FROM EUROPE BY CABLE.

LONDON, Sept. 20 .- The apprehensions of war have partially subsided during the past week. The efforts of the Parisian press to extract a warlike significance from the speech of the King of Prussla at Kiell have proved a failure. It is evident that peace is sincerely desired by the governments and people of Europe, with the exception of the Emperor of France, whose purpose is unknown, and perhaps undetermined. Growing Indignation is manifesting itself at his ambiguity or indecision.

From Kentucky.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 20.—On Thursday last United States Marshal Merriwether, accompanied by fifty United States soldiers under Lieutenant Drury, left Louisville to protect the marshal and his deputies in the execution of processes in Nelson and La-rue counties. Arriving at Howard's Mills the soldiers went into camp, and Mr. Howard, who resides at the mills, invited the marshal to his house to supper. He accepted the invitation, but had scarcely entered the house when three men came in with pistols drawn, and demanded his surrender. Being unarmed he complied, and they proceeded with him towards the woods, threatening to make short work with him, but Mr. Howard overtook them and told the party they should not hurt the marshal, and Mr. Howard then accompanied Mer-

Political.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 19.-The Denver Tribune makes Bradford's majority for Congress 66, with two towns to hear from.

The Indian War. General Sherman has sent the following dispatch to Governor Hunt, of Colorado: Sr. Louis, Sept. 7.—I would make no concessions to clamor, but would assure the people of Denver if they want to fight Indians they can have all they want. The great bulk of the Arapahoes have sur-rendered to General Sheridan at Fort Dodge. He has one column after the Charavas on the Cimma has one column after the Cheyennes on the Cimma-ton, and another toward Beaver creek. General Grant promises me more cavalry; and, now that the Indians are clearly in the wrong, I will not prevent your people from chastising them if they are really in carnest; but it is more than one small army can do to defend every ranch in Colorado, Montana, Nebraska and Kansas. The settlers should collect and defend their own property, leaving the regular troops to go after the Indians. W. T. SHERMAN, Lleut. General.

The Result of Political Excitement. GREENCASTLE, PA., Sept. 20.-Last night the Democrats held a meeting at Greencastle and the Republicans at Waynesboro', in Franklin county. On returning from the meeting at Waynesboro', the Republicans encountered some tenor twelve Demo-crats returning on horseback from the Greencastle meeting. As the Democrats passed along the line of wagons filled with Kepublicans, the former em-ployed their time in striking at the lighted torches carried by the latter, and otherwise acting in such a manner as to create a fear with many that they would be injured. Finally the Democrats surrounded and attacked a carriage containing four Republicane, when George Benner in the carriage, fired a pistol, instantly killing a young man named Lecknor, residing near Waynesboro', in the State.

From Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 20.—A letter was received here to-day from Mike McCoole, dated in St. Louis, expressing his willingness to enter the ring with Heenan for a stake of $5000, provided that any man in America be selected as stakeholder other than Frank Queen. John Franklin, of Cincinnati, holds Heenan's first deposit of $2500, and Mr. Hays is ready to cover it upon the acceptance of the terms proposed.

are a pretiy set to complain that we have made a loan at 6 per cent. to put down their curved Rebellion. They ask you to break faith with your country. There was not a Republican in the Southern army; they were all Democrats theo and now; they are the Seymour and Bisir man. They made the debt, and if justice was meted out they alone would be assessed to pay it, and the loyal men be freed from taxation. And now how do they propose to pay the debt? This paper says pay the debt in greenbacks; that everything we cat and drink is taxed to pay bondholders. This is a lic; nothing is taxed to pay that you cat and drink, except whisky and beer that you eat and drink, except whissy and beer and the imported tea and coffee. The unst part of the paper is a fraud. Since the war the tax on ten thousand articles has been repealed, leaving luxuries alone subject to a tax, and all we ask is money enough to pay the interest of the debt and the current expenses. That is not all. We mean to repeat more when Congress convenes. The Demo racy tears the tax on matches—the one hundred-and-fourth part of a cent. on a match. Yes, even that we propose to take off, together with the tax on illuminating gas. There never was a more direct blow almed at the interests of the workingmen than that proposing to issue four hundred millions of greenbacks to pay the bondholders. It would suspend work in every mill and workshop throughout the country, and raise prices. What do the Democrats want? They demand a tariff for revenue. We had a protective tariff in 1828 but it was repealed in 1832, and a revenue tariff untrituded we may and the tariff in 1828 substituted. We were rich in 1828, buildings were erected, mills put in operation and in provements going on throughout the country, but the revenue tariif put a stop to it all, and in 1841 came the financial crisis, the banks failed, and the city was filled with shin-plasters, payable in drinks at a bar; your fac-tories idle, the machinery rotting in the shops your forges dark as Erebus, for the fires were all extinguished. Things became so bad, that at last a protection was again granted in 1842, which lasted till 1846, during which time we were on the way to prosperity-the mills were erected in Frankford and Manayunk. Emigrants flocked to our shores, and found employment, We had clipper ships on the sea, and steams carry mails, and competing with England in carrying tea, etc., from China to London. 1847 the act was repealed, and ten years after the United States Bank failed the mills closed; there was no longer demand for coal save for heating and cooking purposes, and so it remained till the breaking out of the war. Then our streets were filled with unoccupied men; the mils were not running full time, and only half pay was given. We again secured the tariff, and work flowed in at the Navy Yard. The Pactic Railroad is to be laid with American iron, and will give employment to several thousand men. This was done by the Republican party. The Democratic party would again bring on the miseries of '37, 42, of '57 and '61.

-On Saturday night two mouster meetings were beld in the Seventeenth ward: one at the corner of Front and Master streets, and the other at Fourth and Master streets. At the former a large baunce bearing the names of the Republican nominees was thrown to the breeze amid the cheers of thousands congregated. A large stand, beautifully decorated with flags and Chinese lanterne, was provided for the accommodation of the speakers, and a baad of music was in attendance. The meeting, which was the largest ever convened at that corner, was organized by the selection of Mr. James Mc. Cartney as President, who made a few remarks. returning thanks for the honor conferred upon him in selecting him to preside over the deliberations of the meeting. He predicted the success of the Republican ticket, and eulogized the candidates-General Grant, Hon. Schuyler Collax, Hon. Leonard Myers, and others,

He introduced to the audience the Hon. Charles Gibbons, who delivered a speech full of convincing arguments in support of the nominees of the Republican party. The speaker was frequently intercupted by the passage of the Seventeeth Ward, Nineteenth Ward, and Seventeenth Ward German Campaign Clubs, the members of which were all uniformed, carried torches and banners, and presented a very cre-ditable appearance. Mr. Gibbons was irequently applauded.

At the conclusion of his speech the Chairman introduced the Hon. Morton McMichael, who, after discussing many of the issues in the present campaign, paid a high compliment to the Hon. Leonard Myers for his Integrity, love of country, and the interest he had taken in the workingmen of Philadelphia. To him, he said, the credit burdens from manufacturers, which action on his part and the part of other members of the National Legislature relieved that class of persons, and gave employment to hundreds of laborers. Mr. McMichael closed amid great applause.

mand of their Chief Marshal, Colonel W. B. Mann, made their first street parade on Satur-day right. They were fully equipped and were preceded by a cavalcade, the Marshal, his assistants, and aids, to the number of forty. being mounted. Two bands furnished music for the club. Over one thousand men were in line, and their gentlemanly appearance elicited frequent applause from the great througs of spectators congregated along the footways.

-A meeting of the German Democratic citi-zens of the Twentieth Ward was held on Saturday evening at the corner of Fawn street and Columbia avenue. A Seymour and Blair flar was raised, and addresses were made by Colonel Jscob Plucker, J. B. Reynolds, J S. Painter, Colonel Hondorow, Colonel Lechler, and Charles Green, Esq.

At Jersey City the members intend spending a few hours, and from there they proceed to Wor-cester, Massachusetts, where they will be re-ceived by the Nisgara Engine Company of that place. They then continue on their journey to Boston, where they are to be taken charge of by the William Wooley Hose Company of East Bostor. They will spend a day at Charlestown, by invitation of the Washington Engine. On Friday they leave for home, after spending Saturday in Brooklyn. On their arrival here they will be met by a delegation of their old members, who will escort them to their engine house.

The Company was under the marshalship of Daniel P. Ray, Esq., and was accompanied by the newly-elected Chief Engineer, George Downey, Esq. They also took with them the new hose carriage which was housed last week.

FATAL ACCIDENTS. - A man named John Burns, aged twenty-two years, shot himself through the heart on Saturday, at Hiess' mill, on Creasom creek, Twenty second ward, while playing with a londed pistol. He lived but a few moments after the accident. The deceased was a single man, and boarded with Patrick McEwen. on Creasom road.

-About 5 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, John Leonard, aged twelve years, residing at Elev-enth and Christian streets, was fatally injured by a train on the Baltimore Railroad. He was trying to get upon the train at Gray's Ferry road and Washington street, but missed his footing, and his clothing catching in the car he was dragged some distance along the ground. POLITICAL .- The Republican voters of the Fifteenth Ward assembled en masse at Nine-teenth and Callowhill on Saturday evening. The meeting was called to order by Robert M. Evans, on whose motion James Neill, Esq., was called to preside. Addresses were delivered by Hon. Samuel H. Urwig, A. Wilson Henszey, Esq., and Hon. William D. Kelley. In the course of his remarks the latter said:-

Fellow-citizens :-- I have been carpet-bagging up in Bucks county, and you must excuse me if I don't talk as vigorously as usual, for the keen air of Bucks has affected my throat and lungs. I listened with interest to the speech of your celebrated State Senator, and congratulate you on having such a man to represent you. I shall take my text from a paper that was put in my hand as I came on the stage, by a gentleman who informed me that they were circulated freely through the workshops of the Fifteenth ward. On the front is the face of a dollar bill, with an extract below of the law under which greenbacks were issued. It calls for the paying the bonds with greenbacks. It may influence the minds of the ignorant. It appeals to every species of dishonesty for which the Fourth ward is distinguished. It tells you there is gold for the bouchoider but greenbacks for the soldier. But for the action of the Democratic party there would have been no bonds to pay in gold, and no question of greenbacks. The D mocratic party favored the Rebellion. In fact, before the Republican party came into power there were unon and form a confederacy in the South. The traitor Secretary of War handed over the Sovernment arms to them and sent away our navy. As Mr. Henszey remarked, our vessels were scattered on distant stations; those that remained were laid up in ordinary—not in Philadelphia, where there is a Navy Yard, but in Norfelk and Pensacola, where the Rebels could seize them. When President Lincoln came into office but four of the smallest vessels of the jorty seven which constituted the navy were left to us. Who did this? The trusted leaders of the Democratic party. And the same men are at the head of the party to-day. The same Jerry Black. Attorney-General, who gave as his opinion that the Government could not coerce a State, is the leader of the Democratic of Pennsylvania to-day. Didn't Howell Cobb, Buchapan's Secretary of State, make a loan, not at 6 per cent., but at 12 per cent., principal and interest payable in gold? And it was the last loan made by the Democratic party. They

Major J. T. Pratt was the next speaker. He made a capital speech, full of good sound argu-ments and interspersed with anecdotes. His remarks were attentively listened to and applauded.

Hon. Leonard Myers was then introduced and said:-In 1861 we had a different currency for every State-almost for every part of a State. The Democracy laughed at the proposition o greenbacks: now they want to issue twenty-five undred mittions of them and pay off the national debt. There is no loss or discount on our car rency. A national bank note is good and current, no matter where issued. Would Democracy persuade the people back to shinplasters? We wauted money to carry on the war. Europe and the Democratic leaders laughed at us. Congress, however, passed its loan bills, appealed to the American people, issued its bonds, and our own people took them. These are the bonds which Pendleton and Seymour want to repu-diate. Every bank which loans its money to the manufacturer has them; every saving fund; every lodge or charity; and nearly every workman and family is directly or indirectly interested in them; nearly every widow and pensioner; and, my word for it, atter Grant's election no man will dare depreclate our national securities, or in the heyday of peace rob the citizen of what we promised in our time of direst need and adversity. Look at the candidates. Horatio Seymour! (Laughter.) Brick Pomeroy made a speech for him last night at Reading, the man who rejoiced over the assassination of Lincoin, and in his vile paper says he knows the man who has a dagger ready for Grant. My triends, forgot to say, not only Lee, but Brick Pomeroy, will be pleased if you vote for Seymour. Gene-ral Dix will not. He has come out for Grant; he stands by the American flag (cheers), and he remembers that when he wrote Seymour, in 863, that the war would be prolonged unless he lent the aid of his State. Seymour refused, and troops had to be taken from the front to keep down the New York rioters, and Dix telegraphed he would take care of him and them. General Paine, one of the purest men in Congress, who lost a leg in the service, says Seymour pretended to be sick in Milwankee when Sumter was fired on, and he was called on to speak; he replied he did not know how this thing would turn out. General Wool refused to shake hands with him because o his sympathy with treason! Will you vote for such a man to please Lee, Benuregard, Forrest or Semmes, or believe Sherman, Sheridan, George H. Thomas, Dix, Wool, Paine, and gallant Dan Sickles, who say that Seymour never had a legal impulse? And now what of Grant? (Cheers.) It is useless for me to recount his glory. It will shine when you and I have passed away. The great gathering on the 2d of October will tell who his soldiers are for. He was not President of the Conven-tion which nominated himself. (Laughter.) No. tion which nominated himself. (Laughter,) No, he did not play the part of Cæsar and put back the crown thrice. Where the people call, he obeys like a good soldier. He has no policy to set against their will. What would you have promised in 1861 and 1863 to the man who would put down Rebellion? Give it now, and set a back of the pattern as know you will and for save the nation, as I know you will, and God will grant a penceful victory. —A general mass meeting of the Republican citizens of the Eighth Ward was held on Saturday night, at the southwest corner of Broad and Walnut streets. Mr. Henry C. Carey presided, and cloquent speeches were made by Colouel William McMichael, Charles Gibbons, Esq., Lorin Blodgett, and ex-Governer Pollock.

-The meeting at Fourth and Master streets was presided over by Louis Heck, who made a few remarks, and introduced to the audience Hop. Leonard Myers, George Seigman, Esq., John Rockey, Evq., and Frederick Dittman, each of whom made an eloquent aldress. —The Democracy of the Tenth Ward held a YOUTHFUL TILL-TAPPERS .- On Saturday last, while an attendant in an ice-cream saloon, at Second and Lombard streets, was waiting upon a customer, two lads sneaked in and robbed the money drawer of about twenty-five dollars. One of them was arrested and bound over by Alderman Carpenter.
