PUBLISHED EVERY AFTERNOON (SUNDAYS EXCEPTED). AT THE EVENING TELEGRAPH BUILDING, NO. 108 & THIRD STREET.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 1868.

How to "Take Charge" of the "Doubtful" and "Put through" the Foreigner. The descendant of the Wallace is out in another letter of instruction, which will hardly satisfy the ghost of the old Scotchman, if he is able to read in the other sphere.

Down in Maine, however, the Democracy have been so fearfully used up that their ideas are still confused, and they have been guilty of diverging materially from the track laid out for them by Hampton.

The "Sun-Set" of Democracy. "Sunset" Cox, now of New York, and sometime of Ohio, bears nearly the same relation to modern Democracy as the famous "Sunburst" to the Emerald Isle.

At the Walnut Street Theatre the drama of "Foul Play" will be performed for the last time on this and to-morrow evenings.

At the Chesnut Street Theatre the "White Raven" will be performed this evening as usual.

At the American Theatre there will be an attractive miscellaneous entertainment.

At Hooley's Opera House Mr. Joe Emmett, the Dutch comedian, has made a hit.

WRIGHT'S ALCOHOLIC GLYCERIN. Tablets of solidified glycerin tend to preserve the skin from wrinkles, impart a wonderful degree of softness and delicacy to the complexion.

will well merit the cultivation of the young men. By far a more scientific game than base ball, it does not admit of that chicanery which is too often practised in the latter.

Another "Radical Outrage." MODERN Democracy, to whatever merits it may lay claim, utterly repudiates consistency.

The French Ambassador, more sagacious than his English rival, discovers the real "Czar," and by telling him that the Russians have sustained a disastrous defeat, succeeds in making him acknowledge himself.

The first act of the opera does not contain any very striking music, and it passed off rather tamely, and the comic acting of Mr. Seignin in the character of the Emperor, obtained all the applause the audience seemed disposed to bestow.

The distribution of characters was as follows:—"Peter the Great, Mr. Campbell; "Peter Ivanoff," Mr. Seignin; "Marquis de Chateaufort," the French Ambassador, Mr. Bernard; "The Russian Ambassador," Mr. Henry Beck; "The English Ambassador," Mr. James Arnold; "Mary," Mrs. Bernard; "Mrs. Brown," Mrs. Gouglis.

At the Arch Street Theatre Mrs. Bernard will have her first benefit of the season—the opera will be Norma. To-morrow evening Maritana will be performed.

At the Chesnut Street Theatre the "White Raven" will be performed this evening as usual.

THE BEARS AND THE BOYS. (A man in Quebec, the other day, in the daily newspaper said, "I had two dancing bears on the street. Keeping time to his music with graceful feet. He kept them dancing, in pleasant weather, safely and strongly chained together. They made a crowd of men and boys, who made a cheerful sort of noise. But some folks thought they disturbed the peace; so they went out and called the Quebec police. So they danced along, with indignation, and music and song.
