THE DAILY EVENING TELEGRAPH-PHILADELPHIA, MONDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1868.

DRY GOODS.

Musical Notes.

-Offenbach thinks himself badly used because he is unable to derive any revenue from the performance of his works in the United States. He is pleased, however, with their popularity; and the artists who are to present them before the American public have his well wishes, as will be seen from the following letter written by him to Madame Rose Bell, of Grau's +roupe:-

(Toupe:--"VILLA OBPHER, ENTRETAT, August 11, 1885.-My Dear Madame.-1 feel happy to hear that you leave for New York with the view of interpreting my works. I am persuaded that the public of America, who are so enlightened, will give you the same recor-nition which you have met everywhere. Your suc-cease here has been great, but with your talent it was to be expected. Go then, dear Madame seek Hew trumphs; none merit them more than you. Au re-woir? Be kind enough to let me hear from you, and often.

Receive the assurance of my most distinguished sentiment. Offenbach is also eratified at the fine style in which his operas are brought out in this country, and the following extracts from a letter written by him to his musical publisher, M. G. Mundres, indicate his sentiments on this subject:-

"I am in receipt of the letter in which you notify me that Mr. J. Grau has sugaged for the Theatre Fran-cals in New York Mad'lies Desclaums and Fontanel. I feel very happy of it. I knew aiready of the en-gagement of Madame Ross B. J. and have written her a letter of congratulation. There is, indeed, a beau it-ful trie of talent.

a letter of congratulation. There is, indeed, a beau i-ful trio of taleut. "I have beard thrown friend Carrier of the engare-ment of Mesara. Beckers. Bourgoin, Gabel, Genat, and Goby, who have all been the interpreters of my works. I say not to them deliew, but au revolr. "I see that my works will be mound ed in royal man-mer by M. Grau. I know by experience how difficult it is to obtain, even in Parks, a similar array of talent, and I feel flattered to see that my works will be inter-preted in A merice by artists whome scones cannot preted in America by artists whose success caugot be doubtful. New York becomes thus a second Paris and the Attantic exists no more."

-Mad'lle Pauline Lucca has been exciting much enthusiasm in Leipsic by her performance of "Marguerite" in Gounod's Faust.

-Signorina Josefina Filomewa's concert performances at Chickering's Hall, New York, are much praised by the critics. It is said that both on the violin and plano she is equally artistic, finished, and brilliant,

-R. Wittig & Co., No. 1021 Chesnut street. have recently published "All the Bage," galop, by Frank Schaefer; "On the Beach at Long Branch," schottische, by R. Wittig; "Lullaoy," waltz, by Frank Schaefer; "Remembrance," waltz, by J. L. Cox; "Alaska," mazoarkaby Frank Schaefer.

Dramatic Notes.

-Two new plays by Mr. H. J. Byron, entitled Blow for Blow and The Lancashire Lass, have been performed with much success in England. -A new play by Mr. Palgrave Simpson, entitled Time and the Hour, has been successfully produced at the Boston Museum. Two of the leading characters were performed by Mr. William Warren and Mr. W. H. Smith. -The legitimate drama will supersede the sensational at Niblo's Garden, New York, on the 12th inst. Mr. Edwin Forrest will then commence an engagement of four weeks, and After Dark will be brought out. Niblo's is now under the management of Messrs. Jarrett & Palmer.

-"Circe," the rather indifferent novel which was published as the work of Mr. Babbington White, but which was with some show of reason attributed to Miss Braddon, who was accused of having stolen it bodily it from a French author, has been dramatized by Mr. A. O. Halsey and Mr. Frank W. Potter, of the Newark Courier, and it will be brought out during the present season at one of the New York theatres. The novel is not a first-class one, but we think that a good play might be constructed from it. -At Astley's, in London, a four-act play entitled The Conquest of Magdala has been produced in handsome style, with fine sconery, real horses and donkeys, and a whole army of actors and supernumeraries. -Leotard, the famous gymnast, contemplates a visit to the United States, and in alluding to this intention one of the Parisian journals makes the following remarks:-"He is about to try the pulse of the people of the United States; but if he hopes to make money there he must perform very differently from what he has been doing of late, and particularly at the Alhamora in London, where, although still run after, he was thought far inferior to his wondrous feats of former years. America furaishes, perhaps, the greatest number of superior gymnasts in the whole world, and there, at least, a quiet, languid style of trapeze-plause."

COUNSEL FOR THE CARELESS .- The body is a machine, and carelessness in its management is as sure to lead to evil results as carelessness in the management of a steam engine. Yet the last thing that most people think of is the projection of this delicate plece of the Creator's handlwork from the subtle causes of disease by which it is surrounded. It is no easy thing to repair the system when in rains; but there is no difficulty in fortifying it against many of the dangers to which it is exposed. Guard against nervous debility. At the first symptom of this forerunner of more serious allments, sustain the flagging energies of nature with HOSTETTAR'S STOMACH BIT TERS. Take is regularly and persistently, nucli bodily vigor is theroughly restored. It creates an appellie promotes-or, it might as properly be said competathe complete digestion of the food, regulates the Secretive action of the liver tones and invigorates the bowels, improves the condition of the blood, and gives firm ness to the nerves. Upon a system thus strengtheoed and regulated in all its important functions, the fogs and exhibitions of autumn, pregnant with the elements of intermittent and remittent fever, can make illue or no impression. Whoeve supposes that fever and sgua is an undeotidable evil in certain districts, at this meason of the year, is egregiously mistaken. As effectually as a draught of cold air is shut out by the closing of a door, this complaint, and all disorders of a mlasmatic type may be prevented by the use of the BITTERS. When sickness can be avoided by a means so safe and simple, is it not the merest fatulty to nealect the proffered antifote? Regarded either as a preventive or a cure for dyspepsis, billousness, intermittent fever, nervous cisorders, general debility, or constipation of the bowels, this pure vegetable oreparation stands alone.

JEWELRY .- Mr. William W. Cassidy, No. 12 South Second street, has the largest and most attractive assortment of fine jewelry and silverware in the city. Purchasers can rely upon obtaining a real, pure articie furnished at a price which cannot be equalled. He also has a large stock of American watches in all varieties and at all prices.
