This evening, about 10.30, a disturbance occurred at the corner of Bourton and Canal streets, and in front of Dumontell's confectionery, a fashionable resort, which was filled with women and men. Several clubs, both Democratic and Radical, were on the streets in the vicinity at the time, which became engaged. the Republican candidate for Congress in the Second District, was shot in the leg; John Murphy and F. F. Puncy, white speakers, are wounded.

ATLANTA, Sept. 22 .- The following report is from ATLANTA, Sept. 22.—The following report is from Judge Vason and Mr. Johnson, who were requested by Lieut. Howard, of the Freedmen's Bureau, to investigate the matter of the Camilla riot:

To the Committee of the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Georgia:

We left Camilla to-day at noon. All was quiet and no apprehension was felt of further trouble. The acts of the citizens were under the orders of the Sheriff, and they acted as his police in the whole affair. The negroes of the county are all quiet, and no bad feeling exists between them and the whites growing out of labor. But few negroes were present except those in the procession, and there is no necessity for any additional force to protect the whites or blacks. The wounded negroes are well cared for, and have the sympathy of the whites. The whole difficulty originated in the right whites. The whole difficulty originated in the right claimed by Murphy, Pearce and others to carry negroes to a political meeting with arms. The Sheriff disputed this right, and insisted that under the proclamation of the Governor and the law it was his duty as a civil officer to prevent it. There is no excitement in Albany, (Signed) D. A. Vason, TH. JOHNSON. Vason and Johnson, and Mr. Clark, northern men who came south since the war, certify to the good character of the parties making sworn statements, and both Vason and Johnson's reports were laid before both houses, and which determined their decision relative to the Governor's message and the refusal to ask the President for aid to maintain ATLANTA, Sept. 22.—The following is the sub-tance of Governor Bullock's communication to stance of Governor Bullock's communication to the Legislature on the subject of the Camilla outrage. He recommends that the President be petitioned for a military force sufficient to preserve order in Mitchell county, saying that, disregardful of the proclamation issued on the 14th inst., the right of the people peacefully to assemble has been violently and barbarously im-paired, and that the civil officers are wholly unable to protect the rights of citizens and maintain peace, and carnestly recommends the Legislature to make and carnestly recommends the Legislature to make immediate application to the President for a sufficient military force to be stationed in Mitchell county to maintain peace and protect the lives and property of citizens, and have the guilty punished by due process of law.

The fact that this occurrence is the result of a determination and the sufficient of a determination.

The fact that this occurrence is the result of a determination, publicly expressed by irresponsible persons of one political party that the other political party shall not hold meetings, is too well known. It is gratifying to know that this sentiment is confined to a lawless class, and is not countenanced or supported by respectable citizens. The misfortune is that the outrages are not prevented, and unless physical force is added to the honest efforts of the officers of the law, we shall be thrown into a state of anarchy, where neither life nor property will be of anarchy, where neither life nor property will be

The House, by a vote of 112 to 30, passed a bill appointing the first Tuesday in November for a Presidential election.

An Abandonment. The President has abandoned the idea of a trip to Tennessee via New York.

The Absconding Clerk. It is thought the Government will lose nothing by Olmstead's absconding, as he left property sufficient to pay all deficiencies when soid, and the proceeds turned over. It is reported this morning that he was arrested in Philadelphia, but the stery lacks confirmation.

From New York. New York, Sept. 22.—Five distilleries were seized by the Deputy Collector of the Second Collection district to-day, for non-registration under the new revenue law. The revenue fraud cases were new revenue law. The revenue fraud cases were up again to-day, but were again postponed until Thursday, on account of the indisposition of ex-Judge Fullerton, one of the government counsel.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22—An immepse mass meeting of Republicans was held to-night at the Cooper Institute. All the Republican associations in this city paraded with banners and transparencies, and there was a fine display of fireworks in Astor place Speeches were made by General John C. Fremont John A. Gri-wold and others.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 22.—The steamship Golden Age sailed to-day for Panama with $281,000 in treasure, of which $266,000 goes to New York. Barkerville, British Columbia, was destroyed by fire on September 16th. The loss is estimated at $1,000,000. The safes of the Bank of British North America and British Columbia were saved.

From Minnesota.

St. PAUL, Sept. 22—There is a prospect of a com-promise between the Donnelly and Hubbard factions of the Republican party. It is proposed to leave the matter to four judges, and whoever they decide on shall be considered the Republican no-minee for Congress, and the other will retire.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

FOR ADDITIONAL LOCAL ITEMS SEE OUTSIDE PAGES.

Political -A large mass meeting of the Republican citizens of the Fourteenth ward was held last evening in Spring Garden Hall, corner of Thirteenth and Spring Garden streets. The room in which the meeting convened being the headquarters of the Campaign Club of the same ward, many of its members were present, dressed in their caps and capes. About 8 o'clock the meeting was called to order by John Hauna, Esq. He then introduced the Hon. Henry D. Moore, who was received with applause.

Mr. Moore began by saying that in the whole course of his political experience he had never known such an utter faisification and perversion of the facts of his ory, and such low, base, and grovelling appeals to the passions and prejudices of the people, as are now being mude by the leaders of the party rallying under the banner of Seymour and Blair. He held in his hand the Ledger of this morning, containing the report of a Democratic meeting held somewhere in our city last evening. His audience would probably remember how the indignation of the entire community was aroused a few weeks since by the inhuman and barbarous murder of a little girl in the upper part of our city, and that in response to that manimous expression of indignation from the people, our worthy Mayor offered the reward of $1000 for the arrest of the inhuman murderer, and our worthy District Attorney also, Mr. Mann, in response to the indignant and noble feelings of his own heart, offered the reward of $500 for the arrest of this find in numan shape. His hearers must remember toese circumstances, because there was not a mother in the community who did not class to her bosom more firmly than ever her darling child as she heard the sickening details, nor a father who did not set his teeth and clinch his fist more determinedly than ever as he read of that horrible transaction; and his hearers would scarcely believe him when he told them that at this Democratic meeting last night one of the oralors took that occasion to exhume the remains of this little markered innocent, and bring it refore his andlence with all the power and eloquence of language, to east the odium of this murder, if possible, upon his political opponents, and by appealing to the passions of his hearers endeavor to make a little political political capital for his own party! How we would like to have been at that meeting to have seen if the blush of shame did not mantle the cheek of that man as he was engaged in this grovelling work! Sad, sad indeed must be the condition of a party whose orators are obliged to resort to such means to reach the feelings of their and.

ence! It this man wanted to appeal to the grave in order to arouse the enthusiasm of his grave in order to arouse the enthusiasm of his hearen, why did he not go to An iersonville and a hundred other places in the land, where the graves are filled with the bones of our brave hences who died in detending our country against treason, traitors, and rebellion? No, no; the traitors and treason against which these brave men fought came too near home to the gentleman's own party to allow him to speak of the graves of those dead heroes, and he must therefore drag before his audience this murdered little innocent, and endeavor to throw the responsibility of it upon the great Republican party of Philadelphia! If that gentleman can imagine that he is advancing the interests can imagine that he is advancing the interests of his party, or can find any pleasure in such grovelling appeals to his hearers as he made grovelling appeals to his hearers as he made last night, he is welcome to that pleasure! Let us see what else this Democratic orator said. He next spoke of the national debt, and "contended that the Republican party created this debt, and that as long as that party was in power it would never be removed." Mr. Moore said that it was astonishing that any one would deliberately get up before an American audience, who were supposed to know something of the facts of history of the last eight years, and make such an assertion as this. eight years, and make such an assertion as this, when he must have known that every fact of history and every record of events for the last eight years proved the utter falsity of such an assertion. He then discussed all the facts connected with the Rebellion, showing the connec tion of the Southern wing of the Democratic party with it, and reviewed the action of the recent Democratic Convention, and closed by an earnest appeal to his bearers to stand by their country, and rally round the banner of Grant The concluding speech was made by John Gotorth, Esq.

—The Republican citizens of the Twentyseventh Ward met in mass meeting last evening, at Forty-second and Market streets, and organized by the selection of Mr. James Miller as President. In consequence of the rain storm the meeting was adjourned to the hall Thirtyseventh and Market streets, where addresses were made by the Buckeye Blacksmith, J. W. Baer, ot Baltimore, Christian Kueass, Esq., Hon. George Conuell, and Hon. William D. Kelley. The latter gentleman, in his speech, said that he had just returned from Washington, where he and his colleagues had put two new colls around President Johnson to keep him in humor, The Republican members informed him that the States from whence they came would run up immense majorities for the whole Republican ticket, and all they looked for was the verdict of Pennsylvania, the Keystone State. A prominent New Yorker told him that his State might be set down at thirty thousand majority for Grant. The speaker said that he gave his colleagues to understand that Pennsylvania was as sale as Maine, and would foot up a majority of twenty thousand. He was in a position to know, being in constant correspondence with prominent men of the State, and had the facili-ties for obtaining such information. So he authorized every member of Congress to spread the news on their return to their homes. knew that the Republican party would receive thousands of votes not looked for, and votes from the Democratic party. Among other things that satisfied him of the increased things that satisfied him of the increased vote and majority in Pennsylvania was the platform adopted by the opposition party, a platform that should be talked up in every house, for it is a splendid electioneering document for the success of the Republican ticket. The speaker here referred to the fourth and sixth planks in that platform which favor a revenue tariff and an equalization of taxes. He showed the results of the revenue tariff in years gone by, in the shape of panies, etc., and contrasted it with the good results of the protective tariff adopted and sustained by the kepublican party at the present time. Mr. Kelley concluded amid great applause.

On Thursday evening a grand Grant and Colfax demonstration will take place at Bechtel's Hotel, Washington lane and Main streets, when speeches are expected from Colonel William B.

Mann, C. N. Taylor, E. H. Coates, A. Wilson
Henszey, John Goforth, and others.
—On Monday evening, the Thirteenth District
