The Emights of "the Lost Cause" on the

From the Washington San of last evening. The memorial celebration of Manassas, to which we have heretorore referred, commenced at Manassas on Tuesday morning, and was attended by a large number of citizens from this District and Alexandria. The cemetery is stunted about a quarter of a mile from the village, and it is a beautiful spot. There are at present to graves there, and the object of the meeting was to raise funds or the purpose of removing the Confederate dead, which he scattered over the plans of Manasaa, to the beautiful spot selected for the cemetery. There are no Fele-ral dead at Manasaa, all having been removed to Arlington within the last year or two. About in the new cemetery.

The ceremonies were commenced with an address by Waiter Weir, a prominent lawyer in that section of Virginia, who welcomed the assemblage in behalf of the ladies of the Memb rial Association.

Af er the addresses, the tournament took place in a grove near the village. The Knights rode up to the stand to charge of Major W. L. Thornton, Marshal, Capt. R. H. Hoe, Assistant Marshal, and R. J. Reid, Herald. James F. Clarke, editor of the Page Valley Courier, then delivered an address to them. After the charge had been delivered the ringing commenced. The following Knights entered for the contest: - Knight of Fairfax, Lucien Lynn; Knight of No Name, William Summers; Knight of Memorial Association, Albert Gaines: Knight of Ivan-hoe, Arthur Sinclair; Knight of Gainesville, hoe, Arthur Sinclair; Knight of Gainesville, Robert Lynn, Knight of Fairhaven, Islanferro; Knight of Unknown, Dr. Albert Fox; Knight of Lost Cause, J. R. Browner; Knight of Evergreen Guards, James Lynn; Knight of Prince William Cavalry, John H. Clazgett; Knight of Alexandria, John W. Friomas; Knight of Bellebaven, Norman F. Moore; Knight of Seventeenth Virginia Regiment, Edgar Warfield; Knight of Manassas, Philip Weimberg; Knight of Old Dominion Rides, Chas. H. Whittington.

The riding occupied shout two hours, and it

The successful kinghts then advanced in front of the stand, the Kuight of No Name having selected as Queen of Love and Beauty, Miss Jennie Ayre, of Fairlax; Kuight of Fairhaven, Miss Sallie Johnson, of Prince William, as First Maid of Honor; and the Knight of Fairfax, Miss Belle Summers, of Prince William, as Second Maid of Honor.

After the ceremonies were ended Professor (1) Tillett, of Prince William county, walked a rope some three hundred teet in length, and about one bundred feet from the ground. At might ; large ball was held at the Manassas tiotel. beauty of Washington. Alexindria, and the sur rounding country were present and participated in the restivities.

Yesterday political speaking was the order of the day, and andresses were made by Judge Botts (brother of John Minor Bots) of Californis; Judge Moore, of Alexandr a; James F Clarke, of Lursy, Page county, Va.; Hon. B. H. Shackelford, the Candidate for Congress, on the conservative side, of that district; and Judge Sinclair, of Fairlax county.

MORMONISM.

The Early Life of Heber C. Kimball.

The following sketch of the early life of Heber C. Kimball is given by a correspondent of the Troy Times:-

"I see in your paper to day what purports to be an address of Brigham Young to a congre-gation of Mormons at the funeral of Heber C. Kimbali. Brigham says of Kimball:- 'He was a man of as much integrity, I presume, as any man who ever lived upon the earth. I have been personally acquainted with him for fortythree years, and I can testify that he has been a man of truth, a man of benevolence, a man that was to be trusted.

'Mr. Young also states that Brother Heber had been his first counsellor for almost twentytour years. It Brigoam Young's testimony is good for anything, then Heber C. Kimball will be taken for an honest man. An intimate association with him for twenty-four years, and an acquaintance of forty three years, would give Mr. Young's opinion the credit of being based upon ample knowledge. But a circumstance in the life of Kambali has come to my knowledge the mortgage accumulated, remained unpaid, and was fast eating up the value of the tarm.

The old man could not pay it, and Heber neglected to provide for it. The farm was bring the whole to a head. The company that has been robbed is the Michigan Central Railroad. According to orders the conductors of all passenger trains on this road, upon their arrival in Detroit, deliver all tickets gathered by them to Mr. Thomas Fraser, the general agent here, so that they can be properly disposed of. It has happened very frequently that con-ductors have omitted to punch or cancel many of these tickets, and they have been stolen from the office of the agent and resold to travellers

'This business, it now appears, has been carried on for years, and so extensively that thou-saids of dollars have been pocketed and the railroad company has lost just so much money. Several days since a young man named Shaw, who has been in the emp of of the railroad com-pany for a number of years, and who has always borne a good character, was arrested and plead culty. He was principal clerk in Mr. Frazer's office, and has the hardling of all the tickets returned, as before stated, by the conductors. He took those uncancelled whenever he chose to do so, and sold them to Mr. Burnst ne of this city, who had, from all appearances, been prime

"Precisely how long this robbery scheme has been going on, we know not, but circumstances point to years gone by, and it is presumed that $10,600 or $20,000 may have been made altogether. The arrangement has not been confined entirely to Detroit, but the ramideations of the plot extended over considerable space and time, and the developments thus far made implicate many persons, although it is possible many may be able to show a clear record. The uncanceled tickets have been sold at the different railroad ticket-offices in the country, but the fact that they were dated would seem to in licate that parties selling them must have been cognizant of the theits or they would have had nothing to do with them. We are informed that Burnstine, who seems to have been the only person who purchased tickets of Shaw, did so in almost every instance at reduced rates, and then disposed of them at their full value."

The Lanark (Ill.) Banner says:—A few months since a young man calling himself John White came into Shannon township and obtained some kind o' employment, we are not informed what. He almost immediately attempted to win the favor of a certain young lady in the town, very plainly told him that she would have nothing to say to a stranger. He went into Shannon village, changed his name, and shortly after returned to the south part of the town, prepared for a fresh attack upon the town, prepared for a fresh attack upon the esteem and affections of some fair one. By careful attention, he soon won the favor of a certain young lady of good family, whose name we suppress, and they were married. A while after their marriage they paid a visit to his mother. The old lady very kindly informed her son that he was working up bad career, and that as this was the fourth wife he had brought home, he musta't bring any Of course this announcement necessi tated a hasty departure, the young wife hasten ing back to her father's. White, who had accompanied her, gently reminded her that if she should "tell of what she had heard at her mother's he would kill her." Immediately upon their return White borrowed a horse of father, and some money we believe of her bro-thers, stating that he wished to go to shannon.

He failed to return, and nothing was heard from
