FROM EUROPE.

Death of Count Walcwski.

By Atlantic Cable. Paris, Sept. 28 .- Count Walewski, formerly President of the Corps Legislatif, and lately member of the Privy Council, died yesterday, aged 58 years. He was a son of Napoleon 1 by a Polish lady.

The Moniteur has the following news from Alcony, a city of about 30,000 inhabitants, in the province of Alicante, has revolted. Three ships appeared yesterday (Sunday) off the town of Carthagens. It is supposed they formed part of General Prim's fleat.

Marshal Paiva, of the Royal army, is still re-cruiting. It is said that the town of Leon bas pronounced for the rebels. It is also reported that Saragossa has rebelled, and that General Juan Peszueia, Count o. Chesti, was killed.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28 .- The Board of Aldermen which, for more than three months past, has failed to effect a complete organization, adjusted their differences between the two political parties tonight, by the adopt'on of a resolution fixing that Alderman Richards, Republican, would resign the chair provided the board will elect another Republican to the place, and accordingly Richards resigned. Alderman Moore, Democrat, also resigned his claims to the same position. These gentlemen had both claimed to be elected President, and had often attempted, as civil officers, to conduct the proceedings at the same time. The difficulty being now removed, the board elected Alderman Grinder, Republican, President.

Republican, President.

The Alabama committee will probably leave Washington on their return to that State on Tuesday evening. They expect to-morrow, in accordance with the assurances of the President, that an order will be issued to General Meade to take the necessary precautionary measures to prevent disturb ances at the ensuing election, by a proper distribu-tion of troops now in Alabama and of those which may in addition be furnished.

A member of the Alabama Legislature, not con-nected with the committee, now here, says Governor Smith's veto of the bill authorizing the election of Smith's veto of the bill authorizing the election of Presidential electors by the Legislature has not yet been considered by that body.

It will probably be sustained, but a popular election to choose members of the electoral college requires additional legislation, about which there is no doubt. A majority of the Legislative Committee, now in Washington, are represented as opposed to any election, being apprehensive of bloody results, unless the Republicans allow it to go by default. The Governor and a majority of the comdefault. The Governor and a majority of the com-mittee, and possibly a majority of both branches of the Alabama Legislature, do not entertain these fears, and are favorable to taking the sense of the

The Texas Democracy.

Washington, Sept. 28.—Advices through army sources from an officer at Marshall, Texas, say that the country in his neighborhood and that of Shreveport is overrun by robbers; that all the roads are entirely unsafe except for considerable armed bodies, and that a freebooter roams the country with over 100 men, well mounted and armed. About the 1st inst. they captured a train of forty govern-ment wagons loaded with supplies. The commanding officer at Sulphur Springs, Texas, a post garrisoned by a small company of the 26th infantry, had sent an express to Gen. Hayden, commanding at Marshall, stating that if not re-inforced; this garrison, which was surrounded, would be slaughtered. A company of the 15th infantry, and lifty picked men besides, had just started to reinforce him.

Naval Changes.

Commander Homer C. Blake is ordered to the command of the Swatara, belonging to the Eu-ropean squadron, relieving Commander Jeffers. Tobacco and Snuff.

Commissioner Rollins, in reply to a tobaceo firm in Lynchburg, says that all their tobacco and snuff, most of which is branded tax free, having been manufactured prior to 1882, while the remainder is branded from five to fifteen cents per pound, which shall not be disposed of prior to Jauuary 1 next, and all which they may purchase, tax paid, but not packed and stamped according to law, and have on hand, will have to be repacked and stamped after

The Case of Mudd, Arnold and Spangler. The Attorney General's Office has received a copy of the opinion of Judge Boynton, of the Southern District of Florida, on the application for a writ of habeas corpus to release from imprison ment Mudd, Arnold and Spangler, who were sen tenced by military commission in the spring of 1865 to confinement at Dry Tortugas, on conviction of conspiracy to take the life of Abraham Lincoln. The two points relied upon in support of the affirmation of this question were: First. The military commission had, at the time and place at which it was held, no jurisdiction to try and sentence for the offence with which those persons were charged. Second. If they were rightfully imprisoned up to the 4th of July last, they were pardoned by the President's proclamation of that date and ought now to be set at liberty. Ex parte Milligan was a case in point. tenced by military commission in the spring of gan was a case in point.

He found no difficulty in classing the offence as a military one; and with this opinion arrived at, the conclusion followed that the proper tribunal for the trial of these engaged in it was a military tribunal. The proclamation plainly excludes all persons standing in the position of these petitioners, whe-ther they have been convicted or not. It pardons the rine of treason. That is, it pardons persons who have levied war against the United States, or given aid and comfort to their enemies, within the laws and usages of war; but it pardons no person who has transgressed the laws of war—no spy, no assassin, and no person who has been guilty of bar-barous treatment to prisoners. For these reasons, elaborately set forth, the writ was denied.

Sales of Arms Prohibited.

The Secretary of War has issued an order sus pending for the present the sale of all government arms, ammunition, &c.

Jeff. Davis' Trial. It is believed in official quarters that Jefferson Davis will not be tried in the October term of the United States Court in Virginia.

From Arkansas.

MEMPRIS, Tenn., Sept. 28.—The Avalanche's Helena (Arkansas), letter of yesterday says: Yesterday morning Deputy Sheriff Joe W. Maley, with a posse, surrounded the cabin of a notorious man named Lec Morrison, who had killed several pernamed Lee Morrison, who had killed several persons last winter. He shot and maimed for life Sheriff Bart Taylor, on attempting to arrest him, and recently knocked the jailor in the head and escaped to the hills, where he has been a terror to all the people.

No sooner had the Sheriff's posse knocked at the door yesterday, when Morrison fired, instantly killing Mr. Maley. The others attempted to close on him, when he made desperate resistance, severely wounding Perry Neagle, and Andy Barnes.

Buffalo.

Buffalo, Sept. 28.—A fire occurred this evening in Adams' block, in Washington street, near the Post-office, occasioned by the bursting of a gas pipe in the basement of the Commercial Advertiser newspaper office. A large five-story building in the rear was entirely destroyed, occupied by Matthews & Warner, proprietors of the Commercial Advertiser and an extensive job printing office, Adams & Co., wholesale tobacco manufacturers, and Clay, Cosack & Co., lithographers.

The front building was occupied by the above named parties, also by the Platt Fruit and Oyster Company, assessors of internal revenue and several law offices. The loss is probably $250,000. Matthews & Warner lost their entire stock—tripe, preserves, paper, &c., valued at $110,000. Insurance $68,000. The other losses are generally insured. The internal revenue papers were saved.

The furniture establishment of Briton & Harrison, in Janesville, Wisconsin, together with a block of wooden buildings adjoining, were destroyed by fire yesterday morning. Loss, $25,000; insurance, $16,000. The fire is supposed to be the work of an

The Nomination of General Butler.

SALEM, Sept. 28.—General Butler, after his nomination by the Republican Convention for Congress to-day, was called before the Convention and made a speech. He was frequently interrupted by appliause. He said: By this cordial greeting, by your personal kindness, by the high benor of a nomination as a representative worthy of the support of the Republican party of the district, conferred with such manimity. such unanimity, I am made so deeply your debtor as to be too poor in thanks ever to repay. I can acknowledge the obligation only by renewed efforts in your service in the duties which you have devolved upon me. For I do not permit myself to doubt that in Massachusetts, in Essex district, a nomination so unanimously made by the delegates of the Republican party, classen by its primary as-semblies in every town and city in the district, is an election.

In so believing 1 am not unmindful that the names of some one hundred and fifty persons, obtained after the most persistent drumming, have appeared, attached to a call asking "All their fellow-citizens opposed to returning Gen. Butler to Congress, and who cannot in honor sanction or be responsible for the issue he has himself raised, to meet in this city on Monday next." If all should come who would be eligible and sympathetic under such a call, I should, indeed, fear the result, notwithstanding your hearty and efficient support. Seymour and Blair, Lee and Beauregard, Wade Hampton and Forrest, Wise, Mumford and Booth, all the rebei hosts, living and dead, will fraternize with the signers of that call in a movement to opwith the signers of that call in a movement to op pose the return of General Butler to Congress, and each of them will lay his hand on the place where his heart ought to be, and affirm upon his traitorous honor that he cannot sustain the issues Gen. Butler

For himself, during the last seven years he has been in the service of his country. The safety of the Republican party of this district lies in the fact that there are too few men of that mind in Massachusetts, and especially in Essex, to make a meeting inconveniently large, nor am I frightful of the common rumors that these gentlemen and their coadjutors have raised $40,000 with which to pur-chase the defeat of the Republican party in this district.

He stated that the sum was too small, and that forty millions could not accomplish the defeat of the Republican party and himself in that district. He admitted the right of men to vote for whom they chose; but said no man who belongs to the party, and claims to act with that party and for its good, has a right to organize his own views and wishes against the properly expressed will of the party through its regularly constituted authorities. To do so is to rebel, and by so doing he puts himself outside the party outside the party.

He continued to denonnee the action of the gentlemen who have opposed his nomination, and charged that his financial views were only the pre-text, not the real cause of their opposition. These financial opinions harmonized with those of Senainancial opinions harmonized with those of Sena-tors Sherman and Morton, and other members of the party. Upon this question he announced him-self as agreeing fully with the Chicago platform— "that the national honor requires the payment of the public indebtedness in the utmost good faith to all the bondholders, at home and abroad, not only according to the letter, but the spirit of the law under which it was contracted." I am not con-scious of having uttered anything which contra-venes it.

He agreed with the platform also that the time for paying the debt should be extended over a long period, and that it should be funded at a lower rate of interest. While he had said the letter of the law would permit the payment of the debt in greenbacks, he believed the latter should be paid in gold as soon as the resources of the nation will admit of it. With the election of General Grant assuring peace in the south, prosperity would return and in-crease throughout the whole country, rendering this question one of no importance.

At the close of his speech General Butler pre-sented a resolution embodying the general princi-ples of the progressive Republican party, which was unanimously adopted, and the Convention ad-iourned.

Cricket Match.

Boston, Sept. 28.—The international cricket match between the All England eleven and the match between the All England eleven and the United States twenty-two, selected from the Boston and other clubs in Massachusetts, the St. George and other New York clubs, and Young America and other Philadelphia clubs, began to-day. A heavy rain set in on Saturday night and continued all through Sunday and Sunday night. To-day it cleared off and the weather is fine.

The ground was very wet, the new turf soft and the outer field rough, with water standing in pools. Willsher says it is the worst ground he ever saw. There was a large attendance of spectators. The twenty-two won the toss, and put the eleven to the wicket, against Norley and Charles Newhall's bowling, which, together with the fielding, was very good. very good.

It was supposed that it would be impossible for it was supposed that it would be impossible for it was so the eleven to get runs, because the ground was so dead. The fielding was very sharp. The play commenced at two o'clock, with Humphreys and Jupp going to the bat. They were very cautious. On the seventh over Humphreys and Jupp going to the bat. They were very cautious. On the seventh over Humphreys was caught by Norley in a slip from Newhall; one wicket down for three runs. On the thirty-seventh over Jupp was bowled out by Norley for only three runs, after he had assisted Smith running thirty. On the next over Smith was caught by Hammond from Newhall at the point; three wickets down, thirty-three runs. Griffith and Freeman went together to the bats. Freeman was bowled out by Newhall, the stump being ripped out of the ground. The score now stood four wickets down and 35 runs. The betting was decidedly in favor of the twenty-two. Kowbotham then joined Griffith, who was batting freely, but Rowbotham soon retired for one run, having been caught out by Newhall, bowled by Norley. Five wickets down and 48 runs. Pooley went in on the 43d over, and went out for only five runs, when time was called on the 53d over. 250 balls had been thrown. Griffith went out for 41 runs by brilliant batting. The total
