UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT-Judge Cadwatader.—A jury was retained this morning for the purpose of trying George Williams, colored, for murder on the high seas, it being alleged that he killed a ship-mate off the coast of Airics. The case has been published in detail several times, and no doubt the facts are fresh in the recollection of the public. Upon consul-tation with the prisoner, Mr. O'Byrne, who represented him, stated that he had agreed, as best for him, to plead guilty to the charge of manslaughter, if the United States would ac-cept the plea and abandon the charge of murder in the first degree. Messrs, Gilpin and Valen-tine expressed their acquiescence, and the plea was accordingly entered. The Judge sentenced the prisoner to pay a fine of $1000 and undergo years' imprisonment in the Eastern

Special Despatch to The Evening Telegraph. Lock-up Safety Valves.

WASHINGTON, July 6,-General Pile, of Missourl, offered the following to-day:-Resolveds That the Committee on Commerce be directed to inquire into the expediency of repealing the provisions of the law requiring the lock-up safety valves on vessels propelled by steam, and that they be authorized to report by bill or joint resolution, at any time.

The Tax Bill comes up in the Senate to-day as the special order after the morning hour. Senator Shermay, Chairman of the Finance Committee, has succeeded in making it the special order from day to day until it is disposed of. After it is finished strong efforts will be made to get some action on the Funding bill. The chances are that the Tax bill will consume so much time that the Funding bill will not be reached.

The resolution was followed by a scene of much confusion. "Cries of motion, order," etcfollowed each other in riotous disregard of parliamentary rules, amid which a motion to adjourn was offered, and upon which a vote of States was taken, which resulted in the motion being lost.

A motion that the Chairman of each delegation appoint a sergeant at arms to assist the Chair in keeping order was carried under a suspension of the rules,

General McQuade addressed the Convention, advocating order, deliberation, and decorum, and stating that there were doubtless men present who had been sent by organizations representing opposite parties, and whose sole object was to make a disturbance.

He therefore moved that a call of States be made, and the resolutions therefrom be read by the respective Chairmen in their order, and referred at once to the Committee, which motion was unanimously adopted under a suspension of the rules. The call of States was toen made for the purpose of naming a Sergeant at-arms for each delegation, and their names were announced. Then followed a call of States for resolutions, in accordance with General McQuade's motion.

Maine, Vermont, and New Hampshire had none to offer. Massachusedts offered a resolution that no more than one member from each delegation be allowed to speak upon any subject until some other State had been heard from. Protection to Naturatized Chizens and
