

LANCASTER.

Funeral of the Late Theodor Stevens. The following special despatch to THE EVENING TELEGRAPH appeared in our Fifth Edition of yesterday:—

LANCASTER, Aug. 17.—The funeral services over Mr. Stevens' remains took place at his house at 2 o'clock P. M. They commenced with the following invocation by Rev. A. F. Kramer:—

O Thou Triune God, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, who art our refuge in time of trouble, lift upon us the light of Thy countenance, and grant us Thy help. Give us grace to improve the affliction of Thy hand, and turn our hearts to keep Thy commandments. May we in the fellowship of Thy holy Church bring forth the fruits of a godly life. And that having persevered in the way of piety and virtue to the end we may live with prophets, apostles, martyrs, confessors and saints of all ages.

After which Bishop Bigler read the thirtieth Psalm.

Rev. Dr. Nevin then delivered the following prayer:—

O God, the only true and living God, before whom angels bow and archangels avert their faces, we come before Thee at this time with profound grief, humility and reverence. Thou hast been pleased in Thy mysterious providence to remove from this city, and State, and nation an eminent citizen, who has filled high places of trust and honor, and we have been summoned together to pay our last tribute of respect to his mortal remains, and while we mourn over his departure, we would seek to be resigned to Thy governing will; we thank Thee for the many distinguished and heroic virtues with which he was adorned, and the many noble works that he was successful in achieving. We thank Thee that he sympathized with the poor and the oppressed, and the suffering, and that he was willing to use his extraordinary talents and influence to alleviate and improve their condition; we thank Thee for his devotion to justice and righteousness, and for the good that has been accomplished for the land and the world by his constant and unflinching advocacy of these divine privileges. We thank Thee for his earnest and untiring devotion to the cause of education; for all the virtues that adorned his heart, and the many traits that distinguished his life. May his example be imitated by us all, and especially by the legislators of our State and nation. Bless his afflicted relatives, and comfort them in the midst of their sorrows. Help us all to be true to our highest and most sacred convictions of duty while living, so that we may be enabled to triumph with the consciousness of inward peace at the bed of death. All these things we ask in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, the advocate and mediator. Amen!

Rev. Dr. Gray, Chaplain of the Senate, then delivered the following address:—"Citizens of Lancaster and people of Pennsylvania—We have brought home your illustrious dead—not yours only, but ours—not ours, but the nation's. Our journey from the Capital to your city was marked, very appropriately, by flags flying at half-mast; by the tolling of bells, and by the tears of the people; and to-day, while we are here engaged in these sad obsequies, could we hear, there would come to our ears from afar the wail of sorrow and the sounds of grief.

"Could we see, we should behold, not individuals, but whole States standing waiting around as pall bearers. We had hoped that a favoring Providence would have spared your representative at least to the close of another session of Congress, for grave questions are pending, involving the interest of thirty millions of people, which seem to us to require pre-eminently his wise councils and executive skill; but it is otherwise ordered, and no doubt wisely. Therefore we bow in submission to the will of the Supreme Ruler, when the clock of time struck the hour, sent his angel to unbar the gates of the future, and said to his servant, 'Come up hither.' And now, till the morning of the resurrection, we commit all that remains of our departed friend to the grave, and to the guardianship of that God who watches alike over the living and the dead, and as the mouth of the grave closes on the sacred dust, may I pray God to give to Vermont another son; to Lancaster another citizen; to Pennsylvania another statesman; to the country another patriot; to the poor another friend; to freedom another advocate; to the race another benefactor; and to the world another man like Theodor Stevens."

The procession moved precisely at three o'clock in the order set down by the Committee of Arrangements, moving up South Queen street to Centre Square, up East King street to Duke street, thence to Chestnut street and along that to Schreiner's Cemetery.

While the procession was in motion the bells tolled, all the stores were closed and nearly every home along the route was draped in mourning.

Another attempt is now being made by Mr. Cooper to find a practicable route through China to India. Mr. Cooper left the China coast about eight or nine months ago, and travelled westward by the way of the Yang-tze-kiang, following the route taken by Colonel Sarel and his party in 1851, but with better success. In the beginning of March he arrived at Ching-tu, the capital of Szechuen, a place distant from Shanghai in a straight line more than a thousand miles. Here he found the Nepalese Embassy on their way to Peking, detained at Ching-tu on account of the disturbed state of the country between that place and the capital. Mr. Cooper, taking advantage of the ambassador's presence, asked him for a letter to show to the Nepalese officials on the Thibetian frontier, but this was declined on the ground that there was "no law between Nepal and England."

After a few days' stay at Ching-tu, Mr. Cooper started for Ta-tai-in, the last Chinese town on the borders of Western China. The last letter from him is dated 13th March, 25 a pleasant five days' journey from Ta-tai-in, for which town he intended to start on the 7th of April. After leaving Ta-tai-in, the route to Calcutta will be open to him, one by Batang and Suda, the other by Lassa. Mr. Cooper intended to try the former of these routes.

The President of the Administrative Council of Western Siberia has just published the report which he forwards every year to St. Petersburg. It estimates at 12,000 the number of convicts banished every year to Siberia. During the last few years the average had risen to 14,000, of whom more than a sixth are women and children. Quite recently the journey was still performed on foot. A fifth of the exiles die on the way or in the hospitals. That mortality is explained by the fatigue of travelling, apart from all other circumstances. The mean distance is 4208 versts (about 2600 miles), which represents about 250 days' walking. The time necessary to reach the more distant Governments is one year, two months and a half.

POLITICAL.

Yallahingham, who, along with Hampton, Poivre, et omnia, Lo's runs the Democratic machine, made a speech in Congress, on the 6th of July, 1867, just before the battle of Bull Run, in which he uttered the following sentiments:— Then, Sir, I am not a Southern man, either. Although in this most unequal and unconstitutional crusade against the South, in the midst of the insurrection and murder to which I have been subjected, and with which she is still threatened—with the torch of the incendiary and the dagger of the assassin suspended over her—my most cordial sympathies are wholly with her.

They are playing in the South German Provincial theatres a farce entitled, "Andrew Johnson, or the President in Hot Water." Senators Grant, Johnson, and Henderson appear on stage, each carrying a tin of tin snuff, and each with gold; or, opening them the Senators find that the bags are filled with linden buds. Ben. Butler and A. J. have a violent altercation in the course of the play, and the denouement is the Goddess of Liberty scourging the wretched crowd from the stage.

A correspondent writes from Rensselaer, Jasper county, Indiana, that the Copperheads in that region are circulating a burlesque life of Grant, written in vulgar language, and illustrated with obscene pictures. The effect is to disgust all decent people of whatever party. The Grant and Colfax Clubs are prospering nobly, and the Noble Zephyrus has this:—

The Noble Zephyrus has this:— Friends—left we citizens of Mobile—comrades of the Queen City of the Gulf! Let us make one more effort in behalf of our rights and our liberties, and be successful in the approaching contest, we shall regain all we lost in the "Lost Cause."

The Chicago Post has the following:—"When Seymour feels the cold wind of the 3d of November blowing upon him, he will exclaim as he is excluded to Lincoln during the war—"Stop the draft!"

The Chicago Times says:—"If Democrats vote as they fought, they will vote against the cause of reconstruction, and against Grant." Never spoke the Times more truly or more honestly!

Some of the seditious Southerners declare if Seymour is not elected they will leave the country. That is one of the strongest arguments for Grant. He does not go in, but he will in peace.

The Tennessee Legislature adopted a resolution yesterday in honor of the memory of Theodor Stevens. The Milwaukee Sentinel, having described a "grand Democratic ratification meeting" of that city, writes in the following:—"At a speculation by the proprietors of the bar at the Rick, it was a success; as a funeral it was doubtful, and as a ratification it was a fizzle."

The cause in South Carolina grows warm. Among the persons now on the stump are Wadsworth, Howell Cobb, Governor Vance, Governor Pickens, Hon. J. B. Campbell, and General M. C. Butler. What a coruscation of Democratic eloquence!

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

Paris ladies snuff. Doncaul's last is called "After Dark." It cost $12,000 to kill the Public Spirit Magazine.

The grape crop along Lake Erie never looked better. Bayard Taylor is coming home to his parents' golden wedding. The brunettes receive the palm of beauty at Saratoga this season.

"Diplomaten" is the Connecticut name for a baptismal ceremony. The Madison, Wisconsin, ladies indignantly deny that they drink lager. The Paris Conservatory has let forty-five pianists loose upon the world.

A man of weight died recently in Kentucky—he was a five hundred pounder. Kirby Smith is to teach the young idea to shoot at a military academy in Kentucky. Croquet matches between the different hotels are a feature of Cape May dissipation.

A Texas paper accuses the members of the Convention of wearing concealed weapons openly. An old gentleman at Saratoga who has been regular in his attendance there for sixty years, claims to have imbued in that time 500 barrels of Congress water.

The Press announces that a salve for the Pains Imperial (aged twelve years and four months) is being manufactured at Sollingon, in Prussia. On one side his name is engraved; the other bears the well-known line of Beranger—"On parais de sa gloire."

An electric organ is now being built in London for Christ Church, Camberwell. The organ is to be placed in a chamber on the south side of the chancel, above the vestry, but the organist will sit on the opposite side, among the choir, some fifty feet distant from the organ.

A French artist—M. Emile Lafon—who volunteered into the Papal service last year, has commenced a picture of the battle of Mentana, ordered by the Pope, and received the visit of His Holiness in his atelier, who expressed his approbation of his work.

A race has just taken place in the south of France, in the neighborhood of Toulouse, between two young men, the one riding a horse and the other propelling a velocipede. The distance traversed, seventy-two kilometers (forty-five miles), was accomplished by the animal in six hours, and by the machine in six hours and twenty-five minutes. The latter travelled under very unfavorable conditions, having to contend against a strong head wind.
