

FROM EUROPE BY CABLE.

LONDON, Oct. 8.—At the time for the election of members to the new Parliament news near, the interest and excitement in the canvass increases, and many boroughs that have heretofore been hopelessly Tory, are now contested by the Whigs, who are counting on the favorable effects of the bill for increasing the number of voters, and other liberal measures passed by the last Parliament. In four boroughs workingmen's candidates have been brought forward, and the prospects of their success are very favorable. The election of Mr. Gladstone in Lancashire south is generally despaired of, but he will unquestionably be chosen from Greenwich, a strongly liberal district, where he is also a candidate. With one or two other exceptions the Liberal candidates oppose the Irish Church bill.
