DEDICATION. - The new Hopewell M. E. Church, near Guthrieville, Chester co., was dedicated to the worship of Almighty God yesterday. Notwithstanding the rainy weather the exercises were well attended, and the day was a grand success. The church is a substantial stone edifice, having a basement story, and is forty feet front by fifty feet deep. Its cost is nearly $5000. The entire debt of $1200 was subscribed, and an excess of over $100 remains. Rev. T. A. Feinley preached the dedicatory sermon in the morning, Rev. T. C. Murphy preached in the afternoon, and the Rev. W. H. Eiliott at night. All of these gentlemen are well and favorably known in this city, and sustained fully their reputation as efficient ministers. The pastor, Rev. J. C. Gregg, and his excellent people are greatly rejoiced at the grand victory they have achieved in the good cause. Methodsen has had a name and a people at Hopewell for more than three-quarters of a century, and they will now go on and prosper more than

A STABBING CASE.—At half-past 12 o'clock this morning a difficulty occurred at New Market and Wilmam streets, between a number of men, Samuel McGlackin, a laborer in Malone's lumber yard. The injured man was stabbed in the shoulder. An slarm was given by some of the risidens, at d the crowd left. The police arrived soon on the ground and found McGlackin lying on the pavement. They took him to the hospital. No arrests were made.

REPLY OF MR. HIRST.

United States District Attorneyship. Continued from First Page.

Mr. Hirst, on behalf of Mr. O'Neili, in reply read the correspondence referring to this matter, which has been several times given to the public, and then proceeded to say:—The facts of this case as they appear upon the Legislative record seem to be, that on the 15th of March, 1864. Charles Glipin Esq., was made the United States Attorney for this District, the term of his office to continue four years, and according to the laws, he to be removable at the pleasure of the President. He was not removed, however, his term coming to its natural terminus, but he remaining in the office five months airerwards by the constructive suffrance of the departments. The nomination of Mr. O'Neili for this office was sent by the President to the Senate. The Senate adjourned without having taken any action upon this nomination, and then he was commissioned to proceed with the duties of the office till the next session of the Senate, On the 21st of September both Houses of Congress met and separated. The two acts of their meeting and adjournment were simultaneous; there was no executive session, no communication from alther House to the President. The two acts of their meeting and adjournment were simultaneous; there was no executive session, no communication from alther House to the President. The diversion of congress on the 27th of July was under the announcement made by the Speaker of the Senate, that they would take a recess until the 21st of this month All were agreed then that the business of the session was concluded: all were agreed as to the object of the recess, These were the incidents that came into the Court Mr. Hirst ciudeo: all were agreed as to the object of the recess, These were the incidents that came into the con ideration of this matter.

The three questions here before the Court Mr. Hirst conceived to be:—first, was Mr. Glipin entitted to not for the United States? second, was the appointment of Mr. O'Neill iswint, including the question whether it was made during a sitting or recess of the Senate? Ibirdly, did Mr. O'Neill's commission expire at the adjournment of the Senate on the 21st instant?

In considering the first question, Mr. Hirst asked for Mr. Glipin's title-papers, remarking that his term had expired long ago. Lord Ellenborough was quoted as saying that an "officer de facto was one who had the reputation of being the officer he assumed to be, but not that officer in law," According to all the authorities his right to the office cessed on the 15th of March 1888. He was completely out in law, because of the expiration of his term out in fact, because he was not recognized by the office of the Government.

But for the Tenure of office act, there would be not ernment.

But for the Tenure-of office act there would be no doubt as to the legality of Mr. O'Neill's appointment.

The Judge here said he would like to hear something upon the question whether the words of the Constitution regarding appointments by the President "happening during the recess" applied to vacancies occuring during a sersion and continuing until a recess.

dent "happening during the recess" applied to vacancies occuring during a sersion and continuing until a recess.

Mr. Hirst replied that the intention of Congress in passing the Tenure of Office Act would perhaps enlighten the Court. The ground for its passage was the evil existing in the President's power of applicament, by which he could make vacancies in removing offices during their terms of office and then give himself n any opportunities of appointingfanew, and to remedy this the act was passed. But he maintained that it did not apply to preventing the President from hiling a vacancy that had been made by the regular expiration of the term. In support of talls view, he cited the opiolous of Senator Sherman and of the President, expressed in his veto of the act. It would be singular, he said if this Court is add be forced to decide contrarily to it e understanding of the Senators who actually made the law, and of the President, to whose criticism and judgment it was submitted.

As to the letter of the law, which had not been pladed by the other side, who had in the correspondence relied merely upon the spirit of it, the first section of the law decia ed that, at the expiration of his term of office the officer should consume to exercise its functions until his soccessor ahoald be legally appointed, and the fourth section declared that nothing in this act contains d ahourd be construed to extend the term of any office,
At the cises of our report the argument had not been concluded.

Difficulties Among the Catholic Clergy of Chicago-Efforts to Depose Bishop Duggan-Heavy Robbery in Pittsburg-Death of an Ex-Congressman.

Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc.,

FROM CHICAGO.

The Difficulty Between the Catholic Clergy and Bishop Duggan-Attempt to Remove the Latter.

Special Despatch to The Evening Telegraph. CHICAGO, Sept. 28 .- The difficulty between Bishop Duggan and his priests seems to be spreading. The Bishop has withdrawn his oppressive deprivation of Mr. Role's official functions, and for some reason has not yet proceeded against either of the other priests.

Dr. McMullen has left this city, and has already visited several members of the American Hierarchy, preparatory to leaving for Europe-His friends and the friends of other clergymen have thought proper to make public the letter written on his leaving. The letter is as fol-

written on his leaving. The letter is as follows:—

SUNDAY EVENING, Sept. 20. — Right Rev. and Dear Bishop:—You have done me the honor more than once of signif-ing to me that I am sincere, honorable, and laborious in whatever I think, say, or do in all matters of importance pertaining to religion. I hope dear, bishop, that you will accord to me the same kindness of judgment while I state to you that I am convinced that it is my sacred duty to God, relibigion, and my fellow-men to do all I can within the bounds of truth and justice to-remove you from the Bishopric of Chicago. I am devoid of all the feelings that are not the kindest towards you. Should you ever need my assistance, dear bishop, it shall not be withheld.

Being one of those who believed it for your benefit to make such statements regarding your administration as would induce the Holy See to remove you from this diocese, and as you have thought it proper to remove the Rev. Joseph H. Roles as a punishment for having united with me and others in making these representations, I now, as a party concerned, appeal sgainst your action to the Holy See.

I wish to call your attention, dear bishep, to the canons of the Church in reference to appeals to superior tribunals, and especially to the Holy See, according to which, while the case is pending, I cannot be relieved from office or benefice. I therefore retain my parish, and request that you appoin a clergyman to attend to it during my absence.

Before this communication shall have reached you I shall be on my way to Rome. Farewell, then, dear bishop; you shall be remembered in my prayers. If we never meet again on earth, let us so demean ourselves as to be worthy of living with our Father who is in Heaven.

J. MULLEN, D. D.

It is supposed that, bringing this letter to the attention of the hishop.

It is supposed that, bringing this letter to the attention of the bishop, under the canon law allowing an appeal to Rome, the appellant cannot be deprived of his parish or benefice, and has had the effect of delaying, if not preventing altogether, the contemplated suspension of other clergymen.

Insurgent Operations in the Mountain Ranges-The Queen's Troops Unable to Advance-Extent and Standpoints of By Atlantic Cable.

London, Sept. 28.-Telegrams from Madrid dated Sa'urday evening, September 26, just received in this city, report that the evolutionary insurgents have cut and destroyed the railroad in the rear of the Sierra Morena, which of late years carried the traffic of the principal passes between Granada and Jaen to Madrid, and from Guadix to Villahermosa and Cuenca. As the culminating point of Aracena is at an elevation of 5500 feet above the sea, the operations in this direction are regarded as evineing an inclination on the part of the people to continue the war struggle in the mountains if necessary.

Prince Girgenti, husband of the Queen's daughter, returning from his visit to the Emperor Napoleon, in Paris, towards Madrid, by way of the Pyrenees, has joined the royal troops, but is compelled to remain with the soldiers in the mountain defites. A French squadron appeared off Barcelona, where the vessels remained at the latest moment, being stationed near the spot from which the city was bombarded in the year 1843 by order of the Regent Espartero. Discovery of a Plot to Assassinate General Grant-The Deed to be Committed After His Election to the Presidency.

A Raid on New York Policy Dealers -Fire in Troy.

Ete., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc.,

FROM WASHINGTON.

Proposed Assassination of Gen. Grant.

Special Despatch to The Evening Telegraph. WASHINGTON, Sept. | 28 .- A gentleman well known here, and an intimate friend of the late Thaddeus Stevens, says he has information of a plot formed by the Copperheads and Rebels in this city to assassinate General Grant, provided he is elected to the Presidency in November. It came to him through a trusty old colored woman, who states that she overheard the would-be assassins maturing their plans. It being known that General Grant has been in the habit of visiting the National Theatre here, generally occupying a seat in the orchestra, these villains propose that the first time he goes there after being elected President they will raise the cry of fire during the progress of the play, and while all is confusion they will shoot or stab Grant, hoping to escape detection in the general rush to get out. The National Theatre impossible for the people to get out during the confusion thus occasioned by the rush to escape.

It would be easy for desperate men like these to assassinate Grant, and then mingle with the Death of Count Walewski. the Son of Napoleon I.

tion-Saragossa Rebels-Movements of Gen. Prim's Fleet.

Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc.,

Paris, Sept, 28 .- Count Walewski, formerly President of the Corps Legislatif, and lately member of the Privy Council, died yesterday, aged 58 years. He was a son of Napoleon I by a Polish lady.

The Monteur has the following news from Alcony, a city of about 30,000 inhabitants, in Three ships appeared yesterday (Sunday) off the town of Carthagena. It is supposed they formed part of General Prim's fleet. Marshal Paiva, of the Royal army, is still recruiting. It is said that the town of Leon has pronounced for the rebels. It is also reported that Saragossa has rebelled, and that General Juan Peszuela, Count of Chesti, was killed.

Bosron, Sept. 28 .- The Fifth District Convention this morning renominated General Butler for Congress, giving him 175 votes to 4 scattering. He was sent for and received with great applause, making a speech in acceptance, in which he placed himself on a good gold-paying basis, and ridiculed the little clique of ambitious and disappointed politicians who opposed his renomination, and who are to have a caucus next week, as being virtual supporters of the Democrats. He affirmed the unity of princi-ples and action between himself and General rant, and presented a series of resolutions as
