CITY CRIMINAL CALENDAR.

A Prize Fight Prevented—Row at Seventh and Pine Streets—Countryman Robbed—Horse Ransacked—Suspicion of Robbery—Beat His Wife—Assault and Battery with Knife on Mrs. East—Went to Jail—Row in Frankford—Stealing Clothing—Robbed His Sister-in-law—Inciting to Riot—Malicious Mischief—Yacht and Thieves.

About 6:30 o'clock on Saturday night Lieutenant Gurns received information that a prize fight was going on in Clark's woods, Twenty-second street, between two men, one of whom was named...

On Saturday night a countryman named Patrick Mulhern was enticed into a house in Barclay street, and robbed of $200 in money. Ellen Holmes was arrested on the charge of the theft, and on her way to the Station she was offered to the policeman $15 to let her go. She was committed to answer.

This morning the residence of Mr. Penneck, No. 805 Franklin street, was found open, and on an examination of the premises, it was found that the building had been ransacked from roof to cellar. The family was absent from the city at the time. It is not definitely known what amount of goods has been carried off.

John Carr was proprietor of a saloon at Third and South streets, and was held to bail by Alderman Carpenter for a further hearing on suspicion of having robbed a man named John Miller of $240. The money was stolen while Mr. Miller was in the saloon, and the robbery was committed on the 24th of August.

John Carr was arrested at the Falls of Schuylkill, on Saturday, charged with committing an assault and battery with intent to kill William Stevenson. It is alleged that some words passed between the parties, when Carr drew either a knife or a pistol, and fired at Stevenson over the eye. The accused has a hearing before Alderman Ramsdell, and was held to answer.

A man named Daniel Hogan is alleged to be the broken and colored schoolhouse at Seventh and Dickinson streets on Sunday night, and stole a clock. Information was lodged with a patrolman, and he arrested the accused, who, after a hearing, was committed for trial.

John Rooney took passage on a Frankford car, yesterday, and when called upon for his fare refused to give it. The conductor ordered him out of the car, when John, in a rage, rushed upon the conductor and beat him. The driver came to the assistance of the conductor and shared the same fate. Several of the passengers interfered and Rooney threatened to whip them if they did not get out of the way. A manly individual was marched to the lock-up. He had a hearing before Alderman Eggleston, and was held in $800 bail to answer the charge of inciting to riot.

William Brown is the name of an individual who, while under the influence of liquor yesterday, amused himself at Second and South streets by eating down a window pane. He was arrested by the commander of the station, and committed to the charge of malicious mischief.

William Redwing is a colored man—on Saturday he stole a dress from his sister-in-law, and was arrested on the charge of the same. Alderman Swift committed William to prison.

LITTLE SQUIDS.—Our public schools reopen to day. The heavens frown, and so do the faces of the youngsters. Weeks of idle summer rollicking has given them a distaste for pop-books and spelling books. Nevertheless they must go to their school desks, and lightened are the hearts of anxious, worried mothers. Masons, carpenters, and painters have plied their busy hands during the vacation—cleaned benches, brightened rooms, and made manly their doors and house fronts. The lads have no more the way they can figure as readily on a door step as upon a black board. The little lassies, too, with their silvery rippling laughter and noisy gleam of eye, are more than ready to dispel the gloom of the little learners. The young ideas are again going to school. Indignant "biddies" of dwellings next door to the schools are already mustering the explosives of the law to be hurled against the delinquents in managerial gravity in the school gateways. From up and down the street gathered the children. Free sport and free air during a long recess had made them as free as uncaught deer, and as impudent as uncaught boys. We really pitied that grim statue in the gate, as we noticed their independent bearing. As for his power and authority until the school bell rang, they couldn't see it, and their roguish eyes and adrooping caps made manifest their indifference. But look out, my lads, that old chap is going to have a long siege at you during the winter, and right merrily can he wield the rattan. Con your books, but not too much. If you want to be considered the only wise, look solemn and say nothing. The only salvation of some men is in imprisoning their tongues between their teeth. The first phrase uttered would make a fresh accession to the already too extensive force of nodules.

We noticed in a certain paper an advertisement of the "latest fashions," topped by a wood cut of a lady upside down. We trust this is not a literal programme.

Mr. Brown is a man it is difficult to meet his rent. Short supply of bread, possibly, or perhaps he don't go the right route to face the stranger.

"Mountain Boy" and "Lady Thorn" are announced to trot to-day at Suffolk Park. There will be a grand gathering of the jockeys. The picnic and moonlight ball of the Twenty-sixth Ward Grant and Colfax Campaign Club takes place to-day, at Eastwick Park.

The Twenty-sixth Ward Republican meet all over the Ward this evening, for the purpose of organizing.

There was a foot of water above Fairmount Dam on Saturday. The sun scorched upper members of the dam were joyful.

In council to-night—the journey men house-painters.

instant, about 5 o'clock in the evening, the city of Callao and Lima were visited by a severe shock of earthquake, which was of a lengthened duration exceeded anything of the kind in the remembrance of any of its inhabitants. The earthquake was from south to north, and was very abrupt. The houses appeared to rock like a ship rolling in a cross sea. The wildest and most extreme expressions were uttered.

Almost the entire population hurried into the streets, leaving the houses deserted, personal effects being the only things. Some prostrated themselves on the ground, and others, who were others gave themselves up for lost. During the time that the shock lasted nothing but confusion reigned.
