STERLING SILVER-PLATED WARE.-We have fre quently referred in these columns to the immense tock of goods in Silver-Plated Ware to be found at the N. E. corner of Ninth and Cheanut strests; but, notwithstanding the immense amount of goods sold during the holidays, their stock on hand is still very large, and offers great inducement to purchasers of holiday or bridal presents. Here every article in the way of Silver-Plated Ware may be found, and manufectured in the'r own establishment, under the direc-M. John O. Mead & Bons. This fact alone should induce every person using plated ware to purchase it at 'his store, as John O. Mead & Sons have obtained an enviable name in the manufacture of hard metal goods, and were the first to introduce Bilver-Piated Ware in this city. They sell their wares all over the United States and Canadas, and have gained a worldwide reputation. We would again urge on our readers to visit this establishment and examine their goods. The attendants are polite, and afford customers every facility to look over their large stock. At some future time it is our intention to give the readers of THE TELEGRAPH an extended account of this extensive manufactory, with the number of hands employed by this enterprising firm in the production of these magnificent goods.

That there will be no further postponement of the grand distribution of presents among the shareholders in the Riverside Institute is an established fact. The distribution will assuredly come off on the 5th prox. The agents have all been instructed to make complete returns by this time, in order that there may not be the least possible delay. Those who wish shares should apply at the office, No. 921 Chesnut street.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

ROBBERS CAUGHT .- About 2 o'clock yester-Robbers Caught.—About 2 o'clock yester-day afternoon, two men, who gave the nastes of John Young and William Keffner, were airrested in the hay-loft of the stable at No. 1311 Sansom street, occupied by Charles F. Snoner. A woman named Russell, residing in the vicinity, saw them pry open the stable door, and gave the alarm. The coachmen in the neighborhood, to the number of six, immediately surrounded the building, and captured the two thieves. Justice Hade, the coachman, was absent at the time. It appears the two men called at the stable yesterday, and endeavored to scrape an acquaintance with him. They admired the buffalo robes and skins, of which there is a magnificent lot in the stable, which there is a magnificent lot in the stable which there is a magnificent lot in the stable. They told Hade they would give him a bottle of whisky, Keffner stating that he was bar-tender at the American Theatre, and that it was his day off. Hade said be wanted none of their whisky, as he had money enough to buy it. Officer James Sanders, of the Fourth District, took the prisoners to the Fifth District Station House I proposed to the Fifth District Station. House. Upon searching the hayloft, a prayer-book, a jimmy about two feet long, a pair of nip-pers, and a case of razors were found. The latter were recognized as belonging to Hade, they having been taken from a closet on the first floor. The presumption is that the robbers inhaving been taken from a closet on the first floor. The presumption is that the robbers intended to open a trunk, which contained a lot of clothes and some money, in the loft, the property of the coachman. At the Station House the individuals were searched by Licuienant Connelly. He found thre pawn tickets, one of them calling for a cost and pair of pants, another for a pair of boots and nine pairs of gaiters, and the other for an overcoat. The Licuienant visited the pawnbrokers offices and requested the proprietors to send the goods to the Central Station, so as they could be identified by parties having had articles of the kind mentioned stolen. While confined in the Station House, Lieuhad articles of the kind mentioned stolen, while confined in the Station House, Lieutenant Connelly, in looking over the prayer book, found the name of Kinchkner. He went to the cell and called that name, and the one who had given the name of Keffner said, "I am here." The prisoners will have a hearing before Alderman Beitler at 2 o clock to-day.

Hebrew Societies.—The annual meeting of the Ladies' Hebrew Sewing Society was held a day or two since, when the Secretary, Miss I. B. Hart, reported that during the past season 758 garments had been finished and distributed among the needy. The Treasurer reported that 3704 85 had been received during the year and 3489 75 expended. The following officers were then elected for the ensuing year.—Miss Hester Stork, First Directress; Miss Evelyn Phillips, Second Directress; Miss Josephine P. Pesoa, Treasurer; Miss Kate Hart, Secretary; Miss Louisa B. Hart, Miss Simona C. Pelsotto, Miss Anna Daniels, Miss Cassle Mayer, and Miss Hermanda Berg, Managers.

The following officers have been elected by the Female Hebrew Benevolent Society, for the ensuing year.—President, Mrs. A. S. THE AMERICAN CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC, as we are informed by the quarterly circular, and by the advertisement in another column. will Monday, January 6.

The entry of pupils for the first quarter, which ended on the 14th inst., reached the unprecedented number of four hundred, being nearly double the number of scholars at the New York Conservatory of Music, established in 1863, and fully ten times the number of students at the opening of the Leipsic Conservatorium, the finest music school in the world, which was established under the joint auspices of the King of Saxony, and the great composer Mendelssohn, in the year 1843. The wish is earnestly appropriated by the Directors of our new Conserva expressed by the Directors of our new Conservatory, that the jealous feeling which has ge rally been manifested by professional musici in other cities, in consequence of the establish-ment of similar institutions, may not be imitated by the artists of Philadelphia, but that all may be equally pleased by the success of the effort to bring first-class instruction within the means student who craves a thorough know-

The following paragraph, which we quote from the circular, contains the essence of what might have been made a much longer report, but could scarcely bear better witness to the deserved success which has attended the efforts of the Directors of the Conservatory:—

of the Directors of the Conservatory:—
"The Directors are pleared to be able to announce that every necessary provision has been made to establish the Conservatory as a permanent institution in the city of Philadelphia—the entry of pupils having reached a number proportionately unequalled by any music school in the United states or elsewhere—and while expressing their thanks to those whose patronage has enabled them to present a report so gratifying, desire to assure the public that no available means shall be wanting to make the institution under their charge second to none as a first-class school for musical instruction."

ALLEGED INJUSTICE .- On the 26th inst. a young man named Benjamin Garritson was bound over to answer at Court, by Recorder Encu, on the charge of puriolning $940, the property of Henry Rutter, Rutter testified that he purchased a place in Second street, and em-ployed Garritson as an agent to carry on the ployed Garritson as an agent to carry on the business (confectionery), as he had had considerable experience, and that Garritson sold out the good-will and fixtures, and neglected to make any return. On the strength of this testimony the' young man was held to answer. Garritson alleges that there was a partnership existing between them, Rutter having induced him to leave a situation to go into business, Rutter furnishing the capital and he the labor. Everything went on smoothly until business became dull, when Garritson wanted to retire, requesting the other Garrison wanted to retire, requesting the other partner to give him some money. Twenty-five dollars was banded to him, and he ceased doing business then, turning over all the books and papers of the concern to Rutter. He then went to Wilmington, belaware, procured asituation, and, on Thesday a week ago, returned to this city, when he was arrested and taken before the Recorder, and the case disposed of as mentioned above. tioned above.

An Assonding Merchant Takes $2800 Worth of Goods With Him.—Mr. Meyer Goldsmith, a merchant of this city, yesterday morning went to the office of Alderman Strain (in Pittsburg), and made complaint against one John L. Rich, charging him with fraud. Goldsmith alleges that the defendant, who carries on the dry goods business at Sharon, in Mercer country, called upon him some weeks ago at his store in this city, and obtained goods to the amount of $2800, on his promise to pay for them at an early date. The time came around, and as the prosecutor got no word from Rich he beas the prosecutor got no word from Rich he be-came unessy. He went to Sharon some days ago, but only to find that his debtor had de-camped and had taken with him all his properly. It is supposed the defrauding merchant has left the State. A warrant was issued.

* RESIDENCE EXTERES.—About 1 o'clock this morning the residence of D. W. Alexander, No. 1500 North Seventh street, was entered by preling open ione of the back windows. A police-man reard the noise, and climbing on the fence discovered the kilchen door open. He jumped over into the yard, aroused the inmates, and searched the premises. No one was discovered, and, as far as could be ascertained, nothing had been carried off. The thief was evidently frightened off by the noise the officer made.

More Swindling. — Yesterday afternoon a well-dressed individual entered the establishment of Messin, Abbey & Co., gold beaters, in Pear street, purchased $500 worth of gold foil, tendered a check for $500 on the Corn Exchange Bank, signed alexander T. Smith & Co., in payment, received the foil, and departed. Shortly after the check was presented at the bank and pronounced a forgery.

Later in the afternoon he purchased a lot of the same article of another firm. He sent a the same article of another firm. He sent a negro to the store this morning with a check to pay for the article. A young man employed there had received orders not to deliver the foll unless the cash was paid. The darkey told him to come to his employer's hoter. They left the slore in company the young man having the store in company, the young man having the gold leaf under his arm. When they had proceeded about three squares the colored individual gave him the slip, and has not been heard of since.

It is also understood that Smith swindled a firm on Arch street of a large amount; but they have not yet reported their loss.

"SHIPPERS' EXPRESS GUIDE" is the title of a book just issued in pamphlet form by Waldron & Co. It is to supply a want created by the rapid increase of the Express business that the work has been undertaken. In it more then sixteen thousand names of business places have been collected—with the name of the Express Company having an office in or near the place. It is a complete Express Guide for the States of New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Maryland, Delaware, and the Canadas—in which the cities, towns, villages, Post Offices, and business places are arranged in alphabetical order (by States), giving the Express Company at or nearest each.

ANOTHER ABSCONDING MERCHANT CAUGHT .-Some days ago a couple of our police officers went to Trenton in search of a commission to-bacco merchant of this city, who had absounded with the proceeds of the sale of a number of large consignments. The officers finally concluded to leave the matter in the hands of Marshal McGuire, of Trenton, who succeeded in arcesting the unfaithful servant on Christmas. and he was sent on here. He had moved to Trenton on Tuesday, with all his household effects. He had made several sales of tobacco and cigars in that city and in Newark.

SACRED SUNDAY EVENING CONCERTS .- The Sunday evening sacred concerts commence to-mor row evening at Concert Hall, underdirection of Mark Hassler, and the indications are that an immense audience will be present at the initial concert. [SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO EVENING THURGRAPH.] WASHINGTON, Dec. 28. A United States War Vessel in a Gale off Cape Horn. Despatches were received at the Navy Department this morning from Commander Creighton of the United States steamer Oneida, dated at Singapore, China, November 5, reporting his arrival at that port. His passage from the Cape of Good Hope was of a very bolsterons character, having encountered a severe cyclone which lasted forty-eight hours. By the careful consideration of the instructions in Padding-ton's horn book, he was enabled to escape all damage excepting the loss of a few sails. The ship behaved remarkably well. But the seas were very high and irregular, and she shipped a great deal of water. The officers and crew are reported in good health.

The Purchase of St. Thomas. There seems to be but little question that the treaty with Denmark for the purchase of St. Thomas will meet with atrong opposition in the Senate. It is not at all certain that the Fereign Relations Committee of that body will report favorably upon the project, and even if it should, its chances will be very slim in the Senate. The argument mostly used is the objection to paying any price for the island, on the ground of no compensating advantages. It is admitted that unless St. Thomas remains a free port as now, it will be of no use as a commercial depot.

Distress in the South. Letters received here yesterday and to-day from different parts of the South lay great stress on the destitution and suffering now existing there among the freedmen and others. Genera Gillem is still here in conference with the authorities as to what course is best to be pursued in order to alleviate, as far as possible, present suffering. The regions most afflicted are those where the crops fell short. The ab-sence of Congress renders it almost impossible to carry out any practical measures of immediate assistance, as there is no authority to use any funds for such a purpose.

The Solicitor of Internal Revenue. It is not likely any appointment of Solicitor for the Internal Revenue will be made at present, until some definite action is taken by Congress upon the proposition to about all the separate law divisions of the different Departments, and consolidate them in one general Law Bureau.

The Funeral of General Griffin. The funeral of General Griffin is the great object of interest to-day. Crowds have gathered along the avenue waiting to see the procession. Generals Grant and Sherman were both in attendance, besides a large number of army officers now in Washington.

General Griffin's funeral was attended by a military escort of a brigade of infantry and a squadron of cavalry, the whole under command of General Emory, Commanding Department of Washington. The pall-bearers designated rode in carriages, as the streets were vary model. in carriages, as the streets were very muddy from the rain last night and to day.
