SENATOR WILSON'S SPEECH AT CONCERT HALL The third of the series of Union League meetings. at Concert Hall, was held on Saturday night. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather the auditorium was crowded. Mr. Samuel C. Perkinspre sided, and in apologizing for the non-attendance of Senators Yates and Kellogg, both of whom had been announced to address the meeting, but who

been announced to address the moeting, but who were unavoidably absent, he said it gave him great pleasure to introduce Hon. Henry Wilson, of Mas-sachusetts, who had controomly consented to sup-ply the place of his Senatorial colleagues. Mr. Wilson was received with vociferous cheer-ing. Quiet being restored he said: I am grateful to you for this welcome and cordial greeting, coming as it does from the Republicans of Philadelphis, whese devotion to the country during the dark days through which we have passed is acknowledged all over this broad land. I am glad to stand before you to night, and address a few words to the heart, conscience and reason of the citizens of Philadelphia. We are to carry this country, if we carry it at all, not by telling stories, but by appeals to the higher, nobler and better sentiments of the American people. We are ensentiments of the American people. We are en-gaged in one of the grandest struggles ever re-corded in the annals of our race. We are lighting gaged in one of the grandest straggles ever re-corded in the annals of our race. We are lighting to-day on a higher plane than was ever occupied in any other country on the globe. God has given us this land of wonderful fertility to be developed for human power and happiness. A glorious ancestry gave us the Republic founded upon the grand ides of human equality, and our Divine Master bade us to do unto others as we would that others should do un'o us. Our fore-fathers founded our government upon the great truths that God made man in his own image, and that Christ died for all humanity. I believe we are to live together, to lie down in death together, and to rise, in the general resurrection, as brothers. The fathers recognized no caste, but they saw hu-manity, the children of a common father, and they founded our government upon the glorious idea that all men are created equal. That glorious thought underlies our Republic, and to maintain that we are battling. The nation is to yote for the twenty-first time for a President. It is divided into two great political organizations.

It is divided into two great political organizations. We here to-night belong to a new party twelve years old, but it has a name to live—it has ideas that are as indestructible as the throne of Goo.

years out, out it into an anise to inve-it into interact that are as indestructible as the throne of Goa. (Immense cheers.) It has pollcies that embrace the whole country and the people of the whole country. (Applause.) It has a history bright and glorious. No brighter page exists in the history of the human family than will be the pages that re-cord the last twelve years' struggle of the Republi-can party of the United States. I am not here to-night to apologize for the Re-publican party. It is not perfect, for it is human. Nothing is perfect but God. But there is no politi-cal party that treads the planet that has a right to arraign ours. It has no peer on earth, and it never had. I bow in admiration before the great organi-zations of the past that have borne the flag of human liberty. Whenever and wherever a body of men have stood up for the cause of humanity and Christianity and civilization. I bow in reverence before them. I love to linger around the memories of the revolutionary fathers-of the men who pro-claimed in the Declaration of Independence that claimed in the Declaration of Independence that they founded the North American republic on the basis of human liberty. I honor Washington, his generals and soldiers, for their sublime devotion to human rights, but during the last eight years we have fought a higher, creandar battle than even Washingtons.

grander battle than even Washington's. (Applause.) Our revolutionary fathers met oppression with a stern resolution that challenges the admiration of mankind, and they grasped the grand fundamental ideas of human rights and proclaimed them. They fought through a seven year war to found the North A merican regulation establish from institutions American republic and establish free institutions. All honor to these men; but we have fought for all they fought, and more too. They fought for a little strip of land east of the Allegheny, and we have struggied for the unity of a continental empire. They lought for 3,000,000 of colonists, we to preserve a nation of 35,000,000 of human beings. They fought for their own rights as the descenda nation of 35,000,000 of human beings. They fought for their own rights as the descend-ants of Englishmen; fought to maintain their ideas, principles, policies, their name and fame; we have fought as they fought—for our own rights—and have emancipated a hated and downtrodden race. (A pplause.) We have conquered prejudices, risen to the sublime heights of Christianity and broken four millions and a half of fetters, and stand be-fore the nation and Almighty God with four and a half millions of riven fetters in our hands. We have lifted that race, dragged down to the depths, to the heights of humanity and manhood. In lift-ing them up from the depths we have lifted ouring them up from the depths we have lifted our selves up. Political parties, as they turn to the great Re-Political parties, as they turn to the great Re-publican party that carries the flag of the country, have to look up. It was brought into being by the principle of Christian civilization in the western world. It came into being to save the North Ame-rican republic from perishing by the hands of its own children; to establish equal, universal and im-partial liberty; to lift up the loyal and the sin-stricken sons and daughters of toil; to protect the method beforealess. In looking helt through ak and defenceless. In looking back through these dozen years, I might with a telescope discover some mistake, but I would as soon hunt for spots on the face of the sun itself as upon this great litical organization, that has taken this country its arms and carried it forward and upward, a housand leagues toward God. This organization stands before the nation with its ideas distinctly proclaimed to mankind, and its its ideas distinctly proclaimed to mankind, and its candidate is the first citizen of the nation. (Ap-plause.) Its ideas, principles, measures, policies and candidates will gloriously triumph in the coming struggle. Who in the world supposes that the men who eight years ago elected Abraham Lin-coln (great cheering) President of the United States who supposes that the men who went is the States-who supposes that the men who went to the ballot-boxes on the 6th of November, 1860-the hundreds of thousands from their bended knees, and with love of country and fear of God before them, gave to the world Abraham Lincoln (ap-plause), when they told us that if we did it they redden the waters with civil war: that the would shiver the foundation stones of this country-who is there that supposes that we will surrender to the rebels we conquered and their friends who apologize for them? No, we are going to make General Grant President and Schuyler Colfax Vice President, and we are going to have a majority of one hundred Representatives. I tell these rebellious men we are going to stamp our ideas, principles and policies into the very soll of the North American continent. We intend to restore the Union broken by the Democratic party, restore the Union broken by the Democratic party, to make the humblest man in the land a citizen, equal in rights to them, to make a peace that shall come to stay, to encourage the education of all our people, develop our resources, to carry our country upward and forward. We intend to make it as safe for the brave boys who fought for the flag to take his musket, blanket or overcoat and go into any portion of the United States and abide and be proportion of the United States and abide and be pro portion of the Child States and abue and be pro-tected in his rights. The men who rode to Gettysburg and broke the advancing columns of Lee have a right to live where they please. They may take their knapsack or their carpet-bag with them. (Applause.) They shall have a right to think their own thoughts and speak their own sentiments, and yote and do as they please, so that they do not interfere with the rights speak their own sentiments, and vote and do as they please, so that they do not interfere with the rights of other people. (Applause.) If Wade Hampton don't like their carpet-bag (laughter), if South Carolina is not large enough to hold Wade Hamp-ton and their carpet bag, then Wade Hampton must get out of South Carolina. (Immense applause.) If anybody has got to leave any of the States it must be the unrepentant traitor. (Applause.) These people must understand that we who have spared their lives and lands are not going to be domineered over or ruled by them. They are spoiled children—spoiled by several ages of human slavery. They have been terribly punished, and slavery. They have been terribly punished, and all I wish is that they would have a little good sense beaten into them. I think if it had not been for the northern sympathizers they would have behaved far better. The speaker then dwelt for a long time on the POLITICAL .- An adjourned meeting of citi-FOLITICAL—An adjourned meeting of citi-zens invorable to making provision for the sailors and soldiers who expect to visit this city on the 1st of October, was held on Saturiay siternoon at the National Union Club House, Hon. Henry D. Moore in the chair. All the committees appointed at the previous meeting were represented, and reported progress. The Committee on Halls reported that National Hall had been selected and secured as the pince where the meals will be supplied, and that the where the meals will be supplied, and that the Committee on Supplies will have a responsible person stationed there from this morning until Thursday to receive the supplies that may sent there, when the committee will be on band to receive all contributions. Concert Hall will be the headquarters of the committee while the convention remains in session. The reports of the other committees were of an informal character, but exhibited the most gratifying process. All to whom the wants of the various committees were explained responded most liberally, evincing a de ire on the part of our citizens to forward the objects in view, and to sustain the well-carnel reputa-tion of Philadelphia for munidcent hospitality. On suggestion of the chairman, a committee on reception at the hall was created, and the following gentlemen selected to comprise it, viz.:-Samuel B. Fales, Chairman; Arad Bar-rows, Dr. Eliab Ward, Henry Perkins, Thomas C. Hand. The meeting then adjourned to meet this afternoon, at four o'clock, at the same place -On Saturday evening last the honorably discharged soldiers and sailors of the Second ward held a meeting at the rooms of the Grant Club, No. 502 Wa hington avenue, for the purpose of forming themselves into a regiment, to be known as the "Berry Guard Boys in Blue." On motion of Lieutenant Colonel Colgan, Captain Henry M. Reading was unanimously elected chairman. Captain Reading, on assuming the chair, stated fully the object of the organization. and explained the manner of electing field and other officers, in accordance with instructions issued by the general commanding. An oppor-tunity was given to all who desired to eurol themselves to do so, when a sufficient number erroiled to form eleven compasses. The number required to form one company is a captain, two lieutenants, two sergeants, and thirty-two men. The officers elect of each company went into an e ection for field officers, with the following result:-Colonel-Albert S. Kones, Lieutenant-Colonel-Alfred L. Colgan. Major-Heury M. Reading. Surgeon-Dr. H. C. Wevil. Adjutant-Joseph T. Aldridge. Quartermaster - F. B.

Owing to the inclement stake of the weather it was announced that the meeting would be postpened until this evening, but a large number, not being satisfied with this aunouncement, adjourned to the half of the Berry Campaign Club, at Third and Gaskill streets, where an exceedingly enthusiastic meeting was organized. Speeches were then made by Colonel Fitzgerald and others. —It was intended by the Republicans of the Twenty-eighth ward to hold a monster meeting on Saturdar method is the Follow of Schurdling on Saturday night at the Falls of Schuylkill, and great preparations were made to have a celebration on a grand scale. The heavy rain which poured down continually through the evening, however, rendered the fulliment of the programme impossible, nevertheless a large crowd of undaunted patriots assembled, and it was resolved to engage the new Oid Fellows' Hall, which was done, and the audience room was soon filled. A band of music was present, and the room was soon decorated with flags. The meeting was organized by electing Charles F. Abboit, E-q., President, Hon. George Con-nell and Colonel John W. CHARGE OF PERJURY-FRAUDULENT NATURALI ZATION .- The Central Police Station was crowded on Saturday afternoon. An investigation relativ to fraudulent naturalization was the attraction. The defendants were Henry Leckfeldt, keeper of the well-known "Astor House," and Charles Snit-chel, Frederick Mullin, Charles Huniger and George Minnick, all residents or visitors at the establishment. They were represented by Charles Brooke and John O'Byrne, counsellors. L. C. Cas-sidy, Esq., was present, but took no part in the investigatio

Rebel Insult to the Union Soldiers.

HEADQUARTERS SOLDIERS' AND SAILORS' STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE, PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 28, 1868.—At the moment the whole loyal popula-tion of Philadeiphia is preparing to welcome the gallant men who fought down a slaveholders' Rebellion, the Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee issues the following insulting address:--

Saturday last, published in to-day's papers exposing the efforts of the Democratic party exposing the efforts of the Democratic party to corrupt the ballot-boxes in their midst by furnishing vouchers to prove that for the past five years men have borne "good moral charac-ters," and have been "attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States," and have been "well disposed to the gool order and happiness of the same," but who, in truth and in fact, served three years of that time in the Rebel army. These revelations are only a small part of a concocted system of frauds, originating with and exclusively confined to the party of which

Mr. Wallace is the leader. Detected at this opportune moment, they constitute a terrible supplement to this oatrageous calumny upon the soldiers of the Re public.

These brave men do not forget that Horatlo Seymour vetoed the bill giving the right of suffrage to their comrades in New York, while they were in the field fighting the battles of

they were in the next signified in the battles of their country. They do not forget that Mr. Wallace, as a Senator, with the whole Democratic party in the Legislature, opposed the right of the sol-diers to vote in the field of battle. They do not torget that they were alluded to as "Lincoln's bireings," by the party of which Mr. Wallace is the chief; por will they ever forget that in the iace of this damning record, Mr. Wallace and his associates are now banded in an effort to restore the Government to the control of forsworn traitors, the authors and prosecutors of the Rebellion; nor that every one of these traitors is joined with Mr. Wallace in a conspiracy against their beloved leader, the great captain of the age, General Grant. Nor that Horatio Seymour and Frank P. Blair were nominated by a convention in which nearly two hundred Rebel generals, colonels, majors, captains, and Congressmen were delegates. Nor that the chief of these Rebeis, Wade Hampton, of South Carolina, framed and dictated, as a condition of his allegiance, that part of the Democratic platform which declares the acts of Reconstruction "unconstitutional, revolution-ary, and void." Nor that avery Union soldier in the South is the victum of the daily vengeance and cruelty of the a-sociates of Mr. Wallace and the Demo-25th Inst. Barque Speed, Larkin, hence via Falmouth for Loncratic leaders of Pennsylvan:a; nor that all the Union generals sent to the South to execute the laws and give protection to the Union men of that section have (with a single exception) been vilified and persecuted by these same Rebel associates of Mr. Wallace and the Democratic leaders of Pennsylvania. The grand assemblage of patriotic citizens who risked their lives for the old flag, instead of being welcomed with open arms by the Demociatic leaders of Pennsylvania, are insulted by the atrocious calumny that they have been sent for to pollute our ballot-boxes, and are additionally stigmatized as a so-called soldiers convention. A reproach so shameless comes fittingly from men who have just emerged from a disgraceful companionship with N. B. Forrest, the contriver and leader of the Fort Pillow massacre, and his co-conspirators.

ARRIVED. - The United States gunbost Seneca Captain L. R. Porces, arrived at this port on Saturday, from Norfolk, Va.

One of the defendants a few nights ago presented himself at a police station to get fodgings. He there met a German to whom he stated that he had been naturalized. An investigation resulted in discovering the frauds as charged. When the accused were called up and asked their names, ages, residences, &c., they were instructed by Mr. O'Byrne that they were not compelled to say anything which would or might criminate them-selves. Certain certificates of naturalization were then produced and J. Boss Snowden, Prothonotary then produced, and J. Ross Snowden, Prothonotary of the Supreme Court, testified to the genuineness of his signature to them. He could not, however, swear that the defendants were the persons who had been sworn. Clerks in the office had sworn the parties, and the papers were then handed to him to

The clerks were examined as witnesses, and Tho mas B. Worrall identified Snitchel as one of the persons he had sworn. He could not say how often he had sworn him as a voucher; but it was more than once. He had no way to identify the papers he had sworn parties to; made no mark upon them whatever. It was impossible for him to remember the faces of the persons who had sworn before him. as there had been several thousand in the last few

John F. Schell, the other clerk under Colonel Snowden, testified to the same effect. He could not identify any of the defendants.

Charles Huniger, one of the defendants, was then called to the stand. He testified: I know Henry Leckfeldt; have been four weeks at his house; I came from New York; the last time was in New York one month; worked for Captain Sanford and for another man on Long Island; know Charles Snitchel; saw him last November al Leckfeldt's; that was the first time he ever saw me saw him last March at the same place; he went with me to court to get my papers, and he swor for me.

[The oath of Snitchel was read, and he swore that he had known Huniger five years as a resident of this country and one year as a resident of Pennsvlvania.]

Witness-He did not know me for five years, nor Witness-He did not know me for five years. nor for one year as a resident of Pennsylvania; I was in the rebel army from 1862 to 1865; I got no money for obtaining my papers; Mrs. Leckfeldt gave me ten cents, and I was told I would have to pay twenty-five cents a year to vote; I put my name three times to the paper, and Snitchel signed it also; he was my voucher; he vouched for George Minnick also; I had a conversation with Snitchel about taking the oath as to my residence in the about taking the oath as to my residence in the country and the State, and he said it made no dif-ference, that he could swear fifty times for a glass of heer; he said they did not swear him as they would in Germany; Leckfeldt got my papers; he said I would receive them after the election if I wanted them; I saw Minnick here twenty months ago, when he said that he had been only a few days from Germany. George Minnick testified that he came from New George Minnick testified that he came from New York two months ago, and was living at Leckfeldt's honse; had been in the country six years; was in Philadelphia two years ago. This witness did not know the man who vouched for him; he was a stranger to him, had never seen him before; he had also given his papers to Leckfeldt. Frederick Mullock testified that he came from New York fourteen days ago; was stopping at Leck-feldt's honse; came here to work at his business, realering: was getting two dollars and a half per week; he landed in New York in 1861; had known eckfeldt four years; had given his papers to Leck-

Sergeant Magee testified to the arrest of the deendants, and to the finding of seven naturalization papers in Leckfeldt's house. After argument, Minnick, Leckfeldt and Mullock were held in $1500 bail, and Snitchel in $2000 bail for trial. Leckfeldt was liberated on Anthony Campbell, a member of Common Council from the Eleventh ward, going his bail.

CHOKED TO DEATH .- Jeremiah Sullivan, residurg in Taffen place, above Green street, was choked to death, on Saturday moroiuz, by a piece of meat lodging in his throat while at supper,

This is the same Mr. Wallace who instructe his employes, in 1867, "for every Democratic vote police over one hundred and ten, we will pay you a fixed sum after the election." This is the same Mr. Wallace who offered one hundred dollars per month. for three months to Michael O'Meara, to suppress his evidence in the Shugart contested election case, and yet this man, of all others, has the unblushing effrontery to accuse the brave men of the volum teer army and navy of a crime of which he stands notoriously convicted. The Soldiers' and Sailors' Committee of Pennsylvania cannot allow this gross and unpre-voked outrage upon the gratitude and huspi-tality of the generous people of Philadelphia to pass unrebuked. They feel that the Democra-tic leaders, indifferent, callous, or hostile while our loyal people, including the patriotic women of Philadelphia, were giving time, money, and the noblest of charities to our brave compan-ions on their way to and from victorious fields. are now even more hostile to the soldiers of the Republic as they rally under the sacred shadows of independence Hall to renew their love and devotion to the country they have saved.

If it were necessary to arouse a stronger spirit t hatred of treason and of the Democratic agents of treason in our midst, thus to summon here on the first and second days of October the survivore of the overwhelming host who deleated a Democratic Rebellion, this deliberate and gratuitous insult would accomplish the work. no such invocation is needed. We ask our com-rades to come in full force, and they are coming. We say to them, "Come one, come all," and they are responding.

They may be scandalized by those who have always ocen their enemies, but they will be welcomed by our great people with an onthusiasm even more magnetic than that which greeted them on the route to and from the scenes made immortal by their valor. Philadelphia city, renowned for its intelli-gence, refinement, generosity, loyalty, and hos-pitality, leaves the unenviable monopoly of traducing our guests, invited here to discharge a gra eful duty, to the authors of and sympa-tbizers with one bloody Rebeltion, and to the chiberate contrivers of another. By order of the committee.
