CITY INTELLIGENCE.

[FOR ADDITIONAL LOCAL STREES ARE ODTSIDE PAGES,]

COMMISSIONER'S CASE .- The case of John Smith, mate of the barque Meaco, who is charged with assault and battery on the high seas, was continued before the United States Commissioner yesterday afternoon. The following testimony was elicited:— George McAlpin recalled.—The mate struck me twice or thrice; I cannot say how often after that he struck me; when we reached Matanzas I was lying sick in my perth, and I asked to either be allowed to see the consulor to go to the hospital, as I did not wish to die on board; I was suffering from a fever produced by the blows I received; he wounds are still tender. Edward P. Mercer, second mats, sworn-I did not see McAlpin when he was beaten, but after wards saw him lying in his berth; his hand was then bleeding a little, and he was insensible; I heard the defendant say "he was sorry the thing had occurred; that he dis not think but that it was a very slight blow;" I was told by one of the men that McAlpin was dying, and it was then I saw him (McA'pin).

Henry Nordinger, captain of the vessel, sworn
-When the prosecutor was at the bospital he was treated for rheumatism; I saw him at the hospital; he told me he was getting better; he said he had pains in his back; I saw the place on his head where he was struck; the wound was crescent-shaped; the mate told me a lew days afterwards how the after occurred; he sa'd thut he had a capstan-bar in his hand and three it towards McA'pin.

Defendant held under $500 bail to appear. THE JOURNEYMEN BRICK-MAKERS.-The uptown journsymen brick-makers held an adourned meeting last night at Franktin Military Hall, Girard avenue, above Sixth street. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. The reports of the Committees were then presented, showing that some of the men had gone to work under prices. Members of the Association, who are receiving the advanced wages then contributed one dollar each to support

A motion was made to appoint a Committee to confer with the employers in relation to a compromise for wages. An animated discussion then took place, members opposing the propo-sition to compromise with much earnestness. The proposition was finally withdrawn.

A motion to reconsider the minth article of the By-laws, prohibiting members from working in yards where men are employed under wages, was adopted, and a resolution allowing men to work in such yards was passed. The follow-ing resolution was also passed:— heloved. That all members of this Associa-tion who have gone to work for less than the Association prices are expelled from all rights and privileges of this Association. The meeting then adjourned.

SWINDLER .- An Englishman by the name of William Leach, was swindled out of $300 by a German named Reuben De Bar. The facts are as follows:—De Bar represented that he had command of a business paying from $15 per day; that by the investment of the above sum he would guarantee to the aforesaid Leach one half of the profits. Relying on these assurances the victim handed bim all he had in the world and started out. After trudging Chesnut street all day, he realized the sum of thirty-five cents; deeming this sum too far short of the expected $15 or $20, he caused the arrest of his pertner on the charge of swinding. After hearing the facts as above related. Alderman Delaney held Reuben in the sum of $100 bail to Accidents .- A horse driven by Robert Allen, residing at Frankford road and Hart's lane, took fright yes orday at Eighteenth and Willow streets, and ran off. In his course he up-et the carriage, throwing Mr. Allen with considerable force against the cobble-stones, injuring him badly. Eliza Shields was admitted into the hospital yesterday with a tractured thigh, which she received by falling from the root of a house at Fourth and Christian streets.

James Wullace, agod ten years, fell from a cherry tree at Frankford road and Allegheny avenue, yesterday a termoon, and broke a leg. He resided at Hore and Dauphin streets.

MISCELLANEOUS CITY JOTTINGS.

-The last of the prizes in this district, can-The district the war is about to be disposed of. It is the steamer Cotton Planter, which was taken on the 10th of May, 1865, after the surrender of General Lee and his army. A question which enters into the case is, was the Rebel army wholly disbanded at the time of the cap-The United States will be able to show that a battle was fought after its capture, and that some of the Texas troops did not surrender for several weeks afterwards.

—A distribution of the proceeds of sales of contraband whisky, tobacco, and other property to the amount of $50,000, is now being made. After the costs and expenses are taken out, the remainder is equally divided between the Gov-ernment and the informer, if the gross sum is not more than $5000. Several of the Revenue Inspectors will receive a considerable sum.

The battery of the Young Men's Keystone Club, under the charge of Captain John Ward, arrived home at 8 P. M. last evening. The club had the honor of firing the first gun for the Presidential nominee, and were the last delegation to leave New York city.
