in $600 bail.

THE SHARPLEY-KELLY TRAGEDY.

Further Details of the Murder-Edwin Kelly in a Oritical Condition-Testimony of Samuel Sharpley and Others, Ete. Etc.

From the N. Y. Com. Advertiser of last eveding. The condition of Edwin Kelly, one of the victims in the desperate affair in Twenty-fourth street, yesterday, was this morning considered highly critical. The bullet, which lodged over the left temple, still remains in the wound, the operation of removing it being a very delicate one. He was somewhat "flighty," both from the exciting circumstances of yesterday and the irritation of the wound. The remains of Thomas Sharpley still remain at the Morgue, where an inquest will be begun to-morrow morn ng. We give some further de-tails of this tracic affair in addition to those given. It appears that a strong feeling of rivalry has existed between the parties in the affray, growing out of the competition in their business; Kelly & Leon being the proprietors of the establishment of negro minstrels, No. 721 Broadway, and Samuel M. Sharpley, the pro-prietor of the Theatre Comique. The feeling became embittered on the side of Sharpley who had been told of a statement said to have been made by Leon some time ago in Boston, to the effect that he (Sharpley) was bankrupt, and who thought Kelly had dealt in an underhanded manner in engaging certain dancers.

Yesterday the parties met at the matines at the Fifth Avenue Theatre, accidentally, and Sharpley determined, after the performabring Leon to account for the alleged slander upon him. The audience had nearly dispersed when the parties left the theatre, and Sharpley who had been joined by Allison, the Treasurer of his establishment, accosted Leon and de-manded a retraction of his statement about manded a retraction of his statement about Sharpley's credit. Leon denied having made any such statement. Sharpley then gave Leon the lie, accompanied by expletives of a still more offensive nature, and at the same time striking him with his fist. Leon is a slightly built man, while Sharpley is robust, and Kelly interfered to defend his weaker companion. He was struck by Sharpley and knocked down, and, according to one statement, kicked in the face while down. The brother of Sam Sharpley, Thomas Sharpley, appears upon the scene at this juncture, apparently as an assailant of Kelly, who states that the brothers Sharpley and Allison were all striking and kicking him at the same time. Leon does not appear to have taken any active part in the affair after his first encounter with Kelly, having regained his feet, drow a revolver and fired turee charges into the crowd of his assailants, one of whom, Thomas Sharp-ley, fell dead on the first discharge, Sam Sharpley seeing his brother fall, and Kelly, as he states, firing at him after falling, also drew a pustol and fired at Kelly, the ball taking effect in the left side of the head, above the ears, and lodging in the left temple. He was about to fire a second shot at Kelly, but his arm was caught by Officer Freese, and the ball struck the foreinger of his left hand. Thomas Sharpley's body was removed to Bellevue Hospital, and Kelly had his wound dressed in a drug store. Sam Sharpley and Leon were taken to the Station House.

Thomas Sharpley was thirty-one years of age. and leaves a widow and two children. His occupation does not seem to be clearly known, but it is stated that he was part owner of a faro back in Twenty-fifth street. He lived in Twenty-seventh street, near Fifth avenue. The matter will be the subject of a rigid investigation.

Samuel M. Sharpley, brother of the deceased, made the following statement before Judge Dodge, at Jefforson Market, this morning; —I reside at the Revere House, corner of Broadway and Houston street; on Wednesday afternoon my brother, Thomas Jefferson Sharpley noon my brother. Thomas Jefferson Starpley, was violently assaulted by Edwin Kelly and Francis Glassey Leon; my brother and I were on the sidewalk in front of the Fifth Avenue Theatre, on Twenty-fourth street, near Broadway, when we met Leon and Kelly; Leon and myself had some words, when Kelly interfered; both struck at me, and Leon ran across the street, followed by me.

My brother, Thomas Jefferson Sharpley, was standing near Kelly, who immediately drew a four-parrelled revolver, which was loaded with powder and bah, and pointed is at my brother, and discharged it deliberately, the first shot striking him on the head and causing him to fall on the sidewalk with his head partly in the gutter; and Kelly then deliberately fired two shots while my brother was prostrate, one taking effect in his left breast and the other in the right side. My brother was then picked up and carried to the vestibule of the Fifth Avenue Theatre, where he died in a few minutes of the wounds inflicted; and I charge that Kelly discharged the pistol for the purpose of taking my brother's life.

Officer Daniel Freese, of the Twenty-fifth Precinct, deposed that about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, while on the corner of Broadway and Twenty-fourth street, he saw Francis Glassey Leon running through Twenty-fourth street, pursued by Samuel M. Sharpley; that Sharpley said, "Arrest that man;" that witness caught Leon and took him and Sharpley to the Fifth Avenue Theatre, where there was a great crowd; that witness heard a pistol shot and saw Thomas Jefferson Sharpley, the brother of Samuel, fall on the sidewalk with his head and shoulders in the gutter; that while prostrated, he saw Edwin Keily advance and discharge a pistol, deliberately firing two shots.

Officer Kenny deposed that after the fatal occurrence, he arrested the prisoners in the drug tore of Casswell & Mack.
Leon and Sharpley were committed,
