MADRID, Oct. 1.—Generals Prim and Serrano have arrived here. The citizens are arming themselves, and have occupied the gun-houses and military posts outside the city. Barcelona has joined the revolution. The Count of Chest has fled from Spain. The foreign residents here are sending deputations to the Provisional Junta, now in session, to congratulate them on the success of the patriotic movement.

LONDON, Oct. 1.—Madrid is reported quiet. A provisional Junta has been organized, with Major as president. No measures have yet been taken looking to the future of the country, beyond denouncing the plan for a republic, nor will there be any until the arrival of Generals Prim and Serrano at the capital.

The battle between Pavia and Serrano occurred at Alcala, near Cordova, and was very short, with but few losses on either side.

LONDON, Oct. 1.—The success of the revolutionary movement in Spain, ending as it has in the expulsion of Isabella, gives rise to much speculation as to her probable success. It is generally believed that the dislike of the Emperor Napoleon to the Orleans family is fatal to the hopes of the Montpensiers, and that a Carlist will be chosen to rule over Spain as regarded as impossible. The ancient rights of the house of Savoy to the throne of Spain are discussed, and the Duke of Aosta, the second son of King Victor Emmanuel, is talked of as an available candidate.

LONDON, Oct. 1.—The passenger trains on the Spanish frontier have been withdrawn, and the Spanish fighters have been arrested at the boundary line. The frontier has been released.

PARIS, Oct. 1.—La France today discusses the prospects of Spain, and predicts that the present revolution will be followed by a violent civil war. The Monitor of this morning gives the following account of the late movements of the Spanish Court:

Queen Isabella and the members of the royal family who were with her at San Sebastian crossed the frontier on September 30th, and immediately proceeded to Biarritz, where the Queen had an interview with Napoleon and Eugenie, after which Queen Isabella and her family left for the Castle of Pau, which has been assigned as her residence during her sojourn in France.

So far as known here, Mr. Seward's Commissioner Wells has no intention of replying to Delmar's statements about the financial condition of the Government.

Secretary Seward, who was detained at home yesterday by sickness, was at the State Department to-day in improved health.

In the House, yesterday, two more whites from the parish of Iberville were unseated, and replaced by two negroes. The majority report of the Election Committee in this case states that the white men whose seats are contested were nominated by the majority of the electors, upon which the seats were contested were disproved, and recommending that the whites be confirmed. A minority report, signed by negroes, insisting that the seats were contested were disproved, and recommending that the whites be confirmed.

From Alabama.

MONTEGOMERY, Oct. 1.—The Legislature has passed through both Houses a registration bill, which awaits the Governor's signature, who will probably return from Washington with the committee to-morrow.

It is thought the bill has been delayed so long that the registers will not complete their work in time for the Presidential election. The feeling is still quite strong with the Republican nominees, who recognize the necessity of conforming to existing laws, and that the Convention will entertain the name of no person as a candidate for election who cannot qualify under these laws.

From Missouri.

The Democrats subsequently serenaded Mr. Wood, who made an elaborate rejoinder to Mr. Craig. Both speakers were frequently interrupted, and considerable excitement was created.
