THE ROSECRANS MISSION.

WRITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, WEST VA., August 26th, 1868 .- General: Full of solicitude for the future of our country, I come with my heart in my hand to learn the condition, wishes and intentions of the people of the southern States-especially to ascertain the sentiments of that body of brave, energetic and self-sacrificing men who, after sustaining the confederacy for four years, laid down their arms and swore allegiance to the government of the United States, whose trusted and beloved ader you have been. I see that interpreting "States rights" to conflict with national unity has produced a violent reaction against them, which is drifting us towards consoli-dation; and also that so great a country as ours even now is, certainly is to be, must have State governments to attend to local details, or go farther nd fare worse. It is plain to us at the west and north that the

It is plain to us at the west and north that the continuance of semi-anarchy, such as has existed for the last three years in ten States of our Union, largely increases the danger of centralism, swells our national expenditures, diminishes our produc-tions and our revenue, inspires doubts of our poli-tical and financial stability, depreciates the value of our national bonds and currency, and places the credit of the richest below that of the poorest na-tion in Christendem. tion in Christendom.

We know that our currency must be depreciated so long as our bonds are below par; and that there-fore the vast business and commerce of the country must suffer the terrible evil of a fluctuating anist surfer the terrible evit of a internating standard of value until we can remedy the evil con-dition of t'ings at the south. We also see other mischief quite possible, if not probable, to arise; such as from a failure of crops, a local insurrec-tion, and many other unforescen contingencies, which may still more depreciate our credit and cur-rency, provoke discontent and disorder among our people, and bring demagogical agitation, revolu-tion, repudiation, and a thousand unnamed evils n, repudiation, and a thousand unnamed ovils d villanies upon as. We know that the interests the people of the south are for law and order. of the people of the south are for law and order, and that they must share our fate of good and ill. T believe—every one, I know, who reflects, be-lieves—that if the people of the southern States could be at peace, and their energy and good will heartily applied to repair the wastes of war, reor-ganize their business, set the freedmen peacefully, prosperously and contentedly at work, invite capi-tal, enterprise and labor from elsewhere to come freely amongst them, they would soon rebuild their rulned fortunes, multiply manifold the value of their lands, establish public confidence in our po-intical stability, bring our government bonds to a premium, our currency to a gold standard, and assure for themselves and the. Beeing this, and how all just interests concur in the work, T ask—the officers and soldiers who fought for the Union ask—every thinking man of the great west and north asks—why it cannot be the great west and north asks-why it cannot be

We are told by those who have controlled the government for the last four years that the people of the south will not do it—that if over done at all, it must be done by the poor, simple, uneducated, landless freedmen, and the few whites who, against the public opinion and sentiment of the intelligent white people, are willing to attempt to lead, and make their living off of these ignorant, inexperi-enced colored people; mostly men who must be needy adventurers, or without any of those attri-butes on which reliance for good guidance or gov-ernment can be placed. We are told that this kind or mean can be placed. We are tout that this kind or government must be continued at the south until six or eight millions of intelligent, energetic white people give in to it or move out of the country. Now I think, the Union army thinks, and people of the north and west, I dare say, believe, there must be, or there ought to be, a shorter or a surer way to get good government for all at the south. We know that they who organized and sustained the southern confederacy for four years, against gigantic efforts, onght to be able to give peace, law, order and protection to the whole people of the

and the leading people who sustained it, think of these things. I come to ask more. I want to ask you, in whose purity and patriotism I here express maquallifed confidence, and as many good men as you can con-veniently consult, to say what you think of it, and also, what you are willing to do about it. I want a written expression of views that can be followed by a concurrence of action. The great want of the south is peace. The peo-ple carnestly desire tranquility and the restoration of the Union. They deprecate disorder and exciteent, as the most serious obstacle to their pros

They ask a restoration of their rights under the They ask a restoration of their rights under the Constitution. They desire relief from oppressive misrule. Above sil, they would appeal to their countrymen for the re-establishment in the south-ern States of that which has justly been regarded as the birthright of every American—the right of self-government. Establish these on a firm basis, and we can safely promise, on behalf of the southern people, that they will faithfaily obey the Constitu-tion and laws of the United States, treat the negro with kindness and humanity, and fulfil every duty with kindness and humanity, and fulfil every duty incumbent on peaceful citizens loyal to the Consti-tution of their country.

We believe the above contains a succinct reply to the general topics embraced in your letter, and we venture to say, on behalf of the southern people, and of the officers and soldiers of the late confede-rate army, that they will concur in all the senti-ments which we have expressed.

Appreciating the patriotic motives which have prompted your letter, and reciprocating your ex-pressions of kind regard, we have the honor to be, very respectfully and truly,

FROM EUROPE.

By Atlantic Cable.

LONDON, Sept. 4 .- The annual frast of cutlers at Sheffield occurred yesterday. Reverdy John-son, the American Minister, who was present as a guest, made his first address in England, in response to a toast of "the health of the American Minister." Mr. Johnson, after expressing thanks for the high honor conferred upon him, said he came to this country as a messenger of

He was glad, he said, to recognize everywhere in England strong proofs of friendship, and which he was certain was reciprocated in his native country; for no people under the sun had America kinder feelings than her Majesty's subjects. They were really one people; had like laws and like institutions, and in both countries freedom was the base of those laws and institutions. In their joint hands liberty would live forever. Mr. Johnson reviewed briefly the causes course, and triumphant termination of recent civil war in America, and continued-the war had this compensation, it ended slavery. None but free men now trod the soil of America and history would say that all was well spent in erasing this blot, transmitted from a common ancestry, tarnishing our fame, and belying the Declaration of Independence. He then alluded to the marshaling of forces for the coming Presidential election in Ame-rica, saying that however the present canvais ended he could personally youch for the next President as a warm friend of England. He then alluded to Sheffield cutiery, which he said was famous throughout the civilized world, and spoke familiarly and encouragingly of the annual gathering of the Cutlers' Com-pany. He was listened to throughout with the most marked attention and his assurances of peaceful and friendly relations between Europe and America were loudly applauded. LONDON, Sept. 4 .- Despatches have been received announcing that a very serious potato riot had occurred yesterday at Cork. The people assembled in the streets in great numbers, and for a time were very boisterous Troops were called out to quell the disturbances and a charge was made on a body of about 3000 rioters, who were dispersed at the point of the bayonet. LONDON, Sept. 4 .- The Bermuda dry dock, the largest structure for floating in the world, was successfully launched from a dry dock in the Thames at this city to day. LONDON, Sept. 4 .- The Pall Mall Gazette this evening has an editorial on the subject of the Chinese treaty recently concluded with the United States. It says that the treaty looks as if foreign merchants residing in Chins on the one side, and the Chinese nation, with Mr. Burlin game, on the other, were trying to neutralize each other's statements by a demand that will not bear examination, but may serve to choke off the other side with a mistaken opinion. Here in England we are not to be taken by storm. A liberal interchange of opinions be-tween the Embassy, who are soon to sail from New York, and the Representatives of the English Government, will demonstrate the changes in the positions of Great Britain and China, which are demanded by the times, and which will be beneficial to both. LONDON, Sept. 4 .- It is reported that Count Sartiges, who was until recently French repre-sentative at Rome, was recalled on account of his inability to restore friendly relations between

The Anstrian Minister

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—Baron Charles Von Le-derer, who has lately been appointed Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of his Majesty the Emperor of Austria, to the United States, was to-day officially received by the President. On presenting his credentials the Baron addressed the President as follows:-

the Baron addressed the President as follows:-His Majesty the Emperor of Austria, King of Hun-gary, my august sovereign, having recalled Count Wydenbreck by these letters from the diplomatic post-he has bitherto occupied in the United States, has been gractously pleased to epotint me his Envoy Ex-traorolinary and Minister Plenipotentiary in this country. In consequence I have the honor to present the credentials by which my covereign has socrecilied me in that capacity to your Excellency. Ishall endeavor to perform may duites by being a faithful interpreter of his sentiments to your Excel-lency and the American nation, and by continuing to develop and expand the good and friendly relations which so happily exist botween my own country and Constitution and institutions, and the growing pros-perity of the United States, have been a source of great interest to Austria, as well as that of the great progress made by my country in the last few years, has found mainfest sympathies in this country. I hope, therefore, that these reciprocal feelings will form a new ite between the two nations. The President made the following reply:--

The President made the following reply:-

The President made the following reply:--"Baron Lederer. I give you a cordial welcome to the United States. Your sovereign, the Emperor of Austria and King of Huagary, has always been friendly to the United States, and the people over whom he presides have been uniformly kind, liberal, and generous in their appreciation of us. Your Gov-ernment is now sedulonisy and loyally engaged in strengthening the foundation of civil and religious freedom. We should not only be unjust to the Austrian people, but unfaithful to our own tradition and plinciples, if in such a crisis we did not extend to them our fraternal sympathy and moral support." Resistance to Civil Process.

Resistance to Civil Process.

The facts in relation to armed resistance to the process from the United States courts and United States commission in Laine, Nelson, and Marion counties, Kentucky, show, in addition to what has already been published on that subject, that the outrage occurred about the first of the present month. The lives of the officers were saved when they showed they were special and not regular deputies of Marshal Merriweather. It is stated that, in the present condition of affairs in that part of the State, it is impossible to organize a civil posse to be of any avail. The subject being one of military cognizance, has been referred to the Secretary of War, who has taken prompt action in the premises. He will be governed by the opinion of the Attorney-General, addressed to the Marshal of Florida on the 20th ult., and applied to this case-namely, that the law gives the Mar-shal the power to command all necessary assistance in the execution of a process within his district, and that the military are not exempt from the obligation to obey, in common with all others, his summons in case of necessity.

ATLANTA, Sept. 4 .- The bill as passed by Senate and House a week since, to hold the Savannah election on the first Tuesday of November, limiting the time to one day, and giving three ballot boxes, and vetoed by the Governor on the ground that the time was not sufficient, was passed to-day by the House over the veto by a vote of 82 to 27. The House adopted a resolution to pay the expelled negro members nine dollars per day to the time of expulsion, and mileage one way. Also a resolu-tion declaring that the persons having the next highest number of votes to the negroes expelled vesterday be declared members of this House, if they have no constitutional ineligibility. A committee of three was appointed to examine the election returns and report to the House.

FOR THE CHILDREN.—By our advertising columns it will be seen that a new feature is about to be introduced in the North Broad Street Presbyterian Church service. The pastor, Rev. Dr. Stryker, who is a great friend of children, proposes to-morrow afternoon and the afternoon of the first Sabbath in each month to preach a sermon to the children. This will be a regular church service, and we have no doubt will prove very popular. Simple truth is what is demanded in this age, and what interests and pleases the children is sure to prove acceptable to the big people.

THE NINE of the Athletic Base Ball Club and their friends leave on Monday morning for New York city, where the return game with the Atlantic, of Brooklyn, will be played in the afternoon. On Tuesday the Philadelphians go to Albany, and on Wednesday play the National, of that city. On Thursday they encounter the renowned "Haymakers," of Lansingburg, at Troy.

of the south to a chivalrous and magnanimous de-votion to restoring peace and prosperity to our common country. I want to carry that pledge high above the level of party politics, to the late officers and soldiers of the Union army, and the people of the north and west, and to ask them to consider it, and to take the necessary action, confident that it will meet with a response so warm, so generous and confiding that we shall see in its sunshine the rain-bow of peace in our political sky, now black with clouds and impending storm. I know you are a representative man, in rever-ence and regard for the Union, the Constitution and the welfare of the country, and that what you would say would be indersed by nine-tenths of the whole people of the south, but I should like to have the signatures of all the representative southern men here who concur in your views, and expres-

men here who concur in your views, and expres-sions of their concurrence from the principal officers and representative men throughout the south, when they can be procured. This concurrence of opinions and wills, all tend-ing to peace, order and stability, will assure our Union soldiers and business men, who want sub-Stantial and solid peace, and cause them to rise above the level of party politics, and take such steps to meet yours as will insure a lasting peace, with all its countless blessings. Very truly, your friend, (Signed,), W. S. ROSECRANS.

WRITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, WEST VIRGINIA, August 26, 1868.—General: I have had the honor to receive your letter of this date, and, in accord-ance with your suggestion, I have conferred with a number of gentlemen from the south, in whose judgment I have confided, and who are well ac-quainted with the public sentiment of their respective States. They have kindly consented to unite with me in replying to your communication, and their names will be found with my own appended to this answer. With this explanation we proceed to give to yo a candid statement of what we believe to be sentiment of the southern people in regard to the subject to which you refer. Whatever opinions may have prevailed in the

Whatever opinions may have prevailed in the past in regard to African slavery, or the right of a State to secole from the Union, we believe we ex-press the almost unanimous judgment of the south-ern people when we declare that they consider that those questions were decided by the war, and that it is their intention in good faith to abide by that decision. At the close of the war the southern peo-ple laid down their arms and sought to resume their former relations with the United States govern-ment.

Through their State Conventions they abolished slavery and annulled their ordinances of secession, slavery and annulled their ordinances of secession, and they returned to their peaceful pursuits with a sincere purpose to fulfil all their duties under the Constitution of the United States, which they had sworn to support. If their action in these particu-lars had been met in a spirit of frankness and cor-diality, we believe that ere this old irritations would have passed away, and the wounds inflicted by the war would have been in a great measure headed. As far as we are advised, the people of the south entertain no unfriendly feeling toward the government of the United States, but they com-plain that their rights under the Constitution are withheld from them in the administration thereof. The idea that the southern people are hostile to the negroes, and would oppress them if it were in their power to do so, is entirely unfounded. They have grown up in our midst, and we have been ac-<text><text><text>

COLUMBIA, Sept. 4.—A bill was introduced in the House to guarantee four million dollars of bonds to the Blue Ridge Hailroad.

rom the Legislature, and that the expulsion will not be confined to negro members, but be extended to many whites, who, it is charged, are not eligible. The Democrats are very bitter against that class, whom they term "scalawags" and "carpet-baggers," and are determined to unseat all against whom charges are proved. It is now evident that the Democrats can do what they please in the Legislature, the radicals being entirely powerless in the lower House, and not able to hold their own in the Senate. The negro Bradley is out as an independent canfor Congress from the First District, against Clift, the regular nomines. It is believed that Bradley will be elected if he runs.

Turner (negro) is spoken of for the candidate for Congress in the Fourth District. The Republicans are working hard for Grant and Colfax. Negroes are being organized into Democratic clubs in various parts of the State. In the cities and towns the negroes are strong radicals, but in the interior they will be conrolled by the Democrats.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 4.—The Avalanche's Little Rock special to-day says Governor Clayton has prepared instructions for his registers for the registration instructions for his registers for the registration now about to commence. He says the power and duties of each in the registration are to reject any one whom the registers may think not entitled to register, even though the applicant has already taken the oath; to make arrests, and call upon sherifis for a sufficient number of armed men to assist him, and if not furnished, then to call upon the commanding officer of any troops of the State Guard to furnish promptly such aid. An applicant for registration is also required to prove his innocence by evidence satisfactory to the Register that he has not been guilty of a number of specified acts during a series of vears, one of of specified acts during a series of years, one of which is that he did not sympathize with the rebel-lion. If he fails to establish this, he cannot register his oath to the contrary notwithstanding, un-less he voted for the present constitution. If the Register is satisfied, or thinks he ought not be re-gistered, and before being allowed to register, he must subscribe to an oath setting forth that he accepts civil and political equality of all men, and agrees not to attempt to make any changes. Ten days before the election the Boards of Registration meet in each county, with power, upon their own knowledge or information, to strike from the list of names voters whom they consider disqualified by registration. The courts have forbidden the d any mandamus or other process to the Registers.

From Denver City.

DENVER, Sept. 4.—Speaker Colfax and party, with Governor Hunt and family, have just arrived, accompanied by a band of the Tite warriors. At the time of the Indian outbreak they were in the valley of the Arkansas river, west of South Park. The Tite tribe always was faithful and friendly to the whites, and on being informed of the trouble by a messenger from Governor Hunt, sent a band of their braves, who escorted the party back to Denver.
